Foreword

Haec olim meminisse juvabit

It will be pleasant to remember these things hereafter. All the things, individual and communal, curricular and extra-curricular, unique and commonplace, which occupied us, the class of 1941, and surrounded us, excited and depressed us during three years at A. H. S.,—the fellow students, known and unknown; the teachers; the classes, the clubs; the victories and their heroes, the incomprehensible defeats; the building itself, which dwindled in those three years from a sprawling, unfriendly giant to a familiar net-work of halls and rooms encircling the auditorium—home of assemblies and study halls,—all these will be pleasant to remember. Let this book, the '41 Comus, be a tangible reminder of all these things.

Alma Mater

All hail our Alma Mater dear,
Our voice of praise and glory hear.
To whom all reverence we bear,
Of you forgetful we'll be ne'er,
We shall forever for you yearn,
And cherish all that we may learn.
Through future days of life,
'Mid joy and strife;
True may we stand, both to you
And Canary and Blue.

Throughout the land of you we'll sing,
Loud will our praises ever ring,
Of days that have passed by,
Fond memories of dear old high.
Oh, Alma Mater; hear our praise
To you all honor we do raise.
Through future days of life,
'Mid joy and strife,
True may we stand, both to you
And Canary and Blue.

Class Poem

Gone.
Flown is the time for selfish tears,
For they belong to childish years;
With heads raised high, we face a world
Now torn with strange ideals and soiled
By some who would profane our youth.
World! we give ourselves to thee,
But not to your strangle-hold of fear—
We come, eager to work, to free
Ourselves of insane hate and care.
Our arms are strong, our talents true,
Our will is resolute; our souls are new.
Take us, world! We ask for nothing of you—
We cherish no false hopes of unearned ease;
Our strength shall be wielded to build a world of peace.

Mahlon L. Frankenfield

Dedication

It is the good fortune of the class of 1941 to have the opportunity to dedicate its yearbook to a man whose influence is by no means limited to this one class, but who has left his mark on every class that has been graduated during his stay here.

Dapper in spite of the countless hours he has spent in the lecture room and the laboratory, he has built up, not only in this school, but in the colleges where his students go, a reputation for thoroughness.

Although only a comparatively small number from each class have attempted physics, those who have will never forget the hours they spent in Room 301, or the facts they learned therein. To the rest of the class, Mr. Frankenfield is by no means unknown. His white hair and gleaming pince-nez, his debonair air and his smile-provoking smile, make him a person impossible to overlook.

Many of the fathers and mothers and uncles and aunts of the students today delight to tell stories about him and his classes. A generation from now embryo scientists will still be hearing stories, all tributes to the versatility and wisdom of Mahlon L. Frankenfield, pedagogue, scientist, philosopher.

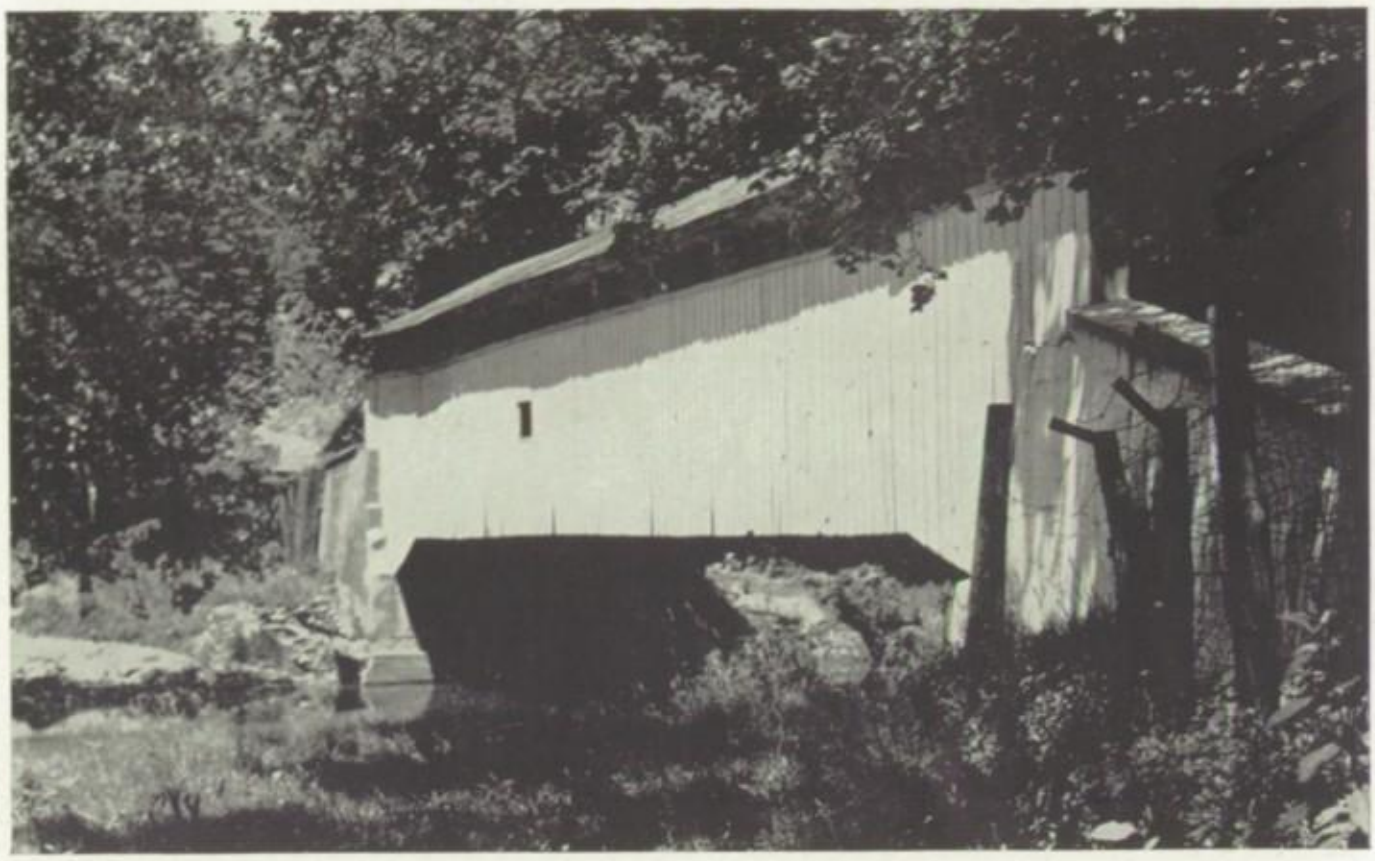
Allentown Game Preserve

Ten miles north of Allentown lies the latest addition to the city park system, the Trexler-Lehigh Game Preserve. Here for the past thirty years have roamed deer, elk, and bison, in eleven hundred acres of natural surroundings.

It was in the year 1911 that the late General Harry C. Trexler carried through his plan of establishing a herd of bison on his Lehigh County estate. He had consulted such authories as Buffalo Bill, Pawnee Bill, and the naturalist, William C. Hornaday, and had become convinced that buffalo could thrive on eastern grazing land. Had not, the General recalled, buffalo been found in the East in the days of Daniel Boone? So he fenced off a large portion of his farmland in the north part of the county, and ordered three buffalo and about fifty deer and elk.

They arrived in Schnecksville in huge crates, looking like a circus procession. Schnecksville, meanwhile, had declared an unofficial holiday, and the entire population turned out to watch the unloading and the release of the strange cargo. As each crate was opened, an animal would emerge, and to the astonishment of the people crowded around, would fleet out across the hill into the enclosure. One not very obliging bull buffalo, however, set about goring a bystander. It was only the quick thinking of another man, who threw a coat over the animal's head, that saved him. One of the other buffalo was almost ready to die when he arrived. One day a playful young bull gave him a push, and he fell over dead. In the newspaper appeared a glowing account of how the young bull and the old bull battled for several days and nights for the leadership of the herd . . . how the two buffaloes churned up acres of ground, threw clods of dirt as they locked horns, kicked and gored one another, and how finally the old bull was subdued in death.

From that time to the present there have been many real battles for leadership on the order of this imaginary one. These huge and noble beasts eat, reproduce, battle for supremacy in the preserve, just as they would in a completely wild state. Now, in 1941, the herd numbers around twenty animals altogether. This is too many for eleven hundred acres, so that it is necessary biennially to keep all the animals in a fenced half of the park, while the ground in the other half develops a sturdy growth of grazing grass.



Covered Bridge Across Jordan Creek

Each winter the herd is put into winter quarters. Before it is let loose on the range in late spring, each buffalo, deer, and elk must undergo an antiseptic dipping. This makes him just a little better off than a wild animal.

By General Trexler's will, this remarkable private preserve became the property of the City of Allentown in 1935. Between 1936 and 1939 a government project set to work to beautify the spot. Twelve miles of paved roads were built, picnicking places were cleared, fences were improved, and sections needing reforesting were reforested. The entire area of the park lies in the watershed of the picturesque Jordan Creek. The river, the meadows, the grassy slopes and shaded forests, make the Game Preserve a place of unusual natural beauty. In the year 1940 more than twenty thousand persons from all sections of the nation visited the preserve. Its reputation has spread far and wide.

The Preserve has had many interesting and unexpected uses. Its primary purpose is to be a public park. Visitors are welcomed and provision is made for picnicking parties. The quiet and naturalness of the area has attracted scores of rare and beautiful birds: egrets, herons, kingfishers, and eagles. The place is rich in wild life.

Then again, buffalo from the Trexler-Lehigh Preserve have been sent to zoos and other preserves in this section of the country. Buffalo meat is by no means the most tender or delicious for most people, but there is still some demand for it, and the Preserve fills that demand each year. Restaurant chains in New York and New Jersey have used Lehigh County buffalo as a special delicacy for the menus. The meat is really quite cheap—ten cents a pound—but you must take the whole buffalo when you buy it. In this way the management of the Preserve has devised a profitable way of keeping down the numbers of the herd. Along with the bequest of the game preserve came an annual endowment that has proved more than adequate to care for the project.

1941 Class History

On September 6, 1938, hundreds of boys and girls first met as a new sophomore class of Allentown High School. When the 8:00 bell rang—school started early that year—the Class of '41 made its official debut. Much of their money they spent the first week buying elevator passes to keep the seniors happy. But many of the boys were working hard in preparation for the time when they would represent A. H. S. on the gridiron, on the court, or in the pool. That year we gave our support and talents to the inter-class play, "320 College Avenue." It was a year of learning to work together as a class.

Our junior year saw us traveling to the New York World's Fair, and right back in time for Monday's classes. These were our first school trips. That year, familiar names were appearing in the lineups of the games. Some of the leading roles and supporting parts in the inter-class play, "What a Life," were taken by our members. Our own class play, "The Haunted High School," was a big success. As a class, we were in transition; we had turned our backs on our sophomore days and experiences, looked around, and were satisfied for a while, and finally looked ahead to our coming year as seniors.

The memory of our senior year is still fresh. Our football team distinguished itself by holding Bethlehem to a scoreless tie. In basketball, we went into the play-offs after defeating Hazleton. It was the year of that long Christmas vacation, of "Galahad Jones," and of the school's first aquacade.

We've done a lot of things together. The Class of '41 will never again root our high school team to victory, or sing the Alma Mater in Monday morning assemblies. We've worked hard, and played hard, and as in baseball it's a case of "three strikes and you're out."

Poem

NOW I AM GROWN THAT WAS A CHILD

Now I am grown that was a child;

From the cradle of Youth
I step unfaltering.

Alone I pick my way
Through the forest of Hate,
The sea of Oppression.

Before, they held my hand
When the hurdle was high.
Now I am grown.

"Find the path alone,"
They tell me when
The guidepost is blurred.

And tears bestreak my cheeks
When the road that I so bravely trod
Ends distant from my goal.

But I must hide my fears,
For was it not myself who bragged,
"Some day I shall be free?"

"Some day," said I,
"The wind will kiss my cheek
And beckon me to come.

Then I shall break my bonds
In two, and let my
Compass needle quiver as it will.

They shall not set my course," Spoke I; "the wind shall Be my guide."

Since then I've learned
The wind is fickle,
The road oft camouflaged,

And I soon cry to them
To help me to my feet.

Just yesterday I was a child.

ABRAHAM, THELMA IRENE "Blackie"

Commercial

"Laughing and dancing wherever she goes
Knocking down troubles and picking up beaus"

Thelma is the dark-eyed, dark-haired beauty of our senior class. A very intelligent girl, she knows her shorthand. A happy go-lucky and good-hearted girl is this young lady. Have you ever seen her jitterbug? If you haven't, you surely are missing something. She has her ears wide open when you mention anything about some cute fellows. We don't blame her. Do we all!

National Honor Society, 4.

ACKER, CURTIS LENORD "Curt"

Commerical

"What's yours is mine, but what's mine is my own."

The world seems dizzy, but Curtis can get along anyway. He is easy to make friends with so long as people are willing to make friends with him, but bashful among strangers. Get him with a gang he knows, and it's a different story. He is about 5 ft. 3 in., weighs about 122, and has blonde hair, likes roller skating, swimming, and—"a little" dancing.

ACKER, ROBERT A. "Bob"

Commercial

"He who laughs last is a bit dumb"

Bob is fond of amusements in any form, gets along with others well, and makes friends easily. He is interested in fishing, football, baseball; doesn't like too much homework; doesn't like to get up early in the morning; but does like to argue about politics and to root loudly at football games. He is always ready to go on a trip. Whatever his plans are, we all wish him luck.

ACKERMAN, DORIS MAE "Doris"

General

"In whatever corner she curls
She radiates pleasantness, and girls
And boys congregate there."

There's never a dull moment with Doris. She's easy to get along with, and has many friends, but she keeps things going. She loves to crochet, to ride a bike, to go to the movies, to go to football and basketball games, and to cheer for her team. Doris is going to study nursing at Temple University, and she hopes to remain there as a nurse. We wish her the success and the happiness that she always brings to other people.

Chorus, 3, 4; Gym Club, 4; Senior Basketball, 4.

ADAMS, BETTY DEANE "Betz"

General

"Words are like leaves for where they most abound, Much fruit of sense beneath is seldom found."

She is apparently a quiet girl, but she always has a joke stored away in her memory. Her independent spirit has won many friends. She is somewhat studious-looking as she sits in study hall with a book on her lap, but her mind is really preoccupied with—perhaps it's music, for she is interested in music, and sang in the chorus in her Senior year. She enjoys horseback riding, tennis, swimming and baseball.

ADAMS, BETTY L. "Betts"

General

"She is pretty to walk with,
And witty to talk with,
And pleasant, too, to think on."

Betty's attractive personality is often hidden behind an air of reserve. A true, loyal, kind, sincere friend, 'Betts' is always willing, if able, to help everyone. If her mind is set on something, she'll work hard to attain it. She enjoys skating, dancing, music, and sports. For quite a long time she's had hopes of becoming a nurse in some large hospital.

Y. W. C. A., 4; Historical Society, 4.

ADAMS, CATHERINE MAE "Kitty"

Commercial

"A friendly smile
Makes life worthwhile."

Catherine is a hard worker. Her motto is "Do your work, and do it right, and you'll have no worries." She is quiet and studious in the classroom and full of fun outside. She is a true friend on whom you can depend at all times. Kitty likes to go to football and basketball games. She goes about her work happily and never shirks a task.

ADAMS, EDNA MAE "Eddie"

General

"A devoted friend, tried and true."

Edna is ambitious, studious, and hopes some day to enter the Allentown Hospital School of Nursing. She has made a good record at high school, and has been a member of the high school chorus for two years. Cheerful, talkative, and fun loving, she is here, there, and everywhere. Edna is always in a hurry, but she's never on her way to any particular place, and always has time to stop and cheer you up if you need it. That friendly disposition will be a great advantage to her and to her patients in the profession which she will soon enter.

ADAMS, RONALD B. "Ronnie"

Science and Engineering

"Work makes one lazy; why work?"

Ronald is a studious lad who takes much interest in his schoolwork. He enjoys algebra and trigonometry and has attained one of the highest marks in trigonometry in his class. Ronald, who is also very fond of dancing, spends much time in learning new steps, which he is always anxious to try out. He builds model airplanes, too, but has had some trouble when it comes to flying them. Ronald expects to go to college and to find work in the field of science.

ADDA, MARY T. "Mary"

General

"Learn, laugh, live and love."

Mary is a vivacious brunette with a winning smile and a personality that is overwhelmingly attractive. She holds her many friends, however, because of her sincerity. Behind her big, sparkling brown eyes is a keen sense of humor too, although, on the serious side, Mary can also show her wit.

Mary swims, and dances, of course, for she's a good live American girl, and she's a joy to all who know her, and what's more, to all who work with her.

ALBRIGHT, MARGARET LOUISE "Margie"

General

"Good humor is goodness and wisdom combined."

Margie, one of the most faithful and ardent supporters of football and basketball games, is also among those present at plays or dances. Her purse is always bulging with tickets for school affairs, Y. W. C. A., Sorority, and the several other organizations to which she belongs. Yet despite these varied interests, she still finds time to eat, to sleep, and to do her homework well enough to be on the Honor Roll. Next September Margie hopes to enter Moravian College to take the secretarial course.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; German Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

ALEX, SHIRLEY M. "Shirl"

General

"She stepped upon Sicilian grass,
A child of light, a radiant lass."

Shirley is stern in her determinations, and will accomplish what she sets out to do. Pleasant, cheerful, and dark eyed, she is liked by everyone.

Shirley can be studious and is when the spirit moves her. She loves school activities and is an all round good sport. Shirley is one of the gals you see everywhere and like to have around.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

· COMUS ·

ALEXANDER, ALBERT "Alex"

Engineering and Science

"You can judge a man's intelligence by his love of noise."

Alex is a swell classmate. His one weakness is that many times he will attempt to answer a question before he knows the answer. Alex finds his greatest pleasure in mathematics. If anybody needs a friend, page Albert, for he's always good to help anyone if it is within his power. We wish for him every happiness that life can offer.

ALLSOP, THELMA G. "Thel"

General

"A blush may be pretty and in Thelma it is."

Thelma is that popular girl who loves dancing, swimming, basketball, hockey and skating, anything noisy, in fact. She has a definite personality that has made her many friends. During her years at A. H. S. she has worked at the 19th Street Theatre, and at home she works at the radio. After leaving school Thelma intends to go to business college, and we bet she'll pound that typewriter. All her friends wish her lots of luck during her college days.

ANDERSON, DORIS "Jo-Jo"

Commercial

"Link perfect music unto nobler words."

Walking may tire some people, but Doris is a real hiking enthusiast. She's pretty busy in school, too, as her marks indicate. Seeing "all the movies in town" is Jo-Jo's delight, and she does see most of them. So if you ever want a treat just ask her to sing some popular songs for you. A singing stenographer would be an asset to any office. Western Union ought to take notice. Fancy Jo-Jo singing you a happy birthday message over the phone.

ANDERSON, WALTER "Andy"

General

"If the speaker does not strike in ten minutes, he should stop boring."

Andy has been going to school for a real purpose. He hopes to join the Army Air Corp after he graduates, where he will work for a commission in the army. If he doesn't get that, Walter would like to be a pilot for an airline.

Although flying takes up most of his thoughts and time, Andy likes to draw cartoons, and has contributed several clever ones to the Canary.

This versatile gentleman also likes jitterbugging and swimming. With such varied interests and talents he can fit into any one of several places in the world.

Walter Anderson

ANDRES, ELEANOR "Ellie"

College Entrance

"Foot-loose and fancy free"

If more people in the world patterned their lives after the Andres style, the world would be a merrier place to live in. Eleanor enjoys life to its fullest limit. Her interests center around swimming, gymnastics, dancing, and having a grand time in general. As a matter of fact, her relatives spend their time inventing non-escapable gadgets to keep Ellie home. Latest reports say that she is still dashing about unhindered. Dash on, Ellie, but don't forget your friends.

Chorus, 3, 4; Gym Team, 3, 4; Swimming, 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Vice-President of Girl Reserve Council, 4.

ANDREWS, KATHRYN ELIZABETH "Kitty"

General

"To know her is to believe her."

Kitty is small, but mighty in words and deeds. Although usually quiet, on a subject in which she is interested she really goes into action.

A great lover of sports, she rarely misses a football or basketball game, a movie, a chance to skate, swimming, or a meal. She displays great talent in music too.

Kitty's plans are not definite, but her determination will get her whatever she sets out to get.

ANELLO, VIRGINIA "Ginny"

College Entrance

"So soft, so calm, yet eloquent."

Ginny, with shining bobbing brown curls, is a leader in her realm of endless acquaintances. Interested in dancing, in making her own clothes, in riding, and in art, her pet mania is writing dizzy poems. She's got a witty ditty for every occasion. Mix these traits and add a bit of initiative, a dash of conscientiousness, and a big measure of intelligence, and you have—Ginny.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Dramatics, 3, 4.

ANGSTADT, JOHN HENRY "Whistles"

General

"Consider the tea kettle--up to its neck in hot water and still whistles."

Huskily built, with a jolly face, Johnny slides through the halls with the fewest books he can possibly carry. Does Johnny love to study? Occasionally. This accounts for his perfect attendance on examination days. He is more interested in skating, swimming, football, baseball and dancing.

· COMUS ·

APPEL, LEROY RALPH "Appe"

Commercial

"What's yours is mine, and what's mine is my own."

Appel, one boy among the few who is quiet and has very little to say, finds it hard to settle his mind to his home work. He likes sports of almost any description. LeRoy has a pleasing personality and is known as a good sport.

APPLEGATE, DORIS J. "Dee"

College Preparatory

"But genius must be born, and never can be taught"

Personality plus, a smile for everyone, an interest in all that's social, make Doris one of the most popular girls in our school. Studies?—sometimes. Her interest lies chiefly in dramatics, which she expects to study next year when she goes to college. See you on Broadway!

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. Council, 3; Canary and Blue Solicitor, 2, 3; Junior Class Play; Senior Class Play; Home Room Representative, 2.

ARGESON, CATHERINE EVELYN "Dolly"

General

"A flower among flowers."

Dark hair and big black eyes characterize Dolly. She is a melodious girl with a hearty laugh, and you'll usually find her drinking Coca-Colas. Dolly loves traveling, and would like to go to Florida especially.

Dolly expects to be a florist, and with flowers around her she says she'll always be happy.

ARNOLD, BETTY M. "Betty"

Commercial

"Brown eyes with wondrous, witching charm,
To bring us good, or to work us harm."

Betty is full of beauty, fun, and merriment, never failing us in any way, and always greeting us with a smile. Her personality as well as her dancing ability is known to all of A. H. S.

We understand Betty is interested in secretarial work.

Dramatics, 2; Riding Club, 2, 3.

ASPERS, BETTY PAULINE "Betts"

Commercial

"With dreamful eyes
My spirit lies
Under the walls of Paradise."

With her cheerful disposition, her French accent, her black hair, her brown eyes, her pleasing personality and her sense of humor, and her willingness to help others, Betty gets around. Her one ambition is to go to a school of dress designing, but our guess is that she wouldn't do badly at all as someone's secretary.

French Club, 2, 4; Y. W. C. A.

AUGUSTINE, PAULINE "Penny"

Commercial

"Fair and Pure; Fine and True"

Good all around. Lover of sports. Capable and game for anything athletic. Skilled in tennis. Possesses personal charm and poise. Learns easily and quickly. Faces difficulties calmly. Good sense of humor. Beautiful and bright. Reliable friend. Sure of herself and her standards. Likes nice places. Always smiles. Says the kind thing.

National Honor Society, 4.

BACHMAN, CATHERINE MARIE "Cathy"

Commercial

"Always paddle your own canoe"

Here's a girl who's everybody's friend, a girl everybody likes. There's always a sparkle in her eye, especially when she smiles.

Her marks are usually above average, and she really works to get them.

Catherine likes basketball and loves skating, at which she excels.

BACHMAN, ELEANOR E. "Eee Bee"

General

"Love is like measles; we all must go thru it."

During her three years in high school, Eleanor has made a splendid record in spite of her being one of the few girls to elect the subject of physics. We hear that she has designs on a certain freshman at Lehigh. Her violin playing is enchanting; so is her smile, and the sparkle in her eyes. In September, she will enter the Nurses College at the Allentown Hospital, where we are sure she will bring the patients good cheer.

Orchestra, 2, 3, 4; German Club, 4.

BARINGOLDZ, REBA "Tootie"

Commercial

"Cupid is a knavish lad—"

Tootie loves clothes, hot dogs and cocoanut custard pie. She has time for study as well as for pie and fun. She usually has a pleasant smile, but if you want to see her serious, just contradict her. Tootie wants to become a high-powered sales-woman, and then to set up a home of her own.

BARTHOLOMEW, ARLENE MAE "Bart"

Commercial

"The roots of education are bitter, but the fruit is sweet."

Among your circle of friends, you may always count on Arlene. She enjoys sports to some extent, but likes to play the piano and sing. Arlene will be glad when school is over, claiming we have too much homework, but the real reason is that she wants more time for social engagements. She desires to become a stenographer.

BARTHOLOMEW, LESLIE CHARLES "Les"

General

"Sincerity is a virtue worth possessing."

When speaking of true friends, our minds turn to Les. With Les, photography is a main hobby, and he has taken, developed, and printed more pictures than we'd care to count. He is also interested in music, both classical and popular, his favorite tune being Eleanor. However, he manages to keep his marks up to par, and with a little more effort could be an honor student.

Plans for the future are indefinite with Les, but we know that he is bound for definite success in some definite direction.

DeMolay, 3, 4; Sons of American Legion, 2, 3, 4.

BARTHOLOMEW, MARIE ELSIE "Rie"

Commercial

"Of all the arts the eyes express
The sweetest kind of bashfulness."

Marie is a quiet girl, but very friendly, and you wouldn't want a better friend. Boys are the least of her worries. She always thinks of business before pleasure. She is sure to be a success in anything she may endeavor to do. Her ambition is to become a typist or a clerk in a store.

BAUDER, ANNA CATHERINE "Ann"

Commerical

"What you do, do well."

If you don't know Ann, then you're an exception. She is a cheerful and a helpful friend. Her best sport is swimming with the life guards at River Front Park. Ann, someday, hopes to be a secretary and work up to the top. We know she'll do it.

BAUER, ANNAMARIE "Anne"

Commercial

"Never let it be said that time's a-wastin'."

Can it be? It surely is—a girl with blonde hair, hazel eyes, a winning personality, and everything heart could wish. That's Anne. Her ambition is to become a stenographer and to become a successful one. Of course, because of her fine qualities and personality, we would like to see her adopt the old theory that two can live as cheaply as one. Good luck, Anne, in whatever you do. We are happy that you are one of us.

BAUER, JUNE CAROL "Junie"

Commercial

"The friends of my friends are my friends."

We wish there were more like June, a favorite among her friends, and always willing to lend a hand. Although June is quiet, and spends most of her time reading, she is interested in all sports, and an active member of the chorus. She'll probably be a stenographer.

Chorus, 1, 2, 4; Library Club, 1.

BAUMGARTNER, LOUIS "Chutt"

Science and Engineering

"The world's no better if we worry,
Life's no longer if we hurry."

See Louis in the halls, you know he is the kind of fellow who believes in taking travel easy. Nevertheless when he gets to the place he wanted to reach, he buckles down and does his share of work. Louis is not sure of what he wants to do when he graduates, but he will get somewhere, we are sure, and when he gets there, he'll accomplish things.

BEACHER, ROBERT LINCOLN "Brat"

Engineering and Science

"I may sit down now, but the time will come when you will hear me."

The Brat is one of the smaller members of our class, but don't let his size fool you. He is small but mighty, as his popularity and ability in sports readily shows. He also has displayed marked musical talent, and joined the band on entering high school. Although Bobby is not a bookworm, he excels in all his studies—just natural ability. The Brat is also an authority on snakes, in which he takes a great interest. We feel sure that his personality, coupled with his intelligence and his many interests, will carry him far in his chosen field of study at Penn State next year.

Band, 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 3, 4; Boy Scouts.

BEAN, BETTY JANE "Betts"

Retail Selling

"A fine character is worth more than great wealth;
it opens the door to all hearts."

Betty is a good sport and a true friend. Reading, swimming, and movie-going are her favorite pastimes. As a student of the Retail Selling Course, Betty is kept busy, but she somehow finds time to do her lessons, and to do them well. Betty expects to take up department store work, and with the reputation she has already made for herself down town, she is on the way.

BEAR, CAROLYN JULIA "Carolyn"

Commercial

"Not that I like study less,
But that I like fun more."

Carolyn is a happy-go-lucky girl. Get her started, you can hardly stop her. You'd never think it by the innocent look on her face in the picture, but she is really in for everything that means a good time.

When it comes to filibustering she has Congress beat. She's all right, though—she'll make a good politician some day.

Chorus, 1.

BEAR, DOUGLAS JOHN "Maxie"

Commercial

"Win friends and influence people."

Maxie is a tall lad, graced with a never-ending smile which accompanies his greeting of every friend. He is an accomplished musician, and makes records of orchestras and voices combined with music. He is a football, baseball, basketball, track, and swimming enthusiast. Maxie has not decided what occupation to follow, but the first step on the highway to success is the ability to make friends, and that he has.

DeMolay; Band 2.

BECHTEL, WINIFRED "Winnie"

General

"Debate is masculine; conversation is feminine."

Those sparkling brown eyes and that cheery "Hello" belong to Winnie. Her personality makes her a "must" wherever there is to be a good time. She is a conscientious student, always striving to do her best, even when the going is bumpy. Her friendship is sought by many, for she stands for many ideals, one being loyalty. So for Winnie we ask that all she desires be hers, and that success follow wherever she goes.

BECK, BETTIE CLAIRE "Beckie"

Home Economics

"If you can smile you can forget your troubles."

Where there's noise and boys there's Beckie. Understanding' lovable, charming, wild, she'll be some nurse! She is athletically inclined and specializes in jitterbug dancing. Modern mystery stories invariably find their way to her house. Beckie is versatile, but having decided on training in medicine, the world of fashion and food will have to wait for another.

BECKER, DORIS JEAN "Soph"

General

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."

Doris, an average American girl, has big twinkling brown eyes, dark hair, and smiling lips, a pleasing personality, a good sense of humor, loyalty, a respect for knowledge, and a "delightsomeness" that makes her a joy to even passing acquaintances. She likes ice skating, basketball games, ping pong, target shooting, and dress designing, and dislikes wearing hats or silk stockings. Doris hasn't decided whether she wants to be a dressmaker or a dress designer. What we know is that she'll be a delightful neighbor.

German Club, 4; National Honor Society.

BECKER, RICHARD STANLEY "Beck"

Commercial

"All things ripen with age."

Beck always enjoys a good time. His vivid blushes are a sign of a highly sensitive nature. He knows that there is a time and place for everything, and applies himself to his studies with a will. His hobby is building model airplanes. While not active in sports, he takes a keen interest in football and basketball, and spends his spare time roller skating. We wish him the best of luck and a full measure of success.

BEEHRLE, MARIE C. "Marie"

Commercial

"There's no taking trout with dry breeches."

Marie is one of the few girls who actually knows how to fish. Every summer Marie and her dad go deep sea fishing at Cape May. But don't get the idea that's all she does. She's a whiz on roller skates and she enjoys one of the quieter pastimes—reading; mystery stories attract her most. But Marie definitely does not like baseball games, so don't suggest going to see one.

BEHRINGER, PHYLLIS "Phil"

General

"What matter where I be, if I be still the same."

Blonde, blue eyed and just plain nice is Phyllis. A pleasing personality, loyalty to her friends, and a good sense of humor are all her special traits. Phyllis plans to study music, and perhaps someday we shall see her along side of Tibbett singing Il Trovatore.

National Honor Society, 4.

BEIDLER, BETTY JEAN "Betty"

General

"Tomorrow may not come my way,
So I'll do kindness while I may."

Betty is kind, good-natured and always has some cheerful remark to help you along. She will praise loudly; blame softly. Betty's true school spirit shows at football games, which she seldom misses. A bright smile and a thoughtful heart are two essentials necessary to the making of a good nurse. Betty has both, along with perseverance.

German, 4.

BEIDLER, RUTH CATHERINE "Rufus"

Commercial

"Anything is funny as long as it is happening to someone else."

Always ready with a smile, Ruth is a swell companion and easy to get along with. She is just a jolly pal and has a pleasing personality. Average in her studies, one who never worries, Ruth is just a happy-go-lucky sort of a person. Her chief sports are swimming and skating. As a hobby Ruth loves to read, and would rather read than sleep.

BEIL, EVELYN ALVERTA "Eva"

General

"Blonde, modish, smiling, agreeable — no wonder they call her Eve."

Evelyn is a girl everyone ought to know. No matter how down in the dumps you feel, if you spend a little time with Eve that feeling will disappear. Sports and movies are the two things which interest her most. After she graduates Eve wants to be a typist. The person who will employ her will be very fortunate, and we want to add our sincere wish for her success and happiness.

BEITLER, GLORIA ELAINE "Gloria"

Commercial

"Dark brown hair, soft grey eyes,
She's lively, lovely, and very wise."

A winning smile, a charming personality, and a love for fun and dancing—all belong to Gloria. She is a popular miss, bubbling over with good spirits, but behind her gayety there is an earnest desire to succeed. Gloria is regularly seen at school functions. Her willingness to co-operate makes her welcome everywhere.

Dramatics, 1, 2, 3.

BEITLER, PATRICIA "Pat"

General

"Nothing ever bothers me
I am lucky, fair, and free!"

Pat can be found wherever a friend is needed. She has, however, one great gift, a gift of gab, which often gets her into trouble. Dancing, skating, and movies afford her much pleasure. She never hurries, but always manages to arrive at the last minute. It is during her more serious moments that Pat studies her chemistry.

BELTZ, THOMAS "Tommy"

Industrial
Auto Shop

"Breathes there a man so dead that never to himself hath said"

That Tommy isn't successful. Tommy has been on the honor roll all year, and is a mechanic for Gehringer and Horlacher. This proves that he has both the character and the mechanical inclination necessary to success. At the rate Tommy is going, it looks as if he would succeed at any kind of mechanics.

BENDER, ROBERT "Bob"

General

"A gentleman and a good fellow
A rare combination."

Bob is a grand person to know. Although he likes a lot of fun he is a good student, always managing to get through and then some. He takes part in sports, plays basketball and baseball. He is one of the charter members of the newly formed "Varsity A" club. Bob is always present at school functions, and his popularity, even after he reaches the big leagues, which is his ambition, will be sure to continue.

Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Baseball, 2, 3, 4; "Varsity A", 4.

BERMAN, ELEANOR BEATRICE "Elly"

General

"A friendliness and loveliness combined."

Brown hair, brown eyes, that's Elly, who combines two of the rarest characteristics—sincerity and an enviable personality. She is a smart dresser and an ardent supporter of the modern version of dance. Being both socially and scholastically prominent, Elly is one of the finest friends anyone can have. Not certain of her future Alma Mater, we all know El will be a great asset to any school she attends.

BERNABUCCI, VIOLA MARY "Punchy"

Viola is a great lover of football, basketball, skating and swimming. She is popular with both boys and girls, and shines at joking and dancing. One of her favorite pastimes is reading. Although she is an excellent shorthand student, she has not yet decided what she would like to undertake in the future.

BERNHARD, LEONTINE ELEANORE "Leontine"

General

"Happiness is no laughing matter."

Leontine is that happy-go-lucky girl with a cheery Hello for everyone. During her high school days she has made a host of friends. Leontine is one of the loyal Canary followers that make the success of football games. Leontine may seem shy to a stranger, but get to know her and you'll always want to be in her company.

Claire Bieber

BIEBER, CLAIRE ELIZABETH "Beeb"

Commercial

"Her hearty laugh and generous soul
Has helped her onward to the goal."

Beeb is a happy-go-lucky girl, never worries much about her lesson, always gets by. Claire likes to swim and dance, and wherever she is there is bound to be laughter. She has not planned anything definite for the future, but it should be happy.

Chorus, 1; Basketball, 4.

BIGATEL, JOHN DANIEL "Johnny"

Science and Engineering

"A mind to conceive, ability to perceive, a heart ot achieve."

Oh, Johnny! How he makes his piccolo sing with joy. In fact, one can easily judge his personality by his piccolo playing. He has a brilliant mind, full of ideas, a pleasing disposition, and a smile that is devastating in its effects. He interests himself in all sports and is quite adept in basketball, tennis, baseball, and boxing. Johnny plans to study chemistry at Notre Dame, and we see by the test tubes a formula for success.

Band, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra, 2, 3, 4.

BILGER, MARION ELIZABETH "Bigler"

Commercial

"Silence and thoughtfulness are the keys to success."

Marion is a friend who is a friend. She is always willing to cooperate, seldom declines to do anything within her ability, and if ever there was a girl you could joke with it's Bigler.

Marion is effcient in all her subjects, but is deeply interested in commercial work, and hopes to be someone's stenographer. We always find her with her lessons prepared; if they aren't, there's a real reason.

BITLER, RICHARD J. "Dick"

General

"The Good Humor Man"

Dick is a medium-sized fellow who greets everybody with a smile. Although full of fun, he never neglects his studies. If you want a handsome and very likable fellow, just look for this fellow with the rosy cheeks. He is well liked by his many friends; you never see him walking through the halls without one. All the girls gaze after him—he likes them and attends most games. His greatest ambition is to get into aviation, and be a great aviator.

A Capella, 4.

BITTENBENDER, GLORIA VIRGINIA "Bubbles"

Commercial

"I shall keep on going until I succeed in the attempt."

Gloria is an understanding sensible individual, a friend you can depend on, no matter what happens. After leaving good old A. H. S., Bubbles intends to become a telephone operator, and make the Bell people proud of her. Few people have so much common sense and good humor.

BITTNER, BETTIE "Smiles"

Commercial

"There is not such another."

Bettie is tall, thin, has dark brown hair, and eyes that blend with her hair. She is the type that likes to have fun. Like most girls, Smiles lets the boys attract her attention, but it does not interfere with her ambition to become a stenographer.

Gym, 2, 3, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Dramatics, 4.

BITTNER, JEAN R. "Jeanie"

General

"At home with sports, like a nesting bird."

Light haired Jeanne is interested in all sports, but has a very special interest in football. Some day she is to be a nurse and is planning to attend Temple Nursing School in Philadelphia. A. H. S. wishes her the best.

Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Hockey, 2; Tennis, 2, 3, 4.

BITTNER, PAUL M. "Skeeter"

Commercial

"I hold my thoughts within myself, speaking not."

Paul is a quiet, unassuming lad, whose true character is hidden by a wall of reserve difficult to pierce. But those who penetrate that wall know a sparkling and fun loving personality.

· COMUS ·

BOKANYI, IRENE "Inky"

Commercial

"Outward sunshine, inward joy."

Irene is the pet prankster of the school; she has a sweet disposition at times. Inky's motto is "always do your work—at the last minute." She's a swell sport, liked by all who know her. Irene's ambition is to become a secretary to "a handsome boss."

BORTOLINI, GLORIA "Bart"

Commercial

"Don't cross your bridges behind you."

Are you looking for some fun? Well here it is—and plenty of it for everybody. Bart is a girl who can adjust herself to anyone Perhaps that is why she has such a wide variety of acquaintances.

Bart loves sports and she sure does play a swift game of basketball. Her favorite pastime is dress designing, which she expects to undertake as a career. We know she will be a great success because Bart usually gets what she goes after.

Gym Team, 1, 3, 4.

BORTZ, EDWARD "Eddie"

Commercial

"Play up, play up, and play the game."

Ed can be seen at all athletic contests. He is a member of the Varsity football and basketball teams. Ed was transferred from South Whitehall where he starred in sports, and has become popular at A. H. S.

He's an all-round athlete with professional leanings. With his '40 Chevy he is familiar to countless belles, and provides opposition to local beaux in more ways than one. South Whitehall may feel bereft; but we thank them for the transfer.

Football, 4; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball, 1, 2, 3, 4.

BORTZ, MARGARET ELIZABETH "Betty"

Commercial

"Smile unto me—
As I smile unto thee."

Usually an only child spells trouble, but not a girl like Betty, an attractive five-foot-six gray-eyed blond, who attends school not only because she has to, but because she wants to. You see, Betty plans to go to Virginia to attend Mary Washington College to become either a teacher or a stenographer. Second only to hamburgers in her affections is Cary Grant, who is so-ooo handsome. Betty says if she had a hundred dollars right now she would go shopping.

BOWEN, HENRY D., JR. "Slim"

General

"The more we study, the more we realize our ignorance."

Although Henry is a brilliant student, he is always ready for fun. He's a rare person who can make many friends and keep them. Like any good student, Slim depends upon himself, and is consequently successful at whatever he attempts. He is a lover of all sports; in fact, he need not take a back seat for anybody or in anything.

National Honor Society, 4.

BOWERS, ROBERT W. "Bob"

General

"What Emperor could wish for more."

Here is a true friend, of average height and a good personality. It is easy for him, because he is a born leader, to make and keep friends. His favorite sports are football, basketball, baseball, hunting and fishing.

Bob Bowers

BOYER, DONALD "Don"

Commercial

"Better than gold is a thinking mind."

Donald is a better than average student in the commercial course. His specialty is typing and he is a speed merchant on the keyboard. He is very fast on figures too, and likes mathematical subjects.

Don takes an interest in athletics even though he has never played anything at Allentown High.

Although Don always notices the girls, he is rarely seen with them.

BOYKO, MIKE "Trip"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

"Sleep is the most wonderful thing on earth"

Trip is a fine young lad, ambitious to become an expert draftsman. He takes great pride in his work, and is always up with the rest of the class. He is willing to lend a helping hand to his classmates. He likes movies, and spends most of his spare time there. He likes sleep, too and sees that he gets plenty of it.

BOYLE, JAMES PETER "Jiggs"

General

"A pleasant smile is a great asset."

Jiggs is that smiling young man with a versatile wit, ready to plunge into almost anything. When he's not studying, he is eating bananas in English class. Jiggs excels in cooking, and can make a luscious cookie batter. With his cheerful disposition, pleasant smile, good common sense, his popularity ought to continue.

BRADISH, JEANNE "Jeannie"

General

"Fair and pure, fine and true,
We hope and hope there are more like you."

Witty, humorous, with sparkling eyes, dancing feet, a winning smile, and a sunny disposition, no wonder Jeannie has a host of friends. She is a smooth dresser and handles her Plymouth with skill and accuracy. She is always rushed, but manages to keep her date-book in perfect order. Wherever her eager and competent spirit leads her, success will inevitably be there, for she can "take it," even success.

BRAY, VERLETTA E. "Lettuce"

Commercial

"The music fills her throbbing throat."

Verletta is so much a friend that her friends sometime interfere with her doing homework; but when her work is to be handed in, she somehow has it finished, which all goes to show that where there's a will there's a way. One of her pastimes is singing. While she is in school she is a great typist, but out of school she just loves to eat doughnuts.

Choir, 3, 4; Chorus, 1, 2, 3, 4.

BRENNAN, MARY "Irish"

General

"Of wisdom hath she a goodly store
And kindness, one can ask no more."

Sincerity, intelligence, and fun are a few of the many virtues fate bestowed upon this smiling Irish lass. Her cheerful disposition and pleasing personality make her a leader among her classmates. Irish excels in her studies, but finds time for fun too. Blue eyes, brown curls and a dash of Irish wit, that's her portrait. Good student and conscientious worker, she is sure to succeed as a nurse.

National Honor Society, 4; French Club, 4.

BREWER, ELOISE "Ell"

General

"Of all the arts the gods bestow,
Beauty and courage, both she knows."

Ell, with her golden hair, shining blue eyes, and winning smile, has made a host of friends here at A. H. S. Her friendship is a thing to be cherished; high school girls do not come any finer. With her cheerful disposition, her fine courage, she is bound to make good in anything she may undertake after she leaves school. We hope you'll have the happiness you so rightly deserve.

Latin Club, 3.

BREY, NORMAN "Junior"

Retail Selling

"Never worry, it shortens life."

Norman is a carefree fellow, always on the go and willing to help anyone and anybody. He is always on time for any job that has to be done; in fact, he's usually hanging around a half-hour ahead of time. Norman is a member of the Retail Selling course, but does not intend to follow the selling racket when he leaves school. Wishing him luck.

BRINKER, JOYCE M. "Joy"

Commercial

"Go forth and run, life's race is for the brave."

Joy likes bike riding, jitterbugging, and joking, studies, her friends, and her favorite teachers. Joyce excels in wise-cracking about everything that happens. Her greatest wish is to be an accountant.

Canary and Blue Representative, 3; Typing Club, 1.

BROSKY, AMELIA "Emily"

General

"Still waters run deep"

Emily has made many friends through her frank but friendly manner. Emily enjoys riding, both horseback and in an automobile. She intends to get a job in an office, and she is sure to be personally acceptable.

· COMUS ·

BROSS, NILA E. "Nila"

Commercial

"Better late than never."

She greets you seriously, this girl with brown eyes and brown hair. After you know her, you'll find she can talk circles around you A swell pal she is too. All she needs is a tall, dark, handsome boy and a fast polka; then watch the circus. Her main object in life is to be able to type well—and to get a good job.

She likes dancing, ping-pong, swimming, tennis, and basketball. Lots of luck and success.

Chorus, 1, 2, 3; Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Basketball, 1, 2.

BROSSMAN, MARTIN "Mart"

General

"Life is merely a series of opportunities for turning failures into successes."

Quiet, energetic, a real student, Mart is also a real friend. He is proficient in his school work, and a staunch supporter of all high school activities. He is characterized by a British sense of humor. Believing that his later success in life will be determined by his present education, he endeavors to get as much out of it as possible. Success comes in cans, failure in can'ts. Martin can.

BROWN, JOHN HENRY "Hank"

College Entrance In Arts

"A slow walker, a fast worker, and a jolly good fellow."

Hank is a good pal. He has an easy-going disposition, but is besides a studious lad with an equal amount of mirth and can liven up any gathering. He is a great sport enthusiast, always ready with the latest statistics. As a musician he slides all around on his trombone. The world would be a lot better if we could all be like Hank; he never worries. Here's happiness to you, Hank, as you go on to Muhlenberg and then on to your vocation.

Band, 3, 4; Historical Society, 3; German Club, 4.

BROWN, PHYLLIS MARY "Phil"

General

"Good at a fight, but better at a play,
Godlike in giving, but the devil to pay."

Phyllis is the most gifted actress in our class, and great cheers rise as she walks on the stage, for something funny can always be expected. Phyllis can be found in any school audience, and you can't miss that red hair. She plans to train for nursing at the Jefferson Hospital.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Dramatics, 2, 3, 4.

BROWNING, BETTY "Betty"

"Life begins at 2:40."

Lovely to look at and delightful to know is Betty. Always ready for a good time, trying to get as much fun out of life as possible, is the way she is known to all her friends. But there is deep down, a serious streak. Betty likes sports and dancing, and some day "would like to be a singer." We'll be listening on Station WJZ.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Dramatics, 2.

BRUDER, THELMA IRENE "Thelma"

General

"The gay, the wise, the lovable, and the grave."

Thelma is the kind of girl to have for a friend. She is frank, reliable and tactful. Her cheerful personality makes everybody feel happy. An enthusiastic participant in sports, she swims well, and just dotes on roller-skating. She knows how to play a joke and how to take one, too. Thelma is an interesting talker, and what is more rare, a good listener. Music is her hobby, and she plays both the piano and organ. She is the kind who goes in for everything and does it well. Whatever she chooses to do after graduation, we're with her and we know she will do it well, and pleasantly!

BRUENINGSEN, MADELINE M. "Maddy"

Commercial

"With thy clear, keen joyance
Languor cannot be;
Shadow of annoyance
Never came near thee."

Maddy shows fine talent for drawing and writing poetry. She enjoys dancing, ice-skating, and walking. Her pets are both dogs and cats. Always full of pep, smiling and cheerful, you cannot help liking her.

BUCKLEY, JAMES J. "Jim"

Engineering and Science

"A rolling stone gathers no nineties."

Jim is one of those fellows who can get along without much worry and with still less work, but he always manages to get by. An outstanding performer on the A. H. S. Swimming Team, he is Dave Hackett's mainstay for new records. His pastimes, besides swimming, are football, basketball, and ice skating. His hobby is stamp collecting, and since most great men have this hobby we are predicting a great future for Jim. He expects to attend Wharton Business School, to become a financial tycoon.

Swimming, 2, 3, 4; Varsity "A", 4.

BUDNER, LOIS A. "Buddy"

General

"But the world has made them sweet filling them with a sunset glow."

If there is anything Lois dislikes, it is to study. One of the happy-go-lucky, carefree girls, with few worries, she thinks laughter is the cure for all human ills. Her hobbies are bowling, dancing, bicycle riding, and driving. She likes football and is a good booster at the games. Her friendly smiles and cheery "hello" are welcomed by everyone. Although she is usually smiling, she can be serious.

BUNK, DOROTHEA "Dottie"

College Preparatory

"Despite the serious look in her brown eyes,
Beneath the surface, mischief lies!"

Dottie's motto for curing all ills is "dance and laugh." Between keeping her classmates healthy by her wit, and winning medals in competitive swimming, she is kept busy; nevertheless Dottie does her work faithfully and has been on the Honor Roll many times. Number one on her hit parade is candy; number two is more candy. Her hobbies are swimming, dancing, and sweet swing music. Swim on, Dottie, and dance your way into success and happiness.

Dramatics, 2; German Club, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Swimming, 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Council of Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

BURGER, EVELYN "Eve"

College Preparatory

"A keen mind is a fortune."

"All play and no work makes Eve a dull girl," is her motto, and she abides by it. You have probably never met anyone quite so ambitious as Eve. Studying has become her hobby, and she's proud of it. But she has other hobbies,—dancing, reading, sewing. She will attend Mt. Sinai and become a full-fledged nurse.

French Club, 1; National Honor Society.

BURIAN, WILLIAM "Peb"

Science and Engineering

"Studies little, knows much."

You can't miss Peb. His aquiline countenance usually projects conspicuously above the heads of those about him. Summer finds him blanketing the breadth of a tennis court, of which he is usually the master. Winter finds him looking askance at school books; but, as in tennis, he always comes out on top. He has invaded most of the courses at school, but is eternally perplexed by a particular problem—how to fit his frame to our school chairs. The future will see Peb a big man in more ways than one.

German Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

BURKHART, EDWARD "Burke"

Commercial

"Silence is golden"

A quiet personality, markedly keen wit, and superior intelligence distinguishes Burke. His body is tall and well-proportioned. His face is animated by sparkling brown eyes. Basketball and track comprise his extra-curricular activities; dancing and swimming occupy his outside leisure.

Basketball, 2; Track, 2; Commercial Club, 4.

BUSKARITZ, JOSEPHINE "Jose"

Commercial

"Light as a feather in the wind."

Jose is one girl who is always smiling. A cooking student, she prepares some fine dishes. Photography has been her hobby, and she plans to go on with work of that sort. Waltzing takes her spare time and she is quite a dancer. With so lovely a personality the photography business should pick up.

BUTZ, ETHEL J. "Butzie"

General

"What is life without a joke."

Sweet is the word for Ethel for she loves candy and a certain machinist who is holding all her thoughts at present. Butzie spends much of her spare time at the movies mostly at ones featuring Charles Boyer. Altho Ethel has no set goal after graduation her one ambition has always been a trip to enchanting Hawaii. So Ethel says Aloha.

BUTZ, WILLIAM "Butzy"

Industrial

"You can't fool me; I'm too ignorant."

William in school always seems to be in a stupor, but when he is around airplanes or anything pertaining to mechanics he is wide awake. To him nothing is so important as aviation. He is always dreaming of or imitating airplanes. His marks are lower than they should be, but give him real work and he will be a grand worker. Bill, tho he always is a victim of jokers and pranksters, will in this modern age of aviation, find his place. And let us remind you, Bill, that victims are not necessarily down and out.

· COMUS ·

CALLISTO, GRACE "Corky"

General

"God made her as he should
Not too bad, not too good."

Happy-go-lucky Grace is everybody's friend, with always a ready smile for anyone who wants to be a friend. You'll find her practicing her dancing and doing her lessons nightly. She is gifted with a sense of humor. Even though you don't see her behind a heap of books, she manages to keep above the average. If you're looking for Grace, just look for someone shifting gears in the jaws.

CAMPBELL, ELIZABETH FRANCES "Betty"

Commercial

"There is nothing so kind as kindness,
And nothing so royal as truth."

Betty's pleasant personality and ever-present smile win her many friends. A conscientious worker, she is a top-ranking student. Her talking in class often brings the teacher's frown, but Betty only smiles engagingly and behaves—until the next time. She worries a bit about her school work, but it always turns out all right. Although Betty appreciates and loves music, and has a fine soprano voice, her present ambition is to become a good stenographer.

A Cappella Choir, 2, 3, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

CAMPBELL, JANE "Janie"

General

"Serene amidst the savage waves."

Serene is the word for Jane. You never find her ruffled or hurried. She loves dancing, dogs, and drawing. Art is the career she plans to follow, for she excels in painting and sketching. Writing is also a major interest of Janie's . It might be well to keep our eyes on this young lady, because we'll probably be hearing a lot of her in the future.

CARL, GEORGE R. "Carl"

General

"Better absent than unprepared."

Here's to Carl, a swell boy with a keen sense of humor, and one who's never too busy to help a fellow student.

He is an ardent movie fan, and loves dancing. He is no genius nt schoolwork but he gets along.

CARROLL, MARION "Carroll"

General

"She is gayer than a child,
Laughter in her eyes runs wild."

Carroll hails from New Jersey. When she came to Allentown High she brought all the liveliness of her home town with her. Whenever anyone feels down-hearted, it is Carroll who comes to the rescue. Her pleasant disposition is sure to aid her to become a truly great nurse.

Dramatic Club, 4; Y. W. C. A., 4.

CASPER, JOHN "Johnny"

Industrial
Auto Shop

"Stones have been known to move and trees to speak."

Johnny is a good fellow when he is sleeping. But he wakes up to give a helping hand when a neighbor gets stuck.

In his leisure time he does linoleum block printing, and is always trying new things to do with the cuts. "What am I going to do?" says Johnny. "Get a job at the Mack Motor Works."

CERCIELLO, VINCENT ANTHONY "Cersh"

Science and Engineering

"Quiet often covers thought,"

A more true and dependable friend one cannot find. Though quiet when one first meets him, Cersh soon changes. His love is modern music; he has heard and seen most of the great name bands. His ambition is to becaome a surgeon, for which he is well suited, because he takes work seriously, looks into a matter thoroughly, and has skillful fingers.

CHERRINGTON, ELIZABETH L. "Betty"

General

"Nothing is so difficult but that it may be found by seeking."

When you meet Betty she seems to be a quiet, unassuming girl, but get to know her and you'll find her full of jollity and wit. She's interested in sports—ask to see her sport scrapbook—and you'll realize that she's one of the Canaries' most ardent rooters. Although Betty has many outside activities, and graces the high school chorus with her first alto, she lets nothing interfere with her studies, for she is a member of the National Honor Society. Her dream is to be seated behind the round desk at our public library.

Chorus, 4; National Honor Society, 3, 4; Office Messenger, 4.

· COMUS ·

CHOMA, JEANETTE M. "Jenny"

General

"Of wisdom hath she a goodly store,
and kindness, one can ask no more."

On the surface, Jenny seems a carefree, fun-loving personality She is that and more. Her keen wit and sense of humor are mixed in just the right proportions with good common sense and general intelligence.

Hers is a dual personality. In her lighter moments she loves to sing and dance; in a more sober mood she is a responsible help to any organization or class.

If her records are any indication of her ability, we know she will do exceedingly well at something.

German Club, 4; Chorus, 3, 4; Dramatics, 2; National Honor Society, 3, 4; Girl Reserve Council, 3; President of Council, 4.

CHRISTMAN, LEOMIA ALVERTA "Lee"

General

"With graceful steps she strides the streets
And smiles at all the boys she meets."

Leomia is a good sport when it comes to supporting the teams of A. H. S. If there is any fun in the classroom you may be sure Lee is in the midst of it. She has a magnetic personality, and is a wizard at making friends. We are not sure what type of work she will follow, but we wish her the best of luck in anything she may undertake.

CICHELLO, LEWIS "Lou"

Industrial Auto Shop

"Bring those tools here, careless Ned.
Don't build up the overhead!"

That's what you hear Custodian Lou, the fellow who keeps tabs on the shop tools and sees that none disappear, saying; for he is in training to be a foreman in a big garage. He is willing to supply any solution to a problem, providing he knows the answer

CIN, LIVIO "Lil"

Industrial
Pattern Shop

"Sincerity is a virtue few men possess."

Livio has many friends both in and out of school, and we are proud he is graduating with us. In the pattern shop he acts like the boss; he's really the "Little Caesar" of the shop. Lil's ambition is to be a foreman of a big plant, and we all know he can do it. In work Lil is second to none. The whole senior class wishes him luck.

CLARK, A. GEORGE "Clark"

General

"I worked for you, now it's your turn to work for me."

George believes that experience is the only way to learn, and he intends to have as many kinds of experience as possible. He is a quiet good-natured fellow. George dislikes seeing anybody do a thing wrong, and does not hesitate to make corrections. He'd make a good foreman or executive.

CLARK, DOROTHY MARGARET "Dottie"

Commercial

"I scorn to change my state with kings."

Maybe Dottie's fondness for flowers accounts for her sweetness. A consistent student, Dottie blames typing for keeping her off the honor roll. After tinkering in her garden she likes to curl up in a chair with a good book. When she gets her diploma, Dottie is going into business.

CLAUSER, ERNEST M. "Ernie"

Commercial

"Yes, it's the French Fry man again."

Ernie seems a quiet fellow when you do not know him, but he really is a pleasant and smiling gentleman. Every time he laughs, you laugh too, you just can't help it, because his is between a cackle and giggle. He has a copyright on it.

Ernie loves "every sport that ever was invented." He specializes in track at A. H. S. His favorite bands are Glenn Miller's and Jimmy Dorsey's. He also has a weakness for blondes which is nothing new, after all. Cast an eye at some of our blondes!

Some day Ernie hopes to become a president of some big company.

Track, 2, 3, 4.

CLEWELL, ROBERT "Johnny"

Industrial
Print Shop

"It is great to be a fool—but still greater to be a fool, and know it."

Johnny, though small, is capable, industrious, and gets ahead in his work, even though he hardly ever studies at home. The most usual place to find him is on a roller skating rink. Skates and girls are his chief interest. Baseball, bowling and pool run a close second. He is a top-ranking student in print shop, and both liked and respected by his fellow students. Robert intends to join the army and continue studying printing there.

Printers Club, President; Comus, 4.

CLYMER, JEAN ADELE "Jean"

Commercial

"Whether the cup with sweet or bitter run."

Many people believe that Jean is a perfect angel, but we who know her intimately, are not so sure. She studies, she usually knows her lessons, her shorthand notes look like Greek, you should hear her read them—but she is always laughing and joking, too. Even when you're in the deepest blues, a few minutes in her company will get you to smiling with her. Her laugh is so contagious it ruins all the order and discipline.

Dramatics, 2; National Honor Society, 4.

COCCA, YOLANDA LUCY "Vi"

Commercial

"She smiles and shadows depart."

Hard work and intelligence are the pet words of this person. She worries about her marks and yet she is a first-class honor student. Her favorite subjects are study-hall and gym. But give her swimming and she no longer is your friend. Reason: she can't swim. Tall, dark, and pretty, always gay and smiling, never talking, only studying, this is Yolanda.

National Honor Society, 4.

COHEN, SYDNEY "Colonel"

Science and Engineering

"He from whose lips divine persuasion falls."—Homer

Sydney's love for debating is exceeded only by his love for flying. An ardent aviation ethusiast, Sydney could write books on the subject and still not cover all the territory he would like to. He says that the happiest moment in his life will be when he takes his first solo flight at the controls of a plane. A swell fellow and a good friend, Sydney has carved a niche for himself at Allentown High School, just as he will carve one in aviation at some future date.

National Honor Society; Orotan Debating Society, 2, 3; Historical Society, 3, Secretary, 4; German Club, 3; Treasurer, 4; Vice-President, 4; Home Room Representative, 4.

COLE, EUGENE A. "Genie"

General

"Haste makes waste, so why hurry."

If you see a little lad, bouncing down the hall, it's our good pal Genie, who's always ready to help a friend in need. He likes to read, and hopes to go into aeronautics someday.

CONFER, RUTH "Con"

Commercial

"There is a garden in her face
Where roses and white lilies grow."

Proverbial blonde hair, proverbial blue eyes. Though dancing takes up most of her time, listening to recordings runs a close second, and school work a poor third. How we love to hear her talk that baby talk that never fails to bring a laugh.

COOK, TRECIA C. "Cookie"

General

"Where the winds are wild and the clouds up-piled Roll away from the planes like foam."

Cookie is a jitterbug in a big way. Her hobby is dancing and she spends all her spare time doing just that. Not slow dancing, understand, but real honest-to-goodness jitterbugging. An active person, she likes people to be "a little crazy" and hates snobs. Her pet hate is study; her pet love—dancing, and eating—but if you should taste her mother's wonderful cherry pie you wouldn't blame her. Trecia loves to travel, and hopes to combine business with pleasure by becoming an air-hostess. Happy landings Trecia.

COOPER, DONALD C. "Hoiman"

General

"My kingdom for a 95."

Hoiman likes to go fishing. In fact any summer afternoon you can find him along the bank of the Little Lehigh or some other trout stream. Even if Hoiman does spend very little time with his books, he always knows everything there is to know about his lessons. He hopes to enter West Point. He has learned to get the most out of the least time spent on lessons. He's always turning up with a cartoon that will end all cartoons. It might be wise if he really stopped caricaturing teachers and turned his talents toward something less dangerous and more profitable.

National Honor Society, 4.

COPE, WILLIS FRETZ "Copie"

Retail Selling

"Skill is stronger than strength"

Willis is a jolly fellow, always has a big smile for everybody. He is ambitious, and wants to get ahead in the business world. Everytime you see him he is selling something. He is mostly interested in football, ice skating, and basketball. What he wants is to be the owner of a store.

CORINGRATO, ETTORE "Ed"

General

"A true friend with a true heart."

Ed is a quiet sort of fellow, always greets you with a smile, takes much interest in his studies, and spends much time working on model airplanes, in which he takes much pride. He is skillful, too, at ping pong.

CORTRIGHT, LORRAINE ETTA "Corky"

Retail Selling

"As good, but not as quiet as she seems."

Lorraine, one of the busy members of the Retail Selling Course, is often seen but seldom heard, but how she can talk when she talks. Lorraine knows that she wants and goes after it. She blushes easily and sees the latest movies. Lorraine has a fiery temper when she is aroused, but she is a true friend, good student and an excellent sales person, particularly neat in appearance.

National Honor Society, 4.

COSTANTINI, DORIS MARIE "Dorie"

Commercial

"Friendly, loyal, honest and true."

Dorie has a lovable smile. Once you have her for a friend, you can bet it will be lasting.

Dorie's hobby is roller skating. Everytime you see her at a rink, you see an expert. But here is a secret, she doesn't like school work, even tho she gets along quite well.

COYLE, RAYMOND "Ray"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

Ray is a quiet little individual who is pretty much satisfied with life as it is. He intends to be a draftsman. In his classes he is given to looking out of the windows, sometimes day-dreaming and sometimes just looking. As a diversion he chose to be manager of the football team last fall.

CRAWFORD, VERNON "Mack"

General

"His wealth is health and physical ease."

Mack is our idea of a typical suave Southerner. Coming to our high school in his sophomore year, he attracted all of us with his delightful personality. He has learned to ice skate and is an ardent supporter of our teams. His distaste for tedious things like homework and study has brought him some difficult moments in high school. But Mack has his serious moods. He plans to return to Georgia to take up Sanitary Engineering at Georgia Tech.

CRIER, DOROTHY ESTHER "Biddy"

Commercial

"So fair a cheek, so fair a smile
Would cause a man to walk a mile."

Biddy's circle of friends know her as a grand pal, a great lover of sports, especially roller-skating, and a pretty good scout at basketball. She reads and writes poetry, and has a humor all her own. If you want to meet a good sport, always ready for fun and always ready to take a joke, try Biddy. You can depend on her being loyal, and being the best of company always.

Chorus, 1, 2, 3.

CROASDALE, WILLIAM R. "Bill"

College Entrance

"Lend all thy ear, but few thy voice."

The live wire of senior class rooms, Bill Croasdale is seldom seen with troubled countenance in the corridors of A. H. S.; one of his desires is to keep the worried happy. In a more serious vein, however, he is one of the truest, most sincere friends a fellow could have; ever ready to give either a hand or good advice. Popular with the girls as well, he attends most of the social events. A real boating enthusiast, Bill spends his summer months on the Chesapeake Bay, and can relate many interesting experiences.

CURTIS, CHARLES H. "Curt"

General

"The proper study of mankind is man."

Already showing the old Army spirit, Curt is working toward West Point by doing excellent work in school.

A fine football man, Curt held down a varsity left end position the team for two straight years, and had also played in his freshman and sophomore years.

One of those rare types—a man's man, and a friend to the girls, no event, social, athletic, or scholastic would ever be complete without Curt. He is also a member of the Varsity "A" Club.

Varsity Football, 3, 4; Varsity, "A".

CURTISS, CHOLENA MAY

College Preparatory

"A dear little blue eyed girl
With a wonderful shining smile."

Cholena came from Pen Yan, N. Y. in January, 1940, but her friendliness soon made her one of us. She may be small in stature, but her personality makes up for that. Her marks are high because she works to keep them up. When she isn't studying, she relaxes by playing the piano, taking pictures, or cooking. She plans to go to Temple Hospital, and we feel that Temple is lucky to get her.

DALLA PIAZZA, ALICE "Al"

Commercial

" 'Tis hard to part when friends are dear—
Perhaps 'twill cost a sigh, a tear;"

Versatile, frank, gay, dances like a dream, plays a good game of tennis, swims and dives well; capable, game for anything athletic, Al knows all the patter and all the answers. Never conceited. A good listener. Loads of fun. Easy to look at. Just what a boy wants in his girl friend. Likes nice places, says kind things. A reliable friend. Can "take" anything, be a sport. Serves without thought of reward. Unselfish and energetic. Keen intellect. Further information will be furnished on request.

Commercial Club, 4.

DAL MASO, RENO FRANCIS "Reno"

Industrial

"Never put off till tomorrow what you can out off till next week."

The Rudolf Valentino of our Alma Mater is now being posted. This clever, witty, amiable young man has many ambitions, first to travel and see this great country of ours; second to become a navy flier. His favorite pastime is letting time pass; his next, to watch the girls pass. Swimming and ice skating "also run." Reno intends to take a night school course in aeronautical engineering.

DANNECKER, HOWARD C. "Spiff"

General

"Happy go lucky, fair and free, nothing ever bothers me."

Spiff is a happy-go-lucky. He takes things as they come and go. He never took the time to enter in any sports in school, but he was always in there cheering.

Spiff's favorite sports are basketball, football and baseball. He devotes most of his time to his favorite hobbies, hunting and fishing. He may often be found fishing along a stream during Spring. "Do you catch any," we asked. "Sure," he answered. His plans for the future are becoming a mail clerk.

DA RE, ESTHER "Susie"

General

"One crowded hour of glorious life
Is worth an age without a name."

Although Esther is shy, she is very sociable among friends. She always gets along because she believes that "All will be well tomorrow." Her favorite sports are swimming, dancing, tennis, basketball, and ice-skating. No matter what kind of work Esther intends to follow, we are certain she'll get to where she wants to go. Clear sailing, Susie!

DAUBENSPECK, ANNA MAE "Dauby"

General

"Beauty and intelligence are talents to be envied."

Dauby, the smiling girl with black hair and a twinkle in her eyes, is witty and good humored, but at the same time studious. She is active in sports but the one she prides herself on, is swimming. Dauby has friends by the dozens; nursing may be just the career for her.

DAVIDSON, MILDRED "Milly"

General

"Good and bad and right and wrong
Wave the silly words away:
This is wisdom—to be strong,
This is virtue—to be gay."

If you want a mighty fine girl, a good chum, an all-around good sport, get acquainted with Milly. Her lovable disposition and loyal friendship win for her the affection of her classmates. She is an ardent lover of dancing and swimming, but she always finds time for her studies. Milly is rather talkative, but never in a hurry. Just picture her in a white nurse's cap and apron.

DAVIS, HOWELL JOHN "Howie"

General

"Be slow in choosing a friend—slower in changing."

Nature has spoken to him. He has answered by asking many questions. He likes hiking and out-of-door sports. In his scientific studies he has asked Nature "Why?" He is an intelligent companion, and will bear watching in the future—to see where, and how far, he goes.

DeFIORE, LUCILLE ANNE "Lou"

Home Economics

"She takes life as it comes and enjoys it."

Here is a brown-eyed brunette who likes sports and movies and studies only when the spirit moves her. She may be shy at first, but once you know her she is never too busy to join in a joke.

Lou hasn't decided on a vocation, but she'll find out in time. Perhaps it may be keeping house for some one we don't suspect now.

DEIBERT, JEAN "Jeanie"

General

"Jeanie is small; but so is a stick of dynamite."

Jeanie is a mischievous girl in disguise, and as changeable as the weather. You never can tell what's going to happen when she starts playing pranks. Although she is a good student, she'd rather listen to Glenn Miller's Swing Band than settle down to her books. Her interests, other than swing, are swimming, riding, dancing, ice-skating and driving. You can always see her drive that Ford—she's a cowboy. Jeanie intends to continue her studies in Philadelphia, and we feel any college will have an interesting time keeping up with her.

Dramatics, 2, 4; Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Hockey, 2.

Bob L. Daily

DEILY, ROBERT "Bob"

Commercial

"Man forms and educates the world but woman educates the man."

Here is a fellow you can't miss in the halls. Seldom does he have his homework, but he's a likable chap, and knows more than he advertises. He is interested in football, baseball, basketball, ice skating, but mainly photography. He delights in sneaking out of gym class before the bell, and has been caught only once. His chief ambition is to get employment with the government in the postal department.

DEITRICH, ROBERT E. "Spondel"

Engineering and Science

"A penny saved is a penny earned."

Robert is an amiable fellow, always prepared for any occasion. He is not afraid of work, in school or elsewhere. Thrift is his motto, although he has his share of fun. His greatest enjoyments are listening to swing music and eating frozen malted milk. Spondel enjoys football and basketball, and—to a mild degree—dancing. He will most assuredly make a success of what we think will be an eventful life.

· COMUS ·

DeLABAR, ROY CHARLES, JR. "Breinigsville"

Commercial

"It pays to be on time."

Although Breinigsville is not on the honor roll, his marks are satisfactory. He is good-natured, in fact, too good-natured. In the future he expects to work for his father, who is a Chevrolet dealer. All you who want good cars or good terms, make note.

DeLONG, ANNA J. "Tiny"

General

"Small but mighty"

This four foot eleven brunette, a veritable bundle of activity, may not have been the most studious pupil in her class, but she has studied hard. She engages in football, basketball, baseball, and roller skating; her hobbies are cooking, sewing, fancy work of various types, and music; her ambition, to become a famous accordionist. Best of luck, Tiny!

Dramatic Society, 2; Chorus, 3, 4.

DeLONG, VIVIAN LORETTA "Viv"

General

"Not so tall, maybe short.
But always the best of sport."

Maybe you didn't notice Viv in the hall as you went by, but she was there. She is shy, and quiet, and nice to have around. Viv keeps her marks up to average. She is a good cook, too, and can sew nicely. She likes cowboy music but doesn't like dancing very much. She'd like to be a sales girl.

DENITZ, ELEANOR "El"

General

"Void of all deception, she speaks her mind without hesitation."

The typical school girl, gay, cheerful, and full of school spirit, El's ready smile disappears only in moments of serious thought, and she has those moments. Socially El is popular, for she loves dancing and sports. Her smile and disposition will carry her thru life happily.

French Club, 4; Dramatic Club, 2.

DENT, MARY "Mary"

Genera

"Oh Mary kept a heart of love, and oh she was gay!
She danced a jig, she sung a song, that took my heart away."

A conquering smile, a resplendent "Hi there," and a penetrating personality have won for Mary a place in the hearts of everyone. She might easily have the pen name of Dale Carnegie. She works with a will, and, although her languages unceasingly trip up her tongue, Mary manages to come through close to the top. Her greatest asset, the way she literally sparkles when she speaks, has strangely enough became her one liability. Her unrelinquishing spirit is contagious and Mary has carried the whole school with her as she heartily cheered many a team to victory. We are proud of her as a loyal friend, as an inspiring cheerleader, and as Vice-President of our class. Mary is Wellesley-bound.

Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Swimming, 2, 3, 4; Cheerleading, 3, 4; Vice-President of Senior Class; Inter Class Play, 3; Jr. Class Play, 3; Senior Class Play, 4.

DERR, EDWIN S. "Ede"

Industrial
Electrical Shop

"A fine man with a true ideal is unique."

Among the more conservative students of the Allentown High School we'll find Ed, studying and preparing for a brilliant future in electricity. The folks that know this young man respect his fine understanding and reliability.

DETWEILER, MARJORIE "Margie"

General

"If I were a lark and had wings, I then could fly
I would go to your arbour where my love doth lie."

Margie is another happy-go-lucky girl. Favorite sport, indoor skating. She likes to try out different hair styles, too. Her interests? A certain star, a certain song, a certain orchestra. Her chief desire? To keep house for some tall, dark, and handsome young man, but immediately she plans to work in a five and ten. Here's hoping she gets all her wishes.

DEUTSCH, DOROTHY L. "Dotty"

General

"With deep affection and recollection
I often think of the school bells
Whose sounds would, in my childhood
Fling round me their magic spells."

A cheerful, pleasing disposition accounts for Dotty's many friends. In the midst of a laughing group you will find her nimble wit. Dotty also feels a deep responsibility for any duty. She willingly takes her part in anything, work or play. Her chosen career, like that of an R. N. sister, is nursing. And then she wants to fly a plane. She will grace both situations with skill and charm.

Swimming, 2, 3; Gym Club, 2, 3; German, 3, 4.

DEVINE, RICHARD "Dick"

Engineering and Science

"A cloud, a fly, a stream, and I—
How happily the days go by."

Dick is a quiet, pleasant, likable fellow. He is not a belligerent type of lad; he accepts all of his tasks uncomplainingly.

Above average in all his subjects, Dick likes science and nature study best. He can usually be found along some small stream, fly rod in hand, during trout season. Throughout the summer he tries his luck with the less gamey fish. A very excellent fisherman's policy he follows—he catches only enough fish to satisfy his appetite.

When the fish refuse to bite, Dick discards his rod for his bathing suit, for he is as adept at swimming as at fishing, and went out for our swim team during his second year.

DeWALD, DAWN MARY "Snapper"

General

"Silence is golden to the eyes of all men."

Here comes our Snapper, a girl full of pep, vim, and vigor, a great lover of fun, sports, and excitement. When you hear laughter ringing in the air you can just know it is Snapper. She is a swell pal, and is going to be a singer. Here is a toast to you. Lots of happiness, and success in any undertaking, especially in singing.

Basketball, 1; Art Club, 1; Glee Club, 2; Basketball, 2; Chorus, 4.

DICKE, HARRIET L. "Dickey"

College Preparatory

"She who laughs last should have started sooner."

This blonde lass was born to be a leader. Life is not altogether a silly proposition to her, although she manages to have plenty of fun and merriment.

Dickey knows what she wants and she gets it, through perseverance and willingness to work for it. One of the most active junior members of the Woman's Club, she is headed straight for a position of leadership in the town.

A grand girl, with a fine background, Dickey will give as much to Sara Lawrence College as she gets. Truly one of our finest girls.

Dramatics, 2; Home Room Representative, 2.

DIEFENDERFER, RICHARD "Dick"

Commercial

"It's a wise head that has a wise tongue."

Dick, an energetic fellow, is medium in stature, somewhat slender, has blue eyes and wavy hair, and is interested in a variety of things. Football, basketball, swimming, and dancing all figure in his delights. He has high hopes of being the big boss in a business firm, that is the reason he is working so hard. Dick is a real gentlemen, popular with the boys and girls.

· COMUS ·

DIEHL, EVA CAROLINE "Blondie"

Commercial

"Little talk and more work."

Eva, a shy but true and trustworthy friend, keeps at a task until it is done. She likes movies and bicycle riding. Eva would like to go to Allentown Business College and later be a typist in an office.

DIEHL, WANDA

Commercial

"Sport that wrinkled Care derides,
And Laughter holding both his sides."

Wanda is a sunny person who lets nothing bother her. Always smiling, she knows life at its best. Perhaps her motto is: "When something goes wrong, grin and bear it," and that's the secret of her happy disposition and winning personality! Wanda conscientiously prepares her lessons but devotes some of her time to sports. She particularly enjoys canoeing and dancing, and admits that a good partner adds considerably to her enjoyment! To this young stenographer we wish the best of luck.

DILLIARD, HENRY NATHANIEL "Hank"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

"Everybody loves a fat man."

If you have ever seen a rather plump looking fellow tearing around the corner of 17th and Turner Streets at about 7:58 a. m., it just might be Hank, who usually slides into his seat about a minute before the bell rings. He is to be a draftsman, and rates among the highest in his class.

T-Square, 1, 3.

DOJECK, MARYANNA L. "Minka"

Commercial

"A great girl for sports."

Minka is a lively girl ready to pick up new ideas as they come and always on the go. She has plenty of action in tennis, enjoys dancing, likes school but "not a lot of homework." Her one ambition is to be a stenographer.

DOLL, RICHARD NATHAN "Dick"

General

"Silence is golden"

Richard is one of the most bashful boys of the class. He seems to be thinking about something all the time. Very active is he during the football season; he has many arguments about the games. His hobbies are stamp collecting and building model airplanes.

DOMIT, MILDRED "Sue"

General

"Why worry: life's too sweet."

Sue is a vivacious girl, full of fun. Her sparkling, dark eyes add to her cheery disposition. She likes to read best sellers, and can dance and swim. She wants to be a saleslady and she'll make good, for she could sell a refirgerator to an Eskimo.

DORWARD, BETTY JEAN "Bette"

Commercial

"What concerns me is what I must do, not what people think."

"It's not hard at all," is the common remark of Bett, with her winning smile and honest brown eyes. She is known as a jitterbug to her friends, and thoroughly enjoys a good orchestra. She likes to swim, sing, and try a hand at ping-pong. She is a favorite with both boys and girls, and is almost always in a laughing mood. Here's hoping she may always be happy.

DREIBELBIES, MARGARET L. "Peggy"

General

"Lo, this is she who is the world's delight."

Peggy is a girl with all-round abilities. She finds pleasure in all types of activity from basketball to dancing. A member of the chorus, she loves both classical and modern music. A keen observer of people too, she evaluates the qualities of a person. She pictures herself the owner of a small dress shop. Peggy plans to study dress-making in New York.

Basketball 3; Chorus, 3, 4.

DREISBACH, ETHEL MAE "Shpecky"

Commercial

"To know her a little is to like her a lot."

A bright smile, a cheery hello spells Shpecky. If you want a rousing good time, be sure to take her along. She can pep up even a party that's ready to lie down and die. Not only that, she is one of the best of pals. Always ready to try anything once, she will go to any amount of trouble for a friend. Her hobby is roller-skating, but even though she skates a lot, she manages to get her school work done.

Dramatics, 2; Glee Club, 1; Canary and Blue Solicitor.

DREISBACH, JEAN LOIS "Jeannie"

Commercial

"Happy-go-lucky, sweet and fair,
She has friends just everywhere."

Jeannie is that dark-eyed, dark-haired girl whom nothing ever worries. She is a great one for sports, and loves dancing. She is known for her pleasing personality and that everlasting twinkle in her eye. She plans to be a stenographer to some big business man.

DRIES, MARION M. "Dimples"

General

"Gentle to others, to herself severe."

Marion is of medium height, cheerful, and thrifty. She never refuses to listen to advice from others. She is industrious and ambitious, but a little bashful. She enjoys reading, and this is valuable for the college career to which she is looking forward.

DRIESBACH, LEONARD "Slim"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

"Time, tide, and Slim rush for no man."

If you have met Slim you can feel assured that you have met about the biggest member of the class of '41.

Slim loves the cafeteria where he can indulge in the various culinary creations needed to maintain his Herculean stature.

In the class room this lad is a trump card and hard to beat. If he does not succeed it will be through no fault of his own. May the luck of a Dutchman be with him.

DRUCKENMILLER, MARTIN "Drucky"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

"Nor learned at court, nor versed at wit
But loved by those who know him best."

Drucky may be slow in understanding a thing, but once he learns a thing, he is like an elephant; he never forgets. We are proud to have such a retentive genius in our class.

In school he is always ready to help in any way, and we are sure he will do the same when he gets out into the wide, wide world.

DUNSTAN, GLADYS L. "Arizona Rusty"

General

"Weep and you weep alone, not with Rusty."

Rusty, a blue-eyed girl, walks down the corridor yodeling cowboy songs. She has two ambitions: to go out West, and to become a typist. A member of the Wa-hoo Club, she has been the social editor ever since it was organized. Her hobby is horseback riding and her favorite horse is Danny. Rusty and her friend Rocky both play guitars, and do a good job of singing and yodeling together. Her favorite expression is "Why, sure!"

EBBO, PETER CARMEN "Pete"

General

"A little fun now and then;
Is relished by the best of men."

No, it's not Tyrone Power; it's Pete Ebbo, Pete the best dressed fellow in school, with a crazy personality, and always in demand. We can't exactly say he's a book worm, but he manages to get by—and that's what counts. Maybe Pete wants to be the world's champion ping-pong player, or maybe he'll settle for a contract with M. G. M. Anyway, we wish him success and loads of it.

EBELHAUSER, ALDEN "Reds"

General

"The sportsman who never beats around the bush."

Alden has many friends and no rivals. He's one of those football men. He has a big body, and big heart in the right place. If Alden plays the game of life as he has played on the gridiron, there is no doubt but that he will be a success anywhere.

Football Team, 2, 3, 4; Track, 3.

EBERLY, CECELIA "Bebe"

General

"The smallest effort is not lost."

Bebe is one of the tiny but pretty girls in Allentown High. It amazes people to see so small a girl with such a big lot of pep. Although she is quiet and appears shy, Cecelia makes friends easily. We are willing to bet that if she were eligible she'd have been quarterback and captain of the football team. Success is just waiting for Cecelia to put out her hand and grab it.

Dramatics, 3; Chorus, 4.

ECKERT, MARIE ANN "Marie"

Commercial

"Laughing keeps one alive"

Marie, genial, jolly, invariably in good humor, is ever ready with help whether in sense or in nonsense. She has never believed in too much study. In fact, she has taken extreme care never to study too much. Nevertheless she came through her course with colors flying.

Varsity Basketball, 1; Home Room Representative, 4.

EDDINGER, ELEANORE ROSE "Eleanore"

General

"Eyes of blue, fair, small Pleasant smile, loved by all."

It isn't necessary for the sun to shine when Eleanor's smile is turned on. You may see her at any social event as well as at the football and basketball games. Genuine, popular with boys and girls alike, always seeking new friends as well as new adventures, she is a grand chum. Although not among the highest in her studies, she is always ready, willing, and able to put forth adequate effort.

EDEL, DELIA "Dee"

College Preparatory

"Brains, beauty, ability, charm, sincerity."

"There are smiles that make us happy"—particularly when they come from Dee, our lovely blue-eyed, curly-haired gal. They're straight from the heart smiles, too, cause Dee is just brimming with happiness and good will. She's a busy gal,—with dramatics taking up her time and thoughts, Dee competently handles those important behind-the-scenes activities. Her curriculum includes all the toughies—physics, chemistry, and a solid class where she bravely competes with the supposedly superior male.

EGGE, RACHEL MAE "Toots"

Commercial

"Yet is her charm not to herself confined,
But all who neighbor her partake thereof."

If you haven't yet met this little brown eyed blonde you are missing something. She is a friendly type of person, cheerful come what may. Her friends call her a good sport. Toots likes reading, shorthand, and chocolate cake, and among her pet loves are school and sewing. She wants to become a secretary.

EISENHARD, ALICE ROSE "Wally"

Commercial

"Always happy, always gay
Alice goes along on her way."

Alice has a charming personality and a smile that wins the friendship of her classmates. And how that girl can get around on a basketball floor! She was captain of her team in her freshman year, and on the team in her Sophomore, Junior, and Senior years.

Much of her time she spends at football and basketball games. She also likes swimming, romantic and comic movies, and roller skating.

EITNER, KENNETH "Ken-Do"

Industrial

"Why can't I be rich instead of handsome."

Ken-Do is a small, but a mighty fellow. He got his nickname in the shop because of his wonderful ability to handle a job, whether correctly or incorrectly. He likes to dance, to jitterbug, and isn't bad at it. He is always willing to join in any fun-making, and has won the friendship of many in this way.

ELIAS, MARY "Merrie"

Commercial

"I slept, and dreamed that life was Beauty;
I woke, and found that life was Duty."

If you see an automobile whizzing by and a pretty brown eyed brunette in it laughing and looking too happy for words you can almost be sure it is Merrie, because riding in autos is her joy. But although she is mostly fun and gay company, Merrie does have a pet peeve—the alarm clock that wakes her in the morning.

Merrie's favorite subject is shorthand, and if you've ever seen her marks in shorthand you'll believe it.

ELKO, ROSE "Raye"

Commercial

"Ah, me and alackaday,
Why must schools lose girls like Raye?"

Raye has dancing feet, laughing eyes, a smiling mouth; but don't attempt to ask her where the tomboyishness of her junior high days has gone. Her blushes still come and go as frequently and easily as ever.

ENGLERT, JOSEPH "Bud"

Industrial

Mechanical Drafting

"Little play and all work makes a man rich."

Bud is a rather quiet fellow in school but he is to be a draftsman some day. He helps his dad during the summer as a carpenter, but likes to work around cars better. After school he carries papers, and his customers all swear—not at him, but by him.

ERDOS, PAULA "Paulie"

College Preparatory

"I want free life and I want fresh air."

Born in Cuba, wee Paulie, who's barely five feet high, has proved the popular theory of having nine lives, by surviving a tornado, a hurricane, an automobile accident, two fires and an operation, along with a great stage appearance behind the A. H. S. footlights. Versatile Paulie plays the piano besides riding horseback, swimming like a fish, and diving like a champ, and is planning to continue her outdoor activities by teaching Physical Education. For a great girl we predict great things, and wish her luck.

National Honor Society, 4; Junior Class Play, 3; Inter-class Play, 3; Senior Class Play, 4; Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Dramatics, 4.

ERNST, GLADYS RUTH "Shorty"

Commercial

"All I know is what I read in the newspaper."

Is there anyone in the high school who hasn't had the pleasure of meeting this beautiful, happy-go-lucky six-foot brunette? A versatile girl is Shorty. She's a wizard at basketball, and plays the bass violin superbly, and yet says all she wants is "a position as secretary or bookeeper."

ETTINGER, CHARLES "Chick"

General

"He's seldom ever quiet
He's always on a spree;
If the school were full of "Chicks"
What a good school this would be."

Chick made his first appearance in Allentown High in 1938 along with his friends in the General group. Although he does not take his school work too seriously, he has achieved satisfactory results in all his studies.

Chick did not play an important part in athletics, but he never failed to support all kinds of sports.

EVANS, ROY "Roy"

Engineering and Science

"A ship, a sail. Oh! the sea."

At least we can easily find him in the halls. All we do is look up. Yes, and at the social and athletic events of the city; Roy is invariably present. Sincere, but full of fun, he is a general sport enthusiast, as well as a good sailor. A future admiral in our navy, Annapolis is his present intention, and Roy is doing his best to achieve it by staying tops in his studies. He also finds time to high jump a little for the A. H. S. Track Team. Chief weaknesses—bright socks, pie, and girls.

Track, 2, 4.

Marion Fabian

FABIAN, MARION E. "Sis"

Commercial

"Tweet, Tweet, fall in."

Marion has many, many things that count—health, personality, friends, a ready tongue, and a keen sense of fairness. She has learned to acknowledge her friends graciously; but no one has ever heard her saying things that hurt others. The use of the baton has extended her acquaintance not only with A. H. S. students. but with a host of residents in Allentown. She is a great lover of sports and dancing.

Band, 2, 3, 4.

FAHLER, MARJORIE M. "Margie"

Commercial

"A quiet maid, so she may seem,
But pranks and jokes she does esteem."

Margie, a clever girl with a sunny disposition, combines work with pleasure, and has smiles for everyone. To all outward appearances she is a shy and reserved girl, but really fun-loving and a good sport. Although she does not take her work too seriously, she gets along very well in school. She shows keen interest in basketball and swimming. Some day we hope to see Margie making her way in the business world.

FAIRCHILD, DELPHINE W. "Del"

Commercial

"I am neither mountain, nor bird, nor star—and I seek joy."

When you hear a cheery "hello," you can bet it's Del, she of the pleasing personality. Her hobbies are movies and swing bands. She plays an active part in her homeroom and in the Commercial Club. Del wants to be a telephone operator, so in case you hear the operator say, "Drop another nickle please," drop it! and think of Del. We of A. H. S. wish her lots of luck.

Commercial Club, 4.

FATZINGER, DOROTHY ELIZABETH "Dottie"

Commercial

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."

Dotty is likable, cheerful, unselfish and an honor-loving person, always ready to help a friend in trouble. She has dark hair and blue eyes and when she smiles her eyes are like stars. She likes the movies, but her real hobby is stamp-collecting. She wants to be a private secretary.

Girl Reserves, 1.

FAUST, BETTY LEE "Lee"

Commercial

"A girl full of life and seriousness too
A sweet disposition and sunny smile
That makes everyone's life worthwhile."

Lee is talkative enough outside of class, but in class she can find no words to express herself. Her leisure time she spends reading, sleeping, and eating candy. Many an evening you'll find her out gallivanting around. Betty Lee intends to take beauty culture as a profession.

FEDERMAN, ALVIN "Al"

General

"Seraphs share with thee Knowledge.
But Art, O Man, is thine alone."

Al is a real artist when it comes to drawing, good enough to have sold some of his work, which doesn't however keep him from being an all-round good sport. Among his other achievements are dancing and music. Wherever you find a Juke Box, you'll find Al. He has a good scholastic record in High School, and is also one of the bright lights at the Kline-Baum Art School. Al is a promising writer, with a fine background and vocabulary, and good deep thoughts. Talking to Al makes one appreciate his wide intelligence. We know Al will make his mark in the world in whatever field he decides to enter.

Kline-Baum Art School, 2, 3, 4.

FEHR, ROBERTA "Bobbie"

Commercial

"A sunny disposition goes a long way toward making friends."

Well here's Bobbie, the girl with the cheery laugh. She is one of those last minute workers who believes in "better late than never." She just loves dancing and jitterbugging, ice skating, and basketball games. After leaving she would like to become a secretary and typist.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves, 4.

FEINOUR, CLAIRE "Claire"

General

"The grace of friendliness is the best of all the graces."

Claire is a bundle of shyness with a friendly smile, but she has her moments of bubbling over with fun and mischief. Her favorite study just does not exist. But Claire does a little serious thinking now and then. She isn't hard to get along with, is always ready to make friends with everybody, but declares she has no plans for the future. But she has our good wishes always.

Claire Feinour

FENSTERMACHER, EDWARD B. "Reds"

General

Whenever anything important takes place socially, athletically, or scholastically, there we invariably see—and hear—Reds Fenstermacher. As a fine all around athlete, Big Reds has tried his hand at most of the sports A. H. S. has to offer. Playing a Varsity end on our mighty grid team this year, he also has played on the basketball and baseball teams. A real fellow's friend, he'll always be there when we need him. As for the girls, he likes them all, and although he's no gambler, Reds still has a certain weakness "for dice."

Football, 3, 4; Basketball,2; Baseball,2; Varsity "A" Club, 4.

FENSTERMAKER, JOHN "Willy"

General

"Life begins at 2:45 o'clock and ends at 8:30 o'clock."

John spent three years in the Allentown High School as a visitor, and answered questions the teacher could not. He has followed the sports program enthusiastically, but has taken part in none. His high school education will be followed by a college and military career.

·COMUS·

FERRARA, HELEN "Tootsie"

Commercial

"To know her is to love her!"

Among the students that will be missed next year is Tootsie. What first catches your eye is her dark hair and dark eyes, but what makes her liked by the girls and adored by the boys is her charming sense of humor, her decidedly good looks, sunny disposition, and vivacious personality. There's plenty of real wisdom in that pretty head, too. Allentown High wishes happiness to Helen Ferrara—one of its prize packages.

FETHEROLF, JEANNE "Feather puss"

College Preparatory

"Love for one—friendship for all."

A hearty laugh, a flashing smile, and a cheery call, and that is Jeannie with the light blonde hair. Feather puss is one grand girl, we wouldn't want her to change one bit. Her charming manner, her sophisticated air, will never be forgotten by her most intimate friends. Her many other acquaintances will remember Jeannie cheering our teams to victory, or as that popular girl at high school dances. Never the less she is always up in her studies. Jeannie hasn't decided definitely which school to attend. Her buoyant personality will make her successful, wherever she goes.

Cheerleading, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 2; Home Room Representative; French Club; Riding Club.

FETZER, CARL "Motz"

Industrial
Machine Shop

Carl, the well know machinist of A. H. S., bears the name of "sure 'reckum Fetzer." He says he hopes to get a job "at least as a driver for the Allen Laundry." If he never gets to be a machinist he has at least the ability to become one. He has a splendid appearance; his always slick combed hair make him stand out among the boys of the shop. We all know he will be a first class machinist.

FILLMAN, CHARLOTTE "Lottie"

General

"Laughing and dancing wherever she goes.
Knocking down troubles and picking up beaus."

Lottie's sparkling smile has brightened many a dull moment and although not studious, she manages to get along well in her studies. Her interests are many; her dislikes few. Her pleasant disposition and pleasing character make her a leader. Her skill in handling a basketball is she says, "probably due to the ability of her coach." Lottie intends to go in training, and we all wish her the best of luck.

Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Volley Ball, 2, 3, 4.

FILLMAN, WILHELMINA R. "Min"

General

"Oh! woman what distraction was meant to mankind when thou wert born?"

Where Min is you may be sure there will be no gloom, for she is always full of fun. She leans toward dancing, dancers, and dances. Incidentally she has won money prizes with her spectacular dancing. Some day she hopes to be—a dancer? No! One of those good nurses over at St. Luke's Hospital.

Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Cheerleading, 1, 2.

FINA, JACQUELINE "Jackie"

Commercial

"It never pays to hurry."

Jackie is no believer in silence. A smile is as natural to her as thrift to a Scotchman. She's always in the midst of a talking and giggling group. Her magnetic personality has won her many true friends. Jackie's going to be "another secretary."

FINA, LOUIS SO "Louie"

General

"Give him a nickel
Give him a dime
But you'll never get Louie
To school on time."

Louie is a congenial fellow with a good word and a friendly smile for everyone. Although he has a grand sense of humor, he knows just when to be serious. He is quite a runner, a star on our track team. Sand lot football is another sport he enjoys. If someone will provide conversation, Louie is an interested listener. We see him at all school dances, for Louie is a ladies' man. What Louie will do only time will tell.

FINADY, CAROLINE ELIZABETH "Finn"

General

"Little in stature, great in mind,
Gentle loving, exceedingly kind."

Caroline is not as bashful as she used to be, and there's a reason for this change. Although her marks are not soaring, she gets along with all the rest. Caroline likes to cook. She's always on the lookout for a new recipe. She loves to dance and never misses Bob Eberly if she can help it. She would like to be a sales girl, and we wish her luck.

Girls Glee Club, 1.

FINK, GLORIA LOUISE "Finky"

Commercial

"Her merry way helps to make many occasions gay."

Gloria is a delightful combination of common sense and wit. She is always gay and carefree. Next to eating she loves dancing. She is always darting here and there and everywhere. We often wonder what keeps her so busy. Classes never become too dull for Gloria; she can always find an agreeable classmate to chat with. Gloria intends to become a private secretary.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserve Council, 4.

FINK, JOYCE MAE "Joyce"

General

"Joyce with friends galore
Always hopes to make still more."

Joyce is a charming lass, slow to anger, quick to forgive, and always a true friend. Her laughter fairly flows at the slightest hint of anything comic. Here's hoping that she will always have something to laugh about. She finds a great deal of pleasure in basketball, volley ball, roller skating, music and dancing, and is especially fond of dreamy eyes.

FINK, RICHARD "Dick"

Commercial

"Oh! sweet are his words as the honey that falls in the night."

Dick is a timid, brown-haired, blue-eyed boy who likes to see basketball and football games. He gets his best marks in bookkeeping and accounting, subjects he likes because they deal with numbers. Chewing gum, he says, helps him to concentrate! He is uncertain just what he will do after graduation, but we hope that he will find some occupation that will give him the opportunity to work with numbers to his heart's content. Good luck, Dick!

Chorus, 3, 4; Y. M. C. A.; Home Room Representative, 2, 3;

FIORELLO, RACHEL MARY "Rach"

Commercial

"A swell personality, full of vivacity, a smile that's all her own."

Rachel has everything; a keen sense of humor, and amiable personality, and the ability to mix happily with others; dignity or fun, according to the people she's with. During her stay at high school she has succeeded in keeping up with her lessons.

Chorus, 1, 2.

FISCHL, EDWARD "Eddie"

Industrial
Pattern Making

"Sometime we had rather believe a traveller's story than to go to disprove it."

Light haired, well built, likes to travel—that's Eddie Fischl. Want to know what a good time is? Eddie will tell you it's traveling some place. Any place. Eddie also loves to dance, and attends all of them he can. He has a lustrous smile from ear to ear, is a sporty dresser, and never knows a dull moment.

FISCHL, MILDRED MIRIAM "Peggy"

Commercial

"Her smile, her humor all unfold
A nature good as purest gold."

Always ready for a good time, mostly laughing and being silly, seldom actually being serious, that's Peggy. But she is always willing to lend a helping hand. Her bright smile, and pleasing personality have won her many friends. Her hobbies are roller skating and swimming.

FISHER, JEROME "Jerry"

Commercial

"Good to look at—
Better to be with."

Good-looking Jerry can generally be seen standing at his locker watching the girls go by. He likes the movies, particularly Priscilla Lane's. He attends most football and basketball games and cheers enthusiastically whether we win or lose. He is studious, but that doesn't keep him from being loads of fun. Hats off to Jerry.

Home Room Representative, 3.

FITZPATRICK, JEAN "Fitz"

General

"A generous friendship no cold medium knows."

Through the devious paths of a high school education, Fitz, dark, lithe, and vivacious, goes her way calmly. Being an artist, however, doesn't interfere with her school work, which is usually above average. Fitz also expresses herself in two quite robust sports—swimming and ice-skating, plays a bit of tennis now and then.

FLAMISH, ELSIE MARGARET "Els"

General

"To study, one cannot think of love, but why study?"

Elsie is one of the most vivacious persons at high school. She is the type anyone can get along with, for she is a fun lover. She can really appreciate a good laugh. Elsie is also a great follower of sports. She is to be a secretary. Here's loads of luck to you, in anything you undertake.

FLORES, MADELYN G. "Maddie"

General

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

Maddie seems quiet and unassuming until you become better acquainted with her. Actually, she's an easy going person, taking life as it comes, and she enjoys having a good time with friends as much as the rest of us do. Outside of school her main interests are music, dancing, and—a career in medicine. We hope she'll be whatever she seriously wishes to be.

Chorus; French Club.

Marie Flynn

FLYNN, MARIE, ELIZABETH "Flynnie"

Commercial

"Full many a flower is born to blush unseen.
And waste its sweetness on the desert-air."

It certainly isn't hard to get along with Flynnie. She laughs a lot, plays a lot, but, in spite of it all, she works and studies a lot. She's popular, and enjoys the company of her friends at anytime—probably because she chooses them wisely. When you're feeling blue, just telephone Flynnie and she'll cheer you up in no time at all. Even when she's some big executive's private secretary she'll be glad to hear from you.

Y. W. C. A., 1, 2.

FOCHT, ALTHEA M. "Al"

Commercial

"We love her for a heart that's kind."

This dark brown hair, green eyes, full up to the brim with mischief, is "Al"thea, with a greeting for all. You see her at all our sport and social school events, usually talking, for she has the gift of gab. She laughs much, dances a lot, studies little. Her popularity is well known, and her personality will carry her far. Allentown High will miss her when she goes out in the business world to become a private secretary.

FOCHT, BERNADINE CATHERINE "Bernie"

General

"Her looks were deeply imprinted in his heart."

Bernie is a quiet girl who likes to make dresses in her leisure time. But the other side of Bernie likes to share in every activity. She especially dislikes people who chew gum, and especially likes the company of handsome football players.

She wants to be a sales clerk, too, for which she has the ability, the personality, and the training.

FOGEL, LEONA "Dreamy"

Commercial

"A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market."

Leona is one of those lucky girls who eats whenever and whatever they want without gaining extra poundage. She never has to diet to keep her silim figure, for she gets her exercise batting ping-pong balls, at which she's really good. In fact, Dreamy belongs to the Flat-iron Ping Pong Team, which battled its way through this their first year in the league. Leona wants to be a secretary, wants some day to own her own car. She hasn't ruined any fenders yet. If the guides her life as carefully as she guides a car, she is certain to be successful.

FOX, JEANNE "Jeannie"

General

"Pretty brown hair, pretty brown eyes,
Have been the cause of many long sighs."

Jeannie is always "just riding around" in her blue convertible car or astride her chestnut horse. This young miss does her alma mater proud with all her pretty clothes. Jeannie is interested in all sports, particularly in horseback riding, tennis, swimming and basketball. Jeannie expects to go to a northern college, where there are winter sports.

Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Cheerleading, 1, 2; Dramatics, 1, 2, 3; Swimming, 2; Riding Club, 2, 3.

FRAENKEL, FABIAN IRWIN "Fibish"

General

"Business before pleasure, except when it is special."

Fibish is the woman-hater, at least that's what he calls himself. Quite bashful around the girls, yet in his heart he loves them all. Fabian has a great deal of business ability and we are sure he will be a great business man. Stick around a couple years; you'll be able to borrow a little money from him.

Historical Society, 2, 3.

FRANK, RUTH H. "Ruthie"

General

"Let anger's fire be slow to burn."

Ruth has a smile for everybody and is always ready for pranks of any kind. Ruth has many hobbies—her favorite is reading. She likes "almost all" sports, is very fond of camping, and is going to be a nurse. We consider the patient that will have Ruth to wait upon him, lucky, for Ruth just can't help being thoughtful and kind.

FRANKENFIELD, EDGAR "Jeep"

Industrial
Print Shop

"There is no king can rule the wind,
There is no fetter for the sea."

Edgar is quiet, annoying as he is at times in class, but he is a wonderful worker, especially in print shop. Jeep is the champion candy eater of the gang. He's a loyal and faithful friend, however, and would do anything for anyone. We all shall miss Jeep, and hope that he will be very happy.

FRANTZ, DORIS BETTY "Toot"

Commercial

"A friend indeed
When one's in need."

If you ever need a friend, you ought to know Toot, this small, dark-haired girl that walks around the halls smiling. She gets along with everyone, and is willing to help anyone whenever she can. Toot's hobbies are dancing, swing bands, and movies; her ambition to be a stenographer.

FREDERICK, JUNIOR "Reds"

Machine Shop

"A good heart is the best thing in the world."

Junior is the practical joker in the machine shop, and he surely enjoys it; you should hear his hearty laugh. He is willing to work both inside and outside of school, knowing it is to his best interest. Reds, as you can see from his picture, has a most cheerful disposition.

FREED, PAUL FRED, JR. "Bus"

College Entrance and Science

"To attain one's life ambition is complete success."

The house lights dim, the curtain rises—that's where you find Paul. But don't think this is all that occupies his time. No sir! Acting takes second place; medicine steals the lead. Paul also likes basketball, football, and dramatics, and yet manages to rate high grades. He has two diversions—chemistry and girls. He plans to attend Muhlenberg College, and go on to a medical school.

Here's to a swell guy who is headed for success.

Basketball, 2; Football, 2, 3; Dramatics, 2, 3, 4.

FREUND, ARTHUR "Art"

General

"I count life just a stuff
To try the soul's strength on."

Art believes that nothing can be done by merely talking about it; he realizes that success is accomplished by actual exertion and he is not afraid to put forth effort when called upon to do so. He has not as yet decided what he will do after graduation, but his creed of work assures success.

Baseball, 2, 3, 4.

FREY, HOWARD FRANKLIN "Duke"

General

"Ideas are funny things.
They won't work unless you do."

"How to Win Friends and Influence People" could have been written by the Duke. Whether his ability to make friends can be attributed to his pleasing personality, or to his happy-go-lucky manner is hard to say. While his hobby is making friends, he is frequently seen carrying, on an April evening, a trout rod, for he is a trout fisherman. When he isn't fishing he's playing table tennis or football.

FREY, ROBERT WIDMER "Bob"

Engineering and Science

"Ah how good it feels, the hand of an old friend!"

Unassuming, quiet, ambitious, Bob rates a scholastic standing, and his records prove that his seriousness and earnestness in his school work are worth while. His High School courses were chosen with regard to entrance requirements for an engineering college. Much of his spare time is spent at his chief hobby, model railroading. In his last year he was an enthusiastic member of the German Club.

German Club, 4.

FRIEL, MARGARET L. "Pat"

General

"Those that know her, know her smile."

Pat appears quiet and dignified, but she has a deep sense of mischief. She has beautiful green eyes and a sweet smile. She always gets to the place where she is going, even if she usually is late. Pat is interested in sports; she never misses any athletic event at high school. Pat always manages to have her work finished, although she spends so much time dancing and reading. Pat expects to attend Cornell Nursing School to be a nurse.

FRIES, ALVERTA JUNE "Smiles"

Commercial

"The blushing rose is fair to see."

Alverta, with the soft blue eyes, light brown hair, a bright smile, and a cheery hello, is shy and when teased blushes easily. Although she seldom takes books home, never hurries to classes, never carries more books then necessary, and never worries, she gets along, and has a host of friends. Her favorite pastimes are sewing and listening to swing bands. She knows how to put pieces together, and makes her own attractive clothes; and she'd rather listen to Horace Heidt's Musical Knights than to settle down to her books. She also enjoys going to Bingo games, but never wins.

FRITS, JULIUS A. "Fritzie"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"Music hath charms to soothe the savage beast
But I for one am a reptile."

Fritz is a person any one can make friends with. He is working in the machine shop, and intends to continue with this trade when he checks out of school. If he keeps his mind on this subject as well as he keeps it on his other studies, we are sure he will make good. His hobby is drafting (opening and closing windows) and his favorite sport is anything connected with water.

FRY, WILLIAM JAMES "Bill"

Retail Selling

"A smile, a laugh, a wanton eye"

They may come handsomer, they may come smarter, but they don't come any friendlier than Bill. He greets everyone with a smile, makes friends easily and, what is more important, he keeps them.

A student in the Retail Selling Course, he has been working afternoons at the Call-Chronicle helping to keep the news rolling and the press free. But Bill yearns for the U. S. Military Service. He eyes the Air Corps longingly; someday he may be one of the airmen defending our shores.

He likes swimming, fishing, parlor games, and works nights at Bingo to keep his weight down.

FUKAN, MARJORIE JEANNE "Margie"

General

"What fairy like music steals over the sea, Entrancing our senses with charmed melody?"

Sweetness and sincerity, and a mischievous glint in her brown eyes, characterize Margie. She is always ready for a good time, and is happiest when surrounded by a group of her friends, joyously engaged in a game of ping-pong. She loves swimming, tennis, bowling, riding, and golf which might be said to be her favorite.

Marjorie's love for her piano tops all, and she plans to continue her study of music in college this fall.

German Club, 2, 3; Riding Club, 2.

FULLMAN, JOSEPH "Joe"

Industrial

"A rolling stone gathers no moss."

Joe is not an athlete, nor a great scholar, but just an ordinary fellow that everyone likes. Besides his school work, he is stage electrician for the class plays, for he is studying to be an electrician. He may even be another Edison in time.

FULTON, MAE M. "Mae"

Commercial

"Slow to anger, ready to please
What greater gift are there than these."

Mae, a bonny Scotch lassie, is always found tripping through the halls, laughing. She has many friends and deserves them all. Although she does not take her studies too seriously, she has outside interests, she receives good marks. She is a great lover of basketball and swimming, and participates in them whenever she can. We all wish her luck in the business world.

FUNK, CARL "Funky"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"The world is his meat."

Funky is a happy-go-lucky person, and full of fun. He looks like a farmer boy, but just living in the sticks doesn't make a farmer of him. He would like to become a lathe cleaner or floor sweeper for the Mack Company; he feels that his three years experience in Machine Shop qualifies him for such a job. We hope he succeeds!

GABRIEL, MARGARET ANN "Margie"

Commercial

"Very active, very gay,
Very sweet in every way."

Quite a jitterbug is this attractive brunette, with her sparkling brown eyes and lovely smile that hold so many friends, old and new. She has most fun when she's with a group. She is active in sports and an ardent sport fan. She always greets her friends with a smile and a cheery hello. Here's wishing her success in whatever work she may choose.

Basketball, 1, 2.

GACKENBACH, RUSSELL E. "Gacky"

Science and Engineering

"Farewell, good Sirs, I am leaving for the future."

Gacky leads a carefree life in school, at home; everywhere it seems. There is never a sad or a dull moment; worry has no attractions for him. Outdoor life in the form of camping, hiking, and the protec ion of wild life furnishes his greatest enjoyment. He aims to enter Penn State next fall and to major in botany.

BSA, 2, 3, 4.

GALLUCCI, ANGELO "Ang"

General

"Let me have music, I seek no more delight."

Ang's greatest interest is music. He would rather have that than anything else. When he is depressed he says the best cure is to listen to good music. Ang is a quiet sort of fellow when he is alone, but just the opposite when he is with a gang. He's the type that believes in having his work done, even if he does usually do it at the last minute.

GEBERT, DONALD "Geb"

College Preparatory

"Look, he's winding up the watch of his wit;
by and by it will strike."

Although coming a year late to high school because he attended Allentown Prep, Geb quickly slipped into the routine of this alma mater. By nature rather quiet and unassuming, all Don needed was a spark of friendliness to bring out his smile and his likable personality.

Don is found at all the school activities, sometimes taking part in them, but mostly lending a strong support. If Geb continues what he has done at High School, his life will be rich, and serviceable to his fellows.

Junior Class Play, 3.

GEESEY, LILA MAE "Mac"

Commercial

"Her smile is as the litten West,
Nigh—while the sun is gone."

Here's to Lila! Her disposition is as lovable as her smile. As an ardent sports fan, she has done her full share in cheering the boys to victory. Incidentally, basketball players are her weakness and dancing is her hobby. She intends to make use of her clerical talents by becoming a private secretary.

Glee Club, 1; Dramatics, 2, 3; Ushering, 3.

GEHO, ELEANOR JUNE "Ele"

Commercial

"Smiles for the old
Smiles for the young
That's how golden friendship is won."

Whenever Ele is around we are sure to have a good time. Her bright and winning personality and her sunny smile which she flashes at all her friends while going through the halls have won her many friends. Ele is interested in movies, in dancing, and in the piano but she means to become a stenographer. The class of 1941 wishes her success.

GEHRIS, BETTY LOUISE "Gery"

General

"Her store of household sweetness
Is a dear completness."

This vivacious brunette, with the winsome smile and the impetuous gleam in her eyes, is Betty, in person. Everyone enjoys her fascinating and loyal friendliness, her pleasing personality and genial disposition.

Le Circle Francais, 4; Historical Society, 3.

GEIGER, ELMER CURTIS "Elmer"

Commercial

"Small but mighty."

Elmer is small and looks like a quiet fellow, but don't let that fool you. When you meet him, he greets you with a smiling face and a friendly "Good morning." His schoolwork is good and he always ranks near the top. Although he doesn't make much fuss about girls, no one knows what goes on inside of that small but mighty mind. His brother in the Army keeps him busy reading and writing letters. He plans to spend his future in an office.

National Honor Society, 4.

GEISINGER, SALOME ETHEL "Lome"

General

"Scattering beautiful thoughts, like gems of the beautiful
As we go through life helps us to make our own characters lovely."

This tall, slender girl, a dreamer of dreams and a seeker of wisdom, has a keen and ready mind. Lome's sunny disposition and cheerful word for everyone, her kindness and her loyalty, will always stand by her, and will always be a source of strength to her friends. She has an excellent gift of conversation and never shirks a battle in words. Although this girl is from Center Valley, that doesn't keep her away from school activities nor from school. She handles the piano quite well enough for her own amusement. No matter what road she travles, she is bound to find it a happy one—Sunny skies!

Dramatics Club, 4.

GENSENLEITER, JOYCE "Jo"

General

"Art and knowledge bring bread and honor."

Joyce is an independent type of person. She gets a bit temperamental now and then, but we can excuse that because of the artist in her too, Joyce is seriously interested in art. As for sports Jo likes swimming best, along with hiking and cycling. Probably one of Jo's best points is her ability to keep a conversation going—and that is an accomplishment.

Dramatic Club, 2.

GEORGE, BEULAH I. "Bula"

General

"Too much study makes a dull girl"

Beulah is a jolly witty girl who, win or lose, is always a good sport. Bula is a constant and loyal friend. Nothing ever bothers her, and she is always ready to help or comfort others.

She dresses attractively and has an eye for bright colors. Her one ambition is to become a nurse. Although she could pay more attention to her studies, we are confident she will be a success, when she settles down to a thing.

GERANCHER, ELIZABETH "Betty"

Retail Selling

"Still waters run deep."

Betty in school is a quiet girl, but outside of school you should see her! She likes sports of all sorts. "Why worry?" says she "It doesn't get you anywhere!" Never-the-less she takes genuine interest in her school studies. Betty will get somewhere someday, if she keeps up her good work.

GERMANI, ANTHONY L. "Tony"

General

"Silence is Golden"

Tony is quiet, modest, serious-minded, determined, but quick-tempered, with a flair for the artistic. He takes his school work lightly, that is he doesn't devote too much time to study. He would rather play ball than eat, and hopes some day to be in big league ball. Tony spends his spare time drawing features and designs. We hope the future has in store for him the fulfillment of all his ambitions.

GERY, CARL R. "Whitey"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"To be or not to be."

Whitey, a studious fellow, always makes good grades, in fact so good that he is a member of the National Honor Society. Carl is a very friendly sort, too, although he spends most of his leisure time working at photography. He hopes to take up the machinist trade.

National Honor Society.

GIBBONS, BETTY B. "Butch"

Commercial

"Health and cheerfulness mutually beget each other."

Almost five feet two, eyes of blue, and light brown hair, Betty, is a jitterbug on rollerskates, a romancer on a dance floor, a swell guard in basketball, and the best of friends with everyone. Some lucky man will have her for his secretary, but a still luckier man will have her for his wife. She has the temper of the Irish, but the disposition of an angel. Whatever she does will be done well. Here's wishing her the "luck of the Irish."

GIBISER, FRANK "Dits"

General

"A spirit whose heart strings are a lute."

Here is our band-boy. Frank played viola and clarinet in the A. H. S. band and orchestra. When other fellows are just fooling around, Frank is listening to good dance bands. His friends laugh at him for being so shy among the girls. Frank plans to study music

Band, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

GIFT, ELEANOR S. "Gifty"

General

"The victory of success is half won when one gets the habit of work."

This is the kind of girl who does not shirk work. Her favorite subjects are math and physics. She likes sports, and has a sportsman's idea of fair play. Eleanor has her head in the clouds, figuratively speaking, for she's always thinking about airplanes. She would like some phase of airplane or laboratory technician work. We hope that fate comes flying through with her long-dreamt-of airplane.

Choir, 2, 3, 4, Chorus, 2, 3, 4.

GIFT, MELVIN "Fats"

General

"Hail, rain, snow, and sleet
Gift is always on the street."

Yes, Melvin is a good buddy and a good friend. He is always jolly and carefree, and seems as if he did not have a worry in the world. He is also an ardent sport lover, attends all the football and basketball games. Melvin is also very popular on the dance floor, where he is a good dancer. We do not know what he will do after graduating but we feel sure he will succeed.

GILBERT, GEORGE "Gil"

Industrial
Electric Shop

"Don't judge a book by its cover."

Gil is a quiet intelligent boy, always ready to have fun. He is quite a wrestler, he thinks, so if you see him throwing other fellows around, don't pay any attention to him, he is probably only showing them how to do it. Most likely he will join his brother in the Army and have "Private" written on his door.

GLANCEY, JEANNE "Jeanne"

General

"True friends are like diamonds, precious, rich, and rare."

Believe it or not, Jeanne never said an unkind word to anyone or of anyone. Her genial manner and charming personality makes her one of our best-liked girls. We can't exactly say she's a book-worm, but she managed to get by with her studies. Good luck, Jeanne. We wish you success—and happiness.

GLASER, FLORENCE "Floss"

General

"My creed is work; to seek for pleasure in the realms of toil,
To lay a new path through the unknown way."

Floss is one of the few who accomplish whatever they set their minds to. She has a keen sense of humor and is charming and different. Brilliant, her interests are many—music, poetry, good books, and nature. Although Florence has a great gift in music, and is known for her work as an accompanist, she has chosen science as her real work. We are sure that we shall be proud of her someday, and happy to remember that we were a part of her life at Allentown High.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Choir, 3, 4; German Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Class Accompanist, 2, 3, 4.

GLICKMAN, BERNICE SONYA "Bunny"

General

"Careless and fancy free"

Bunny's sparkling brown eyes smile at everyone. Her merry disposition has won her many friends during her three years at Allentown High. Her school work doesn't worry her; she goes at it with a "now or never" attitude. She is interested in football. Her one desire is to be someone's secretary.

Gym Club, 1, 2, 3; Dramatics, 3.

GOLDEN, MARY "Chup"

Retail Selling

"She smiles and the world smiles with her."

Sandy hair, dreamy eyes, and a pleasant smile are characteristic of Mary. She is always full of pep and ready to help her classmates. Mary's pleasing personality has gained for her many friends, both at school and at the stores where she is known. Among her favorite pastimes are swimming, dancing, and movies. Although Mary is a busy girl, she finds time for school work, and does it every well, as her high ratings indicate. Mary likes being a sales-girl, and would like to be a buyer of sportswear in some important department store.

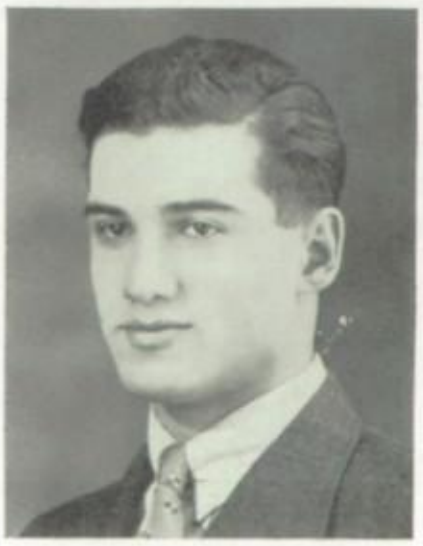
GORGODIAN, NELSON "Corher"

General

"Keep on keeping on."

Here comes the band! That flash in the Canary uniform is Corher to his friends, but just plain Nelson to his teachers. And flash is just the name for him; he has more pep and ambition than a dozen fellows, with his versatility with percussion instruments. Active in music since six years of age, Cohrer merits his position as student leader of the Allentown High School Band.

Band, 1, 2, 3.



GOTTLIEB, DAVID "Dave"

College Preparatory

"An honest tale speeds best being plainly told."

"You don't think so, you say? Well, well, seems as if you need some enlightening on the subject." Hear that anywhere and you know it's Dave. Tall and youthful, but easily serious, Dave, with his quick smile and slow temper, is easy to like, and a fast friend. His interests lie in oratory, dramatics, debating, some serious writing, and life in general. Capably filling the post of secretary of the Orotan, Dave is uncertain concerning his future, but we are sure that his drive and keen mind will see him to some solid accomplishment.

Orotan Debating Society, 2, 3, 4; Senior Class Play, 4. National Honor Society. 4; Comus, 4.

GRAINGER, MARY MAXWELL

College Preparatory

"Finally, education alone can conduct us to that enjoyment which is at once best in quality and infinite in quantity."

Mary Maxwell Grainger, altho quiet and unassuming, is always thoughtful of the comfort of others and always willing to lend a hand. Mary is fond of animals and of the great out-of-doors, especially hiking and fishing. We have known her to sit all day on the bank of a strea.n without even a catch. Neatness is her watchword, both in work and in person, and patience is her characteristic virtue. Her greatest ambition is to be a doctor some day.

GRASLEY, LEONTINE JUNE "Leon"

General

"Know her a little, like her a lot"

To those who know her, Leon's name brings fond memories. She's a grand girl! A more friendly person is hard to find. She takes an interest in all sports. Here's wishing her happiness and success in all she undertakes.

GRAVER, CLAIRE ANTOINETTE "Gravy"

"The way to a man's heart—she knows it."

A pretty girl, a smooth dancer, a swell pal, good on advice to the lovelorn, and a humorist. Gravy also loves cooking. Business however will be her career. To this little package of pep, vim and vigor we wish success.

Dramatics, 2, 3, 4.

GREENHALGH, DOROTHY M. "Dotty"

General

"Full of grace, full of wit,
Oh, we love her, every bit."

An intoxicating charm and innocent blue eyes betray Dotty. She is a capable student of expression and known for her interpretation of the Southern belle. But although her dimples see her to all the high school activities, her apt mind sees her in favor of studies. She's eager and earnest, but still uncertain about her future course. Dotty is sweet and well liked by all her friends, who join her happily at the basketball games, on the dance floor, or at the ice skating rink. Those who know her admire her sincerity; those who don't, like her friendliness. Life to her is just a bowl of cherries.

Dramatics, 2; Historical Society, 3; Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

GREENWALD, LEONA "Lee"

Commercial

"Be smart, and look smart." is Lee's advice

Blithe, gay, Leona, is the girl who loves to study clothing styles. Leona is true and sincere; she enjoys swimming, skating, and dancing. Leona is prompt to do her work and has a good scholastic record at A. H. S. Her ambition is to become a buyer of clothing.

GREGG, ROBERT "Bob"

General

"A fool and his money are some party."

Here he comes; there he goes. Bob is an unforgettable character and personality. He has many friends and is always making more. He likes to take things apart to see what makes them go. Between times he goes in for all kinds of sports. However, the girls do not seem to bother Bob; they're just a passing fancy to him.

GRIDER, CHARLES "Chubby"

Commercial

"To have a friend is to be one."

Charles has a pleasing personality, many friends, and no rivals. Chubby was a great signal-caller for Allentown High. He is small, but he sure packs might. Besides, he is an easy fellow to get along with, and not at all hard to please. If he fights his way through life as he fought on the gridiron, there is no doubt that he will go places. We can say he is an all around clean fellow, and that goes not only in sports, but in everything.

Football, 1, 2, 4; Varsity "A", 4.

GRIES, WILLIAM "Bill"

General

"Tis better to be brief than tedious."

Bill is an all-around boy noted for his sportsmanship, for he takes an active part in all sports, particularly baseball.

He excels in all subjects, too, although he rarely carries a book, as a "book is a burden." He walks nonchalantly around the halls, but give a whistle, and he's sure to hear you and come running. Best of all, Bill is always ready to do his bit. He expects to "go out into the cruel world after graduation to find just any job."

GRIESEMER, LUCILLE "Lucy"

General

"Happy am I, from care I'm free"

Lucy is a gray-eyed and witty brunette. Her smile is flashing and her personality dashing and her attitude is that of "devil-may-care." She never takes anything too seriously, except her plans to become a stenographer. Lucy said if she had five hundred dollars to do with as she pleased she'd buy lots and lots of new clothes, and a train ticket to Michigan. She did not, however, say it's going to be a round-trip or a one-way ticket. But we do believe she will always keep her cheerful disposition, no matter how bumpy the path may be.

GRONER, LLOYD JAY "Legs"

Enginerring and Science

"A little mischief now and then is found in the wisest men."

Gaze up on this tall, athletic, studious lad. Lloyd is a faithful follower of sports at A. H. S., but with all his love of good times, he does not neglect his studies, among which his favorites are the sciences and mathematics. Although he loves fun, Legs strongly objects to excessive horseplay, and does not hestitate to vent his feelings if he finds anyone's actions obnoxious. Lloyd plans to study at Muhlenberg.

Track, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

GROSS, WILLIAM HENRY, JR. "Big Bill"

Engineering and Science

"You can tell a man's intelligence by his love of noise."

Big Bill is one of the gay lights of our class, with a liking for football and basketball, and he may be found rooting at all these events. Bill enjoys all sports from checkers on up to football. He is to become either an army engineer or an architect. As he travels into the wide, wide world, our good wishes go with him.

Canary and Blue, 2, 3, 4; Comus, 4.

GROSSMAN, MARGARET "Margie"

General

"Life without laughter is a dreary blank."

Margie, although belated in her arrival at high school because of the fact that she attended the Hunsicker, has caught up with the rest with no difficulty. She is a laughing girl, easy to get along with, is a lover of fun, a swell pal, loves sports, especially basketball, and is a right good jitterbug. She's interested in becoming a designer and intends to go to New York to study after graduation.

GROSSMAN, SAM "Brother Sam"

General

"And His Lust for Life was Aroused."

Sam can cause great confusion, so don't try to figure out what type of a fellow he is. He may speak simply one minute, and then delve into profound expression the next. A wonderful example of him was a poem he wrote, "Song of Madness" which, as the name implies was madness in itself: chaotic, without consistency, but with each repeated reading revealing new thoughts, fresh and vigorous.

He has written five treatises of economic theme which shows his intense interest in political science.

A love for music and for modern literature keeps him occupied much of the time. He declares, when mentioning the classical music or a mastery in writing; "I am cascaded to the heights of ecstacy", and there is sincerity in this love.

GRUBE, VIOLET DAISY "Dolly"

Commercial

"All who joy would win
Must share it—Happiness was born a twin."

Add to the picture a smile, a laugh, a joke, a lovely disposition and a pleasing personality. Dolly doesn't take her school work too seriously, but seriously enough to assure success in the business world.

GRUBER, JEAN MARCIA "Jeanie"

Commercial

"The laborer is worthy of his hire."

Strutting down the street chewing candy, gum and an apple at the same time goes Jeanie. Be very careful, however, for her favorite pastime is talking; one would think she has been vaccinated with a phonograph needle. And folks just follow Jeanie around. Perhaps its the oomph, or is it the giggle?

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Dramatics, 1.

GRUBER, JUNE S. "Jitterbug"

General

"Those move easiest who have learned to dance."

June has a smile for everyone. Carefree and happy-go-lucky, her maxim is "Never trouble trouble till trouble troubles you." She might pay more attention to her school work, but she chooses instead to joke and kid her way along. She is an enthusiastic member of the cheerleading squad for a church league basketball team. June is musical, dances well, teaches dancing, and frequently gives exhibition dances. Her greatest ambition is to become a professional dancer.

GRUMBEIN, GEORGE H. "Ollie"

Industrial

"His intelligence i s exceeded only by his good looks."

If you see a fellow with black hair, a wide smile, and a host of friends, that will be George. His favorite sport is hunting; he is an expert marksmen and nearly always brings home the bacon. But his Dear-hunting is near the Northampton bridge. Is he meaning to settle down and let a wife support him? He doesn't "care to" exert too much energy, but he will have no trouble in finding a wife.

GUTH, MARIE A. "Ree"

Commercial

"Silence is golden, but we're off the gold standard."

Ree is talkative, the life of a party, be it large or small. Her many friends have noticed that she is allergic to opening doors. Ree's favorite pastimes are bike-riding, going to football games, and swimming.

GUTMAN, VERONICA R. "Ronnie"

Household Arts

"Come, and trip it as ye go,
On the light fantastic toe."

Here's Ronnie—blonde hair, brown eyes, a pleasant personality, and a most devastating smile. Her hobbies are many, but she is partial to swinging and swaying to a good orchestra. Although she loves a good time, she knows her lessons. Ronnie wants to be a salesgirl. She has a host of friends who wish her luck.

HAAS, EUGENE "Scotty"

Science and Engineering

"Drive safely, arrive safely."

Gene could be surnamed Joe Flash for his well known style of driving a car. He plays around with photography "not merely as a hobby, but a good way to waste money." He is a good student, gets along with his teachers, likes to eat, sleep, and sleep some more; never misses a school dance, and is popular with the ladies, whom he fairly slays with his charm. But he wants some day to join the Air Corps.

HAAS, FREDERICK M. "Fritz"

General

"True knowledge is to know what is best worth knowing, and to do what is best worth doing."

Fritz is a good natured fellow, with a wide variety of interests. He is one of the orchestra, and also takes special interest in a microscope club, of which he is a charter member. Camping and junior leadership occupy his time during the summer. He intends to continue school, and to study for medicine.

Orchestra, 2, 3, 4; Janseen Microscope Chapter, 2, 3, 4.

HABRIAL, GORDON E. "Flash"

Industrial
Patternmaking

"He'll smile at your play; but at heart he's a builder

Flash is a sociable fellow, a fair type of the sort in the pattern shop. Gordon is mildly interested in sports, quite interested in stamp collecting, and more interested in building model railroads. When he takes time off to play, he plays chess.

HAGERMAN, EDITH M. "Edie"

General

"Empires dissolve, and peoples disappear; song passes not away."

Edith is one of the talented members of the class—she's not only an artist, for she specializes in oils, but she writes beautiful little poems which she illustrates. To these talents add a flair for dressmaking, and a love of sports, and you have Edith, good student, and loyal friend.

Girl Scouts, 1, 2, 3, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; A Capella Choir, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

HAINES, LOUISE VERDI "Weasel"

General

"An ear full of music, a heart full of song."

Jolly, happy-go-lucky Louise never misses a laugh, but neither does she ever miss the serious side of a question. Her beautiful red hair is the envy of many. She swims, and loves dancing, especially jitter-bugging.

Gym Club, 1.

HALL, JANE E. "Halsey"

"She's simple—she's sweet
She's cute and petite."

Jane is a quiet, lovable girl. Her fine personality and quick flashing smile, together with her laughing blue eyes have won her many friends. Page her in the front row of any social function. Janie gets around more than the average girl, yet when the end of the rating period rolls around her report card is the envy of many. Wherever Halsey goes, we all hope she will be as happy as she has made us.

Riding Club, 2, 3; Girl Scouts, 1, 2, 3, 4; Le Circle Francais, 4.

HANDSCHUE, DOROTHY "Dot"

General

"Like the buzzing of an insect,
Still, irrational, persistent—
I must listen, listen, listen."

Dot is one person who can sit and take in every word you say and not say one thing. She loves to roller skate and is pretty good too. Salesmanship is her favorite school course, and she would like to follow that. Hiking takes lots of Dot's time, and some day she hopes to travel to far countries, but that won't be on foot.

HANZLICK, HELEN

General

"Inspire, but do not try to criticize!"

Helen is a girl with a sunny disposition, and has a cheerful word for everyone. She is a loyal friend, always willing to help out when you are in need of some homework. She likes to argue; she loves history. Her friends are afraid that someday she will become a politician.

HARDY, WILTON A. "Hardy"

Engineering and Science

"Fat paunches have lean pates and dainty bits
Make rich the ribs but bankrupt quite the wits."

Wilton's a rather rotund fellow who, we suspect, would rather joke and pun than study. Surprisingly, he's something of a dictator—"All men have tendencies toward tyranny." Nevertheless, he's maintained a fairly high scholastic record, was an active member of two clubs, experimented in his own laboratory, and studied chemistry and physics—his pet likes. After college he wouldn't mind being a professor and a research worker in Nuclear Physics.

Oratans, 2, 3, 4; German Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

HARRIER, RICHARD CHARLES "Jo"

General

"The one invincible thing is a good book;
Neither malice nor stupidity can crush it."

Although Jo has the General Course, and has taken all the subjects of the Science and Engineering Course, he is more interested in aesthetics. "'A Persian's dream is easily made, 'Tis but dark eyes and lemonade,' but me. I prefer a good book to the lemonade." says Jo. Besides presiding over the German club and attending meetings of the National Honor Society as well as an astronomical society, he delights in poetry and philosophy. His future hopes lie in a professorship in literature, and the studious rest of every Sabbatical year.

National Honor Society, 4; German Club, 4.

HARTMAN, ETHEL "Ethel"

General

"Good at work, better at play,
Willing to chat with the boys all day."

The better you know Ethel the more you like her, with her frankness and sincerity. While her favorite songs change weekly, her friends never change. In school Ethel thinks seriously of her studies, but outside of school her thoughts wander to coming social events. She is an enthusiastic supporter of the football and basketball games. She hasn't quite decided what college to attend. but she has great plans.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

HARTMAN, MILDRED "Lottie"

General

"A loving heart is the beginning of all knowledge"

Believe it or not, Lottie would rather study than do anything else But when she is not in her serious mood, you can count on her for a good time. Lottie plans to go into nursing, and with her conscientiousness, kindliness, and intelligence she is certain to be a good nurse.

HARTUNG, MARLOWE "Bud"

Science and Engineering

"He would pore by the hour o'er a weed or a flower,
Or the slugs that come crawling out after a shower."

Marlowe is one of those quiet intellectual fellows who if he doesn't know the correct answer for something, can give a good substitute.

Marlowe drifts through the halls like all the others of A. H. S., but there is a difference between him and the others. He is one of the very few that at least looks as though he knows the score.

Seriously though, he is studious, getting good marks in all subjects. Marlowe is the organizer and president of the Janseen Chapter of the American Society of Amateur Microscopists, the first chapter to be founded in America, and is very much interested in science of all kinds.

Band, 2, 3; Janseen Microscope Chapter, 2, 3, 4.

HARTZELL, ROBERT "Cherf"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

"We are glad for his friendship."

Cherf is a swell fel ow, and always has a few comical remarks on hand to spring on his classmates. Bob is a fairly good dancer, but it's hard to get him on a dance floor because he is so extremely bashful. One of the Cherf's greatest interests is his current romance. We all believe he will become a successful draftsman.

HARWICK, GLORIA J. "Jackie"

General

"A pair of light shoes is not all that is wanted for dancing."

"Typical American girl" would be an apt appellation for Gloria. Active, she tends toward the artistic for she is a movie and record fan with a flair for dancing, mostly tap. Gloria collects photographs of movie celebrities; she has over a hundred different pictures she got directly from Hollywood. Among the men, Ray Milland is her favorite, but she finds selecting a favorite actress difficult. Gloria prefers to be a spectator rather than a participant in sports. Her ambition is to be a dress designer for the Hollywood studios.

HASSLER, HOWARD "Hap"

Industrial
Print Shop

"Roses are Red
Violets are Blue
Boy! Oh Boy!
Are we glad to see you."

Hap is a splendid fellow, and a most willing worker, but his mind is forever wandering to bowling. He loves to travel too; his one ambition is to see the wonders of the world. He hopes to become a professional printer when he leaves school; and we know he has the makings.

A. H. S. Printers Club, 1.

HAUSER, MARY JANE "Mary Jane"

College Entrance

"Genuine like a diamond; sparkling too!"

Mary Jane's way of facing the problems that confront her is to be carefree and happy-go-lucky. Unsophisticated, lovable, cheerful, gay—Mary Jane just won't let anyone feel blue when she's around. She is also a capable student, and we feel sure she will excel in whatever she may choose to follow.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4.

HAUSMAN, JEANETTE ELIZABETH "Peanuts"

General

"If silence were golden, she'd be in rags."

Peanuts can always find something to giggle about and to talk about. Her attractiveness and her ability to make others laugh makes her popular. In her sparkling eyes mischief is always brewing. If she would ever take her books seriously, she might go far. Her knack of inspiring happiness should help her in whatever she does.

HAWK, WILLARD J. "Hawkie"

Commercial

"If he's late for a date, don't fret
The checker game isn't over yet."

Six feet one and all of it, blonde hair, blue eyes, a flash, and that's Hawkie. Easy to get along with, always with a big hello and a cautious smile for all the girls, and a grin and a hi for the boys, he's tops. He's not at the head of his class, but he will get by. He hopes some day to be an executive in some big firm, and his zip and his million-dollar personality will help. He likes practically every sport, and this year he hopes to make up for his injury last year by breaking the pole vault record. Willard is also an expert hunter and fisherman. Best of luck to him.

Track, 2, 3, 4.

HECK, ARLAN JOHN "Hecky"

General

"A penny saved, is a penny spent later."

Heck spends most of his spare time at photography, hunting, or target practice. He also owns an old Ford, which many of the Allentown High School students have seen going to and from school. His initiative and his habit of happiness will give Hecky a prosperous future.

HEFFNER, CHARLES F., Jr. "Sleepy"

Fine Arts

"The world owes me a living."

A grand fellow with a cheerful disposition, Sleepy finds humor in everything and anything. Among his many sports his favorites are fencing, swimming, and archery, and even then he finds time to devote to drawing. Charles claims he is going to be a bachelor. He also says, believe it or not, that he is going to be a State Trooper. Just picture him in a wide brimmed hat and a trooper's uniform curising around in a white car. So beware when you're driving; limit your speed, or you'll have a tall state trooper on your trail.

HEIM, RITA JEAN "Jeannie"

General

"Smiling lips, sparkling eyes
Big at heart but small in size."

A brown eyed girl with a delightful personality. Jean is always on the go, for she likes to see all the games, and she knows her stuff on the dance floor. She has an extraordinary sense of humor, and knows all the answers.

HEIN, ROSANNA "Rosie"

Retail Selling

"None knew her but to love her,
Nor named her but to praise."

We've all seen Rosie working happily in our larger department stores. She will succeed in her work because besides perseverance and enthusiasm Rosie has a magnetic personality. Although extraordinary in so many ways, she is like the rest of us in liking good movies and dancing. To a very human Rosie, we wish a world of happiness.

HEINTZELMAN, LEROY "Moe"

Machine Shop

"Great Joys are in the offing."

Leroy is a quiet, cheerful, fellow who likes to do whatever he can for his friends and associates. He is good in his schoolwork, and that gives him a good standing with his teachers and classmates. When in a good humor, and he usually is, he likes to play a few jokes on his friends. Moe stands 6 ft. 2 inches in his stocking feet, not bad for a little boy.

HEISER, HAROLD "Smiley"

Industrial
Pattern Maker

"A word to the wiser, eventually they all learn."

Harold is one of the chief wood butchers in the pattern shop. He craves adventure and is always trying something new to get it. Harold is a good fellow and a swell sport. He engages in many sports, but dotes on hunting and fishing. When it comes to females, although he's a bit bashful, he prefers blondes because "they seem more interesting." Harold is going to Erie, Pennsylvania, to work at pattern making. When it's a choice between school work and hunting or fishing, he goes fishing.

HEIST, BETTY MAE "Infant"

General

"I don't know where I'm going, but I'll get there."

That's Betty, small, mighty, blonde hair, blue eyes, with a smile that always wins your heart. She is very talkative and is always joking. This young lady is very popular, and dancing is her joy Betty plans to become a registered nurse. After that—no telling.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

HELLER, FLORENCE E. "Jon"

General

"To love is to be loved."

Jon is full of fun and can take anything that comes her way. But she never neglects her studies no matter what turns up. Although she is a great fan for basketball, football, swimming, and dancing, she also has some dramatic ability, having acted in plays in and outside of school. Her greatest ambition is to become a nurse.

Chorus, 3, 4; Dramatics, 3.

HELLERICH, CHARLOTTE LOUISE "Charlotte"

General

"Success follows hard work."

Charlotte, a girl of medium height, light brown hair and greenish gray eyes, is always hurrying through the halls. Her love of sports makes her an ardent booster of all high school athletic activities. She is a studious lass, her favorite subjects being sciences and German. Aside from school work, her interest is music. Although she is undecided as to her career, her first choice is nursing. Here's luck to her!

National Honor Society, 4.

HENDRICKS, VIOLET "Lily"

General

"Bright and willing, cheery and gay;
That's our Violet all the day."

Violet is a smiling girl, with light hair, dark brown eyes, and a host of friends. Everyone likes Violet. A laugh like a babbling brook marks her, too. Violet has many hobbies—movies, reading, and sports, and she goes to all the football and basketball games. She is going to be a nurse, so when someone smilingly takes your temperature you can just hope it will be Lily.

HENRY, EUGENE A. "Hughie"

Industrial

Hughie is a tall, brown-haired lad who can always be found at the Jordan Park swimming in the summer.

When asked what he would do if he had five hundred dollars he said he'd take a trip to Florida where he could swim all year round.

Hughie expects to continue his trade of cabinet making after he graduates.

He's quite at ease with the girls and seeing that he has five sisters at home and two brothers he has a chance to study their technique rather closely.

HENRY, W. DONALD

General

"What he hit is history; what he missed is mystery."

Donald, a studious chap, likes to have his school work finished, but he has a pleasing personality, and is always on the lookout for fun. His favorite sports are baseball and basketball; his favorite hobbies, hunting, trapping, and fishing. He plans to go to Lehigh to become an engineer.

Dramatics, 2.

HERB, BETTY JANE "Shorty"

Commercial

"Just four feet eleven
A little chunk of Heaven."

Just ask Betty what she would like to be most of all. Ten to one she'll answer—"Five feet." She can be quiet at times, but in a crowd you can't help hearing her hearty giggle. Betty has a pleasing personality, topped off by a dimple that invites many a second glance. Her studies are quite easy for her, even though she does spend most of her time on a dance floor. Betty wouldn't mind being an office worker, but her greatest ambition is to sing with an orchestra, which she has already done on occasion.

HERING, PAUL "Fish"

General

"To God, thy country, and thy friend be true."

Paul is a good all-round fellow. An average student he works earnestly always to make good grades. His present interest is in aviation,and some day we shall probably see him working in one of our leading airports, or airplane factories. Among his hobbies are baseball, swimming, golf, tennis, photography, and tinkering around at home. Paul doesn't seem interested in women yet! But we're sure the day will come when he will admire them just as much as all the rest of us do.

Orchestra, 1, 2, 3.

HERMAN, BETTE "Rusty"

College Entrance

"Personality is to a women
What perfume is to a flower."

Bette, vivacious and charming, is a general favorite. She devotes time to her studies, but not to the exclusion of sports and social life. She has a single desire—to become a dietician. Lacking a real dog, she delights in her collection of small glass dogs. She spends much of her summer vacation at a lakeside cottage, and when not occupied with swimming or sailing, she will be found at target practice. Ask Bette any favor; she will not let you down.

French Club, 4.

HERSH, EUDORA FLORA "Dode"

General

"Quiet reflects wisdom, not weakness."

Melting brown eyes, curly black hair, and a pleasing personality combine with just the right amount of intelligence to make Dode an ideal chum and student. Dode is the sort of a girl a teacher likes to have in class, for she is always willing to do her share and more. Her persistance and willingness will go a long way in easing her over the ups and downs of the future.

Le Circle Francais, 4.

HERTZOG, BETTY "Betsy"

General

"I should like to rise and go."

Betzy is a vivacious little girl, whose many friends like her glowing personality. Betsy loves dancing and swimming, and is an all-around good sport. Although small, her ability to meet difficult and trying situations more than makes up for her lack of stature. Betsy intends to enter a Nurses' Training School, and we all know her unfailing determination will stand by her.

HESS, ALTHEA "Shorty"

General

"The secret to success is a smile."

The far away look quickly passes from Althea's day-dreaming blue eyes as she watches some new victim stroll down the hall a new conquest. But both boys and girls alike are victims of Althea's striking personality. Tiny featured, dressed in blue, Althea might have been a dainty old fashioned china figure, but we fear she would soon tire of sitting on a shelf, for Althea is a thoroughly modern girl, made to thrive in the thick of social activities. And she numbers bicycle riding among "social activities."

Do you want to see the latest style coiffure? Take a look at Shorty Hess.

HETZER, IRENE "Renie"

General

"One thorn of experience is worth a whole wilderness of warning."

Irene is one of those quiet little girls who has endeared herself to her classmates with her shy smile. She is a conscientious worker, and her dependability in a crisis will be a great advantage in her chosen nursing.

Chorus, 2, 3.

HICHAR, HELEN ELAINE "Ellie"

Commercial

"Of all the arts the eyes express,
The sweetest kind is bashfulness."

Despite the fact that Ellie appears to be quiet in school, she is altogether different in the social world. Her charming personality and fine sense of humor have won her many friends. Ellie loves dancing, and can she jitterbug! Her chief ambition is to be an orchestra leader. She likes sports, sings well, and handles the clarinet adeptly.

In anything she plans to do, we wish her luck.

HILBERT, DOROTHY LOUISE "Lottie"

General

"Let me live, move, and have my being"

Dottie is a pleasant and friendly girl, just wonderful to get along with. During her spare time she loves to embroider and to read novels. Between times Dottie swims, plays tennis, and rides a bike. What Dottie asks of the world is just the privilege of living, moving, and having a pleasant being, among pleasant people doing pleasant things.

HILBERT, MARCELLA L. "Marcy"

General

"She always smiles; but never hurries
She knows her mind, and never worries."

One of the smallest girls walking through the halls at A. H. S. is Marcy. A cheery hello and a bright smile you're always sure of from Marcy. Good work and a good time is her slogan—and she is always among those present when there's a downright jolly time to be had. Football and basketball she likes. Marcy's pet peeve is to hear a member of the opposite sex say women aren't equal to men, and should not be treated as equals in the world of business and politics. College, and singing with a popular orchestra we both figure in her intentions.

Dramatic Club, 4; Senior Class Play, 4.

HILDEBEIDEL, RICHARD "Dick"

Industrial
Auto Shop

"A little nonsense, now and then,
Is relished by the best of men."

A mechanic, this man is; already his experience with automobiles is well known in shop. Dick has a sunny disposition, and an encouraging smile for everyone. When there is a dance, he is sure to be there. May your stock in trade pay high dividends.

HILL, GLORIA M. "Gloria"

Commercial

"Cold hand warm heart,
You'll love her from the start"

Gloria, one of Allentown High's cheerful girls, has always a sparkle in her eye and a sweet smile for everyone. Because of her fine personality she has many friends. Sports are her favorite pastime, oh just any of them, basketball, football, swimming, hiking or dancing. Gloria is interested in office work.

HILLER, LESTER RUSSELL "Les"

Commercial

"Good humor and generosity carry with the popular heart all the world over."

Les plays fair and square with everyone. He likes sports, and although he doesn't star in any of them, he can hold his own against most of the other boys. He is careful not to over-study or over-work, but we know that he will be the right person in the right place when he gets a real job to work.

HILLIARD, DOROTHY J. "Dotty"

Commercial

"She's happy-go-lucky and full of life
And is mischievous more than a bit."

There's never a dull moment when this mischievous, sparkling, blue-eyed blonde is around. Her friendly, good-natured manner, has won many, many friends for her. Her ambition is to be a professional dancer. In short, Dotty is the perfect picture of health, vim, vigor, and personality plus!

HIMMELBERGER, MARGARET "Peg"

General

Peggy is the scintillating type that sparkles with wit and good humor, carrying with her always a touch of friendliness. With her shining brown eyes and brown hair, she is good to look at and will be an ornament to any office.

HIMMELBERGER, MARY GEORGINE "Blondie"

General

"She is quiet and very nice."

Mary has a quiet charm all her own. She likes to sing, but "just around the house." Tennis is her hobby. This Canadian-born miss is a great lover of books, especially mystery tales, and she would like to be a librarian. We wish her success and happiness.

HIRST, FRANCES EVELYN "Franny"

Commercial

"Suppress me if you can! I am a merry jest!"

Fran, a good student and a ceaseless worker, is always jolly. She likes tall men, however, but she'd be content with a six-footer. Frances says little, but when she does, her words are worth listening to.

HOCHSTRASSER, FLORENCE MAE "Flo"

General

"Who never defers and never demands,
But smiling, takes the world in her hands."

Flo's blonde hair and blue eyes are natural additions to her already lovable personality. Her versatility is almost amazing. You can't name anything from the hardest chemistry problem to the latest dance step that she doesn't enjoy doing, or that she doesn't do well. There is little doubt that Florence will be the kind of a nurse that is always in demand.

Girl Reserves, 1, 2, 3, 4; Girl Scouts, 1, 2, 3, 4; German Club, 4.

HOEHLE, CLARENCE F. "Schtunk"

Engineering and Science

"He smiles engagingly at all the world"

Clarence, never seen without a smile and never heard without a joke, original at that, is none too studious, but he manages to get his work done somehow. Starting his basketball career on the J. V. team in his Sophomore year, he finished on the Varsity, center in his Junior year and guard in his Senior year. His favorite pastime is eating, and he really makes a business of this hobby. After graduation, Clarence hopes to enroll at East Stroudsburg Teachers' College for Physical Education. We are sure he will do well at that, and we wish him the best of luck.

Basketball, 2, 3, 4.

HOFFMAN, RICHARD "Dick"

General

"If he will, he will
You may depend on it.
If he won't, he won't
And that's that."

Your gaze now rests on a fellow regarded as a member of the Sunshine Aggregate, who is always paged either among the basketball equipment—for he is a senior basketball manager—or at some outdoor park trying to improve his diversified talents at one thing or another. His dynamic personality best manifests itself when he is cheerleading. When he yells "Go," the whole team goes. Liked by the boys, adored by the girls, everyone wishes Dick luck and a happy landing.

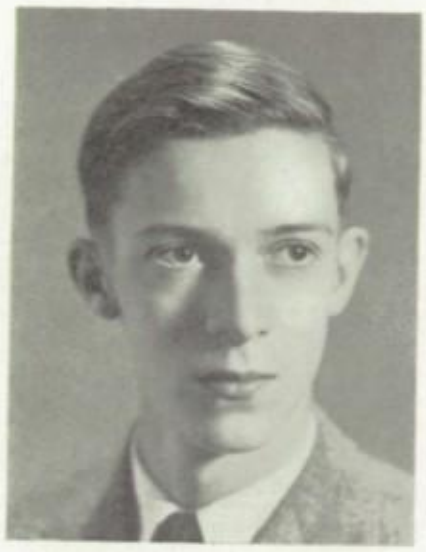
Gym Team, 2; Cheer Leader, 4; Basketbal lManager, 3, 4.

HOLDEN, ROBERT W. "Fink"

General

"Where there is trouble he'll be found."

A mischievous fellow who, although he is always in trouble, is liked by everybody. He has cooking in school so when he graduates and looks for a girl she'd better watch her step! He'll know whether she can cook or not. He's a kind of genius about machinery too. Page him in some big important machine shop five years from now. In sports he plays football, basketball, baseball, and likes ice skating and track. Altogether, he's one of the fellows you miss a lot when he isn't around.



HOLENBACH, HAROLD "Holly"

Industrial

"Let every man be master of his time."

Holly is a quiet boy, does his school work, and still finds time for play. He is studying to become a draftsman. Photogrc phy occupies a great part of his time, but he still finds time for baseball, and achieved great prominence in school as a fine basketball manager.

T-Square Club, 1; Basketball Manager, 2.

HOLLENTHONER, RUTH ELIZABETHA "Ruthie"

General

"Never worried—laughs at fate
Always there and never late."

Ruthie does not worry abcut what she calls mere trifles. Tall, slender, with big brown eyes, black hair, and a fair complexion- you can't miss her. If ever in need of help—see Ruth; she will never let you down. She is all for a pal and a pal for all. Her favorite pastimes are swimming, reading, basketball, dancing, roller-skaring, and singing. Ruth is sympathetic and, at times, serious. Her pet expressions are "Hiya there," "Oh," and "Boy, it's a pip."

HOLTZMAN, HELEN "Babs"

Commercial

"Then out she bursts with words of chatter and gives her version of the matter."

Well, here's what you've been waiting for—"Babs," with her flashing brown eyes, stealing a glance at everyone. Babs is just like a top. She's here one minute, there the next, but she is tops. She writes poetry, although it's not to be classed with Shakespeare's. She likes winter sports very much. She is a follower of the church basketball games.

Babs' ambition is to be an accountant, and here are our best wishes.

HORN, MARION ANNA Marion Horn "Blondie"

Commercial

"Sometimes quiet, sometimes gay,
We all love her either way."

Marion is a blonde, has a pleasing smile, is a true friend, a good sport, and a jolly person to have around. Although fond of outdoor sports, she spends some of her time in the movies or at home reading.

Chummy with everyone, she makes friends easily, does not complain about coming to school—for that there is a reason. When she graduates, she hopes to be a typist or a salesgirl. Whether she types or sells, we all wish her luck.

Basketball, 2; Historical Society, 3.

HUBBS, EMILIE A. "Blondie"

Household Arts

"Then up she steps with words and chatter,
And tells you all about this matter."

This delightful classmate, although a stranger in our town, has attracted and captivated many friends here. To describe her would be useless; perfect seems the right word. Emilie, although small in stature, will never be overlooked—her constant chatter takes care of that. Taking her studies very lightly she believes in never doing to-day what she can do to-morrow. This lovely miss give us the impression that she will probably make some man an ideal wife.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

HUBER, HELEN VIRGINIA "Jinny"

Commercial

"You'll have to go pretty far for a better personality."

Here's a cute little red head with plenty of wit and brains. Although Jinny's bit of humor keeps all her friends happy, she can be serious, too, and in these serious moments, we find her ambitious, studious, and willing to try anything. Of course, Jinny's pleasing personality adds to her charm, and will certainly help her to become a secretary, or a housekeeper, no matter which.

HUDSON, JEANNE RUTH "Jeannie"

College Preparatory

"A friend is a rare book, of which but one copy is made."

Wide awake, full of fun, and always on the go, expresses briefly what this girl is. With her blonde hair and blue eyes, she creates a disturbance in hearts wherever she goes. Versatile—she fits into any crowd. Active—she has made her mark in each of the many orgainzations to which she belongs. We are sure that whatever she attempts, she will do it with the same untiring interest and intelligence that has been her custom here; and her friendliness will earn for her again as many friends as she has now.

Historical Society, 3; Girl Reserves, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 3, 4.

HUNSICKER, KENNETH "Kenny"

Industrial

"Too much study weakens the brain."

Most of the time you will find Kenny whistling at his work, but 99 9-10% of the time he will just be whistling. He enjoys nothing better than sitting under a shady tree and sleeping. When Kenny is awake, and not eating, he's sleeping. If there is any possible way to get around work, you'll find Kenny taking that short cut. His one ambition? "To marry a rich woman and then figure out a way to collect alimony." If he doesn't succeed in this, he will change his name to a number, and live off the state. "My father pays taxes; I might as well benefit by it."

HUNSICKER, LaVERNE CHARLOTTE "Shorty'

Commercial

"Anything that makes a noise is satisfactory to a crowd."

If you see a short, blonde, brown-eyed girl moving about in a daze, that's LaVerne. She always has a wide smile and a friendly word for everyone. LaVerne is one of those happy-go-lucky people you hear so much about but hardly every see. Her ambitions are modest; however, she will be an A-1 stenographer. She is an active girl, interested in all types of sports and dancing.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

HURDELL, ANN "Annie Hurdle"

General

"Clear the road; I delight in speed."

Wherever there's excitement or mischief, Annie is in the midst of it. Hurdle laughs at anything, no matter how funny or how serious the predicament. She really can be serious though, when she puts her mind to it. Someday we will probably be reading the syndicated column of the great reporter Ann Hurdell in some of the bigger newspapers. No matter which way she travels down life's road, we all know she will make good.

French Club, 2; Riding Club, 1, 2, 3.

HUSHKEK, WILLIAM "Willie"

Industrial

"A rolling stone gathers no moss."

William, the basketball star, needs no introduction, because he has played on one of Allentown High School's greatest basketball teams.

In fact, he's one of the fellows who made the team great, and took it into the district playoff. When he runs out on a basketball floor the game is won.

He is really a good mechanic, but e spends a good deal of his time singing to his classmates. That's how he got his name, the "Singing Mechanic."

Basketball, 3, 4.

HUTTIE, JOSEPH A. "Joe"

Commercial

"Much study is a weariness to the flesh."

Joe is an example of an overworked senior. He is a very lion among the ladies, and has a mania for history. Joe isn't ambitious; all he wants to be is president of the United States. He promises if he is elected to abolish compulsory education.

INGLESE, LOUIS "Geno"

Engineering and Science

"I am a great friend to public amusements;
they keep people from vice."

Geno is a well-mannered and pleasant sort of fellow, one of the best of friends. His pleasing personality and his ability to make friends will be valuable to him always. You may catch him with one of his vivid blushes, a sure sign of a highly sensitive nature, but that doesn't stop him.

He likes track, baseball, and basketball, and hopes to continue all of these at Lehigh where he plans to prepare for a career in engineering. We wish to a fine sport and a great guy, enduring success.

Track, 2, 3, 4.

IOBST, ANNA "Twin"

General

"Silence is golden."

Anna believes in the old saying, "little girls should be seen and not heard." She has a friendly disposition and a smile that makes you look twice. Anna's face and her ways blend with those of her twin and her voice blends just as perfectly. Anna's one great ambition is to own a "squeeze box," piano accordion to you, "of her very own." May we hope her ambition will be fullfilled.

Chorus, 3.

IOBST, ESTHER "Twin"

General

"Be merry today, for who knows
What may happen tomorrow."

Esther's always laughing and joking when the teacher isn't looking. Altogether, Esther's more talkative than her twin. She is always willing and ready to help those who need it. Her main interest is playing the accordion. She is also interested in swimming and basketball. Watch out, fellows! Esther's played many jokes on the teacher with that twin of hers. and she may try it on you too.

Chorus, 3.

ISENMAN, VERONICA Y. "Ronnie"

General

"Have I not here a substitute for flowers."

Ronnie is the pretty little blonde who is only three years out of the coal regions. Although she is a quiet sort ,she has a wonderful personality and finds her greatest joy in trying to please people. Veronica attends and enjoys as many of the school affairs as she can possibly get to. Her favorite pastime is Bingo, although she is not always lucky.

· COMUS ·

JACOBY, DONALD "Jake"

Science and Enginneering

"It doesn't worry me any."

That fellow walking through the halls with that sleepy look is Jake. But everyone that knows him knows that he's a swell friend, and far from sleepy. Girls don't interest him, but radio is right down his alley. Jake plans to take up radio as a profession. He's also interested in school activities and sports. He can always be counted on to be a loyal friend. We're all pulling for you, fellow.

Track, 2, 3, 4.

JACOBY, JEAN "Jake"

Home Economics

"Tuesday's child is full of grace."

Jean is an amiable girl and a valuable friend. She has brown hair, blue eyes, and is five foot four. Her favorite sport, and one in which she excels, is ice skating. Jake also enjoys bicycling and swimming, and is an ardent supporter of the football team. She makes almost all her clothes, and even designs some of them: in fact, sewing is Jean's favorite pastime.

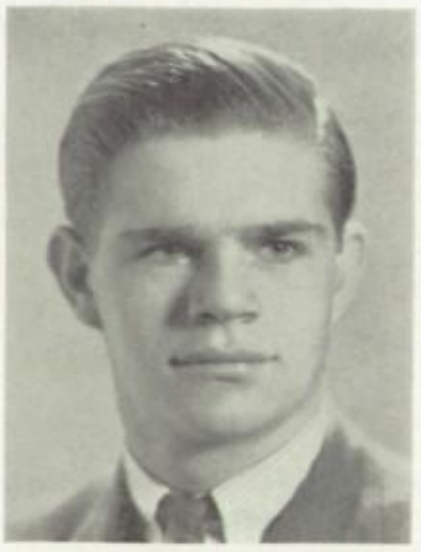
JACOBY, RUTH I. "Ruthie"

General

"Life has loveliness to sell."

Small and slender, with a delightful sense of humor, Ruth is one of those people who love to eat—and she gets away with it. Her twinkling toes have carried her from great success in dance revues to even greater popularity on the ballroom floor. Her excellence in her studies, coupled with a charming personality, make us sure she will be a most successful private secretary. We wish her the utmost in happiness and success.

National Honor Society, 4; Girl Reserves, 4.



JAMES, CHARLES T. "Chuck"

General

"Don't worry, it shortens life."

Chuck is a well built, excellent athlete who would give up eating for his beloved track. He finds a great deal of interest and pleasure in the collecting of dance records. He can identify any popular dance band by just hearing a sample of their music. Chuck was a fellow who had the brains to do his homework, no doubt, but "who wants to bother with homework when there are so many interesting things to do?" Chuck plans to be an engineer.

Track, 2, 3, 4.

JAMES, LOIS "Mitzie"

General

"Worry? Do not make me laugh,
How would I pose for a photograph?"

Mitzie will always be remembered as being one of the best and most graceful creatures that ever cut a figure eight on the frozen surface of Union Terrace pond. She is not only a good skater, she performs quite well in the water and in the stirrups. Cheerful and active, Mitzie has lots of personality and hosts of friends. We're sure that this energetic Miss will have success in everything she does.

JANENKO, BERNADINE "Bernya"

General

"The highest degree of earthly happiness is quiet."

Bernya, though very quiet, is usually ready for a good time. Usually in the midst of a group doing most of the laughing, she is willing to take part in any prank. Bernya has her studies finished on time, although she often puts them off until the last minute. Bernadine is hoping to become an airline hostess.

JARRETT, FREDERICK S. "Jughead"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

"The pen is mightier than the sword,
But it must have ink."

Fred means is to become a draftsman in the field of aviation. He also plans to fly as a sideline. Although his marks are not the best, he is making good. His chief loves are eating and sleeping. He is an amiable fellow, and will share everything he has with a friend.

Football Manager, 2, 3; T-Square Club, 2.

JARRETT, QUENTIN THEODORE "Duke"

General

"A job worth doing is worth doing well."

A great guy with many possibilities. He will never leave a job half done, because "a job worth doing is worth doing well." Everyone agrees that he is a swell fellow. This curly headed lad has the knack of combining excellent school work with athletic achievement of a high rank in football, basketball, and swimming. He is out to win, but is a good loser. All agree that this clean-cut fellow uses his mind.

Swimming, 3, 4.

Roscoe Q. Jarrett Jr.

JARRETT, ROSCOE Q., JR. "Ros"

General

"In silence there is safety, I'm half dead."

Roscoe is a lad of many interests. Besides girls he is interested in the Y. M. C. A. and is an active member of the Allentown High School Gym Team. Ros plans to continue his education at college, he is however, undecided to which one he will go, but Ros will make good in whatever he chooses because of his pleasing personality.

Gym Team, 2, 3, 4.

JENNE, ANNA MARY "Jenne"

Commercial

"Courage and faithfulness promise success."

Anna is a kind-hearted, good-natured girl who can get along with almost anybody. She has a pleasing smile and personality which has endeared her to her classmates. Anna is an average student and delights in helping others. She is fond of roller-skating and dancing. Anna has followed the commercial course through high school, and her ambition is to become a bookkeeper or an accountant.

JOHNSON, DOROTHY VIOLA "Dottie"

General

"O youth with blossoms laden."

Dottie is a quiet girl, but full of fun with a crowd. Fair, blue eyed, blonde, she is serious when undertaking a problem. She hardly ever misses a football or basketball game, or music or dancing, or Glen Miller's Orchestra.

Dottie can help herself; she doesn't depend on others to do things for her.

JOHNSON, HELEN A. "Shorty"

Commercial

"I will strive with things impossible,
Yea, get the better of them."

Short and lovely, Helen has brown hair, a fair complexion, and an air that makes her a favorite. She is always willing to take a mischievous part in any activity. Helen was a great hit in the Senior Class Play. In ice skating, basketball, and dancing, she is a bright star. On the side, Helen does her share of jitterbugging. A good typist and stenographer, she is an average pupil in other studies. Helen is bound to make a charming as well as a reliable stenographer.

Dramatics, 4.

JONES, BETTY "Betty"

Commercial

"Laugh? Yes; Smile? Yes; Grouch? Never."

Betty's pleasing way of doing and saying things makes her popular and easy to get along with. When you're with her the-e's never a dull moment. Her winning disposition is enhanced by a warm and winning smile. Betty seldom sees the unhappy side of a situtation; she always finds the bright side.

Betty has the very practical fad of inventing new dress styles, and intends to be a fashion designer.

A Capella Choir, 1.

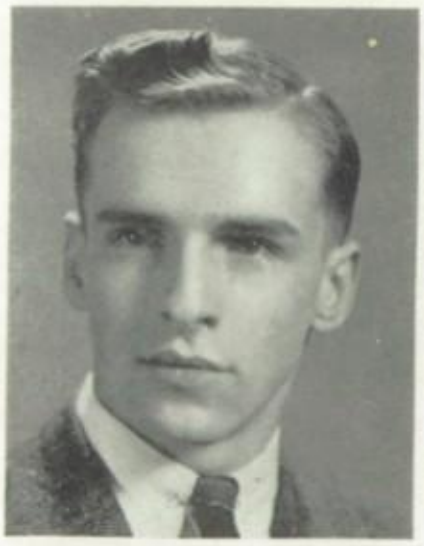
JONES, JAMES M. "Jimmy"

General

"True friendship is like true china
Rich, costly, and rare."

Jimmy, that flashy baseball catcher, is really a very quiet and modest fellow with many friends. He enjoys skiing and basketball almost as well as baseball, and is an active member of the Varsity "A" Club. Jimmy is interested in science and carries out numerous experiments. Jimmy hasn't any plans for the future, but he hopes to spend his life playing and coaching baseball. We know that he will succeed.

Varsity Baseball, 2, 3, 4; Varsity "A" Club, 4.



JONES, DAVID M. "Dave"

General

"Proud to be an honest man
'Til his dying day."

Dave is well liked, and one can always expect a big, broad, cheery smile, and a warm, "Hi there" from him. Dave was active on the A. H. S. Gym Team from the first day he entered high school. He is an admirer of good swing music, and loves to invent his own jitter-bug steps. Someday as we look into the horizon and see a plane darting among the clouds, it probably will be Dave, for his ambition is to be a pilot. Down on the ground, he hopes to be a good banker, following his father's footsteps.

A. H. S. Gym Team, 3, 4.

JONES, KENNETH E. "Ken"

Engineering and Science

"I've taken my fun where I've found it."

The Henry Aldrich of Allentown High, that's Kenny Jones. As unpredictable as the weather, he'll try anything once, from raising mice to writing poetry (remember "Spring" and "I Hope?") Good for a laugh anytime, Kenny has nevertheless contributed more than mirth to A. H. S.; besides becoming the wolrd's most blithe contortionist on the cheerleading squad, he has had several of his literary efforts published in the "Canary and Blue." Kenny hasn't thought much about his future yet, but whatever it may have in store for him, he will get a laugh out of it.

Cheerleading, 4; Dramatics Club, 2; Janseen Microscope Chapter, 4.

JONES, WESLEY O. "Wes"

Commercial

"Now good digestion wait on appetite."

Serious-minded Wes usually has his mind on some school or church affair. Despite his seriousness, Wes manages to enjoy life. He pays little attention to girls—claiming that "they cost too much." Walking is his favorite exercise, and when you walk with him, be prepared to do some fast steppin'.

JOSEPH, ABRAHAM ALLAN "Abe"

Commercial

"To know him a little is to like him a lot."

Abe is a witty, funny person, always grinning, laughing or making a wise crack. He also has his serious moments. He is popular among his fellow students. Abe is an average student, and wants to become a certified public accountant. He loves sports, all kinds, on land or sea, but his favorites are baseball and tennis.

Here's wishing you lots of success.

Commercial Club, Secretary.

Best wishes
Alice Joyce

JOYCE, ALICE A. "Allie"

College Preparatory

"We are the music makers
And we are the dreamers of dreams."

Here is one of the scholars of the class of '41. Alice never stints her lessons, but she always finds time to attend the important school events. Music, she loves; she herself is an accomplished pianist. Literature, she loves; she is an accomplished reader.

Incidentally she's one girl who admits she once liked fairy tales. They will like Allie at college in the fall.

JURETUS, JOHN J. "Johnny"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"On Johnny should be a label
Ready, Willing and Able."

Johnny is an amateur machinist, much interested in his work. He is friendly and easy to get along with, after one gets accustomed to his actions. He is also interested in the girls, and few can pass him without hearing his shrill whistle of greeting. He is a hard worker when his work is interesting and when he feels in the mood. For sports Johnny chooses basketball, and can hold his own in any game.

KAHN, JAMES H. "Jim"

Science and Engineering

"Don't know where I'm going, but I'll get there."

Jim is a handsome chap who likes everyone; and it seems everyone likes him. He is full of pep, and when you are with him you are sure to have loads of fun. He is interested in athletics and attends all football and basketball games. Jim takes an active part in sports, too; for he has been on the tennis team since his sophomore year, and he plays a swell game. Here's wishing success to Jim in all he undertakes.

Tennis Team 2, 3, 4; Canary, 2, 3.

KAHN, MURRAY "Mur"

Science and Engineering

"The making of friends is the best indication of success."

Murray is an industrious, studious, ambitious young man, and a great rooter for A. H. S. Murray spends most of his time after school working in a confectionery store, and any extra time at his hobby of photography. Murray hopes to enter college and become a dental surgeon.

KAINZ, ALBERT "Aggy"

General

"Success is the reward of continued effort."

As a boy, his greatest ambition was that he might some day become sports editor for some big metropolitan newspaper. He spends part of his leisure time at the Y. M. C. A., enjoying recreation with the rest of his companions. He is most active in baseball and basketball. In fact he spends most of the summer vacation playing baseball as a member of the Allentown City Hardball League.

KALADY, HELEN ANN "Kalady"

General

"Never worry, it shortens your life."

Of course you know Helen, everybody does. She's a swell person to know and has a great personality. As far as studying goes she does very little, and carries as few books as possible. If she isn't late for class she gets there just before the bell rings. Regardless of all her slap-happiness, everyone who knows her is naturally her friend. She's a Candid Camera fiend and can always be found in a darkroom, developing pictures, of course. She's good competition in any ping-pong game and also plays basketball and tennis. Her one ambition is to someday fly in the National Air Races and perhaps win the Bendix Speed Trophy.

KAMYNISKE, HELEN "Fifi"

Commercial

"Laughter in her eyes, freckles on her nose,
Happiness follows wherever she goes."

She is not very tall, but when you are near her, she fills you with glee. Fifi doesn't believe in being blue; that is why she is always so happy and so much fun. Although Fifi is not a bookworm, she manages quite well and is ready to help when called upon. Let's hope her laughter follows her throughout the years.

KAPLAN, MARTIN "Kappy"

Engineering and Science

"To the man who knows what he wants belongs the joy of living."

Kappy is a member of the hard-working engineering crowd. Although he does not take part in many extra-curricular activities, he is by no means shy and retiring. Being one of the youngest members of the Senior Class has been no handicap to Kappy, who is always above par in his studies. He hopes to prepare for medicine after graduation.

National Honor Society, 4.

KAROL, ALEXANDER J. "Oika"

Industrial

"In the shop he is as busy as a bee,
In the classroom he works indefinitely."

Oika is a rather quiet fellow, but not many of us come up to him in his line of work. He is no bookworm and he isn't stupid, but he compares favorably with any student here. In the shop he is as interested as in the classroom, which is not usual in shop boys. A pleasing personality, initiative, and a keen working brain will assure Oika a job, anytime.

Basketball Manager, 2; Football Manager, 3.

KAROL, RENEE "Reen"

General

"One does not know—cannot know—the best that is in one."

Reen is a very surprising person. The more you know her, the more you realize the wealth of her personality. To a casual acquaintance she seems quiet and demure. Then suddenly she sprinkles some of her wit about and drops in a measure of philosophy. Then you realize what a charming and broad-minded person she is. Reen plays the violin and has become interested in the modern dance. But this represents only a part of her interest in the world. Reen would like to study psychology; it seems she has a natural aptitude for it.

Orchestra, 3, 4; French Club, 4; Chorus, 3; National Honor Society, 4.

KASYCH, HELEN "Helene"

General

"Happy-go-lucky, fair and free
Nothing ever bothers me."

Helen is the kind of a friend to have. Her keen sense of humor draws many people to her. To strangers she appears serious, quiet and shy, but with her friends she is mischievious, gay, and happy. She is kept busy with her studies. She loves to drive a car, but her chief interest is in aviation. She hasn't decided which college she will attend.

KEELEY, KATHLEEN E. "Kay"

General

"Laugh and the world laughs with you;
Cry and you spoil your make-up."

Sparkling blue eyes, dark hair, and a sunny smile, that's Kay. She is one of the best dressed girls at school and a sincere, gay, entertaining friend. She is an ardent sports fan and a smooth dancer. When Kay isn't driving a red Ford, she's studying. Her charm and keen humor keep her in demand wherever she goes. Kay isn't sure where she'll continue her education, but we're sure that she'll make the grade.

Dramatics, 2, 3; Cheerleading, 2, 3; Swimming Team, 2; French Club 3.

KEENAN, JOHN "Jack"

Engineering and Science

"The world belongs to the enthusiast who keeps cool."

Jack, the last of the Keenan boys, is one of those splendid athletes in high school who is well up in his studies. He has tried hard and practised long to be an excellent swimmer, has been on the swimming team every year in high school. An intelligent and fine-looking fellow, capable of loyal friendship, Keenan is an outstanding member of our class. He expects to enter Lehigh University next year to take up engineering. We know he will succeed in whatever he tries.

Home Room Representative, 4; Swimming Team, 2, 3, 4; Varsity "A", 4.

KEENE, CHARLES "Keenie"

Industrial
Electric Shop

"Next to Edison, the greatest."

Look, everybody! the class of "41" comes through with another conspicious first, and presents Charley Keene, the Blue Ribboner of the Electric Shop. He demonstrates what Edison once said, "Genius is 99% perspiration and 1% inspiration," only Charley uses 1% perspiration and 0% inspiration. As soon as he steps out into this big world, the wheels of our National Defense Program will move much faster. No one can appreciate the courage he has used to pass through all twelve grades in twelve years. The class of "41" will point with pride to the name of Charley, because he never had to take more than three exams at one time.

KEIPER, JOHN "Yunka"

General

"Science when well digested is nothing but good sense and reason."

John is a quiet chap with a cheerful smile. He likes school in general and likes to study science. He indulges in football, baseball, and basketball and devotes much time to it after school. In the summer Yunka is a member of a softball team. Building gas-powered airplanes is his hobby.

KEISER, EDWARD "Keiser"

Industrial

"Amusement is the happiness of those who will not think."

Keiser is the sort of lovable chap that makes friends easily. He is always ready for a good joke, and always happy. Without studying he tries to get as much out of school as he can.

KEISER, GRACE E. "Gracie"

General

"Joy makes us giddy, dizzy."

Carefree, alert; lucky, courageous; all this spells Grace. She says she drives a car, but we doubt it; she says she intends to become a nurse, and we believe it. If laughter, good humor, joy, and mischief, bring happiness and success, then Grace will be both happy and successful. With her personality we're sure she will have good luck always.

Le Cercle Francais, 4.

KELLER, CATHERINE ELIZABETH "Kitten"

Commercial

"Like the waters of the mighty deep,
Never quiet unless asleep."

Catherine is a brown haired, brown eyed girl, always in a hurry. When she passes, all you feel is a breeze. No one knows where she is going, but we have our ideas. She has many friends because of her own friendliness. She is fond of football games, where she cheers until she can barely talk. Her movie star is Nelson Eddy. She has seen every movie he is in.

KELLNER, FREDERICK MILTON "Fritz"

General

"Do well the duty that lies before you."

Say, do you know this Fritz? Well, if you don't we'd like to tell you he's a fine fellow. He is one of the busiest and most industrious fellows in school. Never a dull or unoccupied moment in his day. His many activities and diversions include: being an ardent sports fan, he knows as much about big league baseball as anybody; being a good musician; skating, and swimming; being an honor student; debating; and looking at blondes. He is probably best known as an accordionist, and hopes to make music his major. Happy tunes!

Chorus, 2, 3; Choir, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

KELLY, DOROTHY CLAIRE "Kelly"

General

"My tongue is the pen of a writer."

Five-foot two, eyes of blue, sounds rather inviting, doesn't it! Well, Kelly has both. She makes a hit with everybody and is one of the most popular girls in the class. She loves all sports and is a great supporter of A. H. S. activities. Kelly has several great ambitions; the current one is nursing.

Canary and Blue Solicitor, 2, 3, 4; Home Room Representative, 2, 3, 4; German Club, 4.

KEMMERER, HELEN M. "Goldie"

Commercial

"Her ways are ways of pleasantness."

Should you meet a pretty red-head, smiling and surprisingly slow to anger, call her Helen. No matter how disappointing things seem to be, she keeps sunny. Her hair tinges those cute, deep blushes. In spite of her fine scholastic record, she finds time to be a violinist in our school orchestra.

Orchestra, 1, 3, 4.

KEMMERER, MARY L. "Shorty"

Household Arts

"True friendship is like true china,
Rich, costly, and rare."

Mary is another precious small package, and always ready for a good time. Where there is a lot of laughter and talking that is practically senseless, ninety-nine chances out of a hundred, it's Mary. Her favorite expression is "Gosh." She has fun, but is not rude; she laughs, but never insults. Mary has no definite plans, but she will arrive at some good resolution.

KERN, E. FREDERICK "Britt"

General

"Honesty in school is the pathway to success."

As a boy his chief interest was to share what he had with others. Now his chief interests are baseball, football and basketball. In the company of his friends he loves to talk about baseball. His chief ambition is to get into organized baseball, which he learned by playing sandlot ball with his friends.

KERN, ERNA "Erna"

Commercial

"Merry, friendly , loyal, true,
Cheery smiles and dimples too!"

Of course you know Erna, who is always wearing a grin, and unforgettable dimples. Behind that cheery smile though, is a good mind; Erna gets high grades. She is competent, intelligent, and really a good all-round girl.

KERN, KARL R. "Deacon"

Engineering and Science

"The ideal of courtesy, wit, and charm."

Believe it or not, Karl has never spoken out of turn about any body. He is one of the best liked boys in the Senior Class because of his genial manner. His achieving suitable grades in school work does not hinder his social life; instead, he's always at the head of the crowd, just as we know he will be throughout life. Congratulations, Karl, we're proud of you.

KERN, LUCILLE KATHRYN "Lucy"

General

"She is a gallant creature and complete in mind and feature."

Lucy is a little bit of a winning brunette with a sincere personality. Small as she is, she is very much able to take care of herself. She likes to swim, dance, ice-skate, and is enthusiastic about all sports. Lucille plans to be a "a nurse or something" and her varied abilities make us believe she will be a success in any vocation she chooses.

Dramatics, 3.

KICHLINE, ROBERT HARVEY "Butch"

General

"If a little knowledge is a dangerous thing; none of us is safe."

Butch is one of those fellows who can do practically everything fairly well. He is not an exceptional student, but no teacher of his has ever had to say that he was not cooperative. He is musically inclined; in fact, he is a member of the A Capella Choir; and in addition he plays the trumpet, the organ, and the piano. His other activities are tennis, ping pong, and ice skating. His plans are to enter Muhlenberg next term and take the A. B. course.

A Capella Choir, 4.

KIESS, WARREN H. "Kiessie"

General

"Listen to much, speak only what is timely."

Kiessie, alert, determined, and good humored, is a champion both in the classroom and on the athletic field. He finds special delight in solving problems or formulas; the more difficult, the better. Warren's interests after school are divided between a barn-yard and a watchmaker's bench. A small workshop of his own, and a habit of tilling the soil during part of his summer vacation, have given Warren considerable valuable experience in both fields.

An ardent bachelor, he has a non-agression pact with the fair sex, at least temporarily. He lived safely thru the past leap year, but this humble scribbler wonders how he will fare three years hence.

KINDIG, JOYCE "Joy"

Commercial

"Judge by the questions asked, not by the answers given."

Joyce is the girl who is a good student, quiet in school, but out of school talks a mile a minute. To have a true friend is to have Joyce. She is an active member in clubs and willing to help carry out plans. You'll see her reading books in her spare time, pasting souvenirs in her scrap book, or cheering at football or basketball games. Her hobbies are dancing and reading.

Cadenza Club, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

KINDRED, DORIS LORRAINE "Doris"

Commercial

"A brow the harbor of fair thought,
And hair of flaxen hue."

A ready and able worker, Doris usually succeeds in whatever she attempts to do. You never hear her grumble or complain; she can always find something good in everything. Loyal and pleasant, there is no doubt that Doris will be an excellent secretary, but she is also air-minded. If she takes up flying, she will surely succeed, because she is alert, accurate, and adept. She will literally "go far."

National Honor Society.

KISS, ELSIE "Ellie"

General

"Much have I travelled in the realms of gold."

Ellie was president of the Girl Reserves in her sophomore year and is still an active member. She dotes on tales of adventure, and her biggest desire is to travel around the world. Easy-to-get-along-with-Ellie wants to be a telephone operator. Put our number on your list, Ellie, and telephone 2-1941.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4.

KISTLER, JOSEPH "Jeep"

Commercial

"Beware, beware, there's witchery a brewing."

It's hard to tell whether Jeep is better known for his arguing, his freckles, or his loud shirts. He is an all-round sportsman—baseball, basketball, football, stamp collecting, roller skating, ice skating, skiing, swimming, model building, ping pong and reading. Joe is working hard in school and expects to do some kind of office work.

KLECKNER, ELAINE MAE "Sis"

Commercial

"No fidget and no reformer, just
A calm observer of ought and must."

Conscientiousness and persistence have placed Sis in the upper stratum of scholastic personalities. These qualities along with a genuine interest in people have won Sis a host of friends, who find her a trusty confidante; she's never too busy to hear your story, and to say the exactly right word. Her agile fingers do credit to the keyboard. Sis hopes to work in a large office.

National Honor Society, 4.

KLECKNER, EVELYN C. "Evie"

College Preparatory

"Cheerful company shortens the miles."

When Evie is around you can always look forward to a good laugh. She stands five-foot three and a-half, with eyes and hair both brown. Her favorite sport is swimming, and her next, supporting the football team. Evie studies faithfully, and gets good marks.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves, 2, 3.

KLECKNER, ROBERT B. "Bob"

Commercial

"Music hath charms."

Bob is a cheerful fellow, greets everyone with a smile, is interested in sports and music, and intends to have an orchestra of his own some day.

Although he doesn't play in high school games, he has a keen interest in all sports. Bob has been a cornetist in the High School band all through his school career.

Band, 2, 3, 4.

KLEGARTH, JULIUS

Industrial

"Skyward, sail skyward,
Oh ship, in thy flight."

Julius' spare-time activity is building model airplanes, and he has a collection of more than twenty of them. He is interested in aviation, and has been awarded many honors for making models of machinery.

Julius enjoys traveling, and after he is graduated from high school, he intends to join the Marines or to take a civil service examination for civil engineering.

KLEIN, JEANNE ELIZABETH "Jeannie"

College Preparatory

"You'd have known her by the merriment that sparkled in her eye."

Jeannie is well-known for her hearty laughter and smiles, both of which identify her at school events and in the halls and classrooms. "Have a good time while you're young," says she, and don't think that she is not living up to that. However, Jeannie spends many long hours perfecting notebooks when she could be otherwise enjoying herself. Swimming, ice skating, and tennis are the sports which she enjoys most. Jeannie would like to become a secretary.

National Honor Society, 4; Treasurer, 4; Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4.

KLEPPINGER, MARGARET LOUISE "Peggy"

General

"With affection beaming in one eye and calculation shining in the other."

Peggy has just the right personality and ability for an air hostess. She has a pleasant disposition, and is always ready to lend a helping hand in time of need, and she'll have lots of chance to use both. Peggy expects to attend Skidmore College, and they're sure to like each other. Here's good luck!

Dramatics, Swimming, 2, 3, 4.

KLEPPINGER, WM. R. "Klepp"

General

"Never do today what you can do tomorrow."

Klepp is one of those easy going happy-go-lucky fellows who still gets a reasonable amount of work done. He has sharp enough eyes and wits to become a basketball manager. Klepp will probably go far and have much in worldly possessions, but we know he will keep his feet on the ground.

Basketball Manger, 3, 4.

KLINE CHARLOTTE CYNTHIA "Shossie"

Commercial

"Pretty as a picture; bright as mercury."

Shossie is that pretty, petite, chic, little gal who looks like a sophomore, but is really a senior. She loves to dance and to jitterbug. Her one complaint is that she never has anything to wear, but you should see that wardrobe! In spite of a mania for chewing gum, she is an A student and always has her homework done, even though it is a hurry-up-last-minute affair. When you get to know her you'll have the best little friend ever. Here's wishing her health, wealth, and happiness.

Girl Reserves, 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

KLINE, DOROTHY MAE "Dotty"

Commercial

"Dark eyes, a shy glance-beware, beware!"

Personality plus is the key to Dotty's friendships. She is always jolly and full of fun. As soon as she discovers something new, she must tell it to whoever may be around. Her most recent accomplishment is learning to drive a car.

Girl Reserves, 4.

KLINE, GEORGE "George"

Science and Engineering

"Who thinks too much, talks too little."

George is one of those lads whom you see a lot but don't hear much of. He is studious and seems to get through his classes easily. He tells us he would rather play his sax and clarinet than dance anytime. Besides following the top-notch swing bands, his favorite hobbies are football, basketball, and baseball. After graduating he plans to go to a technical school where he will take up engineering, and we all know he will make good there.

Band, 2, 3.

KLINE, HENRY B. "HB"

General

"Let them call it mischief; when 'tis prospered 'twill be virtue."

Henry isn't the usual sort of a fellow; consequently he is hard to understand. To understand him, however, is to appreciate his keen wit, his fine sense of humor, and his heartfelt sincerity. To possess his friendship is to possess great wealth, for he can always be relied upon in time of need. HB's ambition is to become a millionaire by becoming a prominent lawyer or a powerful manufacturer.

KLOTZ, DONALD JEAN "Don"

General

"Success begins with a fellow's will."

Don's glowing personality and remarkable talent at playing the piano have won him a host of friends, especially with the fair sex. Don has the general course and has frequently attained the honor roll. His interests center around golf and tennis, with a particular regard for dancing. Don intends to study medicine.

German Club, 4; Junior Class Play; Senior Class Play; National Honor Society, 4.

KLOTZ, LINNIE MAY "Linnie"

General

"If you want a thing well done, do it yourself."

Here's a pleasantly quiet girl whose mild manner covers a delightful personality. She works steadily and well, but is just as fond of play as of work. Her hobbies are piano and reading. It is certain that she will be a credit to her friends and to her school.

KNAUSS BETTY "Betts"

General

"A good friend is hard to find—here's one."

Betty may seem to be a quiet, shy type of girl, but anyone closely acquainted with her will find her to be fun-loving and independent. Always ready to lend a sympathetic ear, Betty makes many a binding friendship. Cooking and music keep her dancing from kitchen to music room. Betty would like to travel, to see "foreign lands." Hail and Farewell, Betts!

Chorus, 3, 4.

KNERR, DORIS ANNA "Dorry"

Commercial

"The virtues are not poured into us, they are natural: seek, and you will find them; neglect, and you will lose them."

Doris is a happy-go-lucky girl who likes outdoor sports, skiing and ice-skating. Like many others she takes an occasional flop, but that even professionals can expect. Dorry is also a great lover of dancing.

Y. W. C. A.; Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

KNERR, WILBUR C. "Willie"

Industrial

"Good things come in good big packages."

Wilbur Knerr, hailing from the quaint little town of Lanark, is one of the biggest fellows in the electrical shop—only tips the scales about 250 pounds maybe a little more or less.

Wilbur is a fine young man and an excellent student. Besides, he is athletic and musical. In his sophomore year he ventured out for football, but soon abandoned it. However, he still sticks to singing, and what would the Allentown High Chorus be without him?

KOCH, GRACE EARLINE "Gracie"

Commercial

"If I can keep one heart from breaking
I shall not have lived in vain."

Gracie with her flashing happy, gay disposition could have many friends, but she would rather have a few, fast and true, than many mere acquaintances. Gracie likes to dance, but she can not, and she does not like to swim, but she is a wonderful companion for any other sport. No matter what Grace starts, we know she will finish it.

KOEHLER, ROBERT MILTON "Bobby"

Commercial

"Every man is what he makes himself."

Bobby is one of those happy-go-lucky guys, good natured and good mannered. Bobby is not an honor student, but he always manages to get by somehow. He is a great booster of sports, and is at all the games. His great ambition is to work in an office or to join the Army. Whichever he does we wish him luck.

KOHLER, BETTY M. "Betty"

General

"Come and trip it as you go
On the light fantastic toe."

Betty is a great lover of swing music, which is the reason why she is seen at so many dances, either gliding in the arms of her partner or just standing at the band-stand tapping her feet to the can't-stand-still thythm of the orchestra. Don't be afraid to approach Betty on any subject, for she's well read.

KOHR, VIRGINIA D. "Ginny"

General

"Ginny supplies the car for the fun,
The gang supplies the gas to make it run."

Little Ginny with the light brown hair, big blue eyes, wonderful personality, is well known throughout the school. There is never a dull moment when Ginny is around, and she has just as many friends in Bethlehem. Every morning about eight-twenty-five she comes swerving around Seventeenth and Turner Streets in her black sedan, taking along the policeman and whatever else happens to be in her way. Ginny may operate her own beauty salon; she may join the Voluntary Ambulance Corps in Britain for the excitement, but wherever Ginny winds up, she's bound to do something with all her heart.

Dramatics, 2; Y. W. C. A., 4.

KONDRAVY, PAUL "Pauly"

General

"The boy who wakes up and finds himself famous hasn't been asleep."

Paul is a quiet sort of fellow in school but he has made many friends among students and teachers. Like all boys, he enjoys football, basketball, baseball—all the sports. His hobby just now is building model airplanes; his desire is to be a salesman. We predict he'll sell his stuff, because he sure does "know his stuff."

KONETZKA, LARRAINE "Rainey"

Commercial

"Here is a spirit deep and crystal clear."

Although Rainey doesn't often say much, we all know that when she does talk she is sincere. She offers her friends a friendship that is true and understanding. It is not often that one finds her unhappy. Weekends roller skating, ice skating, and reading; week days being a secretary,—that's what Rainey wants.

KORTVELY, ELIZABETH MARY "Betty"

Commercial

"Personality and a smile can sway the world."

Elizabeth is liked and respected by all who know her, for she has proved herself a happy and loyal friend. She regards study as an evil, but a necessary evil. She may not lead the honor roll, but she knows what she's doing when it comes to shorthand and typewriting. For an all-round good sport, she is our first nomination. She likes swimming and plays a good game of basketball as forward. Elizabeth likes dancing, skating, and going to the movies.

KOVACS, CHARLES "Charlie"

General

"He stops to pause upon the street
To smile at every damsel sweet."

Charlie is an average student, a likable chap, whose main love is football, swimming, and baseball. He has a great sense of humor, and you hardly see him without a smile. His other hobbies include traveling and girls, for whom he shows much admiration. Charles came to us late, to finish in a good high school. He expects his life work to be connected with some phase of sports, and A. H. S. bids him farewell and the best of luck.

KOZELNICKY, JOHN B. "Johnny"

General

"Give me an open road and the call of the wild."

Johnny is a dark, vital fellow, who seems quiet but can be anything the occasion calls for. In spite of his happy-go-lucky air, he has a lot of intelligence and is really conscientious about his work. He likes the wide open spaces and hunts annually. His interest includes automobiles and sports. Just a regular all-round fellow you're proud to call friend. He may go to college unless the lure of the open road changes his plans.

KRAMER, JOHN "Jack"

General

"An ounce of mirth is worth a pound of sorrow."

Here he is, Jack, the boy who loves to roam about the corridors and flirt with all the pretty girls. Jack's burning interest is all outdoor sports. His chief advantage is a bright and jovial humor, which keeps him from all worry. Jack never stops talking except to eat. His chatter is well known in these parts. The school that gets Jack will have a fine fellow.

Dramatics, 2; Swimming Team Manager, 2, 3.

KRAMER, STANLEY H. "Stan"

Science and Engineering

"And grasps the skirts of happy chance."

Now we come to Stanley Kramer, Allentown High's gift to Muhlenberg, where he will study for his Bachelor of Science degree. Stan is a tall, slim fellow whose fair good humor is overflowing, filling his friends with continuous cheer. He will be long remembered by his classmates.

A ping-pong enthusiast, an amateur chemist, a drummer—Stan has the qualities necessary to become a success in the Great Adventure—Life.

KRATZER, ESTHER JUNE "Esse"

General

"Lo, this is she that was the world's delight."

Do you know your mathematics? Well, then, take the unknown quantity x, plus any kind of delicious chocolates plus Cedar Beach or Mealey's Skating Rink and divide by a certain Wenz Memorial heart throb and you find your unknown x is just Esse. And don't say you've never seen her. She's at every high school game. Her willingness to help, and her sheer delight in being alive, all make Esse a known quantity.

KRAUSE, RICHARD H. "Dick"

Industrial

"The shop sheik isn't so meek."

Dick's going to be a machinist, but now, in class, he is a crooner; he is always either singing or humming. He's friendly and willing to share whatever he has. He likes to go to dances, and loves to work, when the work is interesting.

Dick doesn't talk about girls, but he rates high with them, and when you come down to brass tacks many a time you see him at a dance with some girl or girls. He wants to own a car, and to do a lot of traveling.

KRAUSS, PAULENE M. JEAN "Polly"

Commercial

"Happy-go-lucky,
Bright eyed and spunky."

A swish of skirts, a soft tread, and here laughing, blue-eyed, blonde-haired Polly comes running. A very fine girl, she does fairly well in school, has brains when she wants to use them, but is more interested in skating and dancing. Polly is an ideal companion.

KRESSLEY, GEORGE JOHN "Jitterbug"

Science and Engineering

"I see and appreciate better things; I follow worse."

A personality which emits an air of intimate friendliness and cheerfulness, blending harmoniously with physical aspect—average proportions, gray-green eyes, and light brown hair, distinctly marks our protagonist. Dancing and swimming constitute his outside activities when time permits. His flair for a musical career is balanced by his ambition to enter college in the scientific course, but only time will tell which it is to be.

Band, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra, 4.

KROPP, MILTON "Lucky"

Industrial

"Better late than never."

Milton is an industrious young man, easy to get along with, easy to like. Lucky displays his Varsity "A", received for being a football manager. He expects to go to Lehigh University and to be a full-fledged electrical engineer. Perhaps, however, he will become a simple electrician and follow the trade he is now trained for.

Football Manager, 3, 4; Varsity "A" Club, 4.

KRUPKA, WALTER "Krup"

General

"After the plane starts rolling, I'll turn to my mirages, which are perfectly outlined against the horizon."

Walter is a swell fellow, well liked by all his friends. He likes swimming, in fact has been a member of the swimming team for three consecutive years. Walter loves to ride horse-back, to travel, to dance, and to have lots of fun, but someday he hopes to enter West Point Military Academy as a flying cadet.

KUCIRKA, JOHN "Johnny"

Industrial
Cabinet Making

"You can't get in Dutch with airplanes, but with women, look out!"

Johnny is the kind of a fellow who makes a clambake out of anything, even going to school. He's one of the best wood-butchers we have, and spends his unoccupied time following up aeronautics. He's a great guy to get along with, and isn't nearly so quiet or bashful as he looks, girls.

KUHNS, BURTON THOMAS "Shorty"

Commercial

"Something well done is better than well said."

Shorty walks through the halls carrying as few books as possible so he won't strain himself. He is always happy and jolly, either in a group or alone. He is fond of baseball, football, basketball, and riding around on his bicycle.

KUHNSMAN, DONALD, L. "Don"

General

"Sun treader, life and light be thine forever."

Don is a tall, slim, debonair young fellow. He is a keen, quick-minded student, what the teachers call "quick on the up-take." Always busy, if Don is not working on his paper route, he's at home either studying or reading, for Don reads a lot of the very best books. He says he plays baseball, basketball, and the trumpet.

Don's a fellow that finishes everything he starts, and likes to do everything well. This makes him a man likely to succeed. The school congratulates him, and is proud of his kind.

National Honor Society, 4.

KUNKLE, RACHEL MAE "Rae"

Commercial

"A day of toil, an hour for sports
But for a friend, life's all too short."

Rachel is one of the shortest seniors in A. H. S. But don't think that her size stunts her knowledge. Rachel has an intelligent mind and uses it all the time. Although Rae has been making a certain grocery store a more cheerful place, that is not her greatest ambition. She hopes to become a stenographer in some important office some day.

KURTZ, ELSIE ROSE "Ach"

Commercial

"Some eat to live, but she lives to eat."

Ach is a lively and happy-go-lucky person when she's not in a daze. She loves to eat. Her favorite dish is first , all kinds of food; second, food, and third, more food. Like all commercial students she expects to be a private secretary. Some of her time is devoted to study, and the rest of her time to pleasure.

KURTZ, MILTON "Milt"

General

"Only the happy are truly great."

Milt has distinguished himself with his happy-go-lucky disposition, which we are sure has much to do with his popularity. He is a cheerful chap and a fine sport. His favorite pastimes are football, basketball, and the opposite sex. We cannot prophesy Milt's future, but whatever it is, we wish him success and happiness.

Choir, 2, 3, 4.

KUSHINICK, ANNA "Annie"

General

"I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er hill and dale."

Annie is a quiet likable girl with light hair and gray eyes, rather shy and domestically inclined, but a grand companion. Annie likes badminton, tennis, knitting and sewing. and some day hopes to travel to remote corners of the world.

She has a love of solitude and we all wish her luck in her roaming trips to remote corners of the earth. Annie enjoys classical music and has some vague ideas about interior decorating—she says she's stubborn and very proud, which she thinks very irritating at times, but we never found it out.

Historical Society, 3.

LAGOSKY, KSENIA "Kay"

Commercial

"Silence is golden."

Ksenia is the most studious person we'll ever see, always worrying about her studies, and anxious to be an honor student, which she usually is. In the class room she always pays attention; nothing can distract her.

She has a charming personality and can talk easily with anyone who comes along. Her hobbies are reading and sewing.

It won't be long before we see Ksenia a private secretary.

Girls Glee Club, 1; Student Council, 1; Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

LAHR, MARY ELIZABETH "Mary"

General

"Thou speakest wiser than thou art aware of."

Mary has the cheerful disposition that makes for popularity. She participates in all kinds of sports, is studious, and will make a good nurse. Luck to her is the wish of everyone who knows her.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Chorus, 4; German Club, 4.

LAMBERT, NORMA ELIZABETH "Lambert"

Household Arts

"Make two grins grow where before there was only a grouch."

Although she takes her work less seriously than others, Norma likes school. Her ambition to become a dressmaker is born of her love for sewing. She is invaluable, too, in keeping her neighbors from being too wholly downcast.

LAMBERT, RALPH H. "Ham"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"Study!—Why?"

Ralph is an affable person. He hopes some day to land a big job as a machinist. Ham's hobby is model railroading, and he's quite an expert. He can "joust, and also dance."

LAUDENSLAGER, RICHARD F. "Pee Wee"

Engineering and Science

"I never think of the future. It comes soon enough."

Pee Wee is interested in mathematics and sciences. He is interested in almost every kind of sport, but he seems to like basketball and ice-skating best. For hobbies indoors he likes ping-pong. and reading magazines and books. He has played the bass horn in the high school band for three years, and was also on the band basketball team. After he finishes high school, he intends to go to Penn State where he will take up engineering.

Band, 2, 3, 4.

LAURENT, LORRAINE BLANCHE "Lee"

Commercial

"She has a way about her, how shall I say,
Demure, yet blithe, yet gay."

Pretty brown eyes and a sunny disposition distinguish Lee. Her kindness and her sympathetic ways make her a true and welcome friend. She plays a good game of badminton and enjoys swimming and golf. Her hobby is collecting records, from Bobby Byrnes to Beethoven. When not out on dates, she studies her shorthand, for she would be a stenographer.

Girl Reserves, 4.

LEAR, ROBERT J. "Bob"

General

"All mankind loves a lover."

Handsome, grinning Bob, California's gift to A. H. S., is one of our most popular athletes. In harness on the gridiron for two years, Bob proved himself a thoroughbred. Realizing the importance of study, Bob applies himself with a will to his school work, and his keen mathematical mind will make him an excellent engineer.

Football, 3, 4; Varsity "A", 4.

LEDERMAN, BEATRICE ROSE "Bebe"

Commercial

"Out of breath to no purpose and very busy about nothing."

Full of vim and vigor, ever on the go, always ready to boost anything that needs boosting, and to do any one a favor who needs a favor done, that is Bebe. Did you ever see so many freckles? If there were a freckle contest Bebe would lose. It would take a lifetime to count them.

LEIBENSPERGER, BETTY GERTRUDE "Leiby"

Commercial

"Pleasant company shortens the miles."

Betty has light hair and brown eyes, and always a smile for you. She is well-liked by all who know her. She enjoys the movies, swimming, dancing, and reading interesting books. Her chief ambition is to become a telephone operator, and we hope to hear her pleasant hello for a long time to come.

LEIBENSPERGER, HARRY A., JR. "Junior"

Commercial

"Never hurried; never worried: never dangerously concerned."

Good-humored and serious, but not serious enough to take his school work to heart too much, Harry intends to graduate from A. H. S., but he isn't going to be an honor student. This lad hopes to be an ace newspaper man when he leaves school, and according to indications he is going to be a great success. He likes all work except school work, and does odd jobs after school, including the running of his newspaper and magazine stand. Harry is not hard to get along with, and we believe he will be a success in the work he chooses.

LEISER, MARIAN C. "Marian"

General

"A friend to have and to hold."

Not so very tall, but oh so very quiet, Marian, given a little time, usually comes through with flying colors. Her enthusiasm for sports runs sky-high, basketball particularly.

Even though scholastic bouquets aren't thrown her way, she manages to float through life with nonchalance, her intention being "to have fun." The business world will claim her, unless fate intervenes. Best of luck, anywhere.

LENHART, FREDERICK C. "Fritz"

Industrial
Cabinet Making

"Either a good job, or a girl with cash."

Fritz has a double ambition. He is undecided whether to work in a furniture factory or to marry a girl with money. All sports, movies, and girls take up his time when he is not working at his course which he likes so well.

LENTZ, BAIRD "Bud"

Commercial

"Go forth with music in your heart."

Baird is a good natured fellow with many friends. He looks ahead to the time when great orchestras will play his arrangements of popular tunes, for he wishes to become an arranger of music. Lots of luck, and may we often hear your arrangements of the newest songs.

Swimming, 2; Choir, 2, 3, 4; Chorus, 2, 3.

LeVAN, CLYDE "Bud"

Industrial

"The world knows little of our great men."

Bud is the quietest and most studious fellow in high school. Because of this virtue, he is popular with his teachers and fellow students. Bud has the art of just getting around and making new friends, especially among the girls. With the knowledge of all this we wish Bud the greatest happiness and success.

LeVAN, DANIEL "Danny"

Commercial

"A smile doesn't cost a thing but means a lot."

Here's a man for you. Danny's the fellow you see going through the hall with an ever-ready word of greeting for everyone he meets. Danny has two ambitions,—one is to be a radio announcer, and the other a reporter for some great newspaper. We're all pulling for you, Danny, and we know, whatever field you enter, you're sure to be tops.

Swimming, 2, 4.

LEVINE, SOLOMON "Sam"

Science and Engineering

"Nature has given the opportunity of happiness to all, knew they but how to use it."

Solomon Levine is that fat, chubby, tall fellow usually found in the center of the loudest laughter, for he has a fine sense of humor. Sol is active in the Historical Society at Allentown High School, and regrets that lack of time keeps him from other activities. After school Sol learns about salesmanship at his father's shoe store. Sol is helpful to anybody who needs his aid to master his school work. He is a happy-go-lucky fellow, apparently not caring much for anything, but when he concentrates things happen. He one day hopes to be an engineer. Sol is taking the Science and Engineering course, and plans to go to Lehigh University.

Historical Society, 3, 4; Home Room President, 2; National Honor Society, 4.

LEVY, SHIRLEY "Shirl"

College Preparatory

"Curiosity is a valuable trait."

No new interest that Shirl devotes her time to ever surprises her friends, for they are completely aware of her limitless abilities. Although she is a dabbler in the arts—music, dancing, drawing, and acting, she manages to crowd time into her waking hours to go on hikes and collect rocks, to read some books, and somehow get to school with at least part of her homework done. To spice it all, Shirl has a keen wit and a depth of serious thought.

To Shirl's varied interests, her alertness to the world, her curiosity about things in general, she adds tolerance of other people, and respect for their opinions—a grand combination.

French Club, 4, (President); Class Play, 3; Dramatic Club, 2, 3; National Honor Society, 4.

LEWIS, SARAH MARY "Sally"

Commercial

"Merry, friendly, loyal, true,
This queer old world needs more like you."

You always find Sally smiling and laughing, making her daily rounds in A. H. S., giving everyone a big "Hi-there!" Yet, with all her light-heartedness she never forgets her studies. She's a great sport enthusiast, and seldom misses an A. H. S. contest. The lass hopes to become a stenographer, and we hope she will, but the heart and the mind don't always run in the same track. Smooth sailing, and shiploads of luck!

Commercial Club; Basketball, 1, 2; Home Room Representative, 4; Canary and Blue Solicitor, 3.

LICHTENWALNER, ARNOLD "Arnie"

Industrial

"When he rides to fame, it will be in a Graham."

Arnold Lichtenwalner, a garage boarder, leaves only by the boss's order, or when it is time to sleep or eat. He is a comical fellow, and any joke we tell him he repeats at the garage on Eighth Street. Arnie, a self-named auto mechanic, will take on any work he can lick. Lichty just naturally likes cars, especially Grahams, which he calls "nifty."

LICHTENWALNER, MAE B. "Mae"

General

"Dark brown hair; pretty brown eyes,
Have been the cause of many long long sighs."

Mae seems quiet and dignified, but those who know her find her happy-go-lucky and ready for a good time. Her captivating looks and pleasing personality have made her popular. When you don't see Mae around for a few days you can very well guess that she is at her favorite hide-away, Blue Heron Lake. Mae expects to be a fashion designer, and she'll be one of the best.

German Club, 3; Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

LIEBERMAN, GEORGE "George"

Science and Engineering

"Teach erring man to spurn the rage of gain;
Teach him, that states of native strength possessed,
Though very poor, may still be very blest."

He likes music, dancing, pretty girls, and he's going to be a neuro-surgeon—that's George in a nutshell. If he has time, he'd like to see the world before he's thirty. A lanky, easy-going blonde, George has all the attributes of success: intelligence, personality, and friends. He plans to study at Perkiomen Prep. He's bound to get ahead.

LIEBL, PAUL "Doc"

Industrial
Electrical Shop

"There's no future in it."

Paul is a splendid fellow to get along with and a pretty good electrician. He expects to become foreman of the P. P. & L.'s trouble shooters because he likes high voltages. Our Electric Shop instructor told us all electricians must be a little screwloose, and he's right; last week Paul lit a match to see whether he had turned out his bed lamp before going to bed.

Doc is helping the national defense program by raising homing pigeons, camouflaged with red, white, and blue stripes on their wings for identification. This hobby and photography have a big place in his days.

LIEDNER, EARL "Sonny"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"When you lose one, find another."

Here's a cute looking, quiet, bashful sort of fellow, with a wonderful personality. He is not bashful with the Industrial boys, but when it comes to the girls, Earl is just sunk. Sonny is one of the good machinists of the Senior class, and hopes to continue his trade in the business world. He says he is going to devote most of his time to his work and to some one girl.

LILLY, MELBA ARLINE "Mel"

Commercial

"Art shall be the classic of the Years."

If you are in need of a friend just get to know Melba. She has a pleasing personality and gets along well with her friends. She has a lovely smile which helps her along with her art. Yes, Melba wants to be an artist. All those of A. H. S. hope she will do what she wants. Good luck Melba.

LINDENMUTH, FRANKLIN JOHN "Lindy"

Retail Selling

"Sometimes windy, but always friendly."

Lindy, clear in thought, word, and deed, can always be looked to for companionship. Always in the halls he has books in one hand and the other hand in his pocket. He is always willing to make new friends, and never forgets the many friends he already has. The business world will find him ready, willing, and capable of work. His chief interest is to get knowledge, with music a constant accompaniment.

LINDENMUTH, HELEN "Lindy"

Commercial

"I am a feather for each wind that blows."

Helen is tall, fair-haired, appears to be very serious, but really is happy-go-lucky, never worries about homework, but always manages to pass her subjects. Accounting comes to her like magic. Her sunny air and winning smile will help her to get a position.

LIPKO, WILLIAM "Smiles"

Industrial

"High heaven the footstool of his feet he makes."

A lover indeed is this little boy, Smiles, who never knows a gloomy moment. William is a true follower of the school flag. A little rowdy sometimes, William is nevertheless an excellent pattern maker and expects to have his own shop. We wish him the best of luck.

LISICKY, ANTON "Liz"

Industrial

"Did you ever see a dream walking?"

Liz is a calm young fellow with a serious face, a fine specimen of brain and braun. He knows all the girls and just hates to leave school with all these pretty sophs running around. When Anton graduates, he will show the industrial world how ili's done. He is a fine mechanic and distinctive photographer. Anton says that when he gets out of school he is going to devote his time to cars, cameras, and a bit of flirting.

LITZENBERGER, BLAIR "Litz"

Industrial
Printing

"Loves to Live and Lives to Love."

Blair is another one of that never-ending line of printers. He's always thinking of something smart. Whenever there's a commotion in the hall, you're sure to find Litzie arguing. He hikes and camps, and is a first class camper at that. Here's wishing Litzie all the luck in the world.

A. H. S. Printers' Club, 1.

LITZENBERGER, CARSON "Litzy"

Commercial

"Trouble may come and trouble may go, let it go."

Litzy, popular sports fan, is seen at all basketball and football games. He strikes at trouble and laughs his worries away. Litzy is teased for his tall stories of game and fishing experiences. Good advice is Litzy's very longest suit.

LITZENBERGER, STANLEY "Litzy"

Industrial

"A wisecracker is seldom well behaved."

Stanley, bright light in the electric shop, has talent to become a very good electrician, but his forgetfulness often gets him in trouble. He is good at making wisecracks at the wrong time. His welding is coming along fine. Someday he may be able to weld a broken aluminum paperhanger.

LOBACH, MILDRED "Mickey"

Commercial

"Let all thy converse be sincere."

Mickey is an interesting person who cannot take anything seriously. Dancing takes up most of her time, although she is domestic enough to sew and knit. She is a loyal A. H. S. supporter, too. Her ambition is to be an expert accountant. With her winning smile and attractive personality, surely there are great things in store for her.

Girl Reserves, 3.

LOCH, LUTHER D. "Luke"

Science and Engineering

"Science, well digested, is nothing but good sense and reason."

Luke's friendships are based on the very fundamentals of understanding and sincerity. He has gained a host of friends thrcugh his congeniality and his dynamic personality.

Besides playing the clarinet and tenor sax, and running his private chemical lab, Luke is also interested in bowling, pool, ping-pong, reading, dancing, and outdoor sports. Lucky is a good student, headed for chemical engineering at Lehigh, where we know he will strive for new heights in chemistry, and feel that he will find a fitting place in the World of Tomorrow.

Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

LOESCH, WARREN ALFRED "Loeschie"

College Entrance in Arts

"Silence is the gratitude of true affection."

Here is a quiet sort of a boy, who frequently sits keeping his thoughts to himself, and then again he laughs as loud and long as the rest. He is a firm believer in hard study but not in over-exertion, and he's always ready to do his share of any job. He's an optimistic chap, always looking for the best but not ignoring discouragements, which sometimes get him down. His training in two of the musical organizations of the school will be of assistance to him in the ministry he's chosen to enter.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club, 4.

LONG, STANLEY "Nutsy"

Industrial
Printer

"Eventually they all learn."

Stanley is a bashful boy when girls are around, but among the fellows he takes his own part most effectively. Nutsy specializes in hunting and fishing. He is a good sportsman. Stanley is taking up printing and "getting along fine." In a few years he'll be one of our leading printers, at some local concern which he will probably own. When he has reached this point, he plans to go on a vacation where fish and game are plentiful.

LORING, BETTE C. "Chicken"

General

"I'm quite small, I'll grant you all,
But I don't care, my beau is tall."

Chicken is a grand sport in and out of school. Like all blondes, she is neither too bright nor too stupid, just average. Dancing is her hobby, and she can be seen at almost every dance cutting a mighty fine rug. Bette intends to be a nurse, but from other indications, and the medal she always wears, we feel nursing is only a fancy.

LUCIK, JOHN, JR. "Johnny—The Flying Milkman"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"Love is a pleasing but a various clime."

Johnny is a pretty swell fellow, although he has a bad habit of taking the other fellows' girls out. It's his good looks and his personality that enable him to do this. In his own estimation he is a swell dancer, but he's the only one who thinks so.

Some day he hopes to secure a job in the Bethlehem Steel Co., probably to take Eugene Grace's job.

LUNDA, DONALD L. "Lunda"

College Preparatory

"A good laugh is sunshine in a house."

No one gets a bigger kick out of a joke than Donald does. Classroom jokes are his specialty. Underneath his quick wit, however, one finds a very level-headed person.

If Donald's amiable disposition weren't so effective, his love for argument would get him into trouble.

He is having a hard time figuring out just what kind of a future he wants, but considering his latent possibilities, he'll get along.

LUNDA, DOROTHY ANN "Dotty"

General

"Every artist dips his brush in his own soul, and paints his own nature into his pictures."

Conscientious and sincere in her schoolwork, Dorothy is never-the-less full of fun and pep. Her chief characteristic is her adeptness at malapropisms, which sometimes are very amusing. To strangers, she may appear to be reserved and aloof, but to her intimate friends she is open-hearted and lovable. Dorothy shows talent in the field of art, and hopes to make commercial art her career.

National Honor Society, 4.

MacCONNELL, JACK "Mac"

General

"My pockets hold nothing."

Jack, a smiling lad of seventeen, is extremely companionable, and always jovial, a "he-man" in every respect, even if he does call at her house more frequently than he goes to the Little Palestra. Mac's keen wit and personality enable him to win the esteem of all his friends.

Although at present the jingle of wampum in his pockets enchants him, his future jingles with promised happiness.

Dramatics, 2; Gym Team, 3, 4.

MAHLER, JANE DORIS "Jinny"

General

"When your studies pile too deep,
Close your books and go to sleep."

Jane seems happy-go-lucky and carefree, but she manages to stay home all examination week.

Jane enjoys dancing, swimming, ice-skating, a thrilling football game, and sewing. Tell her that her dress is pretty and she will invariably answer, "Thank you, I made it." She excels in piano playing, and hopes some day to have a studio of her own.

A Cappella Choir, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A., 2, 3, 4; German Club, 4.

MALLES, LEWIS "Louie"

General

"Men like him make the world go round."

Never studying too hard or too little, Louie made his studies a pleasure. He played in almost every sport, including golf and ice skating in which he excels. Interested in aviation since a child, Louie intends to study aeronautical engineering at college.

Wrestling, 4.

MALONE, SAMUEL A. "Sammy"

Industrial
Cabinet Making

"Those who know him never forget him."

Samuel is a tall dark-haired lad with sparkling brown eyes and pearly teeth.

Samuel is called the "good humor man" in shop. He never has a dull moment in the shop; neither do his teachers. He likes to keep up with all the sports and to meet new friends. See him any day driving his station wagon on the back roads, and loading it down with girls.

MANUSKY, CONSTANCE "Connie"

Commercial

"A sweet girl with sweet ways."

Constance Manusky, of Hazleton, is a very quiet and attractive student, with blonde hair, brown eyes and a pleasing smile. Even though she has little interest in sports, she bowls occasionally. Football and dancing are minor interests; movies, especially comedies and romances, are her major interest. She'll be a stenographer or a clerk in a leading department store.

MARCIN, JOHN "Mertz"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"Get me machinery, I'm ready to use it,
And while I wait, I'll get education."

This dark-haired, dark-eyed young man spends his spare time reading detective stories or playing basketball. He likes all the other sports, too. Mertz prefers happy-go-lucky people to the more quiet ones but he likes them all. He wants to be a machinist, but if he got the chance he'd go to college first.

MARCKS, JAMES "Abe"

Industrial

"Something learned is something earned."

Abe is in the Cabinet Shop of Allentown High School. Instead of using a mallet, a chisel or other cabinet shop tools, he would rather play baseball, basketball, or football, or more football. Just recently he starred on his neighborhood team at end position.

MAREK, HELEN "Dracula"

General

"For 'tis the mind that makes the body rich."

Helen is among the group who enjoys their school work, and constantly seeks after new knowledge. "Science rates first as the most interesting of all subjects." says Helen. She likes to play the piano, and during her spare time collects stamps. "Life is grand," says Helen, "too grand ever to weaken."

National Honor Society, 4.

MARINE, JEAN C. "Jeanarine"

General

"She has built her hopes upon rock."

A little miss who really knows her way around, Jeanarine is a versatile dancer. Her ballet is as good as her jitterbugging. As for her acrobatic prowess—.he's captain of the girl's gym team, too, and proves outstanding in the gym exhibitions. Jeanarine isn't fickle—anymore. She's small, which is slightly amazing, considering that she's ready, willing, and able to eat three times more than the usual three meals a day. Jeanarine's laugh is contagious and she's loads of fun. She wants to be a dancer. Her many friends are looking forward to seeing her as one of the Rockettes or Gae Foster Girls.

Gym Team, 1, 2, 3, 4.

MARISS, MARY T. "Mar"

Commercial

" 'Tis the mind that makes the body rich."

If you ever meet Mary the first impression you'll get will be that she is a happy girl, who wants to make friends and to keep them. She can tell stories and jokes without being, as many of us are, sarcastic. Happiness is the keynote of her personality, and no matter what happens you can always be sure of a ready and willing friend. As she is always honest, Mary makes it a point to keep her promises. For a steady, athletic, and honest friend, look up Mary.

MARONE, ANDREW R. "Andy"

General

"Worry? Let it run away
Live a life and live it gay."

Andy is a happy-go-lucky fellow, takes things as they come. Although he isn't tops in his schoolwork, he is a fine fellow, and manages to get along with every one. Andy's hobby is music. He plays the accordion and the piano, and he can sing, too. Sports also interest him. Football, basketball, and ice-skating are no task to him. When he leaves high school, he plans to go to Virginia Military Institute, where he hopes to learn to serve his country.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir, 3, 4; Stage Manager, 3, 4.

MARQUARDT, JEAN BARBARA "Marky"

General

"The music in this maiden's voice
Thrills, awes, and delights you."

Be sure you know how to pronounce Jean's last name before saying it, for mispronunciation of it is one of her main annoyances. This tall, attractive girl hopes to become a school teacher, a profession in which she undoubtedly will succeed. As a member of the a Cappella Choir she stars as the contralto soloist. Her choice moments of leisure are spent playing the organ which she prefers to the piano. Here's good luck and success to a swell girl.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir, 2, 3, 4; Historical Society, 3, 4; German Club, 4.

MARTH, GEORGE "Sparky"

Industrial
Electric Shop

"We shall miss him when he leaves, but we shall never forget him."

George is the spark of the Electric Shop. His spark will glow bright after he leaves the shop and seeks a job as an electrician. He is a good sport and always the shock of the crowd. But he knows when to put his mind on his work.

MARTUCCI, VIOLET MARY "Toots"

Commercial

"Brief let me be."

Toots is a laughing, gay-spirited lass with more than her share of good looks, charming personality, and a good-natured disposition. A great lover of sports, a swell rugcutter, and a Y. W. C. A. Girl Reserve, are just a few of her varied activities. We know she'll succeed in clerical work.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

MARTZ, WILLIAM JOSEPH "Bill"

Commercial

"He was a man, take him for all in all,
I shall not look upon his like again."

Bill is reserved, good natured, always smiling, and leads his class in good humor. He is courteous to everyone; this, and his charming personality and naturally cheerful disposition have earned him many good friends. He has a way with the girls, and can often be seen talking to them. He's bound for the Army or the Navy.

MASCALI, PALMINA "Palm"

Commercial

"We may live without art, we may live without books,
But where is a man who can live without cooks."

Whether you know Palm or not, you are sure to like her, for she always has a smile for everyone. Palm is a wonderful cook, and makes delicious spaghetti, which is her favorite dish. Of course you'd know, Palm hopes to be a dietitian.

Home Room Representative, 3; Canary and Blue Solicitor, 3.

MASTERS, MARY JANE "Puzzy"

Home Economics

"She'll look or write or talk you all to death."

Mary Jane is probably the smallest person in the senior class, but she is far from being the most inactive. At football and basket ball games you can hear her cheering above all the rest. Dress deisgning being her aim, perhaps some day we'll all be wearing dresses designed by "Masters."

Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Dramatics, 1.

MAZUREK, FRANK "Frank"

Industrial
Architectural Drafting

"We will miss him when he goes."

Frank, who has taken the Architectural Drafting course, has many friends, both in and out of the shop. When he starts pushing that T square and angle, nothing in the world can stop him. Frank thinks he is running the T-square Club, but he is only a member. He knows when to fool and when to work. When he ventures out into the world he'll earn his share of luck and happiness.

McANALLY, FRANCES ELINOR "Eleanor"

College Preparatory

"Is not life too short for us to bore ourselves?"

Eleanor is, first of all, our friend, then she is our class historian. We like to laugh with Eleanor, for she can provoke laughter. She's pretty much attracted to the word "corny." But she has more than laughs and the word "corny;" she has a perceptive mind. She can see what true values in people are, and she knows what loyalty means. Eleanor isn't sure about her future, but we can count on its being unusual.

French Club, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Choir, 4; Historical Society, 3; National Honor Society, 4.

McCABE, CATHERINE "Cathy"

Commercial

"It is in learning music, that many youthful hearts learn to love."

Personality, plus wit, what would be more perfect? We have here an Irish miss who is proud of her nationality, but spends most of her time playing French horn in the band, and when she isn't doing that—she is talking.

Her musical ability, together with her spunk, her love of life, and her Irish wit, will prove invaluable to her always. May she live as long as she likes, and have what she likes as long as she lives!

Band, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra, 2.

McCLAFFERTY, MARY ELIZABETH "Mac"

College Preparatory

"Oh for a seat in some grassy nook,
Just hid with trees and sparkling with a brook!"

Constantly Mary is turning out mangificent stories, poems, features, interviews, all written with a masterly touch, a beauty of language, an artistic finish. Her unusual talents have been utilized for the Canary and Blue, the class room, and the many organizations to which she belongs.

But this versatile young miss does not live a life of solitary confinement pushing a pencil; her winning personality gets her a merry welcome in any group. A splendid swimmer, she is also active in other sports.

Mary plans to study journalism and hopes to become a literary agent.

Canary and Blue, 2, 3, 4; Comus, 4; Chorus, 2; Historical Society, 3; Dramatics, 3; French Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Swimming, 3, 4; Canary Solicitor, 4.

McELLROY, LUCILLE "Mae"

Commercial

"Do not worry, always smile,
There's some good in every mile."

Blonde brown-eyed Mae is the girl with the wide smile and gay, light, personality. An all-round girl, she loves all types of sports. Mae has among her hobbies a quite large and interesting stamp collection. She'll be a good stenographer, for she has a good scholastic record at High, and has one motto, "Never worry."

McELLROY, MAHLON "Mac"

Engineering and Science

"He who works reaps a lasting reward."

Mac has become one of the end members of the crowd. His hobby of working on automobiles should be an asset to him in his future work for he is planning to study civil engineering at Lehigh. We feel that Mac, with his level head and fine ability, will make good there.

McGEE, CATHERINE J. "Katie"

College Preparatory

"Our ambition, our content, lies in simple things."

Catherine Jane, one of the quieter girls, can nevertheless become the center of any group with her quick wit. A conscientious student, Catherine devotes her free hours to back stage activities, and has been chairman of the properties committee of three high school plays. Katie will matriculate at Penn State to major in Home Economics. Lots of luck, Katie!

Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Chairman of Properties of Junior; Interclass and Senior Class Plays, 3.

McGEE, HUGH E. "Hughie"

General

"Don't put off till tomorrow what you can do today."

Hughie is one of those happy-go-lucky fellows who never carries books home, but absorbs it all somehow, for he always seems to get through. Hugh is a good friend and sport. We are quite sure he will succeed, because he can work hard if he cares to. His brother is now a student at Lehigh, and Hughie expects to join him there.

McGEE, LAWRENCE "Mac"

Industrial

"Why do today what can be done tomorrow?"

Mac is a care-free who "doesn't believe in overwork," yet although he tells everyone he dreads work, he really puts his nose to the grindstone when he gets at it. Talking is his hobby, but we really believe it should be his profession. His wavy black hair is symbolic; he is a heartbreaker. Lawrence we believe will go far provided he doesn't mix too much pleasure with too little business, and remembers that there is a time and a place for everything.

McGINLEY, JOHN S. "Zeke"

General

"A little nonsense now and then,
is relished by the wisest men."

Without a doubt, Zeke is one of the most popular seniors at Allentown High School. Every class becomes more pleasant when he is present, thanks to his good humor and his poor jokes. He is one of the reasons why Allentown High has a good swing band. For some time John has been keenly interested in popular music, and his secret ambition is to make a living playing with a big orchestra. Allentown High will suffer a loss next June when it loses Zeke; he is a fine fellow and a good sport.

Football, 1, 2, 3, 4; Track, 3, 4; Orchestra, 3, 4; Varsity "A" Club, 4.

McGINLEY, MICHAEL "Mickey"

Industrial
Auto Shop

"Live to Learn, Learn to Love, Love to Live."

Mickey is another of those rather silent students. His school work is not exceptional, but it is always thorough. He believes in finishing and handing his assignments in on time. Mickey goes in for sports in a big way. Football, basketball, and baseball. He is a great hunter, too, and a fisherman. You treat him well, he will treat you better. He is not much at talking or making speeches, or going to parties, but he is, we all agree, an all-round good fellow.

McKEEVER, DONALD F. "Mac"

General

"If height were money, he would be a poor man."

Mac's friends are proud of his amiable disposition and wholesome sincerity. In the classroom he is one of the silent group, but he's active enough out of doors. Besides outdoor sports, sketching, and philately, Mac enjoys chemistry, ping pong, reading, and bicycling. His red hair and short stature get him much ribbing but all in fun. Mac hopes to be a chemist after going to a suitable college.

German Club, 4.

McKNIGHT, REBECCA "Becky"

College Preparatory

"And where I come from nobody knows,"

This is the little sprite in your classes who quietly rises and always gives the right answer just as if everyone knew it. Becky's one of those blessed souls who succeeds in resembling a timid person, but who has lived an amazing life of adventure and hair-raising experiences. Get her to tell you how it feels to sit on the side of a fallen elephant in the heart of Africa and have a tribe of Africans do a traditional war dance around you. Having been born and having lived most of her life in Africa, she's as familiar with Egyptian mummies, dusky Arabs and African lions as you are with Mr. Zimmerman's aquarium amoebas. Naturally she's fond of our tame American mountain lions and grizzlies. And the more she can be out doors among the flora and fauna the happier she is.

Gym Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

McNALLY, FRANCIS M. "Mick"

Commercial

"Short in stature, long in friendship."

Francis McNally is a quiet person, and a nice fellow to get along with. He is a good student in all of his work, and a loyal supporter of all high school activities. Although he did not go out for sports at school, he is a fine baseball player.

Historical Society, 3, 4.

MELBER, FREDERICK "Fred"

Commercial

"Everything is funny as long as it is happening to somebody else."

Fred is an all-around good fellow, in school and out. Everyone likes him because of his personality and witty remarks. He is an ardent rooter at football and basketball games. He likes football, baseball, and swimming. As a hobby and part time job, Fred plays and works at photography. He hopes to join the Army, and do photography. We wish him all the success in the world.

MENGEL, PHYLLIS "Phil"

Commercial

"This young lady though silent and sweet,
Has a sense of humor that cannot be beat."

Phyllis hopes to become a stenographer or a secretary to some big business man. She claims she is a man-hater, but we have reason to doubt her word. When Phyllis leaves our Alma Mater she plans to continue her secretarial studies at some higher institution.

MESSER, NEVA S. "Neva"

General

"It's never too late to try."

Neva usually has a smile for everyone. Her delightful personality makes her most popular. She has a special liking for dancing and dates, but she is right there too when it comes to football, basketball, and swimming. As to what she is to follow when she graduates, no one knows, least of all Neva.

METZGER, ANNA E. "Anne"

General

"She found herself happiest in communicating happiness to others."

We always meet Anne's chatter, no matter where we turn. Perhaps you've seen a tall blonde with brown eyes, rushing through the halls always in a hurry. If you have, that's Anne, for she is sure to catch everyone's eye. She is always willing to stop long enough to lend a helping hand, however. Anne plays the accordion between rushes. Always pleasant, always cheerful, always ready for fun, of course Anne has friends by the dozen. She loves ice skating and swimming and is an athlete in every sense of the word. She plans to become a nurse and we're sure she will be a credit to the profession.

METZGER, WESLEY A. "Matey"

General

"Care adds a nail to your coffin."

Matey has always thought care was an unnecessary hardship. This has influenced his decisions in school as well as in other places. However, it has not hampered his advance in any way.

Matey has no special plans for the future, although the sea and racing hold thrills all their own for him.

Chorus, 2; Track, 4.

METZLER, CARLTON W. "Carlton"

General

"The open fields and gurgling streams, yea, there he shall find peace."

Here is a tall, reserved, likable fellow. The open country or a secluded stream is his idea of Paradise; for hunting and fishing make him tingle with excitement and pleasure. Carlton is the "he-mannish" type, unassuming and simple in actions. Some line in telephone work is what Carlton wants.

MEYERSBURG, DORA "Dodo"

General

"Trot your mile and wear a smile
And help the chap that's down."

Dora is a brown-haired, brown-eyed lass, brimful of pep, with a cheery hello for everybody. She is fond of music, especially piano. If ever you meet a girl wondering how she will ever manage to play as well as Paderewski you'll know it is Dora. She is also fond of reading, of arguing, and of mischief. As far as we can determine, Dora hopes to be a super-super telephone operator. If you want a pal who is cheerful and helpful, don't forget Dodo. She is a friend worthwhile.

MICEK, CHARLES "Charlie"

Industrial

"Always keep the nose up."

Charlie's one ambition from boyhood has been to become a pilot. He is a good sport and can make friends with almost anyone. He loves to go to the airport and watch the planes come in and go out. He never is ambitious during school hours, but after school hours he just doesn't know when to stop working.

Well, Charlie, here's hoping you become, not just a flyer, but a great pilot.

MICHENER, ELIZABETH "Betty"

General

"There she stands, with helping hands."

Although Betty has only recently become a student in our school, her quiet yet commanding nature has already won for her a place in the hearts of an ever increasing circle of friends. She takes a keen interest in her school work.

Betty has all the qualities necessary in a good nurse; there is little doubt that she will succeed in her chosen profession.

Chorus, 4.

MICHENER, NAOMI RUTH "Spuds"

Commercial

"And some ran north, and some ran south,
Crying, 'The day is ours!' "

Here is one of 1941's biggest giggles. Everyone knows Spuds because she is full of fun. Her pleasant smiles bring her a host of friends. This happy-go-lucky girl hopes to be somebody's steno some day. If you have not been acquainted with Spuds you've missed a lot of fun.

Girl Reserves, 1, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4.

MILLER, ARLENE LORRAINE "Honey"

Commercial

"I live the life I love."

A cheerful personality, a sparkling sense of humor, a generous disposition, and you have Arlene. She is, indeed, a true friend and a good sport. Just what Arlene expects to do we do not know, but whatever she may tackle, she'll master it.

MILLER, DAVID "Davy"

Industrial

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

Davy likes cabinet making, but that is where it stops; all other studies are just a pastime. At play or work Davy never forgets to eat. Besides living, eating is the next most important activity in his program.

MILLER, ELIZABETH "Betty"

General

"Here is a spirit deep and crystal-clear."

"Silence is golden" is Betty's motto, and even though she is quiet, she is one girl out of many who knows how to crack up. She offers each and all a friendship that is true and sincere. Betty's aim is to become a nurse, and a good one. No matter what success Betty attains, we all know that she'll deserve it.

MILLER, ELIZABETH MARY "Dimples"

General

"Bring her again, O Western Wind."

Dimples is a pleasing mixture of smiles and seriousness tempered with plenty of common sense. She leans toward the classic in music, and operettas in preference to opera. Swing is "all right until it gets to the jumpin' jive and hep-tee-hootie stage," then it's taboo. Asked had she heard the natural rhythm of the Negro spiritual in Kay Kyser's Hep Tee Hootie, she corrected—"cannibal rhythm, not negro." Imagine witch doctor Kay Keyser and all the jitterbugs prancing out a death dance. Dimples has a fondness for Navy uniforms. Until his draft year is up she intends to be a telephone operator. So this is one-ni-yen-four-one-calling Betty Miller.

MILLER, EVELYN HELEN "Evie"

Commercial

"Heard melodies are sweet but those unheard are sweeter."

Evie is, beyond all measure, the cream of the crop. This sparkling brown-eyed lassie with the dark brown hair takes a serious attitude toward her studies and her pleasures. When she says a thing, you know she means it. In her spare time, she holds nothing better than reading a good book or taking in a good movie. Several years from now you will probably find her trotting down some spic-and -span corridor of a prominent hospital not so far away. Even though she has a commercial course, that's of value in training.

Commercial Club, 4.

MILLER, FRANKLIN JOSEPH "Bud"

General

"Hunting? Wait till I get my traps!"

Bud is a quiet fellow but he can make and keep friends very easily. He enjoys hunting and fishing, in fact, anything out of doors. He also finds time for sports, chiefly baseball and basketball. In fact, in South Whitehall he was basketball manager and on the baseball team the two years he attended school there. In his studies he has been about average, being exempt from some exams and having to take others, but after all, the men who have done things in this world have been the average men.

South Whitehall—Basketball Manager 1, 2; Baseball, 1, 2; Class Play, 2.

MILLER, FRED D. "Fritz"

General

"A man must have his fun."

Fritz is always looking for a laugh. His motto is, "Laugh and be happy." He is a great talker when alone. His chief interests are art, basketball, football, and baseball. Whenever sketches of football players lie in the hall, you can bet that Fritz was around. Fritz expects to become a commercial artist.

MILLER, GERALDINE CAROLYN "Gerry"

Commercial

"Chatter chatter all the while,
A twinkling eye and a big, big smile."

Five feet one and a half inches of wit, fun and good humor—this half of the Miller twins. Gerry has an ever increasing circle of friends who trust and admire her. She is interested in dancing, skating, and basketball. She has exceptional ability in commercial subjects, and aims to be a private secretary.

Girl Reserves, 1, 2, 3, 4; Gym Club, 1; Commercial Club, 4; Homeroom Representative, 2, 3.

MILLER, JEAN PRISCILLA "Jeanie"

Commercial

"You'll never see her in a crowd
Because she is so small
But just stop for a little while
And you'll hear her above all."

Jeanie is that little ray of sunshine who brightens and stirs up any group. Such a small girl could be a sophomore, but she's a senior no less. Not to be outdone in sports, she excels in swimming. Although not always on her feet, she does a good job at ice-skating. As a jumping jitterbug she dances circles around the best. Better yet, her name is always among the leaders of the honor roll.

Commercial Club, 4; Girl Reserves, 1, 2, 3, 4.

MILLER, JEANETTE "Nettie"

Commercial

"For she's a jolly good fellow."

Dark hair and dark eyes, generally stunning, Nettie loves singing to the strumming of her guitar. She is full of fun, the life of any party, swimming, skating, or indoor.

Girl Reserves, 1, 2, 3, 4.

MILLER, MAE "Mae"

Commercial

"A little learning is a dangerous thing
Drink deep or taste not the Pierian spring."

Mae is to be seen at all the basketball and football games. Her one ambition is to be a telephone operator, and anyone who knows Mae knows she will make good.

Of her hobbies, she enjoys dancing most, then swimming, ice-skating and tennis.

MILLER, MARILYNN JOANNE "Sis"

Commercial

"I with you, and you with me,
Miles are short with company."

Marilynn, like her sister, is full of fun, and is admired by all her friends. Her hobbies are dancing, swimming and skating, in all of which she excels. Sis has high aspirations; she wants to be some lawyer's private secretary. We wish her all the good fortune and happiness in the world.

Girl Reserves, 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4; Gym Club, 1.

MILLER, MORTON "Mort"

General

"I consider time an immense ocean."

Mort may seem quiet, but he has always managed to make many friends, and he does get around. He will be a success in whatever work he chooses, for he has ability and plenty of it. Mort has proved pure gold in scholastic work. With his splendid personality he is sure to go places fast, although he'll never be the type to rush things.

MILLER, ROBERT "Bob"

General

"A merry heart doeth good like medicine."

Bob can always be heard laughing above the rest, always has a joke or wise remark ready for any occasion, and incidentally his jokes are not aged. He is a quiet, honest worker, always plugging away at something. His hobby is monkeying around with chemicals.

B. S. A.; Order of Demolay

MILLER, SHIRLEY ELIZABETH "Milly"

Commercial

"Laugh and the world laughs with you."

Although Shirley has missed a great deal of school, she has kept her studies up to the standard. She is a quiet sort of person in school, but not out. Her greatest difficulty is getting out of bed in the morning. She shows keen interest in her school work, but keener in dancing. She always knows her lessons, but they don't interfere with her many social engagements.

MILLER, THOMAS SAMUEL "Tom"

General

"Keen, alert, a thinker, with many a chuckle at life."

Tom is full of life, and full of smiles. Willingness and ability are traits well worth having, and he has them. Tom likes all sports, especially ping pong. Ambition?—"To get along in life and still have time for hobbies and sports." He takes his fun in large doses, but he does not neglect his school work. We are definitely sure of his success, and send him out into the world with best wishes for health and happiness.

National Honor Society, 4; German Club, 4; Basketball Usher, 4.

MILLER, WILLIAM "Bill"

Industrial
Machine Shop

Bill is one of the happy-go-lucky industrial boys and a fair example of the machine shop crowd. Football, basketball, hunting, fishing, and trapping, he says, are all his favorite recreation. For a hobby he collects and makes his own artificial flies for fishing. He doesn't find it hard to make friends anywhere, for he is a sociable and affable fellow.

MILLHOUSE, ALTHEA D. "Thea"

Commercial

"Triton his trumpet shrill before them blew,
For goodly triumph and great jollyment."

Althea is better known by her large circle of friends as Giggles, for she is always laughing without knowing what she is laughing about. Althea might become a beautician, but as things look at present, she may get interested in household affairs instead. Happiness, anywhere, Thea.

MIMLITSCH, ARLENE DOROTHY "Mim"

Commercial

"Her face hath wonderful fascination in it."

Mim is sweet, snappy, and direct. She is a double feature rolled up into one small package. Admission charges to the "Mimlitsch Environment" is one broad smile, which will be returned two-fold. It isn't hard to get along with Mim, because she can fascinate you with little effort. She is willing to do anything for you, and expects nothing in return. To look at her you would never think that eating was her hobby. Her other favorite sports are swimming, skating and hiking.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

MINNER, VERONICA ELIZABETH "Ronnie"

General

"Smiles and the world smiles with her."

Those daring green gray eyes, that deep dimple, that wicked look—that's Ronnie. You never see her without a smile, and you never see her alone. She is always surrounded with a group of her friends. The boys like her; they jump at her command. The girls adore her happy-go-lucky attitude. If you don't know her you should—she's a swell girl and a dear friend.

Glee Club, 1; Y. W. C. A., 1, 2.

MINNICH, CLAIRE CORRINE "Reds"

Commercial

"Good at work, good at play,"
Willing to laugh the whole long day.

Claire is one of those Titian-haired lasses you want as a friend. She has a lovely personality, full of wholesome fun. Naturally, she has a happy-go-lucky disposition and does not take her work too seriously, but yet she always manages to rank close to the top when the honor roll is made public.

Reds loves nothing more than to dance. She maintains her beautiful figure by swimming in the summer and skating in the winter.

Her many friends wish her the best of luck and a life full of joy.

Commercial Club, 4.

MINNICH, JOYCE MARY "Joy"

Commercial

"The whole day long
She goes smiling along."

Yes, that's Joyce, always happy, never a worry! She can play the piano as well as she can handle the typewriter, and aspires to be a stenographer.

If you get to know Joy you're bound to like her.

Glee Club, 1; Commercial Club, 4; Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

MIRTH, EDNA "Ed"

Commercial

"Fair and pure, fine and true."

Edna is a bright-eyed lassie with dark brown hair. A true friend, she is always ready to help others. Edna keeps up with her scholastic studies, and is sure to be a fine and capable secretary for someone. She delights in dancing, ice-skating, and tennis. Her gay carefree manner helps to make her pleasing and popular.

Gym Club, 1, Y. W. C. A., 4.

MIRTH, ROBERT FRANK "Bob"

General

"He shall bring them to bliss
That now are hale in bonnie
This Mirth we may not miss
For this same god is sunny."

Bob, with his ever ready hand and friendly smile, makes and keeps friends easily. No use, girls, he's still true to only one, and that's his mother. He does fairly well in his studies, but is most alert after 2:40 p. m. Bob has been a staunch leader on the football team, a game fighter in all the games. He plans to enter Massanutten Military Academy next fall, and will be a fine cadet. And handsome in his uniform! We wish him a fine career.

Football, 2, 3, 4; Track, 3, 4.

MISHKIN, ALVIN IRVING "Bemmie"

General

"I always get on better when I argue alone."

Bemmie is really a very witty lad, who hopes to become a lawyer some day, and promises to be a good one, if the girls don't bother him. Wherever there's an argument, there you are sure to find Alvin Irving Mishkin. We wish him success, and hope he argues himself into fame.

Chorus, 1; Historical Society, 2, 3.

MITCHELL, GLADYS L. "Gladys"

Commercial

"And she and I the banquet scene completing
With dreamy words—and very pleasant eating."

When Gladys isn't doing homework, she's usually eating; pretzels are her favorite food, and she always has one in her pocket to nibble on. Her pet hate is washing dishes, although she doesn't mind drying them. She has mischievous brown eyes—in perfect harmony with her hair. Her main ambition is to be a secretary, and here's one career girl who is sure to succeed.

MOHR, BETTY MARRE "Butch"

Commercial

"She that hath friends shows herself friendly."

Betty is a good sport and a fine girl with a big heart, a big smile, a lot of friends, and a big gift of gab. Her one ambition is to become a truck driver, and loads of us are ready to go along with her. She loves sports of all kinds, and books, and movies, and friends, and trucks.

Y. W. C. A., 2; Historical Society, 2; Scooping Snooper, 2.

MOHRY, EARLE J. "Red"

Commercial

"Be the labor great or small
Do it well or not at all."

Always gay and always happy, there is seldom a dull moment in Earle's life. He attends all the football and basketball games, takes a great interest in swimming, tennis, ice skating, and photography, and has played the piano for a number of years. Of late he has turned to popular melodies and orchestra work. A good student, Red likes shorthand and typewriting, and is especially fond of accounting. It is accounting that he plans to work at and perhaps become a C. P. A.

Commercial Club, 4.

MOLL, MYLES "Mitch"

Mechanical Drafting

"To know him a little is to like him a lot."

Myles is a quiet sort of fellow. He casts an uncertain eye on the weaker sex, but we think the years will change that look. Myles loves swimming, and delights in any activity that uses up his surplus energy. It is well to keep Myles in mind, for some of these days you are going to hear of him as a Master Draftsman.

MONTOMGERY, ELVA "Effie"

General

"Like a wave midst the deep,
Then running foamily up the beach."

Effie is a girl who is so quiet in school that people forget that she is there, but on the outside Little Miss Montomgery turns into Wild Effie, the sweetest little pack of dynamite east of the Pacific. She is the best friend any girl or fellow could have.

MOOSE, PAULINE V. "Moosey"

General

"O happy world, thought Pelleas, all, meseems are happy; I the happiest of them all."

Hosts of friends are attracted by Moosey's magnetic smile and sunny disposition. She is studious when the occasion requires it, but she would rather swing to the music of Jimmy Dorsey or Glenn Miller. In spite of being fun loving, she is serious in her one ambition —to become a devoted housewife.

MORGENSTERN, CHARLES "Chuck"

Industrial
Drafting

"Things turn up for the man who digs."

Chuck, one of the tallest boys of the senior class, is a clever draftsman who devised the patent in the art of opening and closing the windows. He had many opportunities to land a job in drafting, but because his middle name is weatherstrip, he prefers out-door sports—baseball his favorite, football and any others that require the utmost brawn and brain.

MORRIS, CHESTER "Chet"

Commercial

"Small but mighty."

Chester is popular with all the fellows and girls of A. H. S. He is interested in all sports in and out of school, is a jolly and cheerful fellow and a fine friend to have. After graduation he expects to get a job as bookkeeper.

MORRIS, RICHARD P. "Dick"

General

"So live until thy life doth end,
That all will strive to call thee friend."

Through the long halls of Allentown High you have probably seen a serious looking long fellow, gazing down upon the rest of the crowd. But don't let your first impression deceive you. That will be Dick, who is really humorous and happy-go-lucky, well liked by all his acquaintances. Tall, light, and pleasure loving, he can be serious when necessary. Dick enjoys playing many sports, and attends all the sport events. He is ambitious, has ability, and a winning personality. He plans to go to college. No one enjoys a good time more than Dick Morris does, so here's to an amiable fellow on the road to success, and already far along the road to popularity.

MORRISON, ELSIE V. "Wimpy"

Retail Selling

"Like a sweet Dutch Doll is she,
Just as cute as she can be."

Elsie, demure blonde, is a loyal friend. She has done some splendid work in school and in the stores. Although she can be quiet, how she can talk once she gets started. Cooking and music are her hobbies, although her course prevented her specializing in either study. At school, at work, at home, no matter what task she has to do, she does it with a smile and a song.

A Cappella Choir, 1.

MOSER, FREDERICK "Fritz"

Science and Engineering

"Hear all, see all, think much, but say little."

A very reserved lad, Fritz is interested in everything the high school has to offer. He succeeds best of all in Math. He is, however, active in sports and here stars in football. Fritz intends to major in chemistry at college, and then apply for a position with the government. He hopes also to increase his skill as a ping-pong player, at which he is now very adept.

MOSSER, BARBARA D. "Bobby"

College Entrance

"A straight line is the shortest distance between two dates."

At the dances the fellows all want to meet "that attractive girl with curly brown hair and laughing blue eyes." When they get to know her, they find Bobby a sympathetic, understanding person who excels in both sports and studies. She wouldn't miss a high school football or basketball game; she's a good swimmer, a coming ice skater, and a great lover of horses, in fact an excellent rider. Bobby will go to Cornell next year to take up veterinary work—she calls it "horse-doctoring." Cornell's looking for lovely girls, so good luck, Bobby!

MOSSER, WILLIAM S. "Bill"

General

"What's to do? I'm here to do it!"

Well built for, and much interested in, sports, Bill moves along through life's ways with an indulgent smile for the world.

Bill's motto seems to be, "Take everything standing up, and with a smile."

He is well above average in math, and enjoys the subject immensely. In his spare time Bill plays with his church basketball team, which is a member of the Church Basketball League.

Bill's heart is in the sky, and if the opportunity offers he means to go from college into the Air Corps.

MOYER, JEAN LOUISE "Jeanie"

Commercial

"Never do tomorrow what you can do today."

Jean is a friendly girl. In her studies she is up to par, receives good grades as the reward of real effort, is well liked by her many friends, and is continually making new friends. She is interested in basketball, and in collecting foreign dolls. Jean wants to be a private secretary.

MOYER, SIDNEY "Sid"

Science and Engineering

"With graceful steps he strides the street,
And smiles at all the maidens sweet."

Sid needs little introduction. You couldn't help knowing him. His cheerful countenance reflects his carefree, happy existence. He always says, "Take life easy; don't let it throw you." He does not claim to be excessively brilliant, "only intelligent." Sid likes to dance, enjoys watching football and basketball games, and no matter whom he is with, always seems to have a good time. His magnetism reduces the fems to a state of abject admiration. Sid has the stuff that spells success. We expect his name in America's Who's Who.

Swimming, 1, 2.

MUELLER, ANNA LOU "Lou"

College Entrance in Arts

"But now my task is smoothly done;
I can fly, or I can run."

Anna Lou spotted an electric clock in an early-nineteenth century movie. No anachronism can get by her. An extraordinarily acute sense of the ridiculous makes her fine company. Lou is a good listener, "an excellent trait in woman." She is an enthusiastic reader and judge of books. Swimming and tennis are her favorite sports. Lou is modest and honest to the core—and unconsciously so.

Perhaps the most engaging thing about her is the delight with which she accepts every invitation. It is a hearteneing thing to the prospective hostess to hear a sincere, "I'd love to," instead of, "I suppose I can."

National Honor Society, 4; Latin Club, 4; German Club, 3; Historical Society, 3.

MURPHY, JOSEPH "Murph"

Science and Engineering

Murphy, a highly skilled model airplane builder, is much admired by his friends not only for his work and interest in aeronautics, but also because he is a chap who keeps his mind on his own business. Murph takes part in sports when he has time, and is in general a regular fellow. He intends to enlist in the Navy and work his way into the Air Corps, where we are sure he will fly high.

MUSHKE, JEAN MAE "Jeanne"

Commercial

"They dream of Jeanne with the light brown hair."

If you want to find a mighty fine girl, a good chum, an all-around good sport, get acquainted with Jean. Her gay sympathetic nature has won her a wide circle of friends. She is a lover of dancing, and likes to see and hear the most popular orchestras. Some day she intends to be a secretary.

MUSSELMAN, REUEL "Bud"

General

"All play made him this way."

If you're looking for Bud, you will always find him at a game, or reporting sports at a broadcasting station, for there he reports school news. As a student Bud does all the work that is necessary, and gets along well.

MUSSELMAN, WILMER E. "Mussy"

Commercial

"'Tis the article, not the size, that determines value."

Here stands the last of the Musselmans. For the last ten years there has been a Musselman in the A. H. S. Band, to add pep and mischief at all band functions. Although you can't see him, there he is, behind the big bass horn, and whenever a joke is being played, all eyes turn toward Mussy, but you'll always find him a swell guy.

Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra, 2, 4; Boys Chorus, 1.

MUSSELMAN, WINIFRED "Winnie"

Commercial

"The girl worth while is the girl with a smile
When everything goes dead wrong."

We all know Winnie as the girl with the sparkling smile and twinkling eyes. Wherever you see a hen session in progress, you'll find her in the center. Although she is studying for secretarial work, her main ambition is designing. If ever her dreams are realized, Schiaparelli, watch out!

MUTH, RICHARD "Dick"

Architectual Drafting

"Get'em young and treat'em rough."

Richard, with his fair and baby face, with his wavy blonde hair and his chicken-bow tie, comes down the street with a cheerful smile. Dick is never worried about his work. He always minds his own business, and will go far in architecture. Whenever he hears hot swing music he starts to jitter. Dick always makes a big hit with the girls, for when he flashes that personality smile he just slays 'em.

NABHAN, FREDERICK N. "Freddie"

General

"What strength cannot do, man's wit hath often effected."

Fred's jolly good nature has won him a high place in the hearts of his fellow students. His wonderful sense of humor and magnetic personality set him apart from the crowd, which invariably gathers around him at the dances and other social functions he attends. This social ability, combined with an excellent character, will enable him to attain wide recognition in medicine.

"Tillie"

NAGEL, ANN LOUISE "Tillie"

General

"Being myself no stranger to suffering I have Learned to relieve the suffering of others."

Tillie, somewhat of a zephyr, but not too swift to say a jolly Hello!, has one of the grandest dispositions and personalities of a high school student. You may better know her as an out-door girl, particularly fond of swimming. Because of her fine record so far, we know Tillie will do well whatever she tries.

NAGLE, IRENE "Renee"

Commercial

"Be prepared, be prepared
That's the way to be."

Small and quiet is this girl with the serious gray eyes and pleasing personality. Always ready and willing to do her share, whatever the task may be, Irene is a good friend. She's the girl in the hall carrying all those books. Seriously, we admire her, and wish for her a bright future and much success.

NAGLE, ROBERT AUDREY "Spike"

Engineering and Science

"Let the girls alone—and you'll prosper."

On the surface, Bob is a happy-go-lucky person with a pleasant smile, but to the friends who know him well, he is a serious minded young man with high ideals and principles. An excellent swimmer, he goes in for all kinds of sports. Bob's most notable quality is his ability to manage and to save; he'll make some lucky girl a good provider. He wants to further his education by an engineering course at college a year or so after he graduates. Meantime, he plans to help his father in the contracting business. We wish Bob unlimited success and happiness.

NEFF, JEROME Y. "Jerry"

General

"Humor is one element of genius."

Jerry is a friendly good-natured fellow, who takes things as they come but tries hard to get what he wants. He does well in his studies, but his main asset is a marvelous sense of humor. He's an all-round boy who goes in for all sports; in fact, he is a rabid fan. Jerry is set to go to college next year to take up business. When he graduates we all expect him to become a leading local merchant.

NEISER, ELAINE ROBERTA "Elaine"

Commercial

"Sometimes quiet, sometimes gay
But we all love her either way."

Five-feet, six inches, brown eyes, smile of an angel, and a pleasing personality—answers to the name Elaine. Whenever you hear a "Hi here" and a "Hi there" in the halls of A. H. S., Elaine is coming along. Elaine is our greatest gum chewer. If you ever see or hear her without gum, let us know. And she's quick tempered.

Elaine is usually among the gayest crowds at social affairs, and at games a wonderful enthusiast, always loyal to the Canaries, she is always at all football games, cheering and rooting.

Girl Reserves, 1, 2, 3, 4; Girls Basketball, 3.

NEWHARD, JOYCE "Joy"

General

"How lovely common things must seem to you
Who have such lovely eyes to see them through."

Although Joy doesn't say much, we know she does a lot of thinking. She always sees the funny side of things, and honesty is her middle name. Joy enjoys skating more than any other sport but spends most of her leisure time reading. Her plans for the future are uncertain, but we wish her success in whatever she undertakes.

NEWHARD, WILLIAM "Billy"

Industrial

"We have often wondered what causes a clock to stop."

Billy is a quiet fellow around a group of boys, but around girls he is an uproar. He is learning to be an electrician, and hopes some day to be able to turn on the light switches of his own home.

Bill wants to be a fur trapper up north. He also is interested in fishing, and tells wonderful stories to the class.

Bill is an expert at answering questions—in three words, "I don't know." That's why he has that intelligent look on his face.

NEYHART, EUGENE "Gene"

General

"I'd rather be small and shine
Than be big and cast a shadow."

Gene's main desire is sleeping; "goes to school principally for something to do." Although he's slow getting to classes, he's always first to leave. Nature built him small, and made him a swing enthusiast. After high school Gene wants to attend a military academy. Gene never worries about to-morrow until it's past, and never about the past while there's a tomorrow.

NICKISHER, RUDOLPH "Rudy"

Industrial

"Yo-ho, yo-ho, for a seaman's life!"

Rudy is a likeable chap who says he has no pet hates, not even girls. He's handy with tools; see the kitchen chairs, tables and various other articles he makes. Altho Rudy isn't the lazy type he loves to sleep and gets teased at home about this. One of his hobbies is collecting stamps. "Don't give up the ship" will be a common expression where Rudy's going, for he intends to enlist in the navy, specializing in electrical engineering.

Jean Nonnemacher

NONNEMACHER, JEAN RUTH "Nonne"

Commercial

"Good at work, better at play,
Willing to laugh with the gang all day."

Nonne's friends know her as a good sport, a dependable person, and a laughing companion. She is an active supporter of A. H. S. activities, and is a great help to the cheerleaders at the games. Jean's ambition is to be a secretary or a telephone operator. We all join in wishing her happiness.

Girl Reserves, Basketball, 1, 2.

OBERDOESTER, CHARLES H. "Jackie" and "Obie"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"Of earthly goods, the best is a good wife."

Brave big Obie is a champ at shop, beats the dickens out of Smittie and the shop.

His job is to work with steel, and the place will probably be with the Bethlehem Steel. His future depends on a couple of minor things—a wife and a job.

O'KEEFE, JOSEPH "Joe"

Engineering and Science

"A ready wit and frank replies, topped off by laughing Irish eyes."

Here's to our president, Irish Joe. He is our typical man of action, go-getter, and live wire. Both on the basketball court and in student life he has showed himself the true sportsman. For him the future can only be bright; we vision for him a successful career as an engineer. Student, athlete, and friend, he is admired and respected by all. We wish him well, and that goes for all of us, students and faculty.

Junior Class President, 3; Home Room Representative, 3; National Honor Society, 4; Varsity A Club, 4; Senior Class President, 4; Varisty Basketball Team, 2, 3, 4.

OLEYNIK, HELEN DOROTHY "Charm"

General

"I am not of that feather to shake off
My friend when he most needs me."

Many hobbies keep this gregarious young lady continually on the go. In her clubs she constantly meets new friends, a pleasure of which she never tires. Helen dances, skates, rides, and swings a mean tennis racquet, but would readily pass all these up to travel. The field of surgery has attracted Helen. She wants to be a brain surgeon.

OMRON, SALLAM "Sam"

Engineering and Science

"The good have no need for an advocate."

Sallam Omron, Sam to us, has, after three fruitful years at Allentown High, set his course for Lehigh University and chemical engineering. Sam has also expressed a desire to be a diplomat in international affairs. Although no honor student, Sam has been a consistently good pupil, which assures us that no matter what work he undertakes he will do it.

O'NEILL, ANN "Mickey"

General

"Wits are of earthly substance."

Here is an unforgettable personality: a rare kind of girl with a sparkling wit and a distaste for artificiality, a type of girl who sets up idols in the field of literature and music and reveres them zealously. And woe to the person who criticizes or attacks Shelley, Byron, Tchaikowsky! Ann hopes to study political science at college. Ann is appealingly human, and is sure to strike a feeling of deep and admiring sympathy in the hearts of all who know her. Poetry and short stories are an outlet for the strikingly clever wit of Ann O'Neill.

Historical Society, 4; Dramatic Club, 4; Canary, 4; Comus, 4.

OPLINGER, ERVIN ELWOOD "Gulliver"

Commercial

"If you want a thing well done, do it yourself."

Gulliver is a friend long to be remembered. If you think you see a skyscraper walking down the street, that is Ervin. A quiet sort of chap, he always has his work completed, and always gets good marks. He is always busy, but never too busy to help a friend. If you want to get him angry, just mention the twins to him. His hobbies are photography and model airplane building. He is an active church worker, president of the High School Christian Endeavor Union of Lehigh County. Some business concern's accounting department certainly will make progress with him as manager.

Commercial Club Treasurer, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

OPLINGER, JAY "Oppie"

General

"In friendship I early was taught to believe."

Jay is not one of those boys who is quiet, shy, bashful and easily disturbed. He is forever laughing, friendly, joking, and always ready for a good time. He doesn't spend his nights lying awake worrying about things; he believes one can sleep trouble off as he sleeps headaches off. Nothing bothers Jay, and Jay bothers nothing, which is the secret of his host of friends. With his peculiar and highly commendable personality, Jay will hit the top when he starts to climb.

OSWALD, ROBERT "Ossie"

Industrial
Auto Shop

"Haste makes waste—Don't rush me."

Ossie, when coaxed along, holds the record of being the shop's finest and swiftest mechanic. The cars that he repairs do a lifetime last, and never break down, even in a rough blast. He is always laboring over his math; that's why his hair is turning fast. His hobbies are chicken brooding, and experimenting at just anything.

OTT, BRUCE

College Entrance in Science and Engineering

"He's square without being angular.
He's honest without being mean.
He's upright without being punctilious."

Bruce is gifted with a winning personality that has helped him to acquire many friends, both in school and out. We have heard that one of his weaknesses is trigonometry. Zoology, his trumpet, and his pony are his main interests. However, as a senior Bruce has turned some of his attention toward dramatics and made his first hit on the High School stage in the Senior Class play. Bruce intends to become a veterinarian. We wish him all the luck in the world.

Chorus, 2; Band, 3; Dramatics, 4.

OTT, IRIS MARIE "Jitterbug"

Commercial

"A good face is the best letter of recommendation."

Iris is a small, sweet, cheerful, nifty blonde, who thinks Bethlehem fellows the oomph of the earth. Iris is the flower of her name. She loves football, and is a very sporty sport. Her hobbies are: boy-catching, gold-digging, dancing, swimming, dime romance books, and travels. So come on, all you tall-dark-and-handsome ones, Iris loves you all.

Dramatics 2; Y. W. C. A., 3.

OWENS, JOYCE "Jessie"

General

"Of all things I love nature best and, next to nature, art."

Joyce, who is interested in everybody and everything, plans to become a commercial artist. Being athletically inclined, Joyce loves dancing, skating, swimming, and cycling. Her chief hobby is collecting pictures of unusual automobiles. When she's in business she'll find plenty to draw in all these activities.

Girl Reserves, 1, 4.

OWENS, LOIS E. "Lois"

General

"Still waters run deep, and clear, and sweet."

Lois is a quiet, reserved, reliable girl, a true friend and a general favorite. Swimming and bicycle riding are the two sports she loves. Lois intends to be a governess, but we think she'll not stop at that.

OYER, HELEN "Reds"

Commercial

"Laugh and the class laughs with you:
Study—you study alone."

Helen is a good sport and a true, dependable friend. Even though shadows do cross her life her sunny disposition brings her through. She is an ardent devotee of Allentown High football and basketball. To those that may not know Helen she may seem serious, but her friends know her to be carefree and happy. She expects to be a secretary.

Girl Reserves, 4.

PALLADINO, MADALINE "Polly"

College Preparatory

"One golden day I'll break my bonds
And close my books and wander free."

Meet Madame the Editor! Madaline is one of the very few who succeed at all they attempt. A tireless worker, editorship of this year's "Canary" has taken up some of her time, but she has had enough left to write the A. H. S. Notes in the Morning Call and to do numberless services for the many clubs to which she belongs.

Madaline is besides one of those dual personalities whom everyone admires and envies; at times serious, intent on work; at other times a witty sparkling companion.

German Club, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 3, 4; Historical Society, 3; President, 4; Canary and Blue, 2, 3; Editor, 4; Comus 4; A. H. S. Notes, 4.

PARKS, LUCILLE BARBARA "Tex"

Commercial

"True ease in writing comes from art, not—chance."

What a personality! Tall, six feet with still some to go, bright blue eyes and charming smile, these will carry her far. Tex plays a guitar, sings and yodels. She's looking for a cowboy who can ride, sing and yodel, too, are there such? Tex also rides, skates, and plays basketball. Her fancy skating fascinates the crowds. Tex expects to be an aviatrix, and the aviators will like that. Happy landings!

PAUL, ELSIE ANNA "El"

General

"Her cares upon her rest lightly
For she is lively, young and sprightly."

Elsie is a charming girl, gay and pretty—her dimpled cheeks and melting brown eyes are only part of her bright heritage. She likes to sing and all the people who have heard her love her golden voice. In addition to her willingness to help others, she can always be depended to pep things up.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; A Capella Choir, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

PAUL, JAMES C. "Curly"

General

"A true friend, staunch and iolly."

Curly doesn't have worries: he has just ready smiles. If his homework isn't prepared the night before, he will do it in study hall provided he gets around to it. Nevertheless, he always manages to get good grades. He is interested in sports, reading, and driving a car. They will all be valuable at Lehigh.

Dramatics, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

PAUL, THELMA "Freckles"

Commercial

"Early to bed, early to rise
Makes you healthy—anyhow."

Freckles is the girl you'll generally find in a crowd telling cute jokes. A pleasing personality has won her many friends and will help her through life. She is a good friend and a swell sport, and we wish her luck in the years to come.

PAULES, MARGUERITE HAWK "Smiles"

General

"A smile of hers was like an act of grace."

This girl with the sunny disposition, always smiling happily, even on the Sophs, is Marguerite Paules. Her ready smile is familiar to all. Jolly and friendly, only a few boys meet her approval, but she likes blonde, blue eyed young men. Smiles has been a class usher. The class of '41 wishes her happiness.

PAYLOR, CATHERINE "Katie"

General

"One is nearer God's heart in a garden
Than anywhere else on earth."

If you ever need any lesson on how to enjoy being alive, see Katie. She can have a good time doing most anything, including her school work. Often, however, she forgets she's in the classroom; nevertheless, she's a diligent student. Few things interest her more than basketball and the natural sciences, and she goes into these wholeheartedly. Katie's preparing for a few years' study in the botanical garden at Cedar Crest, and here's hoping she'll be another Burbank or Darwin, or at least a Wetherhold or a Zimmerman.

PERKIN, JACK DAVID "Perky"

General

"With knowledge absolute,
Subject to no dispute."

There are few words to describe this ingenious young scholar. Always prompt and up to date in his school work, always friendly, always socially inclined, his line is just as smooth as his dancing. And oh the girls like him! One could talk and talk about this dashing young Romeo, but space forbids. We're going to be watching for his name in limelights.

Debating Team, 1.

PERMA, ERMA "Irish"

General

"Like the water of the mighty deep
Never quiet unless asleep."

Irish is one of the most talkative persons, who can talk from morning till night and never seem to tire. Nothing is too much for Irish to do for her friends. She always sees the bright side of everything and the best in everybody. Irish is well-rounded in sports. We don't know yet what she expects to do, but we bet she knows.

PETERS, DONALD BERNARD "Pete"

Fine Arts

"Play and the world plays with you."

Although Pete is not very fond of school, he manages to keep within the required grade. He is fond of sports and, is one of the prominent members of the Gym Team. When the Gym Team isn't practicing after school, he can be found on the Jefferson playground playing basketball. He likes hiking, ice-skating, skiing, swimming, and archery. Pete is bashful when you first meet him, but with the fellows who know him, "ask them."

Gym Team, 1, 2, 3.

PETERS, IRA L. "Ike"

Commercial

"He wakes up bright and early and reaches for his gun."

Ike always has a smile, is always good-natured and always ready for a good time. He is not too studious, still he manages to keep his grades moderately high, not too low. Ike likes the outdoors and all outdoor sports, and fills his time with hunting, fishing, swimming and camping. Whatever he chooses to do, it will be out of doors, he hopes. We wish him the best of luck.

PETERS, RUTH "Ruth"

General

"If you be what I think you, some sweet dream."

Although we hate to see Ruth leave, we are proud that she was one of the old gang at A. H. S. Ruth could always be counted on when she was needed most. She invariably had a friendly smile and a pleasant word for everyone; in fact, she made friends with everyone. Ruth is an all-round girl—excellent in her studies, active in all school activities. She is planning to attend Skidmore College, and we know she will be as welcome there as she has been here at A. H. S.

Basketball, 4; Junior Class Play; Inter-Class Play; Chairman of Junior Prom Committee.; National Honor Society, 4.

PHILIPS, ANTHONY J. "Tony"

Commercial

"When happiness happens, to happen your way,
I hope it happens, and happens to stay."

When you hear that sharp noise, you'll know its name is Tony—Tony, that happy, jovial lad, always smiling, always talking, always acting. If you don't watch him closely he'll impersonate you—speaking or on paper.

Tony's an ardent fight fan, nourishes a hope that he'll be a fighter himself—boy, and how! He can handle anything with a cool attitude, even the pen and pencil, at which he rates an A, for he hopes to become a designer. Best of luck, old boy. Who knows what the future holds for you.

Class President, 1, 2; Art, 1, 2, 3; Art Club, 1.

PHILLIPS, GERALD B. "Flea"

General

"Lineup finest of his herd."

Flea is the little man who wasn't there. What he lacks in size he makes up for in activity. A member of the Gym Team, he gives a splendid account of himself in every exhibition. He expects to go to one of the great American Universities "to study something." He has that winning personality and capacity for work needed for success.

Gym Team, 3, 4; Basketball Manager, 3.

PICKARTZ, RUTH A. "Blondie"

General

"And joy, the love of all."

Five foot two, and attractive, Blondie is loads of fun and always smiling. She is quick at wisecracks, and a quick temper is becoming to her. A pleasing personality wins her friends. Ruth loves ice skating, but her real ambition is to be a beautician. After a few years as a beautician, she probably will make some man very happy. She never takes things seriously. Her motto is fun and more fun, her greatest desire—black hair.

PITUCH, JOHN "Nonny"

General

"He who is tickled at his own jokes laughs whenever he pleases."

Give John a band with an accordion, drums, and a harmonica and he's content to stamp his feet in time way into the night. John loves music of a modern style. Excellent at pingpong, John has won many a trying game. He also likes sports and photography. Nonny will be his "moniker," he says, when he's an ace pilot in the Army Air Corps.

PLEVA, MICHAEL GEORGE, JR. "Mickey"

Commercial

"I don't like to dance, and I'll never learn."

Handsome Mickey is a good friend with a fine brain he just doesn't use. In some studies he is studious; in others he just doesn't want to study. Mickey likes baseball, football, basketball, bowling, and swimming. In winter he gets his gang out for a game of baseball no matter how cold it is. Michael G Pleva Jr.

POH, KENNETH GEORGE "Kenny"

Machine Shop

"It's sure to be wrecked if I'm doin' it."

There was never a more jolly fellow in the high school. Kenneth walks around without a worry in the world.

Poh loves dancing, swimming and talking to the girls. When Kenny hears swing music, he feels "like grabbin' up a partner and hep-cattin' around the room."

Kenny is a good machinist and hopes to carry on in that trade.

Swimming, 3, 4.

POOLE, JACQUELINE "Jackie"

Commercial

"Oh, so inexpressible as gay."

Brown-eyed, brown-haired Jackie is one of our best pals because of her everlasting fun and gaiety. She walks through the halls flinging greetings to everyone. She likes dancing, roller-skating, and swimming. She has no hobby unless it is writing to far-away lands. She likes the movies; her favorite actor is Mickey Rooney. Jackie's laughter, her fun-loving attitude make her an entertaining companion.

Chorus, 1; Dramatics, 1.

PRECHTEL, VERNA MAE "Pretzel"

Commercial

"The gayest heart that ever beat."

Verna, small, blond-haired, blue-eyed, has the rare quality of making friends easily and keeping them. She doesn't believe in hard work. Verna is most contented at 2:40 when she places both her school books and her thoughts in her locker and makes a mad rush for the main door. Swimming, skating, basketball, and movies are her favorite pastimes. She is majoring in shorthand and typewriting, and some day means to become a secretary. We wish her success.

Girl Reserves, 2.

PREMECZ, IRENE T. "Penny"

Commercial

"Consider what you do, not what people think."

Mix a cheerful personality with a sparkling sense of humor, add a generous disposition, and you have Penny. Her fondness for pretzels is outdone only by her love for dancing. We never see Penny in a mad rush to class or burdening herself with books, yet she always manages to do well. Call it natural ability! A. H. S. wishes her much successs in stenography.

Commercial Club, 4; Y. W. C. A., 1, 2, 3, 4.

PRETKO, PEARL "Pearl"

Commercial

"Cheerful company shortens the miles."

Pearl's life at school has been just one delightful experience after another, for she believes that variety is the spice of life. While to most of Pearl's classmates she seems quiet, her friends find her full of pep and wit. Her delight is in dancing to swing bands. She always enjoys having a good time, but she's still able to find enough time to keep up in her studies.

PRITZ, WARREN "Warren"

General

"Hail! Hail! to the aerial mail
As it speeds through the vast blue dome."

Warren came to A. H. S. from Bethlehem, our friendly rival, and in his short stay has endeared himself to many friends. He is an aviation enthusiast, who eats and sleeps and dreams aviation. Don't be surprised some day if you hop a plane and Warren is piloting. Good luck, Warren, and smooth sailing.

PURNELL, CLARENCE "Mechanic"

Industrial
Auto Shop

"Small in size, big in heart."

Clarence is a speed demon, riding to and from school in an exceptionally short time on his bicycle. Speedy in his homework too, and regular. All his friends try to copy his homework.

PURNER, WILLIAM "Blah"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

"When night hath set her silver lamp on high,
then is the time for study."

One of our draftsmen and undoubtedly one of the best, Blah looks forward to the future with real hope, significant of his usual honest confidence in himself, which indeed has carried him successfully through countless tough spots. Somewhat shy in the classroom, he is the live-wire of the drafting shop, and a holy terror with a group of boys. Keep your sense of humor and your good sportsmanship always, Blah, and you'll be happy—so will everybody else.

QUINN, BETTY JANE "Betts"

General

"How happy is she born and taught,
Whose armor is her happy thought."

A pleasing manner and a sunny disposition characterize Betts, playmate, student, and sports fan. When Betts is about, everybody is jolly, and everything is kept moving. Betts is a great talker, and can keep up a conversation without stopping even while she's chewing gum. Betts is always willing to help everyone, is a great dancer—especially jitterbug—movie fan, hiker, and sales-person, and loves a dip on a hot summer day. Betts is interested in sales-manship.

QUINN, JOHN C. "Jack"

Engineering and Science

"A pencil in my hand, a desk, an open book before me, and then I can sleep."

Besides being very good company, Jack is a good fellow to have around, for he always has a clever remark to brighten up an occasion. Besides sleeping in P. D. and Study Hall, he likes to fish and play golf. He is fond of swimming, football, and basketball, or what happens to be in season, and attends most of the school activities. His present plans will lead to college, then to Law School.

Basketball, 2; Swimming, 2, 3.

QUINN, LORRAINE "Quinnie"

Commercial

"True friendship is like a rare jewel."

If you're looking for a true friend, look for Lorraine and her radiant smile. She believes playing comes before study. Pep and enthusiasm she brings to all the football and basketball games, and help to the cheering section. She is a true, loyal friend. She excels in shorthand and typing, although her ambition is to be an actress.

Chorus, 4; Dramatics, 4; Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

RABENOLD, ARLENE "Dimples"

Commercial

"Midst joy or sorrow, Fate shall work her will."

Arlene is the charming girl with the blond hair and dimples. She is considerate of her duties, enjoys jokes, and tells them well. She's at her best on roller skates, and collects the stickers given by the various rinks. Arlene is good in her studies and wants to become a stenographer.

Commercial Club, 4; Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

RABENOLD, EDWIN H. "Buckley"

General

"Early to bed, early to rise,
Makes a man healthy, anyway."

Here hails a lad from the great metropolis of Trexlertown, but how he hates to get up in the morning! Buck is interested in sports but he calls it all baseball. He always has a broad smile and a cheerful "Howdy" to greet you. He frequently speaks of becoming a forester; with a sideline, the harmonica. He is seeking admission to a well known harmonica band. Buck is also a good whistler. Well, a forester can use all those things.

RABENOLD, RUTH KATHRYN "Ruthie"

Commercial

"Business before pleasure, except it is special."

Ruthie is a happy-go-lucky girl, who always goes about the halls with a smile. She is fond of roller skating, horseback riding, and bicycle riding. Ruthie does not believe in worry but takes everything, even struggle and strife, calmly. Ruthie just loves movies, picnics, canoeing, travel and the activities of the school. Typing and accounting are her specialties.

RADER, FAYE

General

"A noble woman, nobly planned,
To please, to comfort, and command."

Faye's main interest is 4-H work. She has been awarded first prize for her cookies, muffins, and her recipe file. In her spare time, she knits sweaters for the Red Cross, cooks and sews, roller-skates and dances. Faye is interested in dramatics, and she especially likes to read plays.

Penn State is Faye's destination, to continue her 4-H course.

RADER, ISABEL KATHRYN "Izzie"

Commercial

"Still waters run deep."

Isabel is a quiet girl and a hard worker. No service to a friend is too much trouble. A secretary must be quiet and efficient and Izzie has her feet firmly on the first rung of that ladder. But it isn't all work and no play for Izzie. She swims, she reads, she enjoys living.

Girl Reserves, 1, 2, 3, 4.

RAHN, ELIZABETH "Betty"

General

"Gather the crumbs of happiness,
And they will make you a loaf of contentment."

Remember that chuckle and grin? These are the outstanding characteristics of a girl we all know and admire; for whoever saw Betty and forgot her? When the going was tough, she'd grin and bear it; when it was easy, she'd cheerfully give a helping hand to others. She is a typical high school girl, interested in athletics and music, and we're sure she will be a success in the profession of nursing.

Band, 2, 3, 4; Orchestra, 2.

RANCK, JOYCE LILLIAN "Joy"

Commercial

"Irish eyes and a smile that wins."

Joy is one girl who's sure to go places. She has been secretary of her sophomore, junior and senior class. She is the type men dream about. Her laughing or talking often gets her into trouble. She very seldom gets serious, although she is quite capable of doing so. You will always have a swell time when you're with Joyce. Her favorite pastime is dancing, but she likes all sports. After graduation she hopes to become a private secretary.

Class Secretary, 1, 2, 3, 4; Gym Club, 1; Y. W. C. A.; Basketball, 1, 2; Dramatics, 1; Canary and Blue Solicitor, 2; Home Room Representative, 1, 2, 3.

RAPOPORT, LEONARD "Rap"

General

"The world belongs to the enthusiast who keeps cool."

Rap is a congenial fellow, and is known for his frank manner. When Rap takes his place in the classroom whether the lesson has been prepared or not, he is always ready to discuss the more intricate relations between the viewpoint of the teacher and his own—for he usually disagrees. He is an omnivorous reader and a fluent speaker. Rap is always ready to discuss sports, especially basketball. We wish him the best of luck in all his undertakings.

RASTOCKY, ANNA "Anne"

Commercial

"Oft did the sharp tang of her skate
Music on the clear ice make.
Oft the turning of the page
Did her flying thoughts engage."

Anne is petite and dark, with a charming personality. Ice skating and reading figure about 50-50 in her program. Shorthand is the subject she likes most; no wonder she excels in it.

RAUB, JOHN K. "Johnny"

Commercial

"Opportunity knocks often for those who see it."

This is one fellow who doesn't need an alarm clock. He can always be depended upon to be on time, whether it's at school or on a date with the girl friend. He is a member of the H. Leh & Co. basketball team, and may often be seen at the Y. M. C. A. playing ping-pong. His hobbies are all the sports which come, the year round, but his favorite is basketball.

REESE, RICHARD LLEWELLYN "Richie"

General

"His worries are many, his troubles few."

Richie, an amiable likable fellow with always a ready smile is interested in farming, and as a sideline goes in for an easy chair and a good book. He studies hard and is headed straight for success.

REICHARD, ARLENE "Arlie"

Commercial

"A feasting presence, full of light."

Arlene's sweetness and pleasant ways brighten up the darkest corner. She is a good student, and her perseverance alone will win any game. She likes good books and good movies.

Dramatics, 4; Glee Club, 1.

REICHARD, BETTY M. "Betty"

College Preparatory

"With perseverance one surmounts all difficulties."

Betty may be a shy bashful girl, but we shall always remember that pleasant smile and cheerful disposition of hers. Although she is conscientious and persevering, she nevertheless finds time for many activities. Singing and reading are Betty's favorite pastimes. Her ambition is to be a teacher, and we hope to see her wish come true and find her some day in our grade schools.

A Cappella Choir, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Historical Society, 3, 4; Girl Scouts, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

REICHELDERFER, ANNABELLE MAE "Blondie"

Commercial

"A stitch in time saves nine."

Blondie is a very nice student, and gives her all to the school at basketball and football games. Her ambition is to become a stenographer—she is very proficient at this work already. Just hand her a typewriter, a pen, pad, and start dictating your letter. Blondie will have it ready before you can say Jack Robinson. Everybody knows Blondie by her pleasant smile and blonde hair.

REICHELDERFER, DORIS FREY "Duds"

Commercial

"Success is the reward of continued effort."

If you ever see a little girl struggling home from school with many books, that's Doris. Alert, quick-thinking, full of fun, and kind, Doris is the best friend anybody could want. She takes her school-work seriously and is usually worried about something—yet the results are nothing to worry about. We wish her success, good-luck, and happiness in the business world.

National Honor Society, 3, 4.

REILLY, PATRICIA ANN "Pat"

Commercial

"Plenty of friends has she, but not a friend to spare."

Pat is the ideal friend to have, always happy and dependable. Her studies she will not neglect for anything. Pat has to her credit twelve straight years of not missing a day of school.

She takes a great interest in sports; if you look you will be sure to see her at every basketball and football game. Her best loved hobby is collecting anything concerning dogs and horses. Her ambition is to become a nurse.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4.

REINBOLD, BETTY LOUISE "Betty"

Commercial

"Talk and be happy."

Betty is a happy, kind, and generous girl. She spends most of her time playing ping pong, and can really bat the ebony and ivory. Betty's studies are the least of her worries. She plans to become a stenographer, and she won't be "just another stenographer," either.

REINHARDT, MARY CAROLYN "Carolyn"

General

"To be a good friend is one of the noblest and most difficult undertakings."

Carolyn's lively, joyous companionship is welcomed everywhere. Her overwhelming pep and grand humor made her one of our first rate cheerleaders; she puts her heart into every yell. Carolyn has her serious moments, too, but find them! She likes to dance and swim and enjoys all sports. A higher education is in store for her when she leaves A. H. S.

Cheerleader, 3, 4; Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Dramatics, 2; Historical Society, 3, 4.

REITERMAN, WILLIAM "Bill"

Engineering and Science

"The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

Bill is a happy-go-lucky lad with his serious moods. He alternates these two moods in his studies, pursuing them now with vigor, now without vigor. Bill plans to become a salesman, and doesn't plan to enter college, because he thinks no school is suited for this work. Bill's favorite sport is table tennis, which he has been playing for a number of years, but wishes he would be good. Bill is popular: at school, parties, and on the street one may always find him witty and smiling. His pleasing voice and straightforward manner are sure to bring him success and happiness.

REMMEL, JEAN "Jean"

General

"Heart on her lips, and soul within her eyes,
Soft as her clime and sunny as her skies."

Tall, brown-eyed, brunette, Jean came to A. H. S. from New York in the middle of her sophomore year. She is glad she came. Allentown "does not have New York's crowded apartments, and it does provide facilities for swimming and dancing, my favorite indulgences," she says. Although she is interested in salesmanship here in school, Jean will be glad to graduate and to begin work with the Bell Telephone Company.

RENNINGER, ALTHEA "Rennie"

General

"Ye gods, the same thing every day!"

Much can be said about Althea. She is a good sport and lots of fun. Rennie thinks it's a great world, and the best subjects are those which require the least preparation. Swing is her favorite music, especially swing played by trumpets in Woody Herman's orchestra. Althea is always up front rooting for the Canaries with all she's got.

REPPERT, JAMES DONALD "Jim"

College Entrance in Arts

"Thou wert my guide, philosopher, and friend."

James Reppert came to Allentown High School from Raub, where he attended classes for eight consecutive years. He took part in the graduation play and was an active member of the art club. At high school Jim is majoring in languages and has a soft spot in his heart for subjects like history, geography, and literature. Jim is a member of both the Latin and German clubs here—which he will make his majors at Muhlenberg College.

RESSLER, MARTHA "Texas Belle"

General

"She's just a happy, rovin' cowgirl."

Little Texas Belle, the cowgirl of Allentown High, is the one you hear drawling a "Howdy, pardner" to her best friends. She's a whiz at that lingo when she gets started. And she sings and yodels and plays a Spanish guitar. Maybe you've heard her over WCBA-WSAN.

She does fairly well in zoology and English, always with that exasperatingly cool, drawling way she has. We all know she learned it from a blonde, booted cowboy in a ten-gallon hat, now riding in Uncle Sam's Cavalry, and who is simply immune to the wiles of other females.

And we're all waiting for her to accept a dare to wear high-heeled boots and a ten-gallon hat to school before graduation.

RHODA, JULIA ETHEL "Julie Ette"

General

"Music exalts life."

Julia Ethel, with a sunny disposition and pleasing personality, comes along with studies, but devotes most of her time and energy to her one great love, music. Julia Ethel is already an accomplished classical pianist, and a student harpist. She will begin vocal lessons after her graduation from high school. We wish her all the success possible in her career as musician.

RICHARDS, ROBERT P. "Richy"

Industrial

"To be or not to be a draftsman."

Richy is a quiet fellow, does good work in school, and also likes to play pool and to read comic books and magazines.
He has set his heart on becoming a draftsman.

RICHUTE, NEIL "Ace"

General

"Who talks little and thinks much."

This curly headed lad is Neil Richute, who plays a Spanish guitar with those good old Bro-Mar Hawiianettes. He is a man of few words and much thought, and those are the distinguishing marks of any good pharmacist.

RICKERT, DOROTHEA JUNE "Dot"

General

"Ah, the gracious tyranny of her fingertips."

Dot, although a bit shy, always manages to have a crowd of people around her. In her spare time she plays the piano, and we must admit she can get sweet music from those ivories. Her friendship is loyal and sincere. She is an enthusiastic fan at football and basketball games.

RICKERT, WILLIAM B. "Bill"

General

"Happy-go-lucky, fair and free,
Nothing ever bothers me."

Bill is one student who works hard. He makes friends with everyone, even the girls, and his friendliness makes it impossible for anyone to hold a grudge against him. Among his hobbies are stamp-collecting and art. Bill has attended the Kline Baum Art School for three years, where he specializes in portraits. After he graduates from high school, he plans to go to college.

Track, 2, 3.

RILEY, CAROLYN MAY "Tiny"

General

"Rather be small and shine, than be great and cast a shadow."

A fond lover of good times, Carolyn never permits studies to interfere with them. Her pastime is swimming, and when she has earned lots of money, she's going to live in Palm Beach. Tiny plans to study beauty culture, and to open a shop of her own. Make us pretty, Tiny!

RISHKO, ELIZABETH "Betty"

Commercial

"A jewel of a pal."

Elizabeth is not as bashful as she seems; underneath her quiet expressions, she is a real friend. She loves to get into a comfortable chair at home reading hair curling mysteries, and she loves movies of adventure. Betty plans to be a stenographer.

RITTER, ALICE "Alice"

Commercial

"Time out for Oh Henry."

Alice, a quiet unobtrusive Miss, never has much to say, but when she does say something you can be sure it's worth hearing. To prove she's not quiet in school alone, when she's at home she spends her spare time sewing and reading. She has made clothes, but she likes best to embroider. When she's reading she usually chooses poetry, and especially likes Whittier. She perfers quiet people, dislikes no special study, but loves short hand and typing. Like all good little commercial girls, she too hopes to be a private secretary, no less.

RITTER, BETTY JANE "Ginger"

General

"In class she keeps her tongue awagging.
And always keeps the hours from dragging."

If you don't know Ginger, then all you need to look for is a tall, mischievous, bright-eyed girl with eyes twinkling and tongue in motion, and red hair. Ginger is good at drawing and writing poetry. In her leisure time she dances, swims, bowls, and plays basketball. If you see a nurse around a few years from now, look at the hair and the eyes, for they will never be tamed—we hope—and maybe it will be Betty, for she's "a-going to be a nurse."

Girls Basketball Team, 4.

RITTER, LOIS IRENE "Lowie"

Commercial

"When your studies pile too deep
Close your books and sleep."

This charming Miss, with a lovely disposition and a pleasing personality, has auburn hair. Lois, throughout dear old high school days, has made and kept many friends. She is the center of interest, with twinkling gray eyes, pleasing smile, and a natural sense of humor. An average student in schoolwork, Lowie is far from being a book worm.

Her hobbies are basketball, dancing and driving. Here's all the luck to Lois, for a beautiful career.

RITTER, WILLIAM J. "Bill"

Commercial

"I don't get it."

Bill, a very serious minded fellow, considers everything in this world of importance. He is set on achieving whatever he sets out to do which, by the way, is to become a bookkeeper or a typist. His classmates find that when they are in doubt about anything, Bill can straighten them out.

His main sport is fishing, and his chief delight, to see scholastic football, and basketball games. He seldom indulges in any of these sports. Bill also has an occasional urge to become a jitterbug.

ROBERTS, CHARLES L., JR. "Charlie"

General

"Only be thou strong and very courageous."

Charlie is a boy that anybody would be proud to have as a friend. He may be small, but you would be surprised at the strength of this little dynamo. Charlie is a member of the wrestling team. He is good in school work, and next year expects to become a freshman at Muhlenberg College. We all wish him the best of luck.

RODALE, SHIRLEY "Shirle"

College Preparatory

"Politeness smooths wrinkles."

Good sportsmanship, sincerity, a keen mind; all these mark Shirley. Being liked and respected by one's friends, being a constant participant in community affairs, having ability to work and live well with others—all these are qualities are traits that Shirley has to a high degree.

If anyone wants to find Shirley on a Saturday afternoon, she is cantering on her ebony black horse on the Lehigh Parkway bridle path. She also enjoys dancing, playing popular music, swimming, and tennis.

Shirley will study journalism at Penn State.

Historical Society, Secretary, 3; Vice-President, 4; French Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Home Room Representative, 3.

RODENBACH, GEORGE MONROE "Georgie"

Commercial

"Hard work never killed anybody."

Georgie comes from the great metropolis of Chapmans. Every morning bright and early George gets up and goes seven miles to A. H. S. He is liked by everyone—even by the girls. Quiet in class, out of class, he's different. His school work is always tops, so is his farm work. His spare time he spends reading and listening to radio programs. Every afternoon at 5 p. m. he mounts his bicycle and delivers papers. His ambition is to become a bookkeeper, and we are sure that he will be a good one.

Commercial Club, 4.

ROGERS, KENNETH "Corky"

General

"Such men as he make the world go round."

To those of you who read this Kenny is only one other person in the class of "41," but to us who know him he is likable, ambitious, and the pride of his fellow students. After three years in A. H. S. with this gentleman of spirit and fun, the class has unanimously decided to give him a vote of thanks for his influence on his classmates.

Whatever he does, we are sure his associates will always like having him around. They'll like his quick mind, his instant understanding, his spirit and his courtesy.

Gym Club, 2, 3, 4.

ROGERS, RUTH JANE "Chatterbox"

General

"A smile is an asset, good work is an aid
Just look at Ruth, who has both to parade."

Ruth is one of those people you read about but seldom see. She's full of life and energy, and has a merry heart that fairly bubbles over. She loves to laugh, but she has her serious moments too, and she's very sincere.

She has many friends, not a few of them boys, because she's fun to be with, and is a good sport.

Ruth plays the piano, swims, skates either on wheels or blades, and likes basketball. She's fond of children and would like to teach kindergarten in her own home. Her future might hold just anything, home, career, or what-have-you, but a home has strong drawing powers.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; German Club, 3, 4.

ROMBERGER, JOYCE C. "Rum Boogie"

College Preparatory

"Come with me; it's sure to be fun."

There is never a dull moment when Joyce is around. Her spontaneous wit ignites the whole group. Whenever a merry crowd gets together you'll hear a shout, a giggle, and there in the middle you'll find our Joyce. Her serious moments, although few and far between, show her good common sense. She has those indefinable qualities which assure success and popularity.

Le Circle Francais, 2; Cheerleading, 2, 3; Dramatics, 2; 720 College Avenue—Henry Aldrich; Swimming.

ROMIG, FRANCES E. "Frances"

Commercial

"Sometimes quiet, sometimes gay,
But we love her either way."

Frances is a mischievous bit, with twinkling hazel eyes and smooth dark brown hair; a funloving girl who can always see the humorous side of a situation no matter how serious it looks to other people. Although she is jolly, she takes her studies seriously, and comes through with flying colors. She claims she doesn't like any one subject; maybe that is why she does well in all of them. With her sunny smile she is sure to succeed.

Commercial Club, Vice-President.

ROMIG, JEAN "Romeo"

College Preparatory

"Common sense is a good thing, but it isn't so common."

Jean, a tall, attractive, chestnut-haired lass, is one of the most animated members of the class. Without her our rainy days would be dreary, for her infectious smile and contagious laugh charm us all. Jean may be long and loud, but she is far from lazy. Her extreme adaptability to science will no doubt make her an excellent laboratory technician. Nevertheless, while Jean has a keen interest in studies, she finds time for athletics and dances. She is at every social function, shuffling through the latest dance steps, or entertaining with her own interpretation of the latest tunes.

National Honor Society, 4; Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Y.W. C. A. Council, 2, 3; Swimming, 2, 3, 4.

RONCOLATO, GERALD J. "Jack"

Commercial

"There is music where there are ears to listen."

Jack, a small lad with brown eyes and black hair, doesn't loaf much; he is always on the go. He is ready to greet his friends with a smile and if they are in trouble, is ready to lend a helping hand. His favorite sports are baseball, basketball, and football. He likes music, and his favorite orchestra is Artie Shaw.

ROSS, JOSEPH LEWIS "Joe"

Engineering and Science

"Foot-feather'd Mercury appear'd sublime."

Joe is one of those fellows who takes school seriously. His studies seldom require burning the midnight oil, but he has been known to stay up quite late pondering a complicated algebra or trig problem. Every sport is his favorite. He plays hard and clean in every game. His friends number in the hundreds, and "Hi Joe" rings through the halls. Joe expects to attend an engineering school. Joe's flying feet have led him to many wins in track meets.

In brief we feel sure that in years to come we'll be proud to say, "There goes Joe Ross. He and I went to school together."

Track, 2, 3, 4.

ROTH, BERNARD "Bernie"

General

"Talking comes by nature, silence through wisdom."

Believe it or not, he was born without any hair on his head, but today's he is any barber's delight. Despite the fact that he never hands in a neat homework paper, he still is a good student. Willing to undertake anything, he never stops till he has finished. His hobbies are chess and checkers, and he tells us confidentially that he was instructed in the latter by Hopper, even if it was only by his book. He's sure to make his mark in this world.

Latin Club, 4.

ROTH, JOHN M. "Johnnie"

Commercial

"The labor we delight in physics pain."

A chap rarely known to frown—Johnnie. No matter what the problem, he always sees a jolly side. He doesn't care much for dancing, but is a great movie-fan. His hobby is collecting postage stamps. A good sport, liked by all his friends, he still doesn't care much for study, but we are sure that he will leave Allentown High along with the rest of us.

ROTH, PAUL HENRY "Rothy"

Commercial

"Our opinions are usually other persons' remarks."

While libraries are open you will probably find him a very active member. He dreams, sleeps, and practically eats books. He likes all sports, most of all skiing. When food is mentioned, you will find him there before the word is spoken.

Next to sports, he spends most of his leisure time sleeping.

His ambition is to be a news analyst.

ROTH, WAYNE "Roddy"

Industrial
Electrical Shop

"It's better to be unconscious than dead."

In shop, Roddy got many demerits for his unquenchable longing to roam around and see what everybody is doing. By one look at Roddy we can see that he is an "annual", that is, he combs his hair annually with great celebration at home and school. In shop, collections have been taken to buy him a comb, but if we would have got him a comb, he would have refused to use it, so why waste the money.

ROTHAAR, MIRIAM JEAN "Mims"

General

"She likes whate'er she looks on, and her looks go everywhere."

Mims, a native of the Harrisburg region, hasn't lived in this city very long, but she has certainly acquired a large and wide variety of friends and acquaintances. She has the art of taking a pleasant initiative, and at times is quite frank.

Mims likes people who are lots of fun, and she herself is full of it. She drums on the piano as a sort of hobby; likes poetry, the emotional kind, and has even tried writing some herself. She does a great deal of reading—she's read everything from nursery rhymes to Emerson's essays. Recently she has gone in for dancing in a big way. Her favorite sports are swimming and ice skating.

Here are the makings of a good journalist or a good home economist.

ROTHROCK, MARTHA V. "Marty"

Commercial

"The friendship that makes the least noise is very often most useful."

Serious and quiet, that's the first impression of Marty, but after knowing her, one finds she can talk as well and as fast as the next person. Her friendship is valued by all who know her, for she is always ready to help when she is needed. Her hobbies are dancing and playing the piano. Marty intends to be a secretary.

ROWE, ETHEL "Essel"

General

"Either be small and shine or great and cast a shadow."

A happy-go-lucky, smiling girl is Ethel, with a grand personality and lots of friends. She never takes anything too seriously, so we rarely see her unhappy. Ethel loves to dance, likes all kinds of sports, but when she is teased, she blushes. To an all round girl, we wish the best of luck.

Glee Club, 1; Girl Reserves, 2, 3.

RUCH, ARLENE MAE "Rocky Montana"

Commercial

"Rocky Montana," the "Sweetheart of the Saddle," Likes the work of herding her cattle."

Rocky Montana, guitarist, is a girl of pleasing personality. She stands 5 feet 4 inches, has chestnut hair, hazel eyes, and tips the scales at 116. She loves to yodel and to play cowboy songs, enjoys horseback riding and roller-skating.

She is president of the "Wa-hoo Club" which she organized. If you want a girl of pleasing personality, good taste, loving sports and outdoor activities, here is your girl. She has a longing to go out West with some of her girl friends. She is, of course, an admirer of Gene Autry, Roy Rogers, an intimate friend of Smiling Ray and his Circle J's and likes to imitate their yodeling.

Betty Ruch

RUCH, ELIZABETH JEAN "Betty"

Commercial

"Silence is not always tact, and it is tact that is golden—not silence."

A winning personality, a charming smile, Betty is a delightful friend. She is gay and witty when it is time to be gay and witty, serious when it is time to be serious. Ask her if she is ready for a test. "No," the answer, but ask her what she made, "90." Betty is ambitious and co-operative, willing to help any friend. She is usual y either curled up in a chair reading a good book or tackling her homework. You should see the number of books she takes home. Betty hopes to become someone's secretary.

Commercial Club, 4.

RUHE, D. ROBERT "Bob"

General

"A great man is he who does not lose his child's heart."

Bob is one of the boys who keeps the school alive. He is always full of fun, always ready to give everyone a good time. He likes most sports although he does not play in any at school. Bob will always be remembered by his classmates.

RUHE, EDWARD L. "Eddie"

General

"A poet should always be hungry, or have a lost love."

Eddie is a versatile student, with formulas on the tip of his tongue and tunes on the tip of his fingers. His musical ability is exceptional. A fine student with exceptional good sense and unusual general information, he also has his say in most of the school clubs. Eddie's intelligent mind, his persuasive manner, and his capacity for loyal friendship have made him a favorite with teachers and pupils alike.

Orotan Debating Society, 2, 3, 4, President; National Honor Society. Le Cercle Francais. Historical Society, 4; Canary and Blue, 4; Home Room Representative, 2, 4. Comus 4.

RUHF, LOIS MARILYN "Louie"

Commercial

"Those of us who know her best
Know she cuts up with the rest."

Lois, Louie, Gabby,—call her what you will, has a sunny disposition and is a welcome addition to any group. She enjoys music and dancing, and boosts all the school sports. She is not definite in her plans, but it is probable that she will be a secretary. Lois is always bubbling over with vim and willingness to learn. We are sure she will be a live wire somewhere.

Y. W. C. A., 3, 4; Bank Cashier, 2, 4.

RUMBERGER, GLORIA "Giggles"

Commercial

"Practice makes perfect"

A sunny bright-eyed miss called Giggles livens the group wherever she is. Her energy creeps into her activities and gets a maximum accomplished with a minimum effort. And an unusually encouraging cheer at a football or basketball game almost always proves to be the contribution of Giggles, for she's there fairly bursting with school spirit.

Basketball, 3, 4; Chorus, 2, 4.

RUMBLE, MARJORIE HELEN "Marge"

General

"It's nice to be natural
If one is naturally nice."

Marge, the pal and friend of everyone, is happy-go-lucky and full of fun. She's always telling funny jokes and always ready to laugh at a new one. Marge doesn't spend her time worrying about studies anymore, but she does everything that has to be done. May you live as long as you like, and have all you like as long as you live. Whatever comes, you'll always have the love of your friends.

German Club, 4.

RUTZEL, JANE E. "Janey"

General

"Give me a road, a car, a cake
Give me good friends to keep and make."

Janey has a smile for everyone. She's cheerful and fun loving likes to sleep, to drive, to eat chocolate cake, and cokes, Her, pet hate is school. Janey takes her time, is never in a hurry, says it's better late than never. She likes to make friends, and shares their joys and sorrows. Someday she hopes to be a secretary.

SAGASITY, WILLIAM "Bill"

Industrial
Print Shop

"Good better best, never let it rest
Till the good is better, and the better is the best."

William is one of the best printers in the senior class. He puts a great deal of effort and time in this trade, and likes to try new ways to better his printing. Bill is popular with the girls because he has a genial disposition. This gay fellow plays football and basketball, and also takes a great interest in bowling. He intends to make printing his work, and we wish him the best of luck.

Printers' Club Secretary; Football Manager, 2, 3.

SANDERS, JOHN W. "Jack"

General

"Acts pass into habits. We become what we do."

Jack is kind, cheerful, generous, easy to get acquainted with, and extra easy to get along with. What's more, Jack is always willing to lend a helping hand to whoever might need it. His hobby is reading, preferably books of adventure. Who knows? He may become an author of adventure stories some day.

No home should be without him, and certainly no class-room should be without his characteristic laugh—unmistakable, and always just a minute after the occasion.

But no matter what, with his gift of making friends and his willingness to be of service, Jack will get to where he wants to go.

Band, 2, 3, 4.

SANDT, FREDERICK "Dutch"

General

"Wonder what I'll do next?"

Dutch is a quiet conservative member of the A. H. S. basketball team. He is always there when needed by his friends, and often has proved a mainstay at critical moments. His winning smile and pleasing personality have won him many friends on the basketball floor and in the school.

Upon leaving school in June, Dutch hopes to go to a college where he hopes to continue his fine work in sports.

Football, 2, 3; Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Varsity "A" Club, 4.

SANZZYK, HELEN LUCILLE "Wenny"

General

"Free and proud and glad as they who joyously acclaim life."

Helen is a happy-go-lucky girl, easy to get along with, quick to make friends, and serious at times, especially at music. She is usually in a laughing mood, for she has a fine sense of humor. But try to argue with her! Helen's incurable habit is coming to school with homework not finished.

SCHAEFFER, H. NED "Mike"

General

"I am the captain of my soul."

He's short in body and brains, but long in feet. He has black hair, brown eyes, and that's what takes the girls' eyes. He drives a Ford—which is his brother's—and thinks he owns the world. If you see him coming down the street, climb the nearest tree.

SCHAFFER, ARTHUR MYRON "Art"

Commercial

"He who hesitates is lost."

Art, a happy-go-lucky fellow, takes life as it comes with little preparation. He usually has his homework, although it isn't always well done. He is an admirer of football and baseball, with baseball in the lead. He is the first one at the table and the last one to leave, with plenty of food stored away. Although he has no special plans he is sure to be a success in any occupation. Good luck, Art.

SCHAFFER, EUGENE "Joe"

General

"A little mischief, now and then, is found in the wisest man."

Tall, lanky, and shy, Joe causes little trouble in the class rooms; for he never has much to say. As a swimmer, Joe has won his varsity "A", which makes him a member of the Varsity "A" Club. Joe wants to become a "middie." But if he does not go to the Naval Academy he hopes to go to Notre Dame, a university he has always admired. Don't ever argue with him about Notre Dame's football team; you just can't win. Joe hopes to gain some more poundage so that he can play football for the "fightin" Irish. Wherever Joe goes to school they'll be glad.

Swimming Team, 2, 3, 4; Varsity "A" Club, 4.

SCHANTZ, MARILYN I. "Lynn"

College Preparatory

"The mildest manners, and the gentlest heart."

Marilyn's witty personality and mischievous nature will always make friends for her. She is interested in all school, social and sports activities, at which she is an enthusiastic fan. She intends to go to school, but why and where she doesn't know. No matter what Marilyn's station is to be, she will be a success in her own way.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 2, 3.

SCHANTZ, MARY ELIZABETH "Schantzie"

General

"Tis the song ye sing and the smile ye wear
That makes the sunshine everywhere."

Whenever you see a group of laughing students it's a safe guess that Mary is the cause of their mirth. Mary is known and loved throughout the school for her humor, and for her sweet disposition. Mary's pastimes are swimming, eating and singing, and she has a really lovely voice.

She manages to get by with good grades, too.

Chorus, 1, 2, 4; German Club, 4.

SCHAUP, MARJORIE CATHERINE "Margie"

Commercial

"If it's a date for a skate, she won't be late."

Margie is a jolly person, always sunny, always smiling, but she can be serious when the occasion demands. Her favorite pastimes are roller-skating at Mealey's, dancing to the radio, and singing when she's in a happy mood. That smile and twinkle in her eye takes her places. Margie has many friends. She enjoys cuddling up in a comfortable chair reading a good book, and nibbling on something good to eat. Who doesn't?

SCHEETZ, KARL WILLIAM JAMES "Dutch"

Commercial

"Music is in all growing things."

Karl, a sporty fellow, is easy to get along with. His main ambition is to be a policeman, but he will settle for the Navy. His most enjoyed sport is baseball, and next to that comes fishing. He believes in having fun at the wrong times, but he also has his serious moments. He tries his best always and we think he will remain that way throughout life. Just see him for information about any girl from here to Hollywood.

SCHEIRER, ALBERT "Al"

Industrial

"When he leaves it's like losing a million dollars."

Al's a musician at heart, you bet,
And he plays the sax and clarinet,
When he flashes his old smile,
It's the slyest one in style.
When he departs from A. H. S.,
We all wish him a big success,
When you meet a guy with a happy smile
That's Al, our best friend and pal.

SCHEIRER, DORIS "Dorrie"

Commercial

"She looks like an angel, and acts it, too,
But you never can tell what this angel will do."

In her quiet way Dorrie commands the admiration of all who know her. Besides, those big brown eyes are sure to get you. She has a smile for everyone and a blush for some.

In her studies, Doris is average; in dancing or skating she is expert.

Wherever her eager and competent spirit leads, others are sure to follow.

SCHEIRER, ROBERT "Kid"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

He's little—but, oh my, his brains! They are out of proportion to his size. If you ever saw Kid cut a rug you would say exactly as we have said. "Boy! what a jitter-bug."

But besides being a slick stepper, Robert steps right along in his school work. He is always willing too, to give a helping hand to his classmates. We know, by his character and ambition, that he will be a big success.

SCHELL, MARIAN "Marian"

Commercial

"For you is waiting a great big smile."

Take a lovable sunny disposition, a crop of auburn hair, a sense of humor, a merry smile, an extra portion of loyalty, and what have you? One of the truest and most understanding of friends, Marian. She's a great enthusiast about sports, but her school work gets A number one attention. Marian is an excellent typist, and intends to be more than just an ornament in somebody's office.

Commercial Club; Girls' Basketball Team.

SCHERBA, KATHRYN MAE "Kass"

Commercial

"Map me no maps, sir, my head is a map of the whole world."

Kass spends her spare time bowling and especially likes to go out with a crowd on a blowing party. That's what she likes—what she doesn't like is Commercial Law.

Her biggest ambition is to travel all over the country in a trailer some day, and then she'll be content to settle down to being a stenographer. By the way, boys, she's a good cook.

SCHLEGEL, CARL "Carl"

Science and Engineering

"What sweet delight a quiet life affords."

Carl is a friendly boy, whose laughing countenance and good nature make him popular. Camping and sports are his chief delight, the former includes most of the outdoor activities, the latter consists mainly of basketball. To model airplane building he devotes energy, money, and time, time which he thinks is well spent. Although his hobby may interfere with his studies, he still obtains high marks. Carl's favorite subject is mathematics, but his natural tact is the thing that will help him in his aspiration to be in the foreign service. College directly after high school, then his dreams will undoubtedly be fulfilled.

SCHMIDT, VICTOR R., JR. "Vic"

Science and Engineering

"A slow walker, a fast worker, and a jolly good fellow."

Vic is one of the most popular boys in the school, in that he is an honor student, an excellent conversationalist, and takes part in many extra curricular activities. Vic has a keen sense of humor and a personality that makes him friends. He will probably be a businessman, and if the number of his friends in school is any indication of the friends he will have in business, Vic will have a successful business.

National Honor Society, President; Latin Club, 4; Junior Class Treasurer; Senior Class Treasurer.

SCHMOYER, DONALD W. "Don"

General

"In action faithful, in honor clear."

On first approach Don may seem a bit timid, but as you become acquainted with him you find he is a pretty good sport. Never defeated, he always sees the bright side. He has a good sense of humor and sticks to his books so he will understand his business when he leaves school. Mention sports to him and you have a new friend, for he is a great sports addict.

National Honor Society, 4.

SCHMOYER, MARK WESLEY "Easy"

General

"Why worry? Cares will come, but cares will go."

Mark's shy, modest manner departs when you become acquainted with him; he then reveals himself as a jolly, good fellow. He is an ardent follower of football and basketball, and a master of the cornet. He enjoys Glen Miller's Orchestra; let no one argue against it. We all wish him luck in his commercial career.

SCHMOYER, MERVIN T. "Merf"

Industrial
Cabinet Maker

"If only he could find a girl."

Merf is a brilliant man in the Cabinet Shop. He loves football games, is an ardent rooter for A. H. S., and is an expert chess player. In fact, he won the championship at the Raub Junior High School. Merf likes the girls, but runs when they seem to like him.

SCHNITZER, ROSALIND BERNICE "Roz"

College Preparatory

"She went her way quietly, but wherever she stood it was upon solid earth."

Cheerful, intelligent, and just too, too blase, is our black haired, dark eyed Roz. Her witty remarks and charming smile supplement her moments of profound thought. Roz is entering the University of Michigan this fall, and plans to take the medical course. We know that it is going to be a tough grind, but with her scholastic ability and her many excellent qualities she is sure to be Dr. Schnitzer seven years from now.

Historical Society, 3, 4.

SCHOEDLER, MARGUERITE "Mockie"

General

"Be not glad but when thou hast done well."

Although a bit shy, Marguerite makes friends easily because of her happy and cheerful disposition. She is studious and knows her English, art, and social studies. Besides dabbling in her favorite oil painting, for she has been in the Kline-Baum art school six years, Marguerite plays the piano well and is an ardent philatelist. Her combination of cheerfulness, intelligence, and loyalty makes Marguerite a companion worth having.

SCHOEMAKER, DONALD GEORGE "Shooey"

Industrial

"Thou can'st not rob me of a happy day."

Lehighton's gift to A. H. S., Shooey is a devotee of speed and jitterbugging. He'd be a happier boy if there were no such subject as algebra, but he won't let it get him down. Don intends to be a pattern-maker, and there'll be no unknown quantities in his patterns.

SCHOENBERGER, ELLSWORTH D. "Alex"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"Call me Alex and be my friend."

Alex does wonderful work in classes—when he is watched by his teachers. He is a fine fellow, can make friends with almost anybody, and busies himself with photography, stamp collecting, and ping-pong.

SCHOFF, IVAN "Schoffe"

General

"There is no art to find the mind's construction in the face."

There are not many boys who have Ivan's winsome and witty disposition, but he has other qualities, and many others, equally fine. Although he's not an honor student, he does manage to get by. His motto is, "If at first I don't succeed, I'll try and try again." No matter what Ivan plans to do, we wish him great success, and we know he'll stay with a job until he finishes it.

S. A. R. Fraternity.

SCHOLL, PERMA "Perm"

General

"Nature made her as she should.
Not too bad and not too good."

Perma is a quiet girl at times, but can be very talkative if the occasion calls for it. Whenever someone is blue, Perm cheers them up with a smile and an appropriate joke. Perm's ambition is to become a nurse sometime in the future. Although this occupation calls for some hard tasks, we are sure she will succeed because there isn't anything that Perm has not got accomplished if she really tried. She enjoys helping people to the road of health and happiness.

Basketball, 4.

SCHOLL, RICHARD L. "Dick"

Commercial

"The best way to loaf is to practise."

Dick is a fellow who never worries about the future. He loves good swing music and hopes to become a famous musician. The only time Dick is in a hurry is coming home, and then he fairly rushes—to eat. That's his hobby. His favorite sport is football. Regardles of what he chooses for his life work, we're wishing him always—plenty to eat. Good luck to a swell guy.

SCHREINER, JOSEPH "Finkie"

Industrial
Electric Shop

"He whose all-conscious eyes the world behold."

Finkie, a Grade A electrician, studies hard. He likes Sophomores so much that at lunch time he forgets to eat—talks to the pretty girls instead. The whole circle is easy. He likes the girls because they like him; they like him because he likes them. And incidentally because he's so-o-o-o-o irresistible, with that wavy black hair.

SCHULER, PAUL B. "Buttercup"

General

"Beware, beware. There's witchery a brewing."

Here's a chappie ready for fun, in fact, he can locate it wherever it beckons. Handsome, as well as alert and intelligent, Buttercup is one of our big shots. Paul's ambition is either to be a general in the army or to personify a comic strip.

SCHULER, PAUL F. "Schuler"

General

"It is better to keep one's mouth shut and be thought a fool then to open it and remove all doubt."

Schuler, who never seems to have a dull moment in his life, is a tall boy with black, wavy hair. Not too loud, he has a wonderful sense of humor and shows it. Interested in his school work, he thinks school is an easy problem. Outside of school, he plays a swell game of basketball and football, and is interested in baseball and boxing. Another hobby is music, which he loves in his schoolwork. He "doesn't hope to be president," but he'll always be a regular fellow.

Chorus, 2, 3; A Cappella Choir, 3; Stage Manager, 2, 3, 4.

SCHWAB, JAMES "Jimmy"

College Preparatory

"Tomorrow, tomorrow and tomorrow."

Jimmy is one of the most popular boys in the school. The boys, the girls, the teachers, everyone in fact, has an equally high regard for him. The broad Schwab smile and cheerful personality have become an institution in high school. Jimmy is a member of many clubs and organizations, and is an actor of no mean ability. With an excellent high school record behind him, Jimmy may look back on the past with satisfaction and to the future with assurance.

National Honor Society; La Cercle Francais; Senior Class Play, 3.

Luella Schwab

SCHWAB, LUELLA M. "Lue"

Commercial

"Eat, sleep, and be merry today
For tomorrow never comes."

Lue is humorous, and has three aims: eat when the food is free; sleep when you should work; and act dumb when intelligence is needed. She supplies us with all the laughs we want and surprises us when she knows her work. Even though she sleeps in classes she is able to get good marks. Lue likes dancing, bicycle riding, tennis, and hiking, but eating, sleeping, and laughing are her favorite activities. Her one dislike is swimming; she does not like getting her face wet.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4.

SCHWARTZ, JANE

College Preparatory

"A lover of books, but a reader of man,
No cynic, and no charlatan."

"Where there's a will, there's a way." That's the way it is with Jane. Unobtrusively and with little effort she accomplishes the tasks before her. Her appreciation of what is worthwhile and what is not largely governs her actions.

Reading is Jane's ioie de vie. It would take a room no smaller than Carnegie Hall to hold all she has read. Her sense of humor fails her only when she is asked to sing alone. Swimming has been her choice of sports since her first bath. From A. H. S. she is going to Smith. After that she will be a writer, teacher, artist, critic, interior decorator, or couturier. The problem is to choose.

National Honor Society, 4; Canary and Blue Staff, 4; Latin Club, 4; Home Room Presideet,4; Comus Editor, 4.

SCHWENGER, HARVEY "Wenger"

Industrial

"To know one well is to have conquered one well."

Harvey is not really a timid soul, he is a delightful person to know. He's going into electrical work. Harvey insists on good sportsmanship and practices it. That is one reason he has acquired so many friends.

SEAMAN, MARGARET L. "Bunnie"

General

"Put on your gloves; put on your gloves!"

Bunnie likes school and work and summer vacations and play, along with dancing and tennis. This usually jolly brunette is also an ardent boxing fan, and that only partly explains why we call her a knock-out. She is going to be a telephone operator.

SEDORA, SUSAN "Susie"

General

"A peach, a pal, a jolly sort—
But better still an all round sport"

Here is a nice brown-eyed girl, pleasant and dear to many friends. An attractive smile, a pleasing personality, but especially originality, nets Susan a host of friends. She is pleasant mannered and good natured.

Susan loves tennis, swimming, hiking, and singing—or is it humming.

She's an interesting and interested person—a good companion.

SEEBOLD, WARREN "Sonny"

General

"A great man is made up of qualities that both meet and make great occasions."

Warren is a well known fellow around Allentown High. He studies hard for what he gets, and gets fairly good marks. He is interested in all of the sports, and takes part in many out-of-school activities. He is often seen at the school dances, and can shake a leg with the best of them. His one ambition is to become an officer in the U. S. Navy.

SEIBERT, VIRGINIA IRENE GERTRUDE "Texas Shorty"

Commercial

"Those Irish eyes are smiling all the time."

Texas Shorty is so called because she is five feet two, and weighs 105 pounds. There is an Irish smile and a bit of a gleam in her eye. Gene Autry, Charles Starrett;—cowboy songs and bookkeeping in Texas or Montana—she dreams of them all. Meantime she skates—wheels or blades, dances, and collects pictures of friends and cowboy groups.

SELIA, AVANELL E. "Avie"

General

"Follow my heart, my dancing feet!
Dance as blithe as my heart can beat."

Avie is the real shrimp of the class, four feet ten and weighs exactly 100. Thoughtful, a little bashful, pleasant, but a little worried about her work, that's Avanell. She always sings while she washes dishes and that tells you a lot. Her favorite line is—"Gee, am I mad." She takes her work seriously, but her career is not serious; she wants to be an entertainer.

SEIP, EVELYN ROSE "Midge"

Commercial

"Refreshing as a morning breeze."

Midge is an all-round, admirable, cheerful girl. We find her cheering enthusiastically at football and basketball games. With a pleasant outlook on life, Midge attends her tasks with nary a groan, and dutifully and daily carries her books home. Small, but mighty, Midge has rightfully earned her place in our hearts.

SEISLOVE, DOROTHY ANNE "Dottie Anne"

Commercial

"Smile and the world smiles with you."

Dottie Anne has blazed a trail of fun and smiles and good hard work across A. H. S. for the past three years. For one so small, it seems impossible that she could give so much to others, but she does—optimism and joviality. A good student, Dottie Anne has believed in enjoying a life to the full. A tom-boy if there ever was one, she dances, skates and plays basketball. She deserves the best.

SEISLOVE, FRANCES C.

Commercial

"Slow to anger, ready to please,
What greater gifts are there than these."

Frances is a charming girl, shy, modest, and quiet blushing readily. A girl of few words she is, but whatever she says is heavily weighted with thought; it's not mere pratter. Dance music captivates her, and usually there are many willing partners at a dance, for she is an expert. Frances would like to travel to where she sees nature at its grandest. There's no need to wish Frances good luck; she's destined to make good.

SEITZ, IRENE "Renie"

General

"True friends are like diamonds, precious but rare."

Renie is a tall, slender, red-haired girl, and a true friend. You can always find Renie in the midst of a group of friends because they enjoy her lovable, jovial character. Although not one of the brightest students at school, Renie succeeds by doing her very best. As yet, Renie has not chosen a vocation, but whatever field she enters we are sure she will achieve success.

Girl Reserves, 1.

SELL, BETTY L. "Betz"

General

"Delicious morsel! And she cooks!"

Betty's favorite pastime is talking and laughing, but oh! can she bake! To make a study of household arts is her chief desire, but beauty culture also runs. If you ever want something good to eat, or if you want yourselves made beautiful, page Betty.

SELL, FLORENCE MAE "Selly"

General

"To have friends is to be one."

Brunette, dark eyed, simply swell is Florence. For good taste she reigns supreme. Her charming personality and constant sense of humor make her a must on everyone's list. Florence plans to be a nurse, and who knows, perhaps we shall have another Florence Nightingale. We wish Selly all the success in the world in her chosen career.

Chorus, 4; Historical Society, 3, 4; Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

SENG, CLARK R. "Sengy"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

"If it isn't drafting, it's girls."

Clark is a fine young man who keeps scrapbooks and records of team standings in football, basketball and baseball. In drafting, one of Clark's chief handicaps is spilling ink on his almost finished drawings.

SENGER, LOUISE A. "Lou"

General

"Serious, shining, sparkling eyes,
Dazzle the dumb, weaken the wise."

How those eyes talk! So serious and sincere when they are listening; so bright and sparkling when they are eager to tell, and so pleading and uncertain when some mischievous act is discovered. The life of the party, Lou is still highly intelligent, but she never lets her study interfere with her good times, especially with dances. For a friend, a really true friend, this girl is the one you should page. Louise would like an exciting job after graduation from college, preferably newspaper reporting. Here's luck to a swell girl, and an all-round good sport.

National Honor Society, 4.

SENSENBACK, FRANK DENNIS "Frankie"

Commercial

"A sunny temper gilds the edge of life's blackest clouds."

Frank is a nice young fellow in habits, actions, and usually in speech. He is always attentive to lessons and to girls. Sometimes, however, he strays from the paths of peace and his teachers must set him down a notch or two. Neatly dressed, and attractive, Frankie does the tasks assigned to him gladly and cheerfully. Frank does, we repeat, have a great admiration for the girls. No matter where he is between classes at school, you will see him with some rather good-looking girl.

SERFASS, WARREN CALVIN "Butch"

Industrial

"Join the Marines and see the world."

Warren is a good natured fellow, always friendly. He enjoys making articles out of wood because he likes to work around the wood. Much joy as Butch gets from working with tools and around machinery in the shop at school, he likes even more to go hunting, fishing, and swimming. He intends to join the Marines.

SHAFER, KENNETH ERROL "Kenny"

Retail Selling

"Get the best—it pays."

Kenny, as good a friend as any man would want, has always been a rather jovial, good-natured helpful fellow. In his sophomore year he attended Hunsicker, and in his junior and senior years he was in the Retail Selling Course, and a super salesman. A lover of all sports, he is always ready for fun. It would take too much space to enumerate all the good points that this future citizen possesses.

SHEARER, JOANNA MAE "Jo"

Commercial

"I breathed a song into the air,
It fell to earth, I knew not where
And the song, from beginning to end
I found again in the heart of this friend."

A pleasing personality, a sunny disposition characterize Joanna, true friend and willing student. She is gentle, loving and exceedingly kind. Joanna may be little in stature, but not in mind. She is fond of shorthand and typing. Her hobbies are reading and movies.

SHEFTEL, MILTON S. "Milt"

General

"Up! a man's a man today."

Anyone who has Milt's ability to make and keep friends is to be envied. His genial personality and hearty laugh make him a favorite among his classmates. Milt is to be depended upon and is both sympathetic and faithful to his friends. In his spare time he blows away at his trumpet. Milt plans to enter Temple. May the years bring happiness and success to a real boy and a real friend.

Orotan Debating, 2, 3, 4.

SHELLY, GEORGE ROBERT "Bob"

College Entrance in Engineering and Science

"Suffer me to catch a fish."

Although Bob does not actively engage in sports in high school, he is an ardent follower of A. H. S. teams. His favorite subject is physics; his hobbies hunting, fishing, athletics, bowling, and swing music, although hunting and fishing lead the list. He can give and take a joke, and has won many friends during his three years at high school. After a year of prep school, he plans to take up electrical engineering at an engineering college.

SHERER, THOMAS, 2nd "Tom"

Science and Engineering

"He was straight, you could trust him."

Thomas Sherer is a friendly chap, usually seen chatting with one of his schoolmates in the halls. He believes that life should not be taken too seriously, and yet not too easily. He is always ready to help anyone if he can. He likes outdoor life and outdoor sports, although he also takes an interest in all sports. Tom is planning on going to some engineering school. We wish Tom luck and know he will keep his good traits of character.

Orchestra, 2, 3, 4.

SHIFFERT, ROBERT EDWARD "Bob'

Science and Engineering

"Such men as he make the world go round."

Bob is a real fellow, who will share anything with you and help you in any possible way. He plays football, baseball, and basketball. A great admirer of the fair sex, he is often in their company. Bob also loves to argue; he will argue about any subject under the sun. If Bob were to like studying as much as he likes pleasure he would be an honor student. We have learned to respect his opinions and to appreciate his counsel.

SHIMER, DOROTHY MARIE "Dottie"

General

"A constant friend is rare and hard to find."

Dottie? Every one likes Dottie. She is easy to get along with, she's always happy, loves pleasure, especially dancing, and yet does not neglect her studies. Dottie is going to be a secretary and we wish her all the success in the world. We all know she can't fail in any work she undertakes.

Dramatics, 4.

SHOLLENBERGER, JUNE CLEO "Shelly"

Commercial

"A friend in need is a friend indeed."

With a smile for everyone, June will go a long way in life. Her aim is business. She has a yen for dancing, and is the life of party. In general she's a swell person to know, and is willing to put more and more people on her list of friends.

Girl Reserves

SHORT, J. CURTIS "Curt"

Science and Engineering

"No profit grows where is no pleasure ta'en."

Curtis is a very likable young chap—one does not need to know him well before learning that. He believes in having a good time, and makes any gathering light and happy. He is well-known throughout the sporting world, and although he participates in the usual sports, he excels in tennis and table tennis. While he is no honor student, he is no slouch in school, and has never had fears about getting through. The class of '41 is proud to have Curtis in the ranks, and we predict his success.

SHORT, RICHARD H. "Injun Joe"

Fine Art

"All men are created equal."

Dick is interested in art and expects to take it up as his life work. His hobbies are hiking, camping, swimming and other outdoor sports. Dick is an all-round fellow with a cheerful outlook on life. We wish him great success in whatever he attempts to do, and we've a sneaking notion that it will have something to do with Indians.

SIEGFRIED, RAYMOND "Winkler"

Industrial
Electric Shop

"A finer fellow never strode the streets of Ivanhoe."

Raymond is that fine young six-footer,— curly-headed, flat-footed, knock-kneed, pigeon-toed,—from the Electric Shop. One day, Winkler decided he was good in electricity, so he wired his father's home and, believe it or not, it still works.

In shop he is an industrious fellow, but he likes to burn up shop equipment which frequently puts him on the black list. Because of these misfortunes, Winkler must make up on his own time, what he lost on the black list. He really is in hot water most of the time.

SIGLIN, WILLIAM "Siggy"

Industrial
Electric Shop

"An empty barrel makes the most noise."

Siglin, an outstanding electrician, will undoubtedly be able to wire a lamp by the time he is old enough to vote.

He has many good points, too many to mention. His hobby is electrical work; he gets a big kick out of 220 volts.

Siglin, at the present, holds the championship in the Fuse Blower's Club of the United States of America.

SILBERMAN, EARL J. "Silver"

General

"The world's no better if we hurry."

Earl is not very ambitious in his school work, but is more enthusiastic about the outdoors. He has many friends and is well-liked. He likes hunting and fishing. These are important to him, for he wants to become a writer on sports some day. Besides he wants to write songs.

SKRIP, NICHOLAS "Nick"

Science and Engineering

"Honest confession is good for the soul."

Nick is always in a hurry but never gets anywhere. His ambition is to become a military engineer. We think Nick believes silence is golden, because he's quiet, and soft spoken.

SMITH, BETTY JANE "Janey"

Commercial

"Like the waters of the mighty deep,
Never quiet unless asleep."

Betty is one grand girl! And she believes that life is made for having a good time. She is overjoyed on the dance floor; dancing is her delight. Although Betty is fond of pleasure, she considers her studies first; see her fine rating in commercial work. May she have all the success she deserves.

Commercial Club.

SMITH, CONSTANCE "Connie"

College Preparatory

"To do easily what others find difficult is talent."

Connie we can really call talented, talented in the fullest sense of the word. Her mellifluous alto forms an integral part of the choir. She plays the piano with understanding and technical ability, and these two can be applied to anything she attempts. Her schoolmates know her for excellence in the classroom. No description of Connie would be complete without including her sense of humor, her friendliness, and her sportsmanship. Connie's friends hoped she would chocse music for a career, but she wants to be a social worker. Such a choice is typical of Connie.

National Honor Society, 4; A Cappella Choir, 2, 3, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; French Club, 4.

SMITH, DOROTHY JUNE "Dottie"

Commercial

"A true friend is a rare gift."

Dottie, a small blonde with a sunny disposition, pleasing personality and laughing eyes wins many friends, and she is true and loyal to them all. She believes in doing everything slowly but thoroughly. Her excellent schoolwork assures her a stenographer's position and Dottie is never one to refuse an invitation to a good time.

SMITH, IRENE "Renie"

General

"He that speaks sows, and he that holds his peace gathers."

Renie is a happy-go-lucky girl, always finds something to laugh about when she is passing to her classes. She likes to go dancing, is a great lover of Hazleton—don't say anything against Hazleton when Renie is around—and is sure to make a success of her life when she leaves school.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4.

SMITH, JEAN G. "Doc"

General

"Fate's a fiddler, life's a dance."

Doc has been shaping her whole life toward being a surgical nurse. She is interested in the things all young people are, but not when they interfere with her career. Asked why she chose this career, she said, "The challenge to skill and precision that presents itself in the everlasting race between life and death is exciting to me." Doc intends to be a strictly professional person, but what if some handsome interne comes along?

Jean will get her training at the Allentown Hospital.

SMITH, JOSEPH A. "Shamokin"

Engineering and Science

"For every happy smile, the world
Whirls on its way with less care."

We hope that Joe will continue through life with his congenial smile and the constant plugging he has shown throughout his three years at Allentown High School. Joe's sportsmanship and friendliness have made him many friends, which include a certain pretty Sophomore.

Shamokin will long be remembered by those who worked and played on the gridiron, where he proved himself a leading athlete. One of the coaches recently said, "Joe Smith is not only a fellow to like, but we coaches all depend on him." After high school he intends to go to Military Academy and then to College.

SMITH, KENNETH ALBERT "Bunchie"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

"Eat drink and be merry today,
For tomorrow you may die."

Bunchie is small in stature and dark in complexion, but that is not altogether his fault. His chief interests are roller skating, ice-skating, swimming and playing baseball. He's always anxious and willing to try anything once. It is his ambition to be an expert draftsman some day. We wish him luck. No one knows what the future holds in store for anyone, but Bunchie will be ready.

"T" Square Club, 1, 3.

SMITH, MAJORIE E. "Midge"

Commercial

"When there's music, boys or fun,
There comes Midge on the run."

Midge isn't very big, but she's always full of fun, usually strutting through the halls gossiping with friends. As a roving reporter she would be excellent. She has one big weakness; when she laughs too much you're sure to see big tears rolling down her cheeks. She asks, "Why study? I'll stay up the night before the exam and study." She's always the life of the party.

· COMUS ·

SMITH, MARY E. "Mary"

College Preparatory

"And that smile, like sunshine, darts
Into many a sunless heart."

Mary is one of those rare people who are utterly unselfish—always willing to help any one out of trouble. Energetic and persevering, she gets along especially well in chemistry. In activities outside school she prefers reading, swimming, and piano. As for a future career, she considers nursing in the most favorable light.

Chorus, 3, 4; Girl Reserves, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

SMITH, MURIEL "Mully"

Commercial

"A violet by a mossy stone
Half-hidden from the eye!"

Mully's efficient work has already proved that this blue-eyed, innocent-faced girl is ready to be a clerk in some large store. There she can put her kindly convincing manner to good use. Mully wants to become a housewife after she has got some experience and training in serving the public.

SMITH, RAYMOND MORRIS "Nuppie"

General

"I may be wrong, but I always win."

With a pleasant hello to everybody, Raymond has made many friends. He proves a real friend too, helping everyone. He likes to argue, always on the opposite side of the question. Nuppie is neither the best nor the worst, but he is in the upper half of his class. He plans to go to Muhlenberg.

SMITH, RICHARD "Dick"

General

"When the angels made Dick, I bet they didn't do anything else that day but jes' sit around and feel good."

Dick is a great favorite, and has a swell personality. He enjoys football, basketball, skating and golf, which seems to attract him most of all. He likes swing music and thinks Glenn Miller is tops.

SMITH, ROBERT W. "Smitty"

General

"He who seeketh trouble, never misseth it."

Smitty is the type of a fellow we like to have in high school. He never studies more than he must, but he practically always has his work. He does many favors for his friends and is a good sport, although he is shy among strangers. His hobby is hunting, and he is rather good at it. After graduation he intends to go to college and later join the army and become a Flying Cadet. His pack of friends wish him a happy and successful future in this field.

SMITH, SHIRLEY "Smitty"

Commercial

"Follow my heart, my dancing feet!
Dance as blithe as my heart can beat."

Smitty arrives at school every morning just in time for the bell. She is the last to get in class and the first out, but she's never late for a laugh or a joke or a good time, and prefers to take it dancing. She is equally ready to swim, to play basketball, or to be a secretary.

Girl Reserves, 4.

SMITH, WARREN "Schmidt"

Industrial
Printing

"Knowledge can be found in every dictionary, so why seek it?"

This well built young man's chief desire is to graduate from high school and find more printing to do. He is a member of the Allentown High School Printers' Club. He is also adept in football, basketball, and baseball.

Printers' Club 4.

SNYDER, JEAN ANNA "Spike"

General

"A cheerful companion is worth more than fine gold."

Wandering through the hall, one hears someone yelling a loud "Hello," and you can be sure it's Spike. A friend to everyone, Spike has many in return. Spike's basketball playing is unexcelled at A. H. S. In fact, we may go so far as to say it's the best at A. H. S. She fares well in all other sports, too. Jean is an excellent dancer, and the minute she hears music, Jean is in her glory. She hopes to take gymnastics at Stroudsburg, so we hope to see her and and hear of her again at old A. H. S.

Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Volley Ball, 2, 3, 4; Hockey, 2; Gym Club, 1; Swimming, 2.

Joyce Snyder

SNYDER, JOYCE "Joy"

General

"Our thought and our conduct is our own."

Joyce is studious but she is also a mixture of light humor, wit, and gayety. She takes a special delight in acting and in learning new songs. Although she has the general course, she plans to attend a business college to become a typist.

Tee-A-Gee Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Dramatics, 3, 4.

SNYDER, MARY "Mary"

College Preparatory

"To perceive things in the germ is intelligence."

Mary is one of the super-fine girls that we know. She is really a great pal; that's why she has so many friends. Mary likes to have a good time when she's out, but she also likes to do her school work. Her favorite sports are swimming, basketball, and football. She has no special hobby, and hasn't exactly decided what she will do after graduation. But it makes no difference; whatever she attempts, Mary will always do.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Choir, 4; Le Circle Francais, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

Ruth Snyder

SNYDER, RUTH "Tiny"

Commercial

"Small in body, large in mind
The world would welcome all this kind."

Tiny is one of the smallest members of her class, but this does not bother her, for it is easy for her to slip through the crowd going from one class to another. Tiny is always cheerful, and helpful. Her favorite pastimes are reading, dancing, and theatre going. Tiny wants to be a secretary, and we hope she will have no trouble finding a job.

Girl Reserves, 4.

SOLT, RUTH I. "Ruth"

Household Arts

"She moves among us with quiet grace."

Ruth is a quiet little girl, quiet until you are acquainted. Her favorite pastime is reading. She sees all sports, but plays only in basketball. Ruth's hobby is sewing. Although one has never seen Ruth in a mad rush to get to class, or burdened with books, she always manages to get by. To a loyal booster of A. H. S., we wish all the luck in the world.

SOMACH, LAWRENCE "Larry"

General

"Where he shall be, yea, there shall be his camera."

Larry is quiet, good natured, always willing to do you a favor, and never expects anything in return. The great passion in his life is photography, all phases. Stamps also interest him greatly. In latter years, Larry expects to use photography for advertising purposes in his father's clothing business. Either Lehigh University or Penn State will be glad of Larry's registration next year.

Photography Club

SOMMONS, KATHRYN "Kay"

General

"Pranks and jokes she does esteem."

If you ever see a girl with a long face, you can be sure it isn't Kay. Kay never worries. She says, "Why worry, it will only make you gray." A smile carries one a long way; so, keep smiling, Kay; and we hope it carries you a long and a happy way.

SPALDING, RICHARD WILLIAM "Dick"

Science and Engineering

"Success begins with one's will."

Dick is like the well-known brook—ever babbling, in school or out. He is ready with a quip whenever you see him in the halls. He has always ranked high in all of his classes, and commands the respect and admiration of teachers and students alike. He is an enthusiastic supporter of all our high school sports, and many of you have seen him at football games, sitting on the bench and doing his chores as a manager. We expect him to go far on his chosen road in life.

Football Manager, 3, 4; German Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

SPANG, ALFRED, JR. "Al"

Engineering and Science

"When you must choose twixt work and play,
Do the work some other day."

Happy-go-lucky Al" does as little work as possible. His distinguishing feature is his glib tongue, which gets him both in and out of trouble. His pride and joy is a 1929 open-air flat tiresome Ford, in which he drives to school. It causes much comment, but Al is proud of his Ford and he must be admired for his tenacity. Al plans to go to an aviation school to become a Navy pilot. Although he says he does not like girls, we see him driving girls around in his large limousine. The best is none too good for this fine boy.

Football, 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4.

SPRAGUE, RUTH E. "Chickie"

College Preparatory

"What is good is never too abundant."

Ruth makes friends easily, and has the unusual quality of being able to keep them. She does well in all her studies, and still has time for all forms of sports, football and basketball particularly. She has no particular hobby, but enjoys dancing above all things. She is to attend a nurse's college.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4.

SPURRIER, WILLIAM T. "Mouse"

General

"Too much study dulls the brain."

Mouse, is liked by all who come in contact with him. He does not go out with girls, but he's a swell guy, nevertheless. He likes jazz music, plays the clarinet, and hopes to get in a big band, maybe Artie Shaws. We wish him lots of luck and hope he succeeds in all he attempts.

Track Team Manager, 2, 3, 4.

STAHLER, KERMIT "Kermie"

Science and Engineering

"Life's treasures lie in action."

Kermie is a likable person; he likes to have fun and craves for excitement. He is also a great sport fan, and plays almost any game. He says his main hobbies are model building, and playing his electric Hawaiian guitar. In addition to this he likes to skate and ski. Kermie does well in his studies and expects to go to college after he is graduated, to continue the study of engineering. Let's wish him a prosperous and fruitful future.

STAMM, GEORGIA MARGARET "Jo"

General

"If we could see ourselves,
As other see us."

Jo is a 5 foot 5 inch brown-eyed brunette, likes dancing especially jitterbugging, and always has a stick of gum in her mouth and a smile on her face. Her pleasing personality has won her many friends. She likes swimming, boating and anything that doesn't require a lot of brain work.

She expects "to settle down and be a comptometer operator.' We wish her all the luck in the world.

Chorus, 1, 2.

STEFANY, WALLACE C. "Wally"

General

"On my honor, I will do my best."

Wally is kind of a newcomer to Allentown, having moved here at the beginning of his sophomore year from Coplay. Although not here as long as some of us, Wally has had plenty of time to win not only many friends by his wit and personality but the respect of the school for dependable wisdom and performance.

While he has not yet decided what he would like to do after he leaves A. H. S., Wally has somewhat of a mechanical mind and thinks he would like to be connected with a railroad.

STELLAR, WILLIAM JOSEPH "Wivie"

Commercial

"If ignorance is bliss, what is education?"

Genial Wivie is known throughout the school for his smiling countenance and happy disposition. His athletic achievements are celebrated, and his record is a great satisfaction to all followers of the A. H. S. basketball team of which he was captain. With graduation in June, Wivie can say he has reached the end with hundreds of friends cheering him.

Varsity "A" Club, 4; Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Baseball, 3, 4.

STEPHENS, FRED JONATHAN JUNIOR "Fritz"

Commercial

"Goes places alone."

Fritz comes from South Whitehall High School. He was small in his Sophomore year, but shot up like a Jack in the box in his Junior year. He isn't an athlete, but likes to watch a good contest. He is shy and tries to look inconspicuous. You may hear him laugh heartily in a theater, which is his favorite pastime. He is quite a joker too, and often shouts in class when something funny happens. His favorite expression is, "Do you have an extra cigarette?"

Manager of Allentown's Football Team, 3, 4.

STETTNER, ANNA "Bubbles"

College Preparatory

"Well timed silence hath more eloquence than speech."

Anna's big brown eyes are the key to her personality; they reveal her intelligence. Anna likes good books and good music, but she's far from a social dude. It seems as though Anna will be a private secretary, but no one, not even Anna, will vouch for that. Anna's friendship is to be valued, for she is one of the most of sincere people.

National Honor Society, 4; French Club, 3, 4.

STEVENSON, GLADYS "Stevie"

General

"Oh, make us happy and you make us good."

Stevie is a happy-go-lucky girl, always on the go whether doing things or not. When passing to your classes if you've heard loud talking, that was Stevie. She is fond of dancing, ice-skating, swimming and tennis. She also plays basketball. Of course we all wish this care-free girl all the luck in the world.

STICHER, ETHEL VIRGINIA "Ethel"

Commercial

"Trim and neat
And mighty sweet."

Here's a half-pint who lives up to her reputation and then some, for it's mighty hard not to think the world of Ethel. Hers is a serene smile that fits right in with her unhurried walk and her trim appearance. This young Miss believes in taking her time—yet she's the essence of promptness—we often wonder how she does it! "Take a letter, Ethel," and head it, "To you, good luck!"

Commercial Club, 4; Gym Club, 1.

STIRK, FLORENCE T. "Flossie"

Commercial

"Determination reaps its rewards."

Quiet and unassuming, Flossie plods along at her own slow easy going pace, but she sticks to her work, and never lets you down. Pleasant, sociable, five feet four, she'll grow to be a stenographer or what?

What e'er it be, we wish her luck.

STOECKEL, FRIEDA C. "Blondie"

Commercial

"I would rather sit on a pumpkin and have it all to myself, than to be crowded on a velvet cushion."

Last year Frieda came back to Allentown after having spent the last four and one half years in Long Beach, California. She wants to be a stenographer or a speed typist.

You never see Frieda without that smile which has in it the California sunshine without the rainy season, and a great big greeting "Hi ya." We often wonder how Hollywood could miss a natural blonde sirene like Blondie, right at their front doorstep.

STOKE, HENRY W., Jr. "Bill"

Engineering and Science

"I see the right and I approve it too,
Condemn the wrong and yet the wrong pursue."

December, 1938, saw Allentown welcome a new resident in the form of a fair-haired lad with a pleasing personality and the name of William Stoke. Since his arrival in Allentown, Bill has capably given a merciless beating to the same victim at every Canary football game he attended, which is only natural, since he is a very able drummer in our school band.

Bill might be called an old southern gentleman. He was born in Virginia but came to the Keystone State very early in life. His Engineering and Science course will help Bill in seamanship if he joins the Navy as he hopes to do. He's also interested in chemistry, and when his work is done, his next interest is sleeping.

Band, 3, 4.

STOUDT, DOROTHY RUTH "Dot"

Commercial

"Smile and the world smiles with you."

A swish of light brown hair; a glance from soft blue eyes; a shy but reassuring smile, and a lithe little figure spells Dot. This happy-go-lucky sport-lover, even the many brothers and sisters get on her nerves, can never be spotted at all high school games. If you ever find Dot looking for an invitation to lunch, just mention that you're having Limburger cheese, and she's sunk at the mere thought of it. She just won't come. And if you happen to hear the sound of woodpecker don't be alarmed; it is probably Dot practising on the typewriter.

STRAIN, MILDRED "Millie"

Retail Selling

"Her eyes are as sparkling as her personality."

Millie is another petite, quiet girl, whose eyes sparkle with laughter. She has done well in all her studies and in swimming, dancing, and golfing. Blue is her passion, and we must admit it is becoming to her. In her chosen career, satisfied customers will be one of her main accomplishments. Here is wishing her luck and happiness.

STROBEL, BARBARA JANE "Barbs"

College Preparatory

"An innocent maid with soft brown eyes
As witty and popular as she is wise."

Whenever we see a genuine smile, more than likely we'll find Barbara behind it. Barbar's sweet; her very real consideration for others makes her one of the most personable girls in high school. A good athlete and one of our best cheerleaders, she finds time for creditable school work and for many other things. Next year, away at school, Barbs will probably continue captivating others by her charm.

Cheerleading, 3, 4; Dramatics, 3; French Club, 3; Girls Basketball, 4.

STROHECKER, EDWIN C. "Eddie"

General

"Give him a book, and he's content."

Eddie is a quiet person with strangers, but a regular fellow with friends. He is a good student and whenever a friend asks him for aid, he gives it willingly. Although he may take life a bit seriously sometimes, he is always ready for fun. He can discuss books and motion pictures with you for hours at a time. Incidentally, his hobby is reading the best-sellers. He also is interested in music. There are many walks of life that he'd like to pursue, but whatever his choice may be, we are certain he will do his work well.

SULLIVAN, JOAN "Joan"

General

"Play up! Play up! And play the game!"

Joan is a pleasant all-round girl, always on a dance floor in her leisure time jitterbugging. When anything goes wrong for Joan she doesn't show the Irish in her. She is an enthusiastic rooter at all football and basketball games, and likes ice-skating and swimming.

SULZER, DOROTHY M. "Dot"

College Preparatory

"Lift as you Climb."

Besides being a friend, Dot is a pleasant girl. She has a keen sense of humor, and is full of fun, but she knows when to be serious. Dot came to Allentown High School to make a record for herself, and to become a teacher. She spends most of her time studying, so that she will be well prepared. Her favorite pastimes are swimming, movies, but she especially loves dancing.

SUSSMAN, FAITH "Faith"

General

"We are the music-makers,
We are the dreamers of dreams."

Faith is an unusual combination of reticence and determination. She is almost solely engrossed in music. Her pursuit of music includes reading biographies of musicians, listening to and following the scores of symphonies, and playing the piano. She is headed for a musical career, and here is where her determination comes in. To be occupied in one thing and not be one-sided is a fine accomplishment, and Faith is a really fine person.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; French Club, 4; Journalism, 3.

SUSSMAN, FREDA LESYLIE "Chubby"

General

"At sight of thee my gloomy soul is cheered."

"One, two, three, kick." Freda expects to be a social worker, but all who know her feel certain she would much prefer dancing. It's really surprising that a girl with so much pep should take to correspondence as a hobby. But see her collection of letters.

"Love Toddy"

SWEENEY, KATHRYN MARIE "Toddy"

Commercial

"All good things come in little packages."

Kathryn is well known as Toddy or Shortstop, or whatever comes to the boys' minds. Her one ambition is to sing but, oh my, her voice is going down and down.

Her usual hang-out is the Sweet Shop. Once she wanted to be a teacher, but her temper is red hot, even though her hair is brown, we're not sure about that resolve.

SYPHERD, DOROTHY M. "Dotty"

College Preparatory

"Be great in act as you have been in thought."

Effective in speech and even more effective in ink, Dorothy commands attention for her journalistic ability. Calm, gentle in word and manner she spreads tranquility wherever she goes.

Being the sincerest of friends, Dorothy's companionship is valued and her closest friends have unearthed a rare sense of humor. A persevering worker and a fine student her chief ambitions are to further her education in the journalistic field and to have aviation as a hobby, with enough time out to dine and dance.

Historical Society; Latin Club, 3, 4; Dramatics, 3; Girl Reserves, 4.

SZUKICS, FRANCIS "Frankie"

Industrial

"Better late than never."

Francis is always ready to cheer up any one who is below par. He enjoys a good joke, but feels there's a time and place for everything. He is very serious about his drafting. He's serious about his singing too, and occupies no small place in the school choir. Incidentally, girls, he loves the women which you can see by the way he wears his ears. But seriously, he is one of the finest young men in the class.

TACKACK, MICHAEL "Midgry"

Industrial
Auto Shop

"He is a good mechanic that alone can make a machine get to perfection."

Mike has the natural ability to repair automobiles. He is a short stocky chap with a good disposition, and always has a big smile for everyone. He is one of those fellows who just won't be bothered by girls. Michael really likes his studies and is mighty good in some of them.

The boys of the industrial classes wish him luck.

TAMIOZZO, LETITIA "Tish"

Retail Selling

"Dreams, books are each a world; and books we know,
Are a substantial world, both pure and good."

Letitia is chaming, vivacious, attractive and shy. She is amiable and has a ready smile for anyone who wants to be friends. Friendliness, humor and wit are only a few of Letitia's virtues. Greatest perhaps is her friendship.

Music and poetry keep Letitia's leisure hours occupied. She loves to read, and when she's at home, you'll find her buried deep in some book. Letitia's ambition is to become a good salesperson, but she is very impulsive—who knows what the future has in store for her? Happiness we hope.

TATASCIORE, JOSEPH WILLIAM "Fadie"

General

"Let me play the fool.
With mirth and laughter let the old wrinkles come."

Joe is full of pep and vim, always cracking jokes, always pleasant. He's the spark plug in the Canary rooting section at all A. H. S. games. Joe gets along fairly well in his classes, but he'd sooner be out driving through the country taking life easy. There's plenty of life in the class room when Fadie starts rattling off those home made words. Seriously nothing worries him but his English class, how to get a line on the latest joke, and one long hour of loafing, bowling and inventing strange languages and cheers, which he releases surreptitiously in class rooms and raucously at games—these things occupy his leisure time.

TEXTER, MYRTLE "Ike"

General

"If you would be loved, be lovable."

Ike makes you sit up and notice. She loves all sports, and dancing is a sport. Her bubbling personality takes even failure with a grin, and takes success modestly. Ike is prepared to face the future without fear.

Band, 1, 3, 4.

THOMAS, ROBERT FRANK "Bob"

Commercial

"Never push off till tomorrow what you can push off till next week."

Bob is just the average school boy, who takes things as they come along, without a murmur. Basketball and baseball occupy much of his spare time.

THOMAS, VIRGINIA M. "Tommy"

"Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

A vivacious girl is Virginia, with hardly a worry, however, she is always sympathetic and helpful to others, her fine personality winning many new friends. Tommy is fond of basketball and football, and loves dancing; but she never forgets her school work. She will find success in this world because she gets what she goes after. A swell girl, and a good sport in every way, Virginia is a girl we're glad to have known.

Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Y. W. C. A. Council, 2.

THOMPSON, ALICE MAY "Aggie"

Commercial

"Never put off until tomorrow
What you can put off till next week."

Just a jolly pal with a smile for everyone. Alice has a pleasing personality and a keen sense of humor. She is fun to know with her sunny disposition and her ever ready jokes. She is an average student in her studies and is always willing to give a helping hand. Her favorite sports are hiking and boating, and she stays up almost every night burning the midnight oil because she loves to read.

THOMPSON, WILLIAM FRANK "Bill"

Science and Engineering

"It is much better to want a teacher than to want a desire to learn."

Bill, always cheerful, is one of our most studious seniors. He is excellent in his studies and his name appears frequently on the honor roll. But he never allows his ability to go to his head. One does not know Bill long without discovering that certain something which makes him a lasting friend, and a sportsman in every sense of the word. The class of '41 hopes he will get to Lehigh as he plans, and wishes him the best of luck.

National Honor Society; Junior Class Play.

TOMASCHIK, ANN "Hunch"

Commercial

"Don't let anyone get ahead of you."

Quiet! Here she comes and you can see and hear her come! She lets no one get ahead of her. In Ann's heart she is gentle and ready to give a helping hand. She doesn't go out much, but enjoys listening to the radio. Just give her Sammy Kaye and see her go off.

She, too, sings while she does the dishes. And she likes to crochet. It all augurs well for somebody's domestic happiness some day.

TOOLAN, MARY "Bubbles"

General

"What if skies be wan and chill."

The most charming thing about Bubbles is her naturalness. She is typical of this crop of graduates, liking dancing, skating, and of course jiving.

Bubbles believes a woman's place is the home, and backs up her belief by getting engaged. She likes to experiment with hair styles and would probably be a hairdresser if homemaking weren't her first love. Her pet hate?—"Snobs." She can inquire about Mrs. Mulligan's rheumatism with as much sympathy as of Mr. Van Swagger's gout. If Bubbles is a sample of today's youth, we need have no fear of tomorrow.

TOWLE, NANCY "Nan"

General

"True friends are like diamonds, precious and rare."

With a ready smile for everyone, Nan wins many friends and plays an important part in the lives of all who know her. She is always on the spot when you need her. With a sunny disposition, and a twinkle in her eye, nothing seems to phase her, as she takes each new problem in her stride. Nan has already proved what the expert cook can do, and now she plans to strengthen her career by taking the dietetics course at Penn State. We expect much from her in the future, and we can depend on her not to let us down.

Dramatics, 2; Badminton, 2.

TROXELL, JEAN "Jean"

General

"Why worry about tomorrow,
Today ain't over yet."

Ever since her childhood days, Jean, has been thinking seriously of becoming a nurse. We know she will succeed through her own effort and will, if the favored one does not change her course to culinary duties. We wish you the best of luck and happiness.

UBEROATH, JUANITA MAE "Nita"

General

"Always she has plucked a thistle and planted a flower where she thought that a flower would grow."

Nita is a natural girl. Although not dashing, she is one of those who will enter the future determined to earn her success. She loves sports, especially dancing. She has a few close friends, and many others who would be proud to be among her friends.

UHLER, DALE "Reds"

Industrial

"He likes the world."

Busy as a bee is live-wire Dale, one of the best electricians in his class. He takes school work seriously, and next in line are girls, among whom he shines. A good sport and a true friend is Dale, who's hobbies are dancing, swimming, and football.

We hope that someday his dream of being a great electrician comes true.

VALENTEEN, JACQUELINE "Jackie"

College Entrance

"Whose humor, as gay as the fire-fly's light."

Few of us really know the serious Jacqueline, but hardly any of us missed meeting up with Jackie, that pleasant, busy little person with a riotous sense of humor. She's always ready to laugh at your jokes and just as quick at coming back with one of her own. Delightful as Jackie is at her funniest, it's really an experience to know her serious side.

VARGO, FRANK G. "Sonny"

College Entrance

"When your will is ready, your feet are light."

Calm, precise, steady, and dependable, are traits by which Frank is distinguished. Although he is quiet in class, he is not backward when he's out with the crowd. A loyal sport fan, and an ardent follower of extra curricula activities, Frank is a prominent senior. Sonny's an active member of the Historical Society and National Honor Society, and the class predicts a brilliant future for him.

Historical Society, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 3, 4.

Vogel, Norvin "Admiral"

Industrial
Electric Shop

"Here comes the Navy."

Admiral is that handsome young electrician from the high school shop who wants to join the Naval Air Corps as a pilot. He will rise high in the world if his ambitions are realized. He is starting out early because he likes to build model airplanes, and his models really fly. He also plays football whenever he gets the chance, for this is the sport he likes best.

VOLINSKY, JOHN "Hunky"

Commercial

"Honest, I'm not lazy, I'm just dreaming."

Hunky is a chap whose pass-word is Happiness; the word Gloom is not in his vocabulary. He says Hello to everyone he knows, and flashes them a smile which makes the weariest person happy for the moment. Hunky is known to most of the school's athletes because he is one of the institution's finest sport followers. Hunky is a marvelous dancer, but this is only known to his closest friends. His bashfulness alone keeps him from many dance floors. "To be a song writer," says he when you ask him what he will be.

WAGNER, ANNA N. "Anne"

Commercial

"Do the things right and get your reward."

Brown-eyed, brown-haired Anne is one of our quiet girls—that is, in school. Her favorite sport is bowling, and we hear she is quite good at it. She walks through the halls flinging her smile and her "Hello" everywhere, a habit that will ease many a moment when she is a secretary.

Gym Club, 2.

WAIDELICH, RICHARD LONG "Scrunch"

Science and Engineering

"Fortune seldom interferes with the wise man, for his highest interests are always directed by reason."

Scrunch is a practical person. He attacks his difficulties with cold, mathematical reasoning. His mental ledger contains only assets. Scrunch also plays a swell game of chess, and wields a vicious ping pong paddle. He is conservative and thoughtful at school, but at home he terrorizes the neighborhood with threatening repercussions from his chemical lab. He hopes to spend the near future at Lehigh University. Scrunch looks forward confidently to the future, hoping to do some real service in the field of chemistry.

Class Play Committee, 3, 4; Latin Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4.

WALCK, LEE A. "Captain"

General

"Why worry about tomorrow, today ain't over yet."

Lee is a real friend. He's the kind of fellow, too, who supports every athletic activity of A. H. S. to the umpteenth degree. He is very interested in the defense of the U. S. A., and hopes to be a sailor. Uncle Sam "needs him to cook for the Navy." If you ever see Alfred Spang's Ford you'll find Lee pushing it. Lee is a quiet, intelligent fellow, well liked by everyone, and adored by the girls.

WALLANDER, MARJORIE JEAN "Margie"

Commercial

"The bird doth not betray the secret springs whence note on note her music sweetly pours."

Margie's coloratura soprano voice has added much to the A Cappella Choir and Chorus, of which she has been a member for three years. Next to singing, Margie would like to be a secretary. She is an expert typist and stenographer, and ranks high in other subjects. Not only is she an ardent football and basketball fan, but she enjoys dancing and swimming.

A Cappella Choir, 2, 3, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Home Room Representative, 2, 4.

Jeanne Waller

WALLER, JEANNE "Fritz"

College Preparatory

"You cannot touch a chord in me that will not answer you in music."

Fritz's music keeps her busy; nevertheless she always finds time to call a cheery greeting to her pals. As for sports, Fritz is interested in swimming; you'll also find her in the cheering section at the football and basketball games. Her notable characteristic is her sense of humor; she always has an original joke on the tip of her tongue—and what a joke! She will probably find her greatest satisfaction and service in the musical world. Best of luck, Fritz, wherever you go!

A Cappella Choir, 2, 3, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; French Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Badminton, 4.

WALLITSCH, MARGARET "Peggy"

Commercial

"It's nice to be natural,
If one is naturally nice."

Vivacious is the word for Peggy, who has many interests, and still does excellent work. Collecting autographs is Peggy's hobby, and she has signatures of many prominent orchestra leaders and singers. Peggy's favorite summer resort is Mountain Lake in New Jersey, where she spends her vacations. Although she has always lived in Allentown, Peggy likes to travel,—to Pittsburgh. Her friends appreciate her cheerfulness and courtesy.

Commercial Club, 4; Y. W. C. A., 4; Gym Club, 1.

WALLITSCH, ROBERT W. "Bobby"

Commercial

"The only jewel which will not decay is knowledge."

Bobby is a devil-may-care sort of fellow who likes plenty of fun. Even though he gets into difficulty with his friends and his teachers frequently, he has no enemies. Bobby has personality. You are immediately drawn to him by his frank and jovial disposition. He is quite a student and receives good marks. Bob is intending to join the Army Air Corps after graduation, where he'll be busy earning stripes and making friends.

WALP, MARGARET ANNA "Peggie"

Household Art

"The way to a man's heart is through his stomach."

Peggie is a student of the household arts, and if you think she can't cook you have another guess coming. Like all good cooks, Peggie has a big heart; she'll ladle you out wonderful food with one hand, and wonderful cheer and advice with the other. She sews, too. She is one of the girls who helped make those 30 Red Cross dresses. She sounds like a valuable friend, and she is a valuable friend.

WALPER, JEAN C. "Jeanne"

Household Arts

"Smiles make the world happy
By worrying you grow old."

Jean smiles every time you talk to her. She always worries about her homework and lessons when she does not understand them. Her hobbies are cooking, sewing, and listening to radio programs. The sports she likes best are football, basketball, and ice-hockey. When you ask Jean to do something, she tries with all her might to do it.

WALTERS, LUCILLE SALLY "Lucy"

General

"In those eyes of blue, shines a light of friendship true."

Soft blue eyes, brown hair and the nicest pair of dimples that you ever saw distinguished Lucille, who's fairly quiet in classes but talkative, given a chance.

She loves hiking, music, ping-pong and High School games That's variety enough for anyone.

WARD, CAROLYN M. "Nook"

College Preparatory

"Patience is sweet, but who has patience?"

Carolyn, a good-natured and jolly pal, has attracted many friends and deserves them all. She is an ardent booster of school affairs, is fond of swimming and ice-skating, and is smart in her studies. Grand preparation for Nursing, all three qualities.

WARMKESSEL, LOUISE A. "Weezie"

Commercial

"A girl with a positive genius for friendship."

Every minute of the day, Weezie's ready smile greets her friends galore; she never lets a friend down. Her high marks prove that she is a studious and a hard worker. Her deep alto voice, with its unusual volume, has won her place in the A Cappella Choir and the Chorus. Weezie's other interests are dancing, basketball, movies, and collecting movie stars' pictures.

Chorus, 2, 3, 4; Choir, 3, 4.

WARMKESSEL, WILLARD H., Jr. "Bill"

General

"He's lively and gay,
He'll chase sorrow away."

You're sure to know this chap, for all the school knows and likes him. He'll greet you with a big smile, and if you have any troubles you can count on Bill to solve them. His greatest interest is swimming, but he can also dance and talk—Man! How he can talk. But he has a keen interest in Medical Science too, and that's genuine. He'd be a great doctor.

Vice-President, 2; Swimming Team, 3.

WATSON, STANLEY P. "Stan"

General

"What will you have? A picture, an Airplane, A grand worker?
Stan can furnish them all."

Stan may be recognized by his ever-present smile.

Attentive and quiet, he is most admired for his quality of reserve.

Model airplane building and candid camera photography consume most of his time. Dr. Watson, as he is called by some of his teachers, intends to attend Lehigh, after which he hopes to combine photography and chemistry and to apply for a position with the Eastman Kodak Company, or some other big organization needing industrial chemists.

WEAVER, GLADYS FLORENCE "Gladdy"

Commercial

"Here is the place where lovliness keeps house."

If you hear Gladdy murmuring, "too much homework," don't misunderstand. She's simply thinking about that club she goes to every day in the week. She loves swing music and dancing, but despite her natural love of fun, she is persistent enough to do well in salesmanship and stenography too.

WEAVER, HELEN "Limeport"

General

"A laugh is worth a hundred groans in any market."

Helen hails from Limeport. To tell the truth, Limeport should be employed as official Blues Dispeller. Her attitude toward life is especially interesting. She hasn't a worry and hasn't a care. She just takes life as it comes.

Helen's main ambition is to become a hairdresser. Go to it.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Chorus, 3, 4; Dramatics, 4.

WEAVER, JOYCE VOLORA "Tiny"

Commercial

"Purl one, knit two."

Small, attractive Joyce, roaming the halls with a cheery hello and a pleasant smile for everyone. Tiny's favorite pastime is knitting, and she's really swell at it. When she isn't knitting she's playing the piano. Wherever she is, she's the kind of person you turn to look at again. Joyce says the nicest boys come from out of town, but we're not so sure. Her one expressed ambition is to become a good secretary.

WEBSTER, WILLIAM C. "Bud"

Engineering and Science

"Now or Never."

Bud, formerly a shy lower classman, has turned out to be a prominent senior. He has a big heart for all his friends. You never find him without a smile or a cheerful word. The honor of being president of the first Varsity "A" Club was bestowed upon Bud, because of his ability, sportsmanship, and leadership on and off the football field. His limited spare time he shares with the cheerleaders. Bud means to study medicine and later to be a surgeon. Whether he follows this or another profession, we are certain he will be a leader, as he is here.

Football, 3, 4; President of the Varsity "A" Club, 4.

WEIANT, J. HAROLD "Pretzels"

Commercial

"Keep your face towards the sunshine—"

Those who know Harold are lucky, for he is one of the best friends one can have. He is one of the loyal supporters of the school. A familiar sight, however, is his green Plymouth with its loud horns. He plans to work in his father's bakery.

WEICKER, BLAIR JOSEPH "Joe"

Commercial

"If you never get to bed,
You'll never get to sleep."

He likes football and baseball because he can play them well, and because they are the most strenuous and most popular of sports. He has two pastimes which take up his leisure time, reading western stories, and going to the movies. He likes the movies because "it doesn't cost so much."

His ambition is to be a good electric welder, and get a job in the Philadelphia Navy Yard.

WEIDA, RUSSELL "Russ"

General

"A quarter saved is a quarter more to spend next week."

Here is a lad who will some day be an aeronautical engineer, but who will not strain a muscle to achieve it. Although a bit easy going, Russell is a good fellow, enjoying a great deal of night life, and engaging in the somewhat milder sports, tennis and swimming. Russell doesn't read much; he'd rather go to a movie. Although he's not "particularly brilliant" in school, he always manages to get by.

WEIDNER, RUTH N. "Rudy"

General

"Personality is greater than wealth."

A charming young girl with a big smile for everyone, and a pleasant disposition. Ruth likes cooking, but puts all her effort in her studies. Ruth cherishes the ambition to be a nurse. We wish her the best of luck.

WEISS, IRENE L. "Weissy"

General

"I have always preferred the sunshine, and have tried to put other people there, if only for an hour or two at a time."

Dark-haired, fair complexioned, happy-go-lucky—that is Irene.

Sports, especially bowling, dancing, reading, and movies are her favorite pastimes. She has a clever hobby—collecting jokes.

She is known among her many friends as one to go to confide your troubles to, and to get a cheerful bit of advice in return.

She hasn't any plans yet, but whatever she attempts to do, she will do!

Chorus, 4.

WEISS, JAMES EDWIN "Jim"

General

"Fellowship is the twin of friendship."

Jim is a two letter man, having earned his varsity "A" in football and in basketball. He was treasurer of the Varsity "A" Club, a new organization at Allentown High this year. He excels not only in sports but in school work, being especially interested in mathematics and science. He intends to spend a year at prep school, and from there to go to college for training.

Basketball, 2, 3, 4; Football, 2, 3, 4; Varsity "A", 4.

WELLER, PAULINE W. "Polly"

General

"Tricky as a fox,
She's just a chatterbox."

Now you wouldn't believe it if you were told that this quiet little girl could swing a stick and pound a syncopated melody out of a big barrel-like bass drum and rattling polished cymbals, but she has two East Greenville H. S. letters for proof. Oddly enough she seems to prefer quiet and tame entertainment in place of hot music. Her sparkling personality has brought her many friends. Her hobby is collecting souvenirs from places she has visited, and collecting 1940 pennies. She also enjoys sewing, reading and sports.

German Club, 4; Upper Milford Band.

WELTY, GEORGE "Welty"

Industrial

"Whenever you get lonely and sad
Just look up Welty—you'll be glad."

George's ambition is to become head draftsman of some steel corporation.

He is a great lover of sports and plays whenever time permits.

His friendship means much to us, and we hope he may go out in the world and find exactly the work he wants.

Band, 1, 2, 3.

WELTY, VIVIEN LOU ANN "Viv"

General

"Thou wert my joyous mind
Thou wert the inspiration of my song."

Sparkling, vivacious Vivien is an all around person, an honor student, and yet finds time for sports and recreational diversions. Among them are dancing, skating, swimming, cycling and liking. Among her accomlishments are being a poet, a musician, and an artist—for that is what Vivien wants to be.

Joyous and serious, with a dash of scatterbrain, it seems a pity she never joined the Debating Society for, no one could resist her arguments. Irresistible is her middle name.

French Club, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Chorus, 2, 4.

WENNER, LUCILLE MAE "Bugs"

Commercial

"Words are huddled together like vegetable soup."

Bugs has a charming personality. Her pleasant talk and manner makes one feel at ease. She sings, and her alto voice is a great help to any musical group. Swimming is her hobby. Two of her ambitions are to fly her own plane, and to own a ranch. And she'll go many a mile, with that cheery smile.

A Cappella Choir, 3, 4; Chorus, 3, 4; Girl Reserves, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

WENTZ, ROY "Wentzy"

General

"The less we study, the less we know,
the less we show our ignorance."

Roy is an average student in school. His pet hate is making speeches in English class and his hobbies are football, baseball, track, basketball, and hunting. He often wonders why solid geometry was invented. Next fall he hopes to enter some college, but as yet he is undecided which one it will be.

Track, 3, 4; Football, 4.

WERLEY, FREDERICK

College Entrance

"One of the strong sons of light,
Able, and most gloriously bright,"

All Allentown knows this man. From the time he and his pony cantered about the West End, the world's best sunshine and news-distributing agency, to the time he drove about in a car which he just got out and lifted bodily out of and over snowdrifts, he has been a familiar and beloved figure. Rides, loves horses, plays football, radiates sunshine, lends a helping hand to young and old alike, and above all, loves life. We predict that he will "do them good like medicine" just by looking in on his patients once a day.

WERLEY, MARIE A. "Maree"

General

"Cares will come, but cares will go."

Between giggles Marie is really a serious girl. She is always in the midst of the crowd, for her sunny disposition and gaiety is an irresistible magnet. Aside from pleasure, Marie finds time to be serious, and is as constant and serious in her work as in her play.

Music is important to Maree. She has been playing the accordion for a number of years. Her pleasant disposition and witty tongue will insure her success in nursing.

Historical Society, 3.

WERTMAN, RICHARD WALLACE "Dick"

General

"Go on in! I'll save you from drowning."

A very likable fellow, and has a lot of personality. Made friends with everyone.

The sports he participated in were wholesome and although He never played scholastic football, he knew the game very well.

Other sports he enjoys are baseball, swimming, ice skating, roller skating, hiking.

WHITTLE, MARTHA M. "Martie"

General

"A smile that will never wear off."

A cheery smile, a gay hello, and there is Martie wandering lazily down the hall. Though she may move slowly on land, she goes like a streak of lightning through the water. Well liked by all who know her, she has more friends than a dog has fleas!

Martie is known as an all-round girl, for she loves swimming, dancing, sports, and even reading a good book now and then. So you can bet your boots that in any career she may enter, she is sure to succeed.

Dramatics, 1; Swimming, 1, 2.

WIEAND FRANCES E. "Fran"

General

"Trifles make perfection,
but perfection is no trifle."

Fran is one of the prettiest and most popular girls in school. With black hair, blue eyes, and a pleasing smile. you can understand why. Taking part in the school activities, whether they be sports or social affairs, she is always ready to lend a helping hand. Next fall, Fran is planning to attend school down in Dixie, where we know her Nawthern personality will win her many friends. Of course, we all shall miss you, Fran.

WIEDER, BETTY JANE "Betts"

College Preparatory

"—but still her word is toujours giae."

Words can hardly describe the gal we know as Betts. Nice to look at and pleasant to talk to, we see her everyday, ready, willing and able to do anything one asks her. Of course, an excellent student, and what they need in college is girls like Betty.

Full of fun, and probably playing pranks she shouldn't, we love to be in Betts' company. She makes herself personally responsible for the welfare of her friends. This accounts for the great popularity she enjoys. You get the idea? She's a radiant person.

German Club, 4; Dramatics, 2; Historical Society, 3, 4; Girl Reserves, 2, 3, 4; Home Room Representative, 2.

WEIDER, MARTIN "Hank"

General

"He has common sense in an uncommon way."

Have you met the speed demon? That's Hank, trying to prepare to drive a fire truck. He's a lover of nature, a man of the great outdoors. Wherever Hank is, he can find a way to entertain his friends with his particular brand of comedy. There are three loves in his life: fires, liver pudding, and pretty girls. Like father, like son, Hank is going to be an ace-fireman.

WILLENBECKER, RUTH "Willie"

Commercial

"Live the life you love, and be happy."

Ruth is a five-foot seven inch brown-eyed blonde, who has a flashing smile and a dashing personality. If you don't see Willie eating French fried potatoes then she must be talking to her heart beat between classes. Ruth, however, lets neither appetite nor love interfere with her studies; she has been awarded a pin for speed in typing, and excels in shorthand, too. Ruth will have no trouble finding a job.

Dramatics, 4.

WILLIAMS, RICHARD N. "Dick"

Science and Engineering

"He who has a thousand friends has not a friend to spare."

Life, to Dick, is nothing more than a complexity of endless chemical formulae. He eats, sleeps, and lives chemistry and does not intend to die until he has behind him a record of chemical discoveries that would be a credit to anyone with the name of Williams. His unassuming character, together with his ready smile, has won him a host of friends. If he can make as much of a success out of life as he has out of high school, he is certain of continued happiness and prosperity the rest of his days.

First Aid Corps of American Red Cross, 3, 4.

WILT, GERALDINE "Gerry"

Commercial

"Be plain in dress, and sober in your diet;
In short, my deary, kiss me! and be quiet."

If we can't find Geraldine ice-skating or roller skating, we're sure to see her jitterbugging her way across some dance floor. She doesn't wear her heart on her sleeve, so we don't know who her hero is. She's a good sport and a faithful friend, though a bit quiet and reserved.

WIRTH, ALFRED "Al"

Electric Shop

"Show me the man who considers others first,
I will show you a man who is himself first."

Al, a happy-go-lucky fellow, likes play better than work. He spends most of his evenings as pin-boy in the local bowling alleys. Whenever he has spare time, he goes dancing, and especially likes the medium swing music.

Al wants to be an electrician, and his cheerful personality as well as his constant consideration of the other fellow will light the way.

WISSER, WILLARD WILLIAM "Egg"

Industrial
Mechanical Drafting

"Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers."

Egg is studying to be a draftsmen in the United States Navy. When he is not working, he is sure to be eating. He really enjoys his work. In the sport line he likes roller skating, football, basketball, and pinochle. Here's wishing him luck and a great deal of success in his endeavors.

T-Square Club, 1, 3.

WITWER, ROBERT "Zeke"

"Better to wear out
Than to rust out."

Where there is a commotion Zeke is sure to be found. He is one of the most likable fellows we know. Zeke usually has the biggest heart of all, but when it comes to football he is the roughest, toughest tackler on the squad. He has shown excellent ability on the gridiron this year. The honor of secretary of the Varsity "A" Club was given to him because of his ability on and off the football field.

Zeke's ambition is to follow in his father's footsteps. With the class of "41" will go one of our dearest friends, one who always had an ear for our troubles and a word of encouragement for us.

Football, 2, 3, 4; Secretary of Varsity "A" Club, 4.

WOLF, DORIS LORRAINE "Doris"

Commercial

"A little of this a little of that,
Not very thin but not very fat."

Doris is interested in just about everything that goes on, swimming, skating, movies and dancing. Doris has many friends and can be counted on for fun. She has a tendency to worry about her studies, but comes out all right at the end. She is majoring in shorthand and typing. Although she has no special plans for the future, she would like to become a clerk in a department store.

Girl Reserves, 3, 4.

WOLF, EUGENE "Wolfie"

Commercial

"Ye gods, the same thing every day."

An ardent sports fan, Wolfie plays basketball and football for the Garfield Aces. He is also high scorer for the L. S. B. pin Boys, which demonstrates his versatility as an athlete. Being diplomatically inclined, Wolfie is a Senator in the Garfield Aces Club, a branch of the Y. M. C. A. He likes all sports, and attends every A. H. S. game. Wolfie hasn't thought much of the future, but he's sure to go to town on some very substantial errand.

WOLFE, HOMER "Wolfe"

Industrial

"Late to bed, early to rise, makes this young fellow sleepy and tired."

Homer is a fair student, up to par in all his school work. He's generally out late, but manages to arrive at school on time. A good sport, he likes to joke with the boys. His favorite pastimes are pool and dancing, and he thinks he's pretty good at both. Homer has high ideals and ideas; he expects to manage his own business. We hope that his dreams will come true.

WOLFE, LOUISE E. "Lowezie"

Commercial

"Pretty enough
Witty enough
Peppy enough
Just enough."

Louise believes laughter is the cure for all ills. No matter how many troubles she has, you can depend on her for a laugh.

She loves dancing and spends most of her spare time jitterbugging, but who wouldn't if they could dance as she can. She likes swimming and bicycle riding, too. Lowezie is a hard worker at school and rates high in shorthand.

Girl Reserves, 1, 2, 3, 4; Commercial Club, 4.

WOOLEY, RAYMOND "Ray"

Industrial
Electric Shop

"Who wants brains anyway?"

As a student Ray has let nothing stand in his way, nothing but four subjects. And if he had more subjects we honestly believe he would have done fairly well in them.

Incidentally, girls, if you have ideas in your head about Ray, we're sorry to report that here is the Class of 41's chief woman hater.

We believe from the bottom of our hearts that Ray will travel far. His ambition is to drive a truck cross-country.

WORONIAK, JOHN "Easy"

Pattern Shop

"The force of his own merit makes his way."

Easy is the woman-hater of the Pattern Shop. "Well," he adds, "not exactly a woman-hater, but I think hunting and fishing are infinitely more interesting than glamor girls."

When Easy isn't whittling or cleaning his guns he takes just a refreshing little jaunt to Palmerton and back on his bike. After he's well established in the pattern business, he wants to travel. Here's to meeting you on the Ile de France or perhaps in Buenos Aires.

WYLER, PATRICIA VIRGINIA "Pat"

College Preparatory

"It is a friendly heart that has plenty of friends."

With her laughing green eyes and her infectious giggle Pat set out to high school one sunny morning to conquer and conquer she did. For who, he be teacher or fellow-student, could resist that sunny smile? Her ever-growing line of friends has grown to almost infinite proportions. Intelligent and sensible, we suffer no qualms for Pat when we hear she intends to go to Duke University and study chemistry; our only regret is that we do not have a few more years to bask in the warmth of her companionship.

WYTOVICH, METRO "Speed"

Industrial

"Although he adapts himself to his shop work, as well as to algebra, he is still worried about English."

Metro likes to dance to popular swing music and he's so tall and handsome that he attracts the girls' glances always. He hopes to make good in radio, and he will.

YAINDL, MARGARET "Marge"

General

"Happy-go-lucky, fair and free,
Nothing ever bothers me."

Laughing Marge doesn't take herself too seriously. Always surrounded by a host of friends, she is the life of the party. Marge has her serious moments, and in her quiet moments she is frequently seen with her nose in some exciting book.

After graduation this smiling miss hopes to be a telephone operator.

Gym Club, 2.

YARNALL, MARVIN "Yarney"

Commercial

"When fun is needed, never care,
Just call Marvin, he'll be there."

Marvin is an average student whose studies do not interfere with his social life. He has no particular hobby but keeps busy working in his father's store, which some day might be his own.

Whenever you're at a dance just look for Marvin; you'll see his size twelve sliding along. He loves best of all ping-pong, football, and swimming.

YATES, DORIS ELAINE "Dorrie"

General

"No mind is thoroughly well organized that is deficient in a sense of humor."

With laughing blue eyes, and a song in her heart, Dorrie never has time to worry about school work; yet she shines in all her classes. She loves any sport, from practical jokes to basketball, and does them all equally well. With Doris's rare combination of wit and wisdom, there is little doubt that she will get along. Doris has always enjoyed singeing her hair and burning her skin with chemcial materials: so she plans to major in chemistry at college and eventially to become a technician.

Gym Club, 2, 3, 4; German Club, 4; National Honor Society 3, 4.

YEAGER, ROBERT "Bob"

Engineering and Science

"Carpe Diem et Finis Coronat Opus."

Bob staunchly believes that there is a time and a place for everything. Although he takes study and school quite seriously he enjoys fun equally well. Through his many assembly appearances he has become known as a delberate thinker and forceful speaker. Among his many aesthetic interests are: music, dramatics and public speaking. A friend to every receptive heart, Bob will long be remembered as a true friend and a talented classmate.

Orotan Debating Society, 2, 3, 4; Canary and Blue, Business, 2, 3, 4; Latin Club, 3, 4; National Honor Society; Dramatics, 3, 4; Band, 2; Boy Scouts; Home Room Representative, 4; Comus, 4.

YENTSCH, PAUL "Whoopie"

Industrial
Machine Shop

"He has served the school well."

Paul is a swell chap, always wears a smile, and does his work well, especially in shop, for he expects to be an expert machinist. Besides his school work, he loves basketball, football, and ice-skating.

Whoopie thinks twelve years of school is enough for anyone; he plans to go directly into industrial work after high school.

YOHE, JEANNE ELIZABETH "Fats"

Commercial

"Laugh and grow fat."

Fats is that studious little lass who can hardly wait until lunch time. She loves to eat, to play basketball, and to swim. A cheerful disposition, good humor, and pleasant smile will get her far in the business world. Fats is very popular with members of both sexes.

Jean's two ambitions are to be a private stenographer and to become a success in telephone work.

Commercial Club, 4; Girl Reserves, 4.

YORGEY, ELAINE MAE "Yorgey"

Retail Selling

"So she sat, with a far-away gaze, pausing in her work."

There is never a dull moment with Elaine. You can always depend on her to provide some kind of entertainment with her witty remarks. Nature provided her with brown hair and eyes, a winsome smile and a demitasse figure. Although the matter of school does not bother her too much, she comes sailing through. Her pet hates are cross customers, and mustaches. We all hope to see Elaine in one of the leading department stores soon.

YORGEY, LORRAINE "Dolly"

Commercial

"Imagination is thrilling."

Lorraine, the girl with a big smile for everyone, has a pleasant personality and plenty of ideas.

After swimming, her favorite sports are dancing and ice-skating, in all of which she excels. Can you picture Lorraine in a pair of overalls sitting on scaffold, or lettering a bus? Well, that's her ambition, and we wish her lots of success as a letterer.

Cathalene Yost

YOST, CATHALENE LAURA ELIZA "Cassy"

Commercial

"To win a friend you have to be a friend."

Cassy is quiet; you'll seldom find her in any mischief. She chose the commercial course, but she doesn't know whether she wants to be a stenographer. She averages well in her studies, and always goes home from school with a book tucked under her arm. If you get hungry for fruit, just look in Cassy's lunch or in her locker or on top of her books. Cassy likes to see football and basketball games, and enjoys Bingo parties.

YOUNG, LOUISE MARGARET "Weezie"

Louise Young

General

"Haste makes waste;
So don't rush me."

Louise is a true-blue friend with a cheery smile for everyone. Her personality just seems to radiate to her friends until they really miss her when she is not around. Louise has been on the honor roll several times. In her spare time she knits, and dreams of becoming a nurse, a profession in which we are sure she will be successful.

Historical Society, 3, 4; National Honor Society, 4; Girls Gym Club, 3, 4; Girl Scouts, 2, 3, 4.

YOUNG, WARREN "Bud"

General

"Nature made him as she should,
Not too bad and not too good."

Bud is musically inclined; he can play almost any instrument that comes along. His personality and character make him everyone's friend. In spite of certain outside distractions, Bud gets along fairly well in school. Among his favorite sports are ice skating, swimming, and track. He has several plans for next year, but none of them are definite.

A Cappella Choir, 1, 2, 3; Chorus, 1, 2, 3.

YURICK, KATHRYN "Kitty"

Retail Selling

"Quiet and dependable as everybody knows
She will make friends wherever she goes."

When Kathryn smiles, her eyes smile with her, her cheeks dimple, and her whole face becomes merry. A true friend, Kathryn is always willing to lend a helping hand to her companions. A member of the Retail Selling course, she is an excellent salesperson, and has won many friends through her pleasing personality Kathryn manages to work as a sales-girl, attend most school entertainment, and still gets very good marks. She has a clever hand at verse, too. We know Kathryn will accomplish anything she undertakes, whether work or play. Her sincerity assures her a welcome anywhere.

ZARACHANSKY, WILMA "Willie"

General

"Its the quiet people who do things and go places."

When some kind fairy dropped Wilma in the lap of the Allentown High School, little did she realize that she had also dropped her into their hearts. She is active in tennis, basketball, and swimming; and with the training given by either a Philadelphia or New York school, she should be a good nurse.

ZATOVICH, WILLIAM "Zatty"

Commercial

"How many vacation days do we get yet?"

Zatty was born in Bethlehem, comes from a family of seven children, is the second youngest, and happens to be the only one to get this far thru school.

He is fond of sports and wishes that some day he could become a physical instructor. He has taken part in sports ever since he was a little boy.

His favorite sport is football, and he has played with Raub Junior High, Allentown High, Auburn A. C. and Jordan A. C. He also likes to go hunting, fishing and swimming, "always with some friends," he adds.

Football, 3.

ZEEK, GEORGE "George"

Industrial

"It was refreshing but composed, like the pleasantness of youth tempered with the gravity of age."

Tall of stature, slow to talk, George is a quiet sort of person adept at bowling, which he follows as a hobby. Liking movies and swing music, George is not hard to please. He also likes historical movies very much and seldom fails to see them as soon as they arrive. George has not yet decided on his course in the future but with his pleasing personality, he is very likely to fit in anywhere.

ZEEMAN, STANLEY E. "Stan"

General

"Better to die ten thousand deaths
Than wound my honour."

Tall, dark, handsome, intelligent, all describe Stan. He has an enviable scholastic record and a fine personality. This combination is certain to lead him to success in medicine. Stan is an excellent sand lot athlete, and a voluminous reader. In the Boy Scout movement he has achieved the Eagle award and is a member of the Sea Scouts. These activities naturally constitute a heavy drain on his time, but despite this he does his school work thoroughly and manages to attend a large number of social events.

National Honor Society, 4; Sea Scouts, 2, 3, 4.

ZEITNER, WILLIAM "Curly"

Industrial
Auto Shop

"In hunting—
What he hit is history
What he missed is mystery."

William Zeitner is the tall small guy with the straight curly hair, known to the shop boys as Curly. Whenever Curly fixes a car it stays fixed. Curly is very much interested in his studies; whenever he misses something he makes up for lost time. Curly's major sports are hunting and ice skating and he is also fond of the opposite sex. The boys of the industrial course wish him a lot of luck.

ZETTLEMOYER, KENNETH LE ROY "Hank"

Commercial

"There is mischief in his eye,
He's a flirt."

Hank is a bashful fellow until you get to know him. He is a lover of all sports and has hopes to becoming a physical instructor. He is continually teased about his ambition to become a cowboy. We wish you all the luck in the world. Hank, and we know you will succeed in anything you undertake.

ZIEGELHOFER, GEORGE "Ziggie"

Engineering and Science

"Never push off till tomorrow what you can push off till next week."

Ziggie is the more serious kind of student, but he loves sports, plays football, was a hurdler on the track team, and bowls. He hopes some day to bowl a perfect 300. He wants to take a course in aviation at college. The college to get Ziggie will be fortunate, for he is the kind of person who does good work. In a car Ziggie can spin around corners and miss telegraph poles with amazing ease.

ZIEGENFUSS, RUTH ARLENE "Ruthie"

Commercial

"To know her is to love her."

Ruthie is a quiet person until she gets acquainted, then—oh—then— Ruthie is distinguished by shining brown eyes, a pleasing smile, and a cheery Hello. She is an all-round good pal, always ready to help with problems.

Ruthie does not mind working if the work is not too long and tedious, but she is always looking forward to having good times. She loves skating, dancing and swimming, She intends to become a telephone operator.

Home Room Banker, 3.

ZIEGLER, HATTIE MAY "Hattie"

General

"She hitches her wagon to a Northern Star."

Hattie likes many things, and dislikes few. Among her likes she lists playing basketball, swimming, reading novels, and delightful people "who are fun." In fact about the only thing she doesn't like is plane geometry. She is interested in Girl Scouting, and is a lieutenant in her Troop. She wants above all things to visit Nova Scotia, but if she were given $1,000 to do with as she pleased, she'd "go to Nursing College to be a public health nurse."

ZIEGLER, HERMAN WARREN "Butch"

Commercial

"Eat, sleep, and be merry."

Butch takes a great pride in his caricatures and would like to get a job as a cartoonist one of these fine days. He likes baseball, football, and basketball.

ZIEGLER, MARJORIE GERALDINE "Margie"

General

"Music is for certain among us more than a pleasure."

Of course you've heard of Margie the Chatterbox. Those big blue eyes of hers just naturally attract the boys. Margie sings, though she plans to go to college to become a secretary. Singing secretaries are rare—she should be in demand. Or why not a Western Union singer?

German Club, 4; Chorus, 2, 3, 4; A Cappella Choir, 3, 4.

ZIMMERMAN, MARIAN "Mickey"

Retail Selling

"A cheerful temper joined with innocence will make beauty attractive, delightful and wit, good natured."

A friend, cheerful and lovable is Marian. There is never a dull moment when she is around. Marian is well known in most of our down town stores, and her quips about her store work are the delight of the Retail Selling Class. She enjoys riding elevators, going to movies, and carrying out the dares of her classmates. Marian's main ambition is "to be a good housewife," but meantime she is doing very well as a salesgirl, and could do just as well as a comedienne.

ZIMMERMAN, MARY EMMA "Mezzy"

College Preparatory

"Constant cheerfulness is a sign of wisdom."

We present Mezzy, a true friend, an interesting companion, and an all around good sport. Her agreeable disposition and constant laughter brighten any party. A great lover of dancing, of reading, and of music, Mezzy attends all the A. H. S. social functions. She plans to become a nurse, and her genial disposition and bright smile will be an asset to any hospital.

Speech, 3, 4; Dramatics, 3; Historical Society, 3; National Honor Society, 4.

ZURAWSKI, BRONISLAW "Bonzo"

Commercial

"Silence is always safe and is frequently the smartest thing we can say."

Bonzo is a happy-go-lucky booster of school activities. When it comes to getting something done, he can do it, if he makes up his mind. His hobbies are swimming and fishing; mostly swimming, because he likes to keep on the go. Bonzo means to be a flier. We told you he likes to keep in motion.

April Shower

Mysterious light signals flicker,
The rumbling cloud utters
A dry rasping cough,
And the soothing rain
Falls caressingly below.

Last Will and Testament

Be It Remembered that we, The Class of '41 of Allentown High School, in the State of Pennsylvania, being of sound mind, memory, and understanding and considering the uncertainity of life, do hereby make and publish this our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void any and all former wills by us at any time heretofore made.

First: We bestow upon the coming classes the sedate robe of seniority and sable cloak of potential knowledge which we have worn in this temple of culture.

Second: We give, devise,)nd bequeath, to the Canary and Blue, another award from Columbia.

Third: To the cafeteria, a supply of longer straws.

Fourth: To the incom!ng sophs, the courage to fight the bullying seniors.

Fifth: To the coming classes, all our deteriorated books.

Sixth: To the T-square Club, still greater success in the coming years.

Seventh: To the Varsity "A" Club—a medal.

Eighth: To study halls, comfortably padded chairs for sleepy students.

Ninth: To on-coming sophs, more elevator passes and locker permits.

Tenth: To tired students, escalators for reaching the fourth floor annex.

Eleventh: To all sophomore and junior girls, lockers equipped with mirrors.

Twelfth: To Mr. Weaver, a large collection of funny books for his leisure time.

Thirteenth: To chemistry students—gas masks and bomb shelters.

Fourteenth: To the school, a one-floor annex.

Fifteenth: To Mr. Weinsheimer, an autographed picture of the Quiz Kids.

Sixteenth: To any ragman, our old gym suits.

Seventeenth: To the French, French verbs.

Eighteenth: To the British, more power.

Nineteenth: To the Army, gym exercises.

Twentieth: To Mr. Zimmerman—electric chairs to revive day dreaming seniors.

Twenty-first: To Miss Mulock, her ideal school, "built for humans."

Twenty-second: To the school's list of honors, another championship swim team.

Twenty-third: To the class, the advice of Mr. Kressler, "Don't study till your hair turns gray." (Note double meaning)

Twenty-fourth: To the teachers, brilliant, obedient, cooperative classes.

Twenty-fifth To Mr. Weinsheimer, an all-girl class. (Mrs. Weinsheimer please note)

Twenty-sixth: To Mr. Weinsheimer, more candidates for Boston trips.

Twenty-seventh: To Miss Swope, more students who know French as we did—n't.

Twenty-eighth: To all students, classes in one building.

Twenty-ninth: To shop boys, lockers for their books during chow time.

Thirtieth: To a lucky junior, Joe O'Keefe's block and gavel.

Thirty-first: To Mr. Zimmerman, seniors with shorthand ability.

Lastly, we give, devise, and bequeath to all oncoming classes the memory of the class of '41, with the hope that they may always remember and cherish that memory long after we have departed from these halls.

AND LASTLY: We do make, constitute, and appoint the faculty to be Executor of this our last will and testament.

Joseph J O'Keefe Seal

President of Class '41

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we have hereunto subscribed our name, and affixed our seal, the seventeenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-one. Signed, sealed, published, and declared by the testator above named, as and for their last will and Testament, in the presence of us, who have at their request, subscribed our names in their presence, and in the presence of each other, as witnesses hereto.

Class Prophecy

DIARY OF FLOSSY FORTY-ONE

SUNDAY: Woke up just in time to catch the family bus for church. The Reverend Robert Garis gave a most enlightening sermon. Noticed Attorney Edward Ruhe in a front pew with all his little Ruhes and couldn't help admiring Kay Keeley's daring chapeau. After church I spoke with Edith Hagerman, home for the week-end from her illustrating job in Philadelphia, and Madaline Palladino, who is going places in the world of women's magazines.

At Doris Applegate's tea this afternoon I bumped into Barbara Mosser, animal M. D.; she seemed quite excited over her promotion in a New York veterinary hospital. Radio's newest harmony team, Lorraine Yorgey and Vivian Welty, sang.

MONDAY: Received an exciting-looking envelope postmarked India, the first news I've had from Missionary Dorothy Philips in months. Drove into town to pick up a darling Gloria Harwick creation for Jeanette Choma's luncheon next week. Had lunch at Emilie Hubb's Grille and hurried to the airport to meet Professor Wilton Hardy, just back from a lecture tour. I thought Chief Pilot Kenneth Poe looked quite the man in his aviator uniform and Stewardess Peg Kleppinger was easy on the eyes too.

Tonight Congo Room patrons swayed to the rhythms of John McGinley's Hepcats, and I saw movie scout Sidney Cohen take notes in his little black book when vocalist Jean Marquardt sang.

TUESDAY: At bridge with Barbara Strobel, Joyce Romberger, and Catherine McGee. Babs said she loved being a social worker. Catherine served a tasty lunch, thanks to a home economics course at college, and Joyce rushed away early for last minute trousseau shopping, lucky girl. Taxi Driver Bud Webster drove us home.

WEDNESDAY: The morning paper carries Representative Robert Yeager's picture, his latest bill having reached the U. S. Senate. Thought Ann Hurdell's gossip column particularly revealing today. Stopped for gas on my way into town and Leonard Dreisbach did a neat windshield-wiping job. Dropped into Frank Vargo's office, but he was out on new bridge construction assignment. There's an engineer going places!

THURSDAY: Made it a point to take in Davie Hackett, Jr.'s Aquacade at Cedar Beach. Woody Goheen and Marty Whittle do make a fine team. Spied Walt Krupka and Jim Buckley (those handsome lifeguards) sauntering by; how I envied their tans. Came back to town via Muhlenberg where Zeke Witwer was putting his football proteges through their paces. Bought a pair of evening slippers at Sam Grossman, Inc.

FRIDAY: To town again to pay bills. Kenny Jones grinned from behind his bank teller's window and I couldn't help grinning back at seeing vivacious Kenny in a cage. Paid my electric bill to clerk Marion Schell and nodded to Secretaries Claire Minnich, Mary Jane Hauser, and Sarah Mary Lewis on their way to lunch. It was an ideal afternoon for golf, and with a pro like Bob Ruhe, I couldn't help but improve my drive. Had my hair done at Ruth Hollenthoner's Beauty Shoppe. Before dropping off to sleep tonight, I heard Radio Commentator John Volinsky announce the naming of George Lieberman as Chief of the U. S. Navy Air Corps and Frederick Melber as his head photographer.

Class Prophecy

DIARY OF FLOSSY FORTY-ONE

SATURDAY: Looked in on a medical convention at the Americus where Marion Carroll, renowned child psychologist, expounded a new theory. Mary Brennan, chairman of the convention, had her hands too full of last minute details for much conversation, but she did say Dr. Martin Kaplan was scheduled for the main address this afternoon. Had lunch in the Grille with Horticulturist Marlowe Hartung, who was enthusiastic over a new plant he's been developing. Saw Richard Laudenslager talking shop with Thomas Sherer at a corner table.

On the Sky Terrace tonight, it was whispered about that Jane Schwartz's latest historical novel has been chosen as "Book of the Month." Nice going, Jane. Geraldine and Marilyn Miller, local secretaries, looked provokingly alike in cherry-red chiffon. Mary McClafferty was there too, not at all smug over her recently published book of verse which set the critics raving. Businessman Joe Ross reminded me of the reunion of the class of '41 next month. I wouldn't miss it for a million. It will be great seeing the old classmates again.

The Stone Quarry

A dirty clay road winds through a field—
Covered with tiny flowers, each like a piece of broken mirror
Reflecting a thousand times the deep blue of the sky.
The yellow path climbs up a man-made mountain.
From the hill spreads a majestic view cross-crountry,
But down one side in a deep abyss,
A hideous monster rears his ugly head,
A man's work of ugly lines and angles all gray.
Behind it rise gray mountains,
And before it stretch gray plains
Covered with tiny tracks like writhing worms—
All so gray, I wonder that each knows
Where it stops and the next thing begins.
And on the stony cliffs, Nature sees
Its bare, gray, suffering rocks and tries
To heal them with creeping grasses,
But man drills fresh holes and breaks
Again the wounds, while the cliffs roar
In deepest pain, and the whole earth shudders.

1942 Class History

The accustomed metamorphosis of a class calls for it to enter high school as meek and timid Sophomores, expand as Juniors, and mature into leadership as Seniors. But the Class of '42 is far from the usual, for in its Junior year it has already assumed a share of leadership far above the average accorded to underclassmen.

The class broke with convention in its Sophomore year by electing its first scholar, rather than its first athlete, as president. As a Junior class it shines in extra-curricular as well as in scholastic activities. Juniors form the backbone of the band and most of the clubs at High School. Several clubs have selected Juniors as presidents, a rare distinction.

It has been equally successful in social events. Its Junior Prom was the biggest the school has seen. Its class play, "The Green Ghost," was the most profitable play a Junior Class has ever sponsored.

The actors and atheletes of the class need no mention. Juniors play an ever-increasing role in school publications. The Junior class need not worry about the past or the present. If these stages indicate the future at all, it need not fret about things to come, for it need do little but amplify the activities which it already dominates.

The Junior class extends its best wishes to the departing upperclassmen, and acknowledges its many debts to them. The world needs all the grace and charm and talent they can give it.

1943 Class History

On September 3, 1940 we, the class of '43, approached nervously but happily our home of learning for the next three years, good old A. H. S. We entered its majestic doors and gravely, in a voice that suggested shyness, asked an upper classman if he would be so kind as to "direct me to the annex?" or asked, "Where is the swimming pool?" But we found that after we accustomed ourselves to our new environment, the lowly Sophomore could mingle with Seniors and make true and happy friendships.

The Sophomore class placed some of its members on the football, swimming, and basketball teams. We joined clubs, appeared on the stage in auditorium, contributed articles for the Canary, and tried in every way to distinguish ourselves. Then, too, many Sophomore boys took their first girl to a dance, the Junior Prom.

Led by our president, quiet but wise P. George Stavridis; Betty Wentz, vice-president; June Houseknecht; secretary; and Peter Kalandiak, our treasurer, we have cooperated to make the class of '43 one of the finest and best classes ever to enter A. H. S.

The Comus Staff

The Canary and the Comus

Each year the Canary staff takes on a different atmosphere, all its own. This year it was an atmosphere of quiet efficiency.

The Canary gets itself assembled, sent to the printer, proof-read, distributed, this year quietly and smoothly under the editorship of Madaline Palladino, whose quiet answer to all questions is always "Yes, that is done."

With Edward Ruhe, Jane Schwartz, and William Diehl always on hand with editorials; Mary McClafferty, Ann O'Neill, Jim Leiby, Cynthia Lawfer, and William Glase (Inspector Christman), always ready with a poem or a story; Marlowe Hartung, Joy Harter, William Brobst, and Stanley Ershler smelling out the news; William Kannehan, Charles Quinn, and Peter Kalandiak looking after sports; Raymond Rex and John Heinz to furnish extra features; Robert Gebbert and Angelo Giancarlo to touch it all up with cartoons and puzzles, and Robert Clewell to cast a printer's eye over the whole, the editor has always been sure of plenty of well-balanced material.

The Scooping Snoopers this year did a better job than usual in the matter of coverage under the leadership of Mr. Warren Fritsch. They apparently had hide-aways in every part of the building, and caught everyone in the candid camera of their observations.

· COMUS ·

The Comus Staff

When it came to the Comus, under the management of Jane Schwartz, with her flair for things artistic and literary, and her gracious assumption that of course everyone would do his assigned part enthusiastically and well, the material fairly fell into place.

Two Varsity "A" members, Edward Fenstermacher and James Weiss, were added to the Comus staff to take care of the sports record, and David Gottlieb was added to the regular Canary business staff, under the direction of Robert Yeager and William Gross.

In fairness the staff must here acknowledge the valiant and zestful service rendered by the journalism group, unhonored and unsung. They read copy, read proof, chased up last-minute biographies, supplied missing quotations, arranged the sketches in alphabetical order,—in short, got the book ready for the printers.

Quite as important was the service rendered by numberless typists, who, working under the direction of Miss Dietrich, typed all the copy ready for the printers. To these and to everyone else directly and indirectly responsible for the preparation of material, the staff here expresses its hearty thanks.

The committees working on the will, the prophecy, the calendar, were also of inestimable service to the staff members.

Canary Editor With Remaining Members of Canary Staff

Elusive

The brazen wind tugged at my hair as I
Struggled to gain the hill, stumbled forward
To find the world spreading wide in my gaze:—
Neat rows of trees, planted with care and patience,
And smaller rows of green, last winter's wheat;
Beyond, the disorder of some delicious wood,
Dark and deep and full of life's deep meaning.
Surveying it all, the setting sun, in a haze
Of reds and yellow, sank behind gray massive clouds.
This in silence—but for the rustling of dry branches by a quiet breeze.
But while I gazed, a thought
Like a harper's sudden stroke
Broke through the peace,
And the solution was mine!
Suddenly I knew I found the answers
To the world of whys!
And as I wondered at its all simplicity
And why I had not thought of it before,
Its smooth outlines slipped my grasp,
And I clutched wildly to catch it.
But it was gone—gone, only the line
Of never-ending questions remained.
How long I stood, I do not know,
But when my dream-like trance
Released my mind, the crescent moon
Curved a cunning, roquish smile,
And one lone star dimpled the cheek
Of solitary night.

J. Birney Crum

Recognized as one of the greatest high school coaches in the United States today, J. Birney Crum has in his fifteen years as head coach of football, basketball, and baseball at Allentown High School, chalked up an enviable record in the sports annals of A. H. S. As friend, adviser, and coach of many boys, Mr. Crum has turned out scores of champions, great athletes, and greater gentlemen. The class of 1941 wishes Coach Crum the best of luck and many more years of successful service at Allentown High School.

THOMAS J. BRENNAN

WILLIAM BREISCH

A. H. S. Coaches

TOM BRENNAN—For twelve years Tom Brennan has molded blocks of granite out of green material for the A. H. S. line. Every lineman will always remember Tom Brennan for his sportsmanship and fighting spirit. As a coach, friend, and counselor, he has no equal. A good football team must have a good line and for years Tom Brennan has seen to it that A. H. S. has only the best of forward walls.

BILL BREISCH—No team is complete without a trainer, and Bill Breisch supplies this for the A. H. S. teams. Whenever an athlete is hurt Bill is the one to see. As a doctor, trainer, and groundkeeper of the gridiron, there is none better.

PAUL CLYMER—In a decade of service at Allentown High, Pauley Clymer, coach of track and assistant coach of football and basketball, has helped to turn out our championship teams. It is his eagle eye that picks out the flaws in other teams thereby helping us to win. His coaching wizardry has long been respected and acknowledged by other high school coaches.

J. MILO SEWARDS—This year two new young assistant coaches have been added to the staff, one of whom is Milo Sewards. During his first year as a coach at Allentown High, Milo Sewards has won the respect, friendship, and admiration of every A. H. S. athlete. Milo is sure to rise in the coaching world and become a leading figure in athletics at high school.

KENNETH WILDONGER—Another newcomer to the A. H. S. coaching staff is Kenneth Wildonger. Ken, who graduated from Allentown High School some years back and who played football under Birney Crum, is schooled in our tradition. His first year as coach of the Jay Vee football team proved highly successful; his team lost only one game. Ken Wildonger is well liked and is sure to be a great success as a coach at Allen High.

PAUL K. CLYMER

J. Milo Sewards

Kenneth Wildonger

A. H. S. Coaches

RALPH V. WETHERHOLD—Mr. Wetherhold, the man behind the sports scenes, is one of the busiest men at high school. As faculty manager, Ralph Wetherhold has charge of arranging the sports schedules, handling the finances, and worrying about everything coming out all right. Our hats are off to him for the fine work he has been doing.

DAVID HACKET—Dave Hacket, our jovial swimming instructor, is known throughout the country as one of the best of high school swimming coaches. His teams have been the envy of high schools all over the state. Under Mr. Hacket's direction scores of state and national champions have been produced. His pupils have made names for themselves at many of our leading colleges and prep schools. All this can be attributed to Dave Hacket's great knowledge of swimming, his jolly spirit, and his patience as a coach.

RUSSELL KNAUSS—Mr. Knauss, known as "Tush" to every boy at high school, is coach of the gym team and tennis squad. Under his supervision the tennis team has won the league championship every year. The form, grace, and precision of his gym team in their annual exhibition has long been an established tradition at Allentown High School.

MISS MIRIAM BOYER—If ever high school had a good gym team, it has one this year. And credit for the girls' gym team goes to Miss Boyer, whose co-operation and willingness to work has made the team possible. Miss Boyer has gone farther; she has not only organized the inter-class teams in volley-ball, but has given her services to the cheering squad in a way that has added zest and enthusiasm to all the major sports events.

MISS HELEN NOBLE—To Miss Noble goes the credit of having built up an interest in tennis among the girls. She has also extended the girls' participation in hockey, ping-pong, and badminton. In fact, there is no limit to the sports to which she has introduced the girls of the school. And they in turn appreciate Miss Noble's careful attention to their well-being.

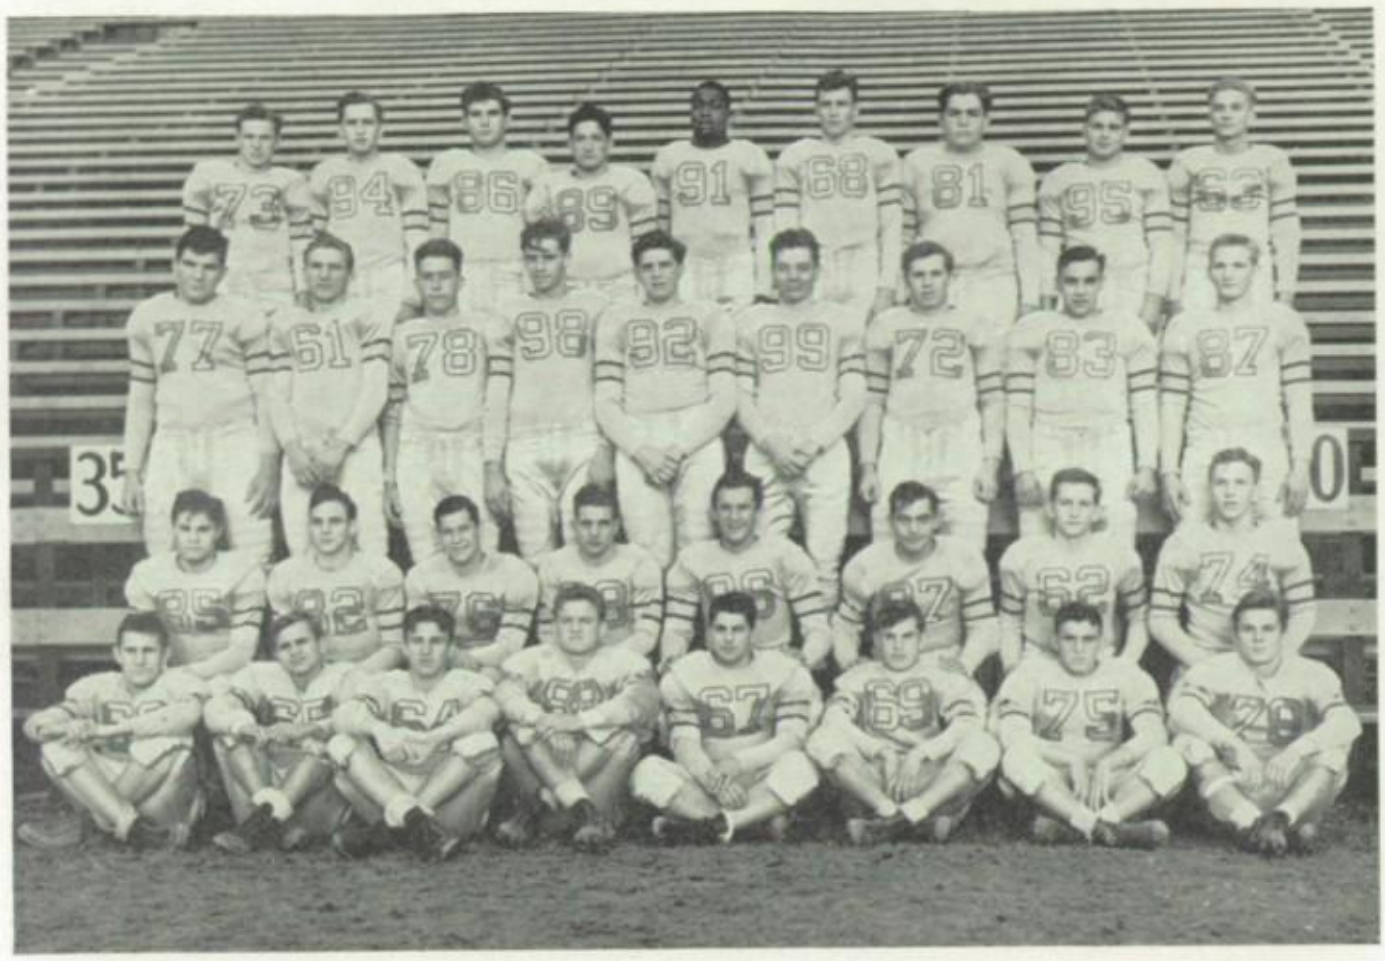
A. H. S. Cheerleaders

The cheerleaders—the yellbirds, the hellcats of A. H. S. Palestras, auditoriums, and banquet halls rang with their fiery cheers. No football game, no basketball game went by without these fugitives-from-a-jitterbug-joint being there doing the Saint-Vitus dance. With their able leadership how could fans help yelling themselves hoarse.

Ora Heimbach and Mary Dent did a swell job as captains, and really kept the gang in shape. We have to hand it to these snappy rah-rah-lungers.

To higher institutions of learning we send Mary Dent, Barbara Strobel, Joyce Romberger, Caroline Reinhardt, Jeanne Fetherolph, Ora Heimbach, Dick Hoffman, and Ken Jones. High school keeps Bobby Erick to use next year.



1940 Football Squad

Who's Who of the 1940 Football Squad

Bud Webster—the brains of the 1940 team. Bud and his brilliant kicks were a determining factor in many games.

Joe Gallina—Hard hitting, hard-tackling, hard-blocking fullback of the A. H. S. team.

Fred Werley—All-round backfield ace, can kick, run, and pass with the best of them.

Al Bauer—Veteran guard, notable in both offensive and defensive play.

Jack Ferry—Brilliant first string center, classy defensive backer-up. Shines especially on pass defense.

Joe "Shamokin" Smith—One of Allentown's greatest tackles. Puts fire and fight into his team-mates in the line.

Warren McNabb—Fleet-footed halfback who added razzle-dazzle to the Canary attack.

Bob Numbers—Stellar lineman. His defensive play highlighted every game of the season.

"Stonewall" Jackson—Fastest runner on the team, alternating at end and halfback.

Ken Moyer—Lanky end, had a fancy system of pulling passes out of the air.

Jim Weiss—Dependable reserve ball-carrier. Could play any position in the backfield.

Bob Mirth—Accurate place-kicker. A hard-charging lineman who won All-state honorable mention.

· COMUS ·

Neal Kern—A mainstay of the A. H. S. line. Played brilliant ball in every game of the season.

Charley Curtis—Hard-charging end, a "killer" on and off the field.

"Reds" Fenstermacher—Big Red, a good offensive and defensive end.

Fritz Eisenhart—Dependable reserve for either tackle or guard. Sure to see plenty of action next year.

"Chubby" Grider—An able field general, small but a good blocker and tackler.

Bob Lear—One of the hardest-charging fellows in the A. H. S. line. Played great football at end or guard position.

Leonard "Slim" Dreisbach—Big 240 pound tackle, a one-man line.

Zeke Witwer—Alternated with Ferry at the center position. Shone especially in the defense.

Kermit Scott—Small but mighty ball-carrier in Allentown's backfield.

Bill Kuzman—Able reserve end. A good blocker and tackler.

Fred Snyder—Promising sophomore, sure to see plenty of action at tackle within the next two years.

Bill Domonkas—Big end, a good pass receiver and hard tackler. Bill Domonkas

John McGinley—Classy center. A terrific tackler on defense.

"Red" Ebelhauser—Although not a starter, Red always gave all he had.

Charley Karaman—Moxy Karaman never knew the word quit.

"Bucky" Wilhelm—Hard-hitting halfback who was always in there fighting.

Eddie Bortz—The Cetronia Wildcat, a flashy new-comer to the A. H. S. backfield.

Ray Whispell—One hundred fifty pounds of dynamite.

1940 Football Season in Review

The year 1940 marked one of Allentown High's greatest football seasons. Aided by the addition of two new young coaches schooled in the traditions of Allentown High, the team went through the season with eight victories, two defeats, and one tie. The fine school spirit on the part of the students, and the additional magic touch of twelve stunning majorettes, along with our fine band, helped to give an extra touch to every sport and to inspire the teams to victory.

NESQUEHONING

The Allentown High School warriors got off to a fine start by scoring an impressive 20-0 victory over a scrappy Nesquehoning eleven in the first night game of the season at Coffield Stadium.

Jackson, McNabb, and Gallina showed great promise.

SCRANTON TECH

A newcomer on Allen High's schedule handed the Canaries their first defeat, 6-0. A sensational 60-yard run by Wilson of Scranton produced the only touchdown of the game. Allentown launched a terrific aerial attack in the last period, but to no avail.

ERIE TECH

Another newcomer, however, from the western part of the state, was completely annihilated by the Canaries, 40-6. Long runs for touchdowns, ranging from 90 to 25 yards, were made by Jackson, Webster, and McNabb. Erie's only touchdown was made after Birney Crum substituted his Jay Vees.

TRENTON

Scoring two touchdowns early in the first half and staunchly protecting their lead thereafter, Allentown scored a 15-6 victory over the Red and White of Trenton. Werley and McNabb were the touchdown twins for the Canaries, while Ferry secured the only safety of the game by blocking a kick which rolled out of the end zone.

READING

Traveling to Reading for their first day-game, the Allentown Canaries were handed their first Big Fifteen defeat, 18-0. Missbach of Reading was a thorn in Allentown's side all afternoon.

PHILLIPSBURG

Held scoreless in the first half by a scrappy Phillipsburg eleven, the Canaries finally got started when Jackson made a beautiful 28-yard touchdown run. A few plays later Jackson again scored, and with Mirth making good both conversions, the final score was 14-0.

POTTSVILLE

Led by Big Joe Gallina, the Allentown team scored two touchdowns and a safety for a 14-0 victory over Pottsville's Maroons. Two sustained marches by the Canaries, with Gallina doing most of the carrying, resulted in the two scores.

FREELAND

In the last night game of the season a highly favored Canary team romped to a 32-0 victory on a rain-soaked field. Every player on Allentown's squad saw action, saving the Varsity for the harder games yet to come.

EASTON

In one of the most exciting games of the season the Allentown High Canaries completely outplayed a strong Easton team and came home with a 6-0 victory. A pass from Werley to Numbers was good for the only touchdown of the game.

WILLIAM PENN

Traveling to Harrisburg for the second last game of the season the Crum-boys won a 13-6 victory in a tuneup for the all important Bethlehem clash.

BETHLEHEM

On a snow covered gridiron before 12,000 thrill-maddened spectators an underdog Allentown High team battled to a scoreless deadlock with an unbeaten, untied Bethlehem team in this traditional Turkey Day clash. The brilliant defensive play of the A. H. S. line was a determining factor in this moral victory for Allentown High.

1940-41 Basketball Squad

Who's Who of 1940-41 Cage Squad

Fritz Sandt—Swift and speedy forward who is always in there scrapping. His one-hand push-shots have netted Allentown many points.

Willie Stellar—One of the best offensive men Allentown has ever had. This is Willie's third year on the Varsity, and they will certainly miss him next year.

Bill Hushkek—Bill is a good set-shot artist. He is always in there scrapping, and is a dependable man for getting the ball off the banking-board.

Moon Haney—Moon is one of the best ball handlers on the team. His consistent scoring kept the Canaries rolling all season.

Johnny Grainer—Johnny has brought back something to Allentown which we have not seen for a long time. That is following up the other fellow's shots by tapping the ball in. Johnny also plays a good floor game and has been a consistent scorer all year.

Joe O'Keefe—Joe does not score many points, but his guarding makes up for it. In all the tight games this year Joe's guarding was one of the spectacular features.

Eddie Bortz—One of the fastest men on the squad. A great floorman who sparks the passing attack.

Clarence Hoehle—A big six-footer who is always ready for action. A good man for following up.

Bob Bender—Bob always played his heart out for the team. He excelled at a forward position.

Jim Weiss—Good defensive guard. Always in there doing his best.

· COMUS ·

Ken Moyer—Big six-foot lad who saw most of his action at center on the Jay Vees. He also saw a lot of acticn on the Varsity games.

Pete Sass—A man who could always be depended upon when the team needed points.

Bob Freed—Bob paced the Junior Varsity team in scoring, and is a good guard.

Jack Ferry—Jack is a peach of a guard. Jack plays mostly on the Junior Varsity but we expect to see plenty of action from him next year.

Mike Chomik—Also played on the Junior Varsity team. He is only a sophomore, so we shall see plenty of action from him in the next two years.

Roger Graver—Flashy little forward on the Jay Vee team. Most likely he will be one of the mainstays of next year's team.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL TEAM

1940-41 Basketball Season in Review

EMMAUS

The Canaries opened their season by trimming Emmaus 28-12. The Canaries were never headed, and the team worked well as a whole, with no individual stars.

TRENTON

A lucky one-handed shot by Carlton, the Trenton center, enabled Trenton to nose out Allentown 28-27 in one of the most thrilling games ever seen on the Allentown court.

WILLIAMSPORT

A fast-breaking sharpshooting team from Williamsport handed the Canaries their second defeat of the season. Captain Willie Stellar led the Allentown attack with 11 points.

NORTHAMPTON

In the annual Eye-glass Fund Game Allentown completely out-played the Konkrete Kids to a 46 to 18 victory. Allentown played remarkably well on the defense, by not allowing their opponents to score a single field goal in the first quarter.

TAMAQUA

The Canaries, playing the initial game in Eastern Pennsylvania League competition, completely overwhelmed the Blue Raiders of Tamaqua by a 47-25 score. Moon Haney, substitute forward, led the Allentown scoring with ten points.

NESQUEHONING

In an independent game, with Coach Crum using his substitutes freely, Allentown defeated Nesquehoning 41-20. Although his team lost, Fedock of Nesquehoning led the scoring with eleven points.

· COMUS ·

BETHLEHEM

Continuing in their quest for the championship of The Eastern Pennsylvania League, Allentown traveled over to Bethlehem and pulled out a thrilling 24-22 victory. Moon Haney again led the scoring with eight points.

PHILLIPSBURG

Allentown, continuing their fine brand of ball, decisively whipped Phillipsburg 28-23 on the Allentown court. Although his team lost, Captain Craig of Phillipsburg led the scoring with thirteen points.

HAZLETON

Allentown's hopes for a first half championship were severely jolted when Hazleton defeated them 31-25 on the Hazleton court. Billy Smith took scoring honors with nine points.

WILLIAMSPORT

Allentown's Canaries avenged an early season defeat by displaying a fine brand of ball in defeating Williamsport 42-35 in a high-scoring game. Fritz Sandt and Bill Hushkek each led the scoring with twelve points.

POTTSVILLE

The Canaries after having a bad first half came back and defeated Pottsville in a close game 36-29. Captain Willie Stellar led the Allentown scoring with ten points.

EASTON

The Canaries again got off to a decidedly bad start and were behind 21-12 when the first half ended. Then Moon Haney was inserted in the line-up, and Allentown spurted to win the game 37-32. Moon Haney and Johnny Grainer led the scoring with ten points each.

TRENTON

Allentown, having traveled to Trenton, was again defeated by a 23-20 score. The Canaries could not seem to get going in the game, and Trenton had the lead all the way.

TAMAQUA

Having lost the first half championship to Hazleton, the Canaries started gunning for the second half championship by handily defeating Tamaqua 37-27. Johnny Grainer, again playing a superb game, led the scoring with ten points.

BETHLEHEM

Allentown, displaying a dazzling offense, easily whipped a supposedly difficult Bethlehem team by a 47-19 score. Fritz Sandt was high scorer with thirteen points.

LOWER MERION

In a sizzling game at Lower Merion, the Canaries pulled ahead in the last quarter to beat Lower Merion 35-32. This was a great victory under Allentown's belt, because this was only the second defeat of the season for a great Lower Merion team.

HAZLETON

Avenging an early season defeat at the hands of Hazleton, Allentown just about finished Hazleton's hopes for the second half by defeating them 29-22. Allentown started a bit slow with the score 14-14 at the half, but they came back strong with a last period rally which clinched the game.

READING

Reading putting on a terrific last quarter pulled out a 41-33 victory over the Canaries. The Canaries had tough luck on their shots all night, and could never seem to get going. Giles of Reading led the scoring with 17 points.

Track Team

The 1941 Track Season

Allentown High track team, coached by Pauley Clymer, is noted throughout the state for its fine athletes. The boys who represent A. H. S. on the cinder track are all champions to be justly proud of. To earn a position on the track team a candidate must place in the interclass meet. The position is his then until somebody beats him.

1940-41 Swimming Team

Resume of 1940-41 Swimming

As usual Coach Dave Hacket has turned out another swell swimming team. The relay team, consisting of such brilliant performers as Fegley, Shollenberger, Poh, and Buckley; the hair-raising speed of Goheen, Turner, Adams, and Keenan; the grace and form of the state diving king, Jackie Solar, all combined to keep up the swimming tradition of A. H. S.

In the opening meet of the season, the Canary mermen lost to a strong Blair Academy team by a 40-26 count.

The Trenton paddlers nosed out the Hacket proteges 35-31 in the closest meet of the year.

Traveling to Mercersburg the A. H. S. team took a 48-18 ducking from a far more experienced Mercersburg team.

In the first league meet of the season, the Canaries outshone a plucky Reading team 36-30.

Another victory was chalked up when the Canary and Blue paddlers defeated Lancaster 40-26.

Led by Jackie Solar, who put on a dazzling performance in winning the diving event the Hacket coached-men beat Hershey 46-20.

Winning only two events, the Canary tankmen took a 24-42 ducking from the York swimmers.

Again the Canary mermen defeated Reading, this time to the tune of 44-22.

· COMUS ·

The Trenton jinx showed up again, and the Canary paddlers were beaten 19-47 by a powerful Red and White team.

The Canary swimmers registered a 39-27 victory over the Mountaineers of Hazleton.

The Allentown High mermen, on a two day tour of the South, took the first of their two encounters by defeating Tome School 52-14.

The Hacket men took a 40 to 26 swamping from Massanutten Academy. Adams however, chipped off four-tenths of a second from the Allentown High 100 yd. breaststroke record, thereby lowering it to 1:14.6.

The Allentown swimmers closed their regular season with a 38-28 victory over Hazleton as Goheen, Adams, Levan, and Solar registered first place positions.

Jackie Solar, another great diving ace developed by Coach Hacket, far outshone other competition and walked away with the state P. I. A. A. crown at State College.

Lost World

I walk in a dusty rain—each glistening drop
A jewel, a golden note of fairest beauty;
I see a spray of cherry blooms, all white,
Who call my name and beckon soft to me
With fragile petal fingers, gently curved,
Whisper soft my name and call to me,
"Away, away, come far away, away!"
Up we soar in graceful dipping flight
Like a bird stretching to kiss a star;
And they open for me a door, the portal
To my childish fancy, my idle dreams—
A world of flowing joy and happiness—
Of floating clouds in lofty skies, music
Enraptured diffused in paths of sparkling color,
Where ideals are truths unspoiled by hollow words
And empty thoughts of disillusioned men.
But strange! It does not seem the same to me—
Has something changed, or is it I that have?
Something is lost, that thread of understanding.
My innocence has gone and in its stead
The world has given me my share of grief
And sadness to be borne—I find my world—
The key to fantasy is not lost, but now
No longer do I find myself a part
Of it, I come now as a stranger visiting.

Boys' Gym Team

This year the Boys' Gym Club had a very short period of time to prepare an exhibition, but cooperation between the Boys' Gym Club and the Girls' Gym Club resulted in one of the finest indoor circuses that has ever been produced. Complicated and intricate work on the parallel bars, the horizontal bar, and the mats thrilled everyone.

The opening number in the exhibition was a free hand drill presented by the Boys and Girls' Gym Teams. The drill was the result of long practice and hard work.

Comedy acts by Jones, Jarrett, and Wood pleased the specators, as did the roller-skating act by Missmer and Teir, and the adagio act by Gifford, Buck, and Badel. Every member of the team took an active part in the work.

The final number was a pyramid act by the boys, combined with a flag drill by the girls.

The elected captain of the boys' team was Fred Batarick and co-captain was Donald Peters. All seniors who served two or more years on the Gym Team received medallions from Russell J. "Tush" Knauss in recognition of their interest in the work.

Girls' Gym Team

The Girls Gym Club this year has been most successful. It had a membership of twenty-six girls who took a large part in the annual exhibition. Under the capable direction of Miss Boyer, the club put on a wonderful performance. The girls put everything they had into making the exhibition go over, and there was no grumbling about coming in for practice. In the acrobatic acts, drills, and dances, poise, grace and talent were shown. Awards were received by the seniors who had been members of the club two or more years.

The seniors are sorry that they can not be in the exhibition next year, because they had so much fun this year. After many weeks of hard work, the members enjoyed a spring picnic. All the senior members wish the best of everything to the gym club in years to come.

A. H. S. Band

"The man that hath no music in his soul
Is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils."

The Allentown High School Band, consisting, besides the musicians, of drum majorettes, has added another year of noteworthy achievement to its proud record. It has contributed to both athletic and civic occasions and has made its annual concert an event to be remembered.

The director, Mr. Harvey Prescott, has been with the band many years and will be, we hope, for a long time to come, for he has made the band what it is today—one of the finest high school bands in the state.

A. H. S. Orchestra

One of the most important and most appreciated organizations in the school is the orchestra under the direction of hard-working Harvey Prescott. With hearty cooperation from the members Mr. Prescott trained a splendid group of young musicians in which we can readily pride ourselves. Though not so showy as the band, the orchestra has furnished the music that gave our class plays and assembly programs a professional formal touch.

To those members graduating may we wish a successful modulation into a career where the chords of life will always be harmonious.

A Little House

I want a little house
With green shutters,
And pansies round the gate.
I want the birds to build
Their nests under the eaves
So I can hear their
Six A. M. and Six P. M.
Chatter.
I want flowers at the windows,
A sunny kitchen with
A red kettle whistling on the stove.
I want a fireplace
With two Morris chairs—
One for me
And one for you.

Note: I wouldn't mind a Cadillac or two in the garage, either.

The Chorus

For the first time in the history of our school appeared the Allentown High School Girls' Chorus, under the direction of Dr. Warren F. Acker. Beginning the second week in September of each year, the chorus of two hundred voices practices one afternoon a week. As the time for the concert approaches, the chorus rehearses several times a week to put on the finishing touches so that on the evening of the performance the finished product is sung with perfection.

The annual concert was held Thursday, January 23, 1941, in the High School auditorium. One-half of the program consisted of organ selections by talented Jeanne Waller and violin selections by accomplished Robert Karol. The remainder of a most enjoyable evening included the presentation of Henry Smart's cantata, King Rene's Daughter, sung by the group of girls directed by Dr. Acker and accompanied by Florence Glaser.

A Garden

A garden is a lovely thing!
A place for people's hearts to sing;
For those who work 'tis willing sod
To teach more secrets of their God;
For those who rest within its shade
To linger there till they have prayed;
For those who seek its quiet peace,
Life's worries and temptations cease.
Think of the joy that it can bring—
A garden is a lovely thing!

A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella Choir, again under the direction of Dr. Warren F. Acker, has completed a year full of engagements and fun. Besides the annual concerts the choir sang for Governor James at the Chamber of Commerce meeting, and at the Boy Scout Jamboree with Kate Smith as a guest. There was also the concert on May 8 and the broadcast in New York.

Every year the choir alumni come back to Dr. Acker to tell him how they would like to be still in the choir. There are times when the choir is in an uproar because of some untimely remark by the boys or some expression on Dr. Acker's face. There was Marjorie Ziegler usually siezed by the giggles in the middle of a duet, or Andrew Marone laughing a little too loud at the rehearsals, or Jimmy Dickert the last one in the rush to rehearsals.

Besides having a good time there was much hard work preparing to make each concert a good one. Every choir member looks with gratitude on the fine musical training he received under the expert management of a director and friend, Dr. Acker.

We could scarcely conclude the account of the chorus and the choir without noting here, at the end of Dr. Acker's twenty-five years of service to the high school, some of the highlights of those years.

Dr. Acker came in the spring of 1916 to Allentown High School, where he has ever since proved a real friend not only to his music students and the members of the choir and chorus, but to all his associates. He was engaged at first just to organize a chorus to sing at the dedication of the Allentown High School. In the fall of that year, his duties really began. He conducted a chorus and orchestra until 1933, when Mr. Harvey Prescott was engaged to conduct the orchestra and band. Dr. Acker had started the band in 1925, and conducted it the first four years of its existence until Mr. Alburtis Meyers, director of the Allentown Band, became its conductor.

His first assistant was Mrs. Carrie Seip, who afterwards taught at the Raub Junior High School. Later assistants were Mr. F. Anthony Viaggiano, now director of music at the Commerce High School in Springfield, Massachusetts, and Mr. John Weinsheimer, now band and orchestra leader at the Raub Junior High School.

Every year the A. H. S. chorus has given some choral work, usually accompanied by the school orchestra, or sometimes only with piano and organ accompaniment. "The high spot of these performances," says Dr. Acker, "was the presentation of the opera, Martha, assisted by four soloists from the Metropolitan Opera, two of them graduates of A. H. S.: Louise Lerch, soprano; Dorothea Flexer, contralto; Armand Lokatyan, tenor; and Lion Rothier, bass. The following year the same quartet of soloists, with the chorus sang Verdi's Requiem in Latin."

When Dr. Acker was relieved of the direction of the orchestra he organized the A Cappella Choir, which has brought honor not only to the school but to the city, in an annual broadcast over a national chain of stations. On Dr. Acker's desk are congratulatory letters from all parts of the United States.

Among the students who have gone out into the music world during the twenty-five years Dr. Acker has been at Allentown High School are, besides Louise Lerch and Dorothea Flexer, Vera Weikel, soprano; Lillian Marchetto, contralto; Wellington Ezekial, bass; Matilda Ferri, soprano; Barbara Ellen Bastian, soprano; Anna Louise Fritsch, soprano; Ann Seagreaves, contralto; Martha Schantz Rambo, soprano; and La Rue Schock, mezzo-soprano. Of the instrumentalists there are Donald Voorhees, violinist and conductor; Ralph Kemmerer, pianist; Arthur Sussman, French horn; Virginia Wirth, pianist; Mrs. Miriam Keech, pianist, and Warren Benfer of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra.

As head of the music department, Dr. Acker says, "At first, the music course was mostly appreciation and was compulsory only for domestic science students, while others could elect it. Soon there was a demand for classes in piano, voice, and theory. During the years the course has changed frequently, until now there is a flexible and cultural course, all elective. The subjects include sight-singing, music history, ear-training, piano, voice, appreciation, harmony, and current events in music. Graduates of the music course each year rate high in the music departments of the colleges and universities to which they go.

"One of the chief features at one time was the group-singing in assembly periods. When the school wasn't too large the students could be seated in voice parts. Among their finest and happiest recollections, many graduates say, is that old group-singing in the auditorium."

It is a good twenty-five year achievement—this work of Dr. Acker's in the music department of the High School.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society, under the able sponsorship of Mr. Allam, is, as its name implies, a group composed of those members of the Senior class thought worthy by their teachers of membership in the society.

After Vic Schmidt calls the society to order and the interminable roll call of ninety-six members is taken, the meeting every other Wednesday after school, gets under way with committee reports and suggestions for new activities—Eddie Ruhe with his committee corelating extra curricular activities; Sidney Cohen, later Richard Harrier, and the Hobby Show; Madaline Palladino renovating assembly programs; Stanley Zeeman reporting discussions of the homework situation with Mr. Richardson; Luther Loch and his search for a larger room for the meetings; Robert Yeager's Information Please program for assembly; and last but not least, Mr. Allam reporting the triumphant progress of the clinic which volunteer student teachers of the society sponsor for any students desiring help.

About four o'clock somebody makes a motion to adjourn, and with persuasion some one else is found to second it. This does not end the discussion carried on by departing members as they stroll along through the deserted halls and out the doors.

Orotan Debating Society

Organized with the intention of furthering the conception of logic, fostering the cause of debating, and promoting good fellowship, the Orotan Debating Society is a most vital part of Allentown High School extra curricular activities. Under the capable supervision of Mr. Waller, who, by the way, rarely gets a chance to speak because of Wilton Hardy's ponderous explanations, the club has had many interesting discussions on various subjects.

After the meeting has been called to order by Eddie Ruhe, and Dave Gottlieb has tried to prove the pen mightier than the sword, Sidney Cohen and Martin Brossman have a heated talk on different subjects. Lido Iacocca and Bill Kanehann then interrupt to announce the next school event for which they have tickets to sell, while Jim Leiby and Bob Yeager are off in a corner. By this time Mr. Waller tells Al Jenkins, Jack Tuberty, George Gordin, Frank Golden, and John Heinz that a beet is not a flower and the meeting adjourns.

Latin Club

Gallia est omnis divisa in tres partes. Quo usque tandem abutere, Catilina, patentia nostra? Arma virumque cano. Caesar, Cicero, and Virgil; three immortal figures of history, whose works have so influenced certain Canaries in the Allentown High School that the Latin Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Fritsch and Mr. Schmoyer, has taken a prominent place among the clubs of the school. The club meets bi-monthly, when educational and entertaining programs are carried out, which include the reading of a Latin newspaper "Acta Diurna." If these Canaries have anything to say about it, the grandeur that was Rome shall never die.

German Club

The magnificent old Germany of the "Gemutlichkeit" has always occupied a high place in the history of the arts and sciences. The German Club has made the culture of this old Germany its field of investigation. To accomplish this task the club was divided into four groups which concentrated on the fields of science, music, literature, and history.

The club members were required to have an average of eighty-five; and, in addition a genuine interest and willingness to work. They will always be grateful for the able and generous assistance of their sponsor, Mr. Leroy Allam.

Christmas time brought the highlight of our programs for the year. The usual festivities were doubly enjoyed when a joint celebration of the French and German Clubs was held.

The result of the work this year is abundant learning and unforgettable enjoyment. We shall always remember our frantic attempts to halt Sidney Cohen's twenty minute discussions; the flat notes of the bass section that tried to sing soprano will always ring in our ears.

Le Cercle Francais

Those who address the French Club in French never know how much the audience has understood, for a more polite group can hardly be found. They have listened to, and participated in programs on French history, music, and art. A joint Christmas program of French and German Clubs was program chairman Edward Ruhe's brainchild, and a highly acceptable one, too. A chorus which sang French Christmas Carols in four parts was even rustled up for the occasion. Miss Swope succeeded in getting Dr. Corbiere, of Muhlenberg, to address the Club. So there was a real Frenchman, speaking about the life of La Fontaine, and in French.

Edward Ruhe, Miss Swope, and Shirley Levy are continually pondering over anything from changing meeting rooms because the band drowns out the speakers to the problem of how to transport a huge portfolio of French Art. Perhaps the greatest feat of these three was getting most of the members together at one spot, at one time, to have this picture taken.

Commercial Club

The Commercial Club was formed for the purpose of promoting interest and research in the study and development of all subjects pertaining to modern business.

The aim of the club is to become acquainted and to co-operate with business men in the community, and to help them at any time by supplying them with students who are capable in commercial pursuits.

Admission to the club requires an average of 85 per cent in the Commercial Course. The organization meets once a month at the homes of the club members.

Because of the untiring efforts of Mr. Edgar Rabenold, the faculty adviser, the club has been unusually successful in all its undertakings.

Historical Society

Under the able direction of Mr. Boyer, the Historical Society of Allentown High School, which was organized by the class of '36, has already progressed far, and promises to have a bright future.

It is great fun to know about the founding of Allentown and to visit its scenic spots, many of which have been recorded on color film by Mr. Boyer. Normally ordinary historical facts become highly fascinating through the semi-monthly meetings of this club.

These meetings include many interesting hours devoted to tramping the nearby hillsides, visiting historical spots, and listening to informal discussions by members of the faculty and student bodies.

Included in their list of projects is a pictorial scrapbook of the history of Allentown, a collection of essays on "Historical Allentown," a radio program, and an auditorium program.

Printers Club

Under the able supervision of Mr. Robert A. Mellman, the Printer's Club has helped the members acquire a greater knowledge of the printing industry, and has heightened interest in the trade of printing. The club this year visited various printing establishments, the high spot being a trip to Washington, D. C., where it toured the Government Printing offices.

The meetings are more than just a meeting where someone makes a remark and then someone else orates. The members learn to do things which are not included in their regular class work. For instance, at one meeting they rebound the covers of Sunday School books, thereby getting actual experience in repair binding.

This organization will turn out better printers. It will, in years to come, build up a bigger membership and service, and will solve successfully the many problems presented to it.

"T" Square Club

The purpose of the "T" Square Club is to promote interest in the subject of architectural and mechanical drafting, design and general school activities.

Meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month, at which time members discuss developments in mechanical and architectural fields.

Once a year a meeting is held at the Y. M. C. A. Several prominent executives of local industry as well as former members serve as speakers. After the meeting of an educational as well as an entertaining nature, refreshments are served.

In the Spring a picnic is held, at which time a baseball game between the architectural and mechanical groups is played. After the game there is plenty to eat for all.

Although the club was inactive for a year, it has been reorganized, and, through the cooperation of sponsors, officers, and members, it has enjoyed a successful year.

Varsity "A" Club

The Varsity "A" club of Allentown High School is composed of forty of the outstanding athletes in the school who have earned a varsity letter in highschool sports.

The Varsity "A" club was suggested by one of the high school coaches, J. Milo Sewards, who received valuable assistance from Mr. Benjamin Kane, boys' adviser.

This organization has done much in reducing the number of delinquencies at the high school, as well as keeping the school spirit in the student body high.

The Varsity "A" club will lose some of its members upon graduation, but this will not stop the organization from growing to even greater heights in the year to come.

Much of this could not have been done if it were not for that young, active, genial coach, Mr. Sewards. The school compliments him and the club for their fine work.

Girl Reserves

Girl Reserves, a sub-division of the Y. W. C. A., helps to create a better friendship and understanding among the young people through fellowship and service. The council consists of two representatives from each club in the Girl Reserve department who, meet once a month to discuss plans for the betterment of their individual clubs.

This year is an especially important one for the Girl Reserves, for it is the sixtieth anniversary of their organization. Every community in the United States will participate in the celebration of this anniversary.

Girl Reserves is as active as it is important. Its social functions consisted this year of: Horse-Shoe Hop, World Fellowship Scavenger Hunt, Cruise Party, Setting Up Conference, Sophomore Rally, and the important celebration of the Sixtieth Anniversary.

There is a summer and winter conference yearly. This year the Girl Reserves held their winter Conference at Scranton, Pa., and representatives from Allentown who were sent there, came back with more new ideas for the continual success of the Girl Reserves.

Credit for the success of the Allentown Girl Reserves belongs to Miss Marion L. Grider, the Girl Reserve Secretary.

How to Write a Familiar Essay

There are only two things to remember in writing a familiar essay. One is, to choose a subject that has probably never been used before; the other is, to allow your brain to indulge in the wildest fancies. Ordinary fancies will not do. The bugbear of every familiar essayist is commonplaceness. For example, you might choose a subject like "Eating Crackers in Bed." What this subject lacks in startling novelty, it makes up in the rich trains of thought it can set in motion. You may reflect that crackers are better with salt than without, should never be stale, are made better by company A than company B, and, if used daily, may prevent softening of the gums. These, being somewhat commonplace, must all be discarded. Instead you might point out that crackers taste really good only when eaten with camel's milk under a banyan tree, that they are immeasurably improved when eaten with old English marmalade that comes in a crock, that crackers are mentioned no less than five times in the Canterbury Tales, and that the manna of Exodus, once thought to be crackers, was really a kind of alga. If crackers remind you of shooting stars, don't fail to mention it; and don't bother telling why unless you feel particularly urged to do so. Explicitness is such an insult to your readers.

If you can arrange it, slip in a moral someplace where it will not be noticed. Then your essay can be taught in English classes and still not be too jarring on your more educated public. Mythological allusions, anecdotes of the theater, or childhood reveries, where unskilfully used, are often in themselves a guarantee of your lasting fame as an essayist. They tend to show what a ready acess you have to remote parts of your mind. Above all, however, your one aim must be to make yourself unpredictable. Spend time on your more obscure points. If some bit of reminiscence strikes you as especially ineffective, you must not throw it out. Instead, enlarge on it, soliloquize, philosophize. Even readers who don't care for the essay will excuse it as whimsy. Ah! whimsy, there is the quality that you must constantly seek. And it will come so easily if you follow some of the other hints I have given.

And—one thing more—be cynical, atheistical, satirical, paradoxical, in every last essay you write; or else be sentimental, espansive, nostalgic, and pollyanna-ish: choose your mask and then wear it. A word of caution: if you choose to write in the former style, you choose the hard road, for then you must use conscious thought and effort, as well as subtlety and intelligence, in every essay you write. At the same time your work will stand no greater a chance of success.

To demonstrate my idea, I have chosen a short and admirable essay by that dean of essayists, Hal Mallet, entitled, "On Walking Upside-Down on the Ceiling." In the margins I have been at some pains to point out the various devices Mr. Mallet employs.

On Walking Upside-Down on the Ceiling

Ordinarily we are not inclined to envy flies. They spend an exceptionally short life in the most distasteful ways. Continually obliged, as they are, to dodge fly-swatters, fly-stickers, and phoebe fly-catchers (this admirable bird likes to nest under bridges and in barns; his cry sounds like "dear-me, dear-me"—one phoebe was found to have eaten fourteen hundred flies in a day), they attain a closer communion with death than most humans ever dream of. No sooner are they born than they face death.

This little digression demonstrates the author's breadth of interests.

· COMUS ·

Flies, for all their insignificance, enjoy far richer and more varied lives than humans do. They can do at least three things that humans can't. They can walk on the ceiling, they can hatch eggs, and they can die without batting an eyelash. This last attribute is especially worth enlarging on, and some day when I am well relaxed after a good meal, I shall undoubtedly take it up and write another essay on it.

Note the feeling of expansiveness that the writer conveys.

Flies, we might say, represent the seeds of grain, in the parable, that fell on stony ground. For all their richness of experience, they probably know less than twice as much as men do about life and death. No sooner are flies born than they see death, yet their minds have no interest in these important matters. So, too, only the fly is able to see the world as it really is, right-side up as he clings to the loose wall-paper on the ceiling. Only, being a liver-for-the-moment, he pays more attention to the pitcher of milk on the table below than to more serious subjects of world upheaval. Besides this, his vision is so bad that he would need one hundred and fifty-six pairs of spectacles to correct it, and his understanding would still be unaffected.

A good Biblical allusion lends a certain strength to the work.

A charming bit of satire

Here again the author shows his intellectual breadth — interest in science.

When I was a boy, I used to be endlessly fascinated by the woman in the vaudeville show who walked and jumped rope upside down. In fact, for a while my first ambition was to be a big game hunter, and my second was to be a ceiling walker. Seeing the world upside down might be a worthwhile experience, but it seems to me more likely that it would cause only a half-turn in my optic nerve. And a penny saved is a penny earned.

Note the feeling of nostalgia provoked by this beautiful passage.

This last sentence is truly the master-stroke. It is a moral laid frankly out in all its bareness, without pretense of belonging. In its peculiar position, it can not possibly be of annoyance to anyone who aims to interpret the work. Lastly, it can be completely disregarded. This is the way all morals should be.

Edward Ruhe

Night Ride

Last night the moon
Peeped out behind a silver cloud,
And trimmed the trees with tinsel
And the road with moon dust.
It would have been
So lovely
Had our glaring headlights
Not tried to compete with the moon.
You must have thought so too;
You turned them off.

Empty Halls

The halls, emptied of their teeming life, are bathed in soft yellow light, but near the windows the golden glare of late afternoon is reflected on the shining floor, mottled with the footprints of countless vanished feet.

Somewhere in the distance the choir rehearses. Otherwise there is silence.

Deserted, the long corridors hold me with the whispering spirits of years and I am reluctant to go. Ghostly greetings linger in my ears and the shadow-shrouded statues beckon to me in the fellowship of solitude.

The lockers lining the walls repose for a few hours, their doors freed from the eternal banging. Rows of vacant seats stare through locked doors. One is open.

Someone steps briskly out and passes me, scattering the silence.

Star Lullaby

The moon is stealing through the sky,
Past each slumbering star he goes.
So silently he passes by
He must be walking on his toes,
Past nodding stars on beds of blue
He will glide till day is new.

Ann O'Neill

To an Amoeba

Delicate little omoeba of white
Hiding from the drinker's sight;
Over the precipice, down the gullet,
Moving quickly like a mullet;

Hide and seek among the feed
Makes the man shaky-kneed;
Up the stomach, down the liver,
A grain of salt becomes his flivver.

Marlowe Hartung

High Winds and Colder

The storm wind whines, and
A single white sheet flaps
In a lonely back yard,
While the gargoyle of the sky
Looks down, with blue hair streaming,
Past the clouds.

The swinging street light
Points at a hiding garbage basket
With a cold white light.

Stark black chimneys
Like thin fingers
Clutch at the sullen blue sky.

Eo Tempore Cum

While the class of '41 has here recorded its own class life, the carefree life of youth, it has by no means been unaware of the portentous events happening in the world. As a matter of record we print here the changes that have taken place during our high school years—1938-1941:

March 12, 1938	Austria taken into the Reich
October 1, 1938	Sudetenland annexed
March 14, 1939	Czechoslovakia annexed
March 22, 1939	Memel annexed
Sept. 1-28, 1939	Poland engulfed
April 9, 1940	Denmark occupied
April 9, 1940	Norway invaded
May 10, 1940	Netherlands invaded
May 10, 1940	Belgium Conquered
May 10, 1940	Luxembourg conquered
June 5, 1940	France conquered
March 30, 1941	Bulgaria absorbed into the Reich
April 8, 1941	Yugoslavia conquered.
April 28, 1941	Greeks surrender

Diatons

Diatons, little living boxes,
Old as this world upon its axis
Stealing moisture every minute of the hour.
Makes damp salt turn dry.
Allows sugar to run free on the pie;
Scrapes the teeth of tartar clean;
In hot furnaces seals the seam;
Cuts corrosion from tableware,
Polishes down the livingroom stair.

All very lively at one time—
Thousands then could be placed on a dime.
Lively in moisture of many types—
Water brackish, fresh, or salty.
Contained a specie all its own.
When moisture leaves they turn to stone.
Their microscopic silicon shells hard and round,
Make special bricks, light and sound.
Round, rectangular or oval,
Refracts light just like an opal.
Collected for study by experts great
By slipping intestines from tadpoles that ate
These diatons of box-like shape.

Our Advertisers

The Staff of the Comus wishes to call the attention of the faculty and the members of the class of 1941 and their families to the following list of Allentown business men. It stands to reason that the men who advertise in the Comus are not only interested, but actively interested, in the school and in the young people who are graduated from the school. The single active return that we can make for this interest is to familiarize ourselves with these names and to patronize our advertisers, who are in this case also our friends, whenever the occasion arises.

A modern girl is one who can meet the wolf at the door and come in with a fur coat.

We'll really miss the Cafeteria friendships as well as the chow. Soup has been gargled and syphoned but, by George, we even yodeled it! What foods these morsels be!

It's darkest just before the pawn.

We'd like to know how many girls Louie Fina gets on a gallon of gas.

Jacqueline Valenteen: Whew! I just took a quiz.

Joyce Snyder: Finish?

Jacqueline: No, French!
